CAMPFIRE

Four new members joined the Campfire guardians class. They are Edity Long, Clara Taubman, Larga Harper, and Hulda Wenglein. The discussion for this week was centered around symbolism. Ethel Sweet, Louise Cronin, and Alice Heddin, exhibited and explained the significance of their Campfire head bands. On the whole it was a very interesting as well as educational hour.

LEND A HAND.

The success of the Collegians depends on more than the ability of the players to put on a good entertainment. It depends on the efforts of all of the Humboldtians to back up the show. Ye editor knows only too well the tendency of the student body to demand good results while it does nothing to help get results.

The Collegians are working and have worked hard to make a good show, and it is only fair that the rest of us see to it that they can play to good houses. No handbills or newspaper advertisements can create the same impression that an enthusiastic student can impart. Let's get behind the Collegians and boost a bit.

TROUPEURS ALL

"Once a trouper, always a trouper." That explains why we have so many of our "old timers" back on the troupe this year. These people are sacrificing a great deal of their time to work on the Collegians. That's the old Humboldt spirit!

Let's give this fellow Paul Ely a big hand. He's got a tough job ahead of him. He's to be technician, electrician, magician, and all round scapegoat for the Collegians. Paul went on the tour in this capacity two years ago, and knows his stuff.

I call my girl gravity because she is so attractive.

HOCKEY PICTURES LOST, STRAYED OR STOLEN.-----

What became of the pictures taken of the girl's hockey team last semester? There have been quite a few questions asked in regard to their whereabouts. What's the use of taking pictures if they are never to be seen?

BOOK REVIEW

The author of "Penrod" and "Penrod and Sam", Booth Tarkington, has recently written "Young Mrs. Greeley" which is dedicated to his second wife, Susanah.

I consider Aurelia Hedge the outstanding character in the book. She is an example of womanhood that may be found in nearly every town. Aurelia had daydreams, picturing herself among the important commercial personages. She had no interest at all in anything that affected general mankind unless she saw how it affected herself. She was one to complain often, and she was jealous of the Greeley's.

Stella Greeley, who was four years younger than Aurelia, always followed Aurelia's example in whatever she did or said. Stella was amiable and usually cheerful; she regarded Aurelia as her guide, counselor, and most intimate friend.

Henry Hedge was a thin, patient looking man who was always somewhat preoccupied with his own thoughts. He was considerate enough to make allowances for his wife's actions.

Bill Greeley had a broad and kindly face. He was level headed and not easily influenced. He was a man who always made a favorable impression upon all his business associates.

These four young people get into many difficulties that are very interesting to the reader. It would be wise for all young folk to read this book for they may benefit by the mistakes made by the Greeley family and the Hedge family.

Reuel: I know a lot of new tricks.

I can imitate any bird.

Fae: Fine. Imitate a homing pigeon.

First call for baseball men was made last Monday but the condition of the weather allowed nothing but indoor work.

Coach Telonicher has a wealth of material for every position except that of pitcher. With Brandy and Brantley ineligible because of practice teaching, Holm is the only man out for the position of pitcher. Holm has several years of experience to his credit and has the makings of a fine hurler.

Bill Tuohy will be out for first base. Hadley and Stronberg both experienced in High School will vie for the Keystone sack. Dobe Harrison and Benny Marshall are both trying for shortstop. Telonicher will probably have to work in a new man at third as Curry, last years third sacker, will probably not be able to play. Behind the bat, the coach will use either Delartin or George Hale.

In the outfield several men will be contesting for berths. Merriam, Patenaude, Thornton, Todd and Sullivan, have all had experience in the gardens and will be trying for a berth.

Clyde Curry has been made the manager of the team and should prove a very good one.

It is expected that this year the team will make a trip south and at present, arrangements are being made with the schools of the Bay District. The college also expects to compete with various independent teams of the country if arrangements can be made.

WRONG NUMBERS

Never shift your mouth in gear until your mind is turning over.

The first time Allan MacDonald used free air at a gas station, he blew out three tires.

H.D. YOUR SPINLOCK?

In a recent conversation, Helen McKeehan declared that Walt Monahan is much more darning at night. Eleanor Rutledge piped up that she likes men who have strength and are not too independent. "If they become independent you have to run after them", she said.

LAST MINUTE EXTRA!!!!

Harry Bell has been forced to leave school because of ill health.

Bledsoes have ordered some new stationery with the Humboldt State Teachers College insignia on the top of each sheet of paper. The paper has been posted on the bulletin board in the hall for the past week and for anyone desiring to purchase some paper they may do so at Bledsoes for $1.25.

This type of stationery has proven very popular in many colleges such as U.C. and Stanford and it is believed it will be just as popular here.

PHOTOGRAPHS CHEAP

There is a special on application photographs at the Swanlund Studio, 516 F st., Eureka, which is just across from the Rialto Theatre. They will cost only $3.00 per dozen.

BRIDGE AND WHIST PARTY TO BE SPONSORED BY THE COSMOPOLITAN CLUB

The Cosmopolitan Club will sponsor a bridge and whist party in the south end of the Commons in the near future. The proceeds will be used to complete a medicine chest which will be sent abroad for missionary use.

ART CLASSES BUSY.

For the past week the art classes of the Humboldt State teachers college have been busy designing costumes and arranging the posters to be used for the Collegians trip. This work has been under the supervision of Mrs. Little.

SEWING CLASSES WORKING ON THE COSTUMES FOR COLLEGIANS

The sewing class which consists of about a dozen girls, has been busy for the last few days making costumes for the Collegians. Cobb and Herb visited the class and proclaimed that their shirts which some of the girls were making, were dandy. Herb was much interested in the electric machine especially the little lights on them.

CONTENTMENT

If I am ever sad and blue,
And the world seems to me all wrong--
Sing not to me your gay verse
For I heed not your song.

I'll find my joy in the moonlight
Down by the wild free sea
With only the cries of the nightfowl
To break the monotony
Of the alternate roar and silence
Of the sea, as it thunders on
And there alone with the sea
and the sky
Will my cares have been vanished and gone.

Her name is Agnes Gopher
And she's to be my Mrs.
But there's one thing that's annoying me--
She doesn't gopher kisses.

REVISED HISTORY OF CALIFORNIA (continued from last week)

The new state grew so fast they had to divide it into two parts, called Northern and Southern California, and they had to put two deserts and a mountain range between them to keep them from fighting. The Celestially named city was made the capital of the southern part and the saintly named town (Sacramento) the capital of the northern part of the state.

San Francisco, in the years that followed, had a most marvelous growth, until today, taking in Berkeley, Oakland, Alameda, San Salito, Mill Valley, Petaluma, Alcatraz Island, the Farralones, it is the largest city in the state. Los Angeles, taking in the rest of the State, is still larger. In 1921 San Diego was made the 115th word of that city.

In 1853 William Hearst was born and the Barbary Coast was made an open Port. In '56 a law was passed forbidding earthquakes inside the city limits--since repealed.

California is bounded on the north by British Columbia, on the West by the Hawaii Islands, on the South by the Panama Canal, and on the east by the Dixie Highway, on the top by Heaven--that is in the daylight--after dark it has no limits.

In '57 Mr. Sutro introduced the first bathtub in the state. In '58 a barber shop was started, and the first Californian had a haircut and a shave.

San Francisco has more restaurants named for canines than any other city in the world. Seal Rocks and the St. Francis Hotel are renowned for the number of seal skins to be seen there most any afternoon.

Jimmie B--My girl has two faults.
Joe B--You and who else?

Dear Co-ed Sal:

Why do I get blamed for everything in the school?
P.J.

Dear P.J.

Don't say "everything". That is too inclusive. Why you are even accusing yourself of being blamed for the low marks some of the boys get and I know you don't mean that.

Dear Co-ed Sal:

Everyone in this college seems to have the necking craze. Do you think that necking really cheapens one? "Doc"

Dear Doc:

Don't worry about that. Even if necking does make a girl cheap there are plenty of people with Scotch blood in this college.

Dear Co-ed Sal:

Why is Leona so afraid of Mickey?
Yours,
Blooney

Dear Blooney:

There are two reasons: The first is Hullo; the second is that Mickey is bigger than Leona.
Co-ed Sal.

ANOTHER FROSH LETTER

Miss Squeel McIntire was injured the other day. Several hairs on her head were thrown out of place and she has been eating her food through a straw.

It seems as usual that there is a man in the case. The man in this one is that desperate Gordon Hadley. After the big accident was reported to the Ladies Aid, Gordon and Squeel were seen driving up to school. Squeel was viciously brushing her misplaced hairs which the doctor had put in a cast. Gordon has been very absent-minded lately--this may account for it.

The patient is doing nicely but friends are requested to kindly omit flowers.

Arnold: Why is it worse learn to swim more quickly than men?
MacGinitie: Easy. Who wants to teach a man how to swim?

ADVERTISE THE COLLEGIANS.

HERE IS THE DIRT!!!

It is firmly believed that if Clyde Curry would furnish curtains for his coupe, the Geog. class would learn more geography.

Is Edith Carlson trying to vamp our editor?

Frances Shelton and Alvin Burns were seen going for a stroll on the old Bayside road.

Jimmie Spiering is wearing out the Chesterfield at P.J.'s aunts. Does he go to see P.J.'s Aunt?

Andy Louise and Ellis Burman enjoyed the breakers at Big Lagoon Sunday.

FOUND IN THE HALL.

Dearest luff of mine heart:

How I yearn for you. My heart misses a veat every time I think of you. Fond love where are you now? How I dread waiting for the period to cease, for I shall not be able to restrain myself when I see you next period in biology--I long to hold you in my arms, and run my hands through your silky hair. But Alas, all that is gone forever now. I cannot see you next period without thinking of all the wonderful times we had together... Poor little cat, why did they have to choose you for a specimen?

Dear God, please make my little cat happy in heaven, for that is where she went. I know, because I raised her, and I'm frightfully good myself.

Yourse forever little cat,
P.J.
