HSTC Rooter, November 27, 1929

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.humboldt.edu/studentnewspaper

Recommended Citation
Please refer to the Special Collections research guide for examples of how to cite newspapers.
H.S.T.C. Rootter

H.S.T.C. vs. S.O.N.S.

A fighting bunch of Humboldt lumberjacks were unsuccessful in their invasion of Southern Oregon. Both Ashland and Humboldt were out after their second victory of the year, and Ashland got it.

Humboldt secured an early lead in the first quarter by a touchdown after a pass from Pete to Dobe and an off tackle buck by Pete.
Brandy dropped a nice one out for the point. Then Hines, the colored boy, came into the game. Shortly after he got off a fifty yard run down to within a few yards of Humboldt's goal. Ashland then put the ball over on a series of line plunges.
They kicked successfully for the conversion.

A drive by Humboldt took the ball down to the twenty yard line
where Brandy place kicked unsuccessfully. Ashland took the ball on the twenty yard line. They were moving up the field by a series of buckles and runs when the quarter ended. Ashland ran the ball down to scoring distance and shoved
it over.

Humboldt received and started goalward when Pederson fumbled a lateral but recovered. Then Humboldt kicked. Stringfellow intercepted an Ashland pass and our team started again. A pass Pederson to Paul Clary, brought them inside the ten yard line, but a twenty-five yard penalty made it impossible to score. The half was ended with out further score.

Humboldt started down the field toward Ashland's goal. Ashland took the ball away from them and started up the field. They crossed the goal by means of a pass and a running attack. A pass after the touchdown failed to convert.

Ashland scored again in the fourth quarter due to the brilliant runs of Gallo. They converted, making the score 27-7 in favor of the Siskiyoun.

Dance to Ken Hills Orchestra
at the Whisman Dance December 23, 1929.

College Regrets Loss of Student.

The students of Humboldt regret the loss of Dick Derby, who has left school this week. He states that he is going to work for a month before going to Chicago where his brother lives. He will probably return to Humboldt next fall.

Dick has been a prominent member of the football squad, and of the board of control. His position as business manager of the Rootter, will be filled by George Gregory.

Popular H.S.T.C. Student Injured In Basketball!!!!

Herb Inskip received a bad floor burn last week during his gym period. The injured part has become infected and Mr. Inskip has had to go to the doctor several times to prevent blood poisoning.
Dr. Jenkins reports that his patient is doing nicely.

Friends will kindly omit flowers as Mr. Inskip always gets hay fever.

Former H.S.T.C Student Killed

Frank Acorn, a former Humboldt student was killed when he fell from a monorail in the Korbel lumberyard. Acorn pitched on the College baseball team in 1927.

Our Turkey.

We've go somethin' in our yard,
Which to look at isn't bad.
It's big and brown, a lookin' proud Puffed up and talkin' loud.

But our turkey won't be feeling so good soon,
When he's bain' carved up at noon.
Could I just can't wait
To see him restin' on my plate.

M.L.K.
THE FIRST FLAG THAT FELL OVER CALIFORNIA.

In 1542, Vasco Núñez de Balboa, walked out to the Pacific Ocean and claimed that the ocean and all the lands that it washed would belong to the King and Queen of Castile, Leon, and Aragon. The other men in the nation at this time did not, however, recognize the claim as valid.

Twelve years later, lower California, supposed to be an island, was claimed by Cortez.

Twenty-nine years to the day that Balboa planted his flag, Cabrillo placed the royal standard of Spain on the shore of Alta California. Theoretically, that flag can be said to have remained in California until 1822 at which time Mexico revolted and declared its independence of Spain.

Alto-Alta California was claimed by Spain, no actual settlement was made for nearly two centuries and twenty-seven years. In 1769, however, a party of soldiers and settlers "laid camp."

The Spanish flag actually waved over Alta California from that date until the day of the independence of Mexico—fifty-three years.

---

DESTRUCTION

Dealthlike silence hovered in the air! An ominous premonition of dread seemed to be spread over all. Stifling, ghastly silence! What was surrounding us with pent up, hidden danger? Hammering at our very brains—Danger! Danger! Danger! The impressiveness of it all—the horror! On what uncertainty! Why wasn't there a living creature in sight? It was as if we had been transported to the region of the dead—cold and clammy—a feeling of grayness enveloped us in a cloud. Wave upon wave the chill came upon us.

And suddenly a light, shining red—like a light on a phantom ship! It swayed among untraveled ways, spinning dizzy, unknown to fame, from side to side as if under an evil spell. At least we had someone to follow through the fog.

---

Poem written by a high school girl, THE MORON TURNS.
SPORTS

INTERCLASS BASKETBALL STARTS
AFTER THANKSGIVING

A series of girls' basketball games will be played at Burniefield after the Thanksgiving holidays. The first game of the season will probably be between the Upperclass girls and the Freshman girls. The Upperclass team has elected its captain, Miss Louise Wright, who is a very good player and capable of choosing a strong team. The Freshman captain will be Miss Hazel Christensen who is also on the varsity team.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT

The upperclass hockey girls practice between 6:00 A.M. and breakfast! Believe me, any freshman who gets any done on them surely "pays it. What won't people do for revenge? Don't miss the hockey game—that is, if the freshman accept the challenge.

CONGRATULATIONS, LUMBERJACKS

Right here and now, the Booster wishes to do a little yelling for H.S.T.C.'s football team. We may safely say that when we entered on our collegiate schedule, the team supported the schedule better than the student body. Due credit is given to the members of the student body who worked to make it a success. However, the team was the center of attraction, and consequently felt the losses more keenly than those not participating. They have put up a good fight, against great odds, and although they have lost the majority of the games, they have won the esteem of the members of the student body, and of the community, for carrying their program through to the very last minute of the last game.

Congratulations, Lumberjacks, we're proud of you.

UNATTAINABLE

"Who is that tall and handsome girl?
"The girls in raptures cry.
"If he would only glance my way,
"With sheer joy would I die."

But all their hopes are blighted
By this strong and ruthless Tartar.
How De Martini from up the river
Sweares no girl shall get his heart.

-Cleopatra-

YOOF'S

Pansy: I hear Aileen invented spike heels.
Lorraine: How come?
Pansy: Herb was continually kissing her on the forehead.

Public opinion to the contrary, the college graduate's B.S. does not stand for Bond Salesman.

Grace P.: What can you see in Ed?
He doesn't like sport, smoking, drinking, eating----
Helen M.: Ah, but he likes me!

Dr. Schilling: (trying to explain the word theft) Now, Ray, if I put my hand in your pocket and took out a nickel, what would I be?
Ray Clary: A magician.

"Here's a pretty one," said the clerk at the stationery counter, "To the only girl I ever loved."
"Fine," exclaimed Rollo Guthrie, "I'll take six of those."

K Duffy: Why the tears, honey.
Fae Clark: Those ain't tears, those are liquid cuss words.

"Get out, black boy."
"Handy yo' might jes' as well tell a volcano to sizzle."

"Six of those..."