COLLEGE DEFEATED BY HI

The Eureka High seemed to have conclusively proved their superiority over the Humboldt quintet last night in a game rather devoid of thrills because of its one-sidedness. The High boys showed all kinds of class, but the College boys--well, the score was 41-11 and we didn't win.

Bill Tuckey while in the game, seemed to be able to keep up with the fast stepping High quintet. Ben Marshall also showed up pretty well, but being new to the squad didn't know the rest of the boys very well. Ed Nash rather consistently out-jumped the College and made several nice ringers too.

UKE CLUBS FORMED.

Since everybody is getting ready for Lyceum the girls capable of playing Ukes have gathered together and started practicing. The meetings are held at noon under the supervision of the two group leaders, Mickey Stewart and Ella Woolner.

LITERATI

The next meeting of Literati will be held Thurs., Feb. 20. Some thing new, novel, and interesting is promised by Carl Cooperrider who will have charge of the program. Anyone who is interested watch bulletin board for particulars.

VALENTINE DANCE AT NOON!!

Under the auspices of the College Civic Club the entering Freshman are to be entertained by a dance given at noon Friday, in the College gymnasium.

Everyone is welcome.....

SWEETMAN'S RETURN FROM ARIZONA

Dr. and Mrs. Sweetman returned to Arcata Tuesday morning from Tempe, Arizona, where they had been for the past week.

W. L. L.

All girls who wish to join W.L.L. come to the banquet tonight at 5:30. This means old members too. The banquet will be 50¢ and the dues are 50¢. It is going to be a sport party, so dress and be prepared accordingly. After the banquet in the social unit, initiation will take place in the gym. Any girl of this college is eligible to join, the only requirements being plenty of pep and willingness to help keep W.L.L. active and going full speed. Miss Herron gave a pep lecture at the last meeting. Now just watch W.L.L. blossom out like a spring flower.

Don't forget the time...5:30

Don't forget the date...2/13/30

Don't forget the place..Social unit

Don't be late.....this means YOU!!

COLLEGE GIRLS WILL PLAY BAY CITY SL

The Humboldt State Teachers college basketball team will meet the San Francisco Girls Athletic Club team on February 21 and 22.

Coach Laura Herron announced that the present plan called for two game series with the invaders, the contest to be played as preliminary games to the Humboldt State vs. Southern Oregon Normal varsity basketball games, scheduled on dates already named. One game will be played in the Arcata High School gym and the other in the Eureka High School Gym.

NATIONAL GUARD UNIT TO BE FORMED.

If enough enthusiasm is evident an infantry unit of the National Guard will be organized in Eureka. Several college men are expected to join. The unit will consist of one company, sixty men, under the direction of Lieutenant L.E. Valentine.

PIPE DOWN!!

If the boys must use profanity in the locker room, they will confer a great favor by taking cognizance of the fact that there are several offices below them, and lowering their voices accordingly. Swearing is really a useless habit and is getting to be an effeminate practice anyway. If one's speech is so dull that he must embellish it with profanity, he had best not speak. An ability to swear is not a very intellectual achievement, but rather shows an ignorance of more fastidious methods of expressing oneself.

IN THE SPRING

The school seems to be getting Collegian minded. That's splendid. One can scarcely walk without falling over ukelele players, saxophonists, tap dancers, or tumblers. S'all right. If our classes are disrupted and our studies disturbed we at least have the assurance that the college is alive. The more that strive for berths on the Collegian troupe, the better the performance will be. The Collegian tour is a wonderful opportunity to show one's talent and no gifted person should miss this chance.

Customer: Last week I bought a tire cover from you, and now I want my money back.

Clerk: Why?

Customer: I put it on one of my tires and hadn't driven ten miles before the blamed thing wore out!

Co-ed (at baseball game): Oh, look we have a man on every base!

Another Co-ed: That's nothing, so has the other side.

LITERATI

Literati had a most delightful surprise at the first meeting of the semester last Thursday. Lenita Jewett, former president, who has not been with us for some time, was present and presided over the first part of the meeting and introduced the new officers, after which she turned the meeting over to Harry Bell, the new president. Mr. Bell made a few remarks and suggestions on the future of the organization which are going to prove helpful. The group then adjourned to the social unit where the members enjoyed the following program: Harmony by Val Lee and Virginia McMillan; vocal solo, in costume, Josephine Dolfini, accompanied by Marm Kay; selection by the "Banjo King", George Gregory; reading by Leona Beebe; vocal solos by Mrs. Ostrander, accompanied by Mr. McGinity; special solo "Sweetheart, we need each other", dedicated to Harry Bell and sung by Josephine Dolfini. After the program refreshments were served. There were several new members present.

VALENTINE BOX TO BE HELD

Last Tuesday morning an interesting session of the French class was held in Room 13. Plans for Valentine's Day were made. Joe Stringfellow moved that the class have a Valentine Box, the motion was discussed by Herb Inskip, Miss Jewett, and Karl Cooperrider, and eventually seconded by Lorene Barnum. The motion passed unanimously. Mr. Gattelain decided that all valentines had to be hand-made or not exceed 1¢ in price. Glenn Waldner objected on the grounds that he had some that were sent to him last year that he wanted to use, and they cost more than 1¢. After a serious debate the class voted to allow Mr. Waldner to use his valentines. Holcom, and Cob McMillan were appointed a committee of one to decorate the valentine box. Lucinda Parr applied for the position of postmaster. C. Millote objected on the grounds that he had bigger feet. Mr. Millote's objections were over-ruled. Hazel Mackley demanded that the class furnish transportation to the dorm for her valentines. The request was granted, Melvin Pinkham being instructed to transport the valentines. Further details will be given afterwards.

If you are caught red-handed, be nonchalant--tell 'em you eat your

The Humboldt Lumberjacks downed the Eureka Hi school five last Wednesday evening in a fast, hard fought game, by one point. This was the High school's first defeat of the season. The final score was 26 to 25.

The high school jumped into the lead when they scored a free shot in the last of the fourth quarter. The score was 25 to 24 with less than half a minute to play. Telonicher sent in Wrigley at center, telling him to get the tip off. The ball was thrown up, Wrigley batted the ball to Hogan who heaved it to Toddy Thomas. Toddy tossed it thru the loop with but three seconds to spare, winning the game by 1 point. Toddy was high point man with 15 points. Marshall, a new Humboldt player, showed up well at guard, as did Waldner.

YOURS 'TIL

Harry B. knocks out Brandy.
Helen Madsen slaps Ed Nix.
Anne D. is as tall as Cobb.
Leo Sullivan teaches ballet dancing.
Herb Inskip gets an A in French.
Ione Hamilton is a prize fighter.
Jimmie Speirling runs a pet store.

Co-ed: What is it that has a tail,
four legs, and barks?

Re: A Dog.

Co-ed: Aw, somebody told you.

Glenn Waldner and Ella Woolner aren't such bad friends. These conversations in the library may be getting serious, who knows.

Dot Wrigley and Melvin Pinkham are certainly keen on the proposed Geology trips. Is there something back of this?

P.J. has a new piece of sheet music. It's something about "would n't it be wonderful to come home to you"? The piece was a donation from one of her boy friends. We wonder who.

Allan McDonald has a lucky penny. He guarantees the power of this penny to tell the correct answers to true and false questions. Now Allan, ask the penny who you were with last Saturday night.

Why does Rose Younker get such a kick out of these old fashioned dances? We hear that she was out to one last Saturday.

A VALENTINE

I took a piece of paper,
Then felt my morale skidding,
For if I wrote that Valentine
I'd likely get a kidding.

I wrote it very carefully,
And gave it to the girl
She turned a fiery color
My brain went in a whirl.

We met a few days later,
I looked the other way
Then to my great surprise, boy
I heard my baby say:

"The Valentine's a perfect dear;
Your's really awfully clever,
My folks are out tomorrow night,
Let's spend the time together."

WOULDN'T IT BE WONDERFUL?

If Pinky's mustache would turn black.
If nobody would tell Cobb Scotch jokes.
If Jimmie would open the bookstore anytime.
If somebody would persuade Rudy not to fight with Kas.
If Leo wouldn't hog the radiators.
If Evan didn't have a use.
If Val wouldn't flirt with George G.
If Ray Clary would shave at least once a week.

"Bad day for the race, isn't it?"

"What race?"

"The white race."

Herbie:
In all my life,
There's only you,
Is there a chance
That you'll be true?
-----Herbie Inskip.

Herbie dear:
There is a chance
But don't be sappy,
It's just your music
Makes me happy.
-----Dorable.

Ma cherie:
This dainty line
Expresses love
You are a light
From heaven above.
-----Clarence M.

Dainty Clarence:
I'm not so dainty,
But you can see,
You've got to setp
To rate with me.
-----Cherie.

Dearie:
Your eyes are blue,
Your lips are red,
You talk so much
Its hurts my head.
-----Lil Cobb.

Darlin' Cobb:
My dear old bean,
Your verse is slick,
And let me say
You make me sick.
-----Dearie.

Dream Girl:
I love you so,
Say, can't you see?
You've got the dough,
Please marry me.
-----Rollo

Rollo darling:
You are my dear,
But let me say,
You've got to work
To get your pay.
-----Dream Girl

Lonely Baby:
Light of my life,
Come let us go,
I'll say again,
I love you so.
-----Dave Exton

Depressing Davie:
Such raving on,
Is not a sin,
But go back home
And guess again.
-----Lonely Baby

BIG BASKETBALL GAMES WITH SPECIAL SEATING FOR WOMEN'S CLUB

Girls don't love him, and he can't get it out of a girl any a girl says "Sweetheart, we need each other."
-----Beashful Harry

Dear Beashful Harry:
The only thing you can possibly do is blush, for nowadays, anyone who has the grace to blush is sure enough pure and innocent.
Don't sacrifice your manly virtue for any brazen woman.
-----Collegiate Sal.

Dear Collegiate Sal:
There's a certain blonde girl in school who insists upon following me around, and I don't consider that delicate, especially when I prefer brunettes. How can I get rid of her?
-----Ray

Poor Pestered Ray:
Send her a valentine consisting of a plain card and this verse:
Your hair it looks like bale rope
Each eye a stagnant pool,
I don't sent you for my valentine
So please get hep, you fool.
-----Col.Sal.

Dear Collegiate Sal:
What is a good remedy for a cold?
-----Alan

Dear Allan:
Drink some whiskey; if this doesn't work, a sure cure is to hold your breath for ten minutes.
-----Collegiate Sal.

THE EDITOR'S OFFICE

Sing a song of Editors
On the Rooter's staff,
A bunch of fake reporters
Could almost make you laugh.

Pasted pictures on the wall,
Gotten by the score
And when those are all worn out
I guess they'll get some more.

There's Little Shorty Morris,
The Butterfly crawl did he.
Then there is our own P.J.
Chewing on a tree.

Of course, there's Sully at Ashland game
Oh, how he's dissipating.
A splendid one of Collegiate Sal
Al Jolson imitating.

We love our College, yes we do,
But the very best thing of all
Is "Ye Editor's Office"
With its pictures on the wall.

WORTH LOOKING AT:

Two noted students of Humboldt State were seen at school Wednesday with their front teeth badly chipped.

BOB and ROW say that they did it in tumbling, but circumstances prove that it happened in an automobile when the car went over a bump at a rather fast rate of speed.

The coroner requests that flowers be sent to the news office.

Father: Hey, youse. Where do youse think yer going?

Daughter: Aw, I was only goin' out with Mike O'Rourke. He's dat coal heaver what's got a crush on me.

Father: Dat's all right, kid. I t'ought youse was goin' out wit one of dem college boys.

GREGORY LEAVES TOWN.

George Gregory, H.S.T.C. athlete, musician, and man about town, left her last Tuesday to go to St. Marie's, Idaho to see his mother, Mrs. Charles Gregory, who is seriously ill. Gregory will stay until his mother is well again.

BETWEEN YAWNS

They've asked me time and time again

What brings me my success,
So now I yawn and blink and stretch
And murmur, LAZINESS.

The secret of a happy life is yawning at defeat--

Just waving worry right on by
And sleeping on your feet.
A little nap each morning,
And a little nap each night,
With lots of snoozes in between
Will keep you feeling right.

You're getting Hector Whoop's advice,

You couldn't ask for more,
Don't burn the midnight oil when you

Can lay in bed and snore.
Old Triumph and Disaster will never turn your head

As long as your best can be
A nice, soft, feather bed.
So keep your breathing regular
By lying down a lot.

This interview's fatigued me, so
Please leave me to my cot.
