Peer Review Evaluation Rubric for Humanities:

Article Title:

Faculty Reviewer:

Thank you for your willingness to serve as a reviewer for ideaFest Journal. This is an important role that supports high quality research by strengthening the validity, effectiveness, and appropriateness of the text.

Please read the article carefully and address the following categories regarding the overall integrity of the manuscript:

- Clear thesis that is consistent with conclusions
- Accurate and properly supported argument
- Effective use of sources
- Clear structure and pertinent language
- Integrity of conclusions

Please provide constructive feedback. Include what the author did well, as well as what they need to improve. Address places where the meaning is unclear or ambiguous, if there are factual errors and/or any invalid arguments. The main role of the faculty reviewer is to address issues in content, so do not spend time on grammar or spelling unless it affects the clarity of meaning. The author will benefit most if you bring your particular experience and expertise from your field and provide valuable perspectives and suggestions.

Please let us know if you have any questions,
