We hope that you enjoyed perusing the amazing work of HSU students, faculty and staff and the wonderful community partners that provide a space for students to engage in these experiences.

Every year, HSU sends more than 1000 students into the community for hands-on learning experiences. These students, together with the community partner organizations, consistently make a positive impact on our community—all while the students are applying what they have learned in their classes.

THANK YOU TO OUR STUDENT STAFF

Our amazing team of student staff brought their unique perspectives and voices to this project and the magazine is stronger for it. In addition to writing and editing articles, they helped create processes that will make the production of this magazine run more effectively in the future. Thank you so much for your insight and dedication - you are an inspiration and an invaluable part of the team!

THANK YOU TO KELLIE JO BROWN

All uncited photographs were taken by Kellie Jo Brown, photographer for HSU's Marketing and Communications Department.

THANK YOU TO AARON LAUGHLIN

We would like to thank Aaron Laughlin, HSU Press Student Assistant, who created the layout and design for our fall 2020 issue of Redwood Roots. We are ever grateful for your ingenuity, patience, and thoughtfulness in designing Redwood Roots!
