A photograph of a forest path with tall trees and a poem overlay. The path is a dirt road that curves slightly to the right, leading into a dense forest. The trees are tall and slender, with thick trunks and lush green foliage. Sunlight filters through the canopy, creating dappled light on the path. The overall tone is peaceful and majestic.

*So it's onward ever Humboldt State
Forward to victory
And here's a cheer that all may hear
For the sons of H.S.C.
Fight, fight, fight, men of Humboldt State
Till the final score is told
Fight with the valor of her forest green
For the glory of her sunset gold*

SEMPERVIRENS

Humboldt State College has more lives than a cat. Born in Sacramento almost forty years ago, the College lives what we might call its corporate life amid the committee and the conference rooms of the State Capitol. It is almost like being in an iron lung—for the institution could not long survive without the steady flow of the oxygen of the taxpayers' gold.

The College has a physical existence embedded, literally, in concrete, and blossoming forth in grass and flowers. It would be difficult indeed to disassociate thoughts of the College from its campus, its corridors, or its classrooms—

Or its faculty! The power of a college resides in its intellectual life—its massed brains. When all the I.Q.'s are seated side by side at Humboldt State, we really have a brain trust—with a heart!

But essentially, the life of a college centers in its students, with a new incarnation every September. And each student takes unto himself as much as he can absorb of what the college has to offer. And so, our College lives one of its lives in the heart and mind of each one of its students. Some of its lives are spent in athletics, some in dramatics, some in music, some in romance, and yes, some in philosophy, or science, or practice teaching.

And all the multiple lives of the institution are brought together and recorded in the yearbook, appropriately named "Sempervirens." Because a quarter of a century ago, the students of Humboldt State Teachers College and Junior College decided to publish a yearbook, we of the 1952 incarnation can look back over the years for an intimate view of college in 1927.

The first yearbook was fortunately not called "Sempervirens." Instead, they chose to call it the "Cabrillo," in memory of that intrepid Spanish mariner who explored the California coast before the birth of Shakespeare. The name was chosen, the publication states, because of its euphony and historical significance. Perhaps the choice of a name affected the destiny of this pioneer yearbook. At any rate, there was only one "Cabrillo." But when the project of a yearbook was revived after a lapse of several years, and the name "Sempervirens" was chosen, it took on the self-perpetuating qualities of the redwood, living up to its challenging name.

And just think—most of our present students had not yet been born! And so they laugh, without remembering, at the snug bobs, at the dresses with all the formfitting qualities of a garment bag!

How are they to know that Herb Yocom has achieved a national reputation in the field of journalism, or that Elta Cartwright Stromberg won glory for herself and fame for Humboldt as world champion in the one hundred yard dash for women, and represented the United States in the Olympic Games held in Amsterdam?

In the faculty section, there are a few familiar faces—Homer Arnold, Homer Balabanis, Maurice Hicklin, Horace Jenkins, and Jessie Woodcock. Small wonder they have kept so young, with every September a new reincarnation of youth, and twenty-five Junes to bring the rewarding satisfaction of having furthered the conversion of giddy adolescents into poised adults, of merging their individual lives with the greater life of the College in all its shining facets!

And so the yearbook reminds us of the everliving spirit of youth, of the everliving devotion of instructors, of the everliving influence of our College, where a quarter of a century is as a day, and a day is eternal.

MYRTLE MCKITTRICK.

Meeting almost monthly, the College Advisory Board has assisted in the study and solution of a number of community-related problems of the college and its student body activities. The board has been instrumental in setting up an assistance budget whose funds are used for such projects and activities that cannot be entirely borne by the student-body or which cannot be paid for by the college budget. Financial aid has been made available for the news bureau, band uniforms, spring sports, training table, student entertainment for the community, the choir tour, conservation projects, partial salary of the Executive-Manager of the student body, and other worthwhile endeavors. The officers of the H.S.C. Board are: Mr. Don O'Kane, chairman, Mr. G. Edward Goodwin, vice-chairman, Mr. Chester Connick, treasurer, and Dr. Cornelius H. Siemens, executive-secretary.

FRANCIS "TOADS" STEBBINS

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS

Student government functions at Humboldt State College through an agency called the Student Executive Council of the Associated Students, headed by President Francis "Toads" Stebbins. Stebbins brings to this office previous experience in the student government field as president of his high school, and of his college class in 1949.

He is assisted by Jim Yoakum, vice-president, who is a former president of Conservation Unlimited. The Student Executive Council is composed of the former Board of Control and Student Council, and what used to be the Coördinating Council has been abolished. The group is advised by Dr. Leonard Christensen, Dean of Students, and this year hired Mr. Frank Stegall to fill the newly created position of business manager of the Associated Students. Mr. Stegall has been with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and has had much experience in the business world. Mrs. Margaret Brookins is comptroller.

Finance is perhaps their most important job, and the council is charged with the responsibility of running what amounts to a full-sized business. They must plan and supervise the budget; no expenditure of the student body is legal without their consent; they are responsible for the Student Coöperative, managed by Mrs. Vera Walter; and through their offices flow the revenue and expenditures of all the public student functions of the athletic and drama departments. To simplify procedure, this semester most of the incidental work of the council is being handled through committees, whose chairmen report to the body as a whole at the regular Monday night meetings in the Student Union.

This group has been interested in setting up a merit award system at H.S.C. and the committee on awards, headed by Al Braud and Linda MacMillan, has been classifying all awards given at Humboldt, and stimulating interest in creating new ones. The Constitution has been under study by a committee headed by Dick Harmer. Adrian Mendes and his committee have done much to help the publications and aid in the dissemination of information. One of their biggest jobs was the compiling of a student directory. These are only a few of the committee projects undertaken this year. The Student Executive Council has supported the marching band and made it possible for them to go to both Ashland and Chico during football season. They also paid part of the expenses of the rooters' bus that went to Chico. Their dance at Christmas was a highlight of the semester, and Homecoming 1951 was very successful.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

PAT BALL, JAMES YOAKUM and ALICE STOCKHOFF

James Yoakum, vice-president, presides over and organizes much of the business of the Executive Council. He is a former president of Conservation Unlimited. Alice Stockhoff, secretary, has had much experience in many student body activities, and is responsible for the minutes and their distribution. Pat Ball, treasurer, has one of the biggest jobs in student government that includes budgeting of all funds. She has served on the council in various capacities throughout her college career.

The stag line (check those hats) gets something to eat at the traditional Homecoming Bean Feed.

Gene Marks, Bill Holbrook, Mr. Walter Beaver and Harry Gift look over part of KHSC's large library of transcriptions, scripts, bulletins, etc.

The Greater Humboldt Committee meets at noon in the Executive Council room for a conference about Senior Day. Marylin Eshleman is the chairman and Dr. Stanley Spaid is the advisor

Grouped around the fishpond, the Greater Humboldt Committee is one of our most important campus organizations, aiming to help further the enrollment at Humboldt State College.

THE GREATER HUMBOLDT COMMITTEE AND ROAD SHOW

Kent Merrill, playing the part of the wall, watches the antics of Tom Turner and Gene Marks in a skit from "Midsummer Night's Dream."

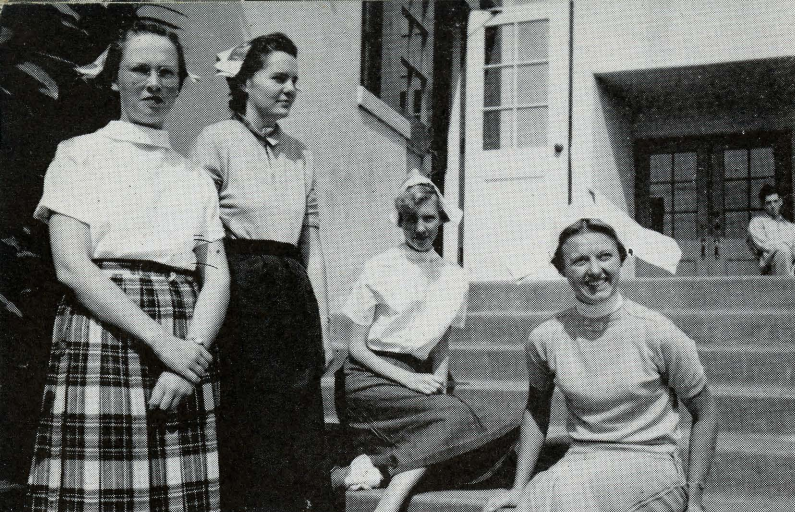

Jim Edwards, Harry Gift, Tom Turner, and Gene Marks are shown below in a scene from "The Hasty Heart," a major H.S.C. spring production. This play was not included in the Road Show which toured neighboring schools to stimulate enrollment, but typifies the fine work being carried on in our drama department.

CONSERVATION UNLIMITED

FIRST SEMESTER OFFICERS

Conservation Unlimited is the largest and one of the most active organizations on the H.S.C. campus. Composed mainly of Wildlife Management or Fisheries majors and minors and people interested in conservation, "C.U." is advised by Dr. Fred Glover and Mr. John DeWitt. The fall semester president was Joe Cranic, a transfer from San Diego State College. This club not only plans such social events as the annual party with the Home Economics girls, the annual clambake, etc., but participates in a great many public service activities in the field of conservation. This year they managed the food concession at the football games, and the Bean Feed at the Homecoming celebration. "C.U." has done much to make our Wildlife Management and Fisheries departments among the largest in the U.S.

Members of the fish management class assist the California Department of Fish and Game with salmon tagging on the Mad River, gaining experience for their future careers.

During mid-semester last spring, this group of Fisheries students with Mr. DeWitt went on a field trip to Lake County.

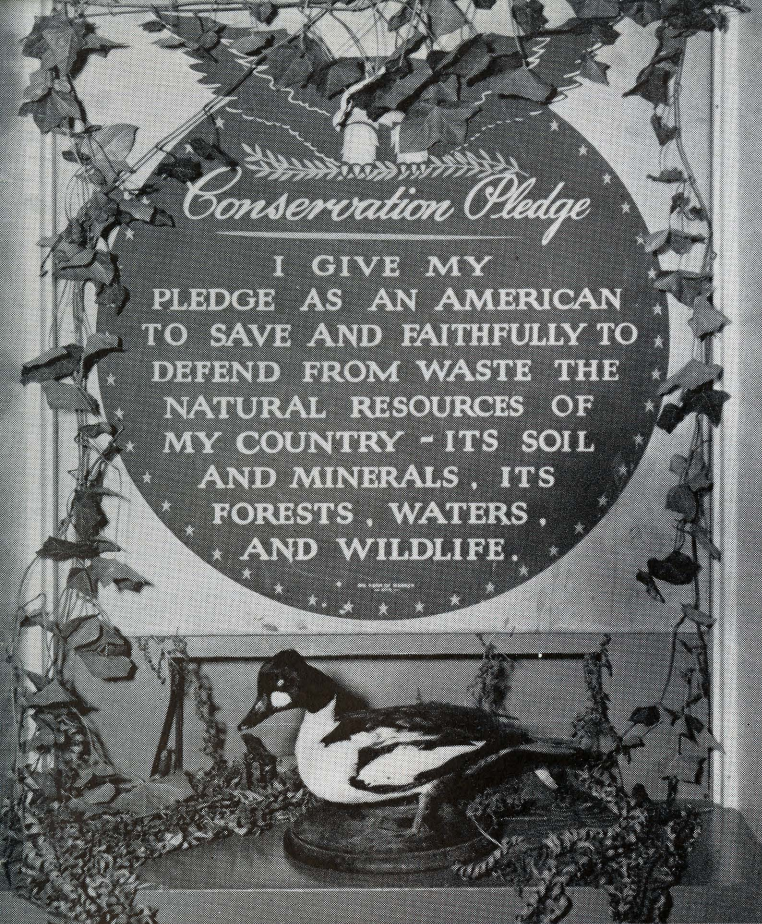

One of the activities of the fish hatchery biology class was stripping spawning salmon at Sweasy Dam on the Mad River.

Members of Conservation Unlimited take part in a stream clearance project at Grassy Creek during Conservation Week.

Mr. John DeWitt, assistant professor of biological sciences in charge of fisheries, is shown with a prize silver salmon.

A tradition of three years, the choosing of a "Sempervirens Sweetheart," has attained an honored and respected place at Humboldt State College. Our thirteen coeds are chosen from the ranks of the women of the college on the basis of glamour, facial features, and photogenic ability. To insure impartiality, it is the custom of the staff to have a nationally-known beauty expert select the winning contestant to reign as annual queen. Our first "Sweetheart," Nancy Jacobson, was chosen by Mr. John Robert Powers, owner of the internationally-famous Powers Model Agency of New York, and our 1951 winner, Kris Brown, was selected by Mr. John Whitcomb, illustrator for such popular magazines as "Cosmopolitan," "Ladies' Home Journal," and "McCall's" of Connecticut. Mr. Harry Conover, owner of the Conover Model Agency of New York, graciously consented to choose the 1952 recipient, and conferred the honor upon Jackie Ambrosini, freshman from Korbel. The staff of the "Sempervirens 1952" wishes to extend their sincerest congratulations to Miss Ambrosini. . . Humboldt State's glamour girl of the year

During the last four years the staffs of the "Sempervirens" have been concerned with building an annual of which Humboldt State College can be proud, an annual that compares favorably with its contemporaries and one which answers the needs of our hilltop school. The book has grown from a 60-page edition to 124 and from a 200 circulation to one of 700 copies. The "Sempervirens Honor Awards" and the "Sempervirens Coronation Assembly" have become part of Humboldt tradition. The senior members of the staff wish to thank those who have done so much to make this building program possible and to the members of the staffs, during my three years of editorship, I extend my sincerest thanks for a job well done. Our very best wishes go to your new 1953 editor, Verdine Waight, and may this annual continue to be published in a tradition of quality

This department regularly presents a series of one-act plays throughout the entire year, produces the road shows for the Greater Humboldt Committee, plans and stages the annual Northern California Drama Festival, furnishes entertainment for community organizations, publishes a drama news sheet called "Stage and Studio", and presents two major studio productions in the fall and spring, coöperating with the music department to produce in addition a musical offering. This year's studio productions included "The Hasty Heart," and "Hedda Gabler." The 1951 spring musical production was "H.M.S. Pinafore." Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatic honorary society, and the Drama Club are the two drama organizations on campus.

HEDDA GABLER

Ibsen is an artist of distinction, a master of dramatic technique. Ibsen is generally ranked second to Shakespeare in importance and ability in the field of drama. Since Ibsen is concerned with ideas rather than with story, his art disdains the spectacular. His subject is the INNER life, not the outer; and the bustle and confusion of the older stage could but distract attention from the true center of his interest, the soul of man.

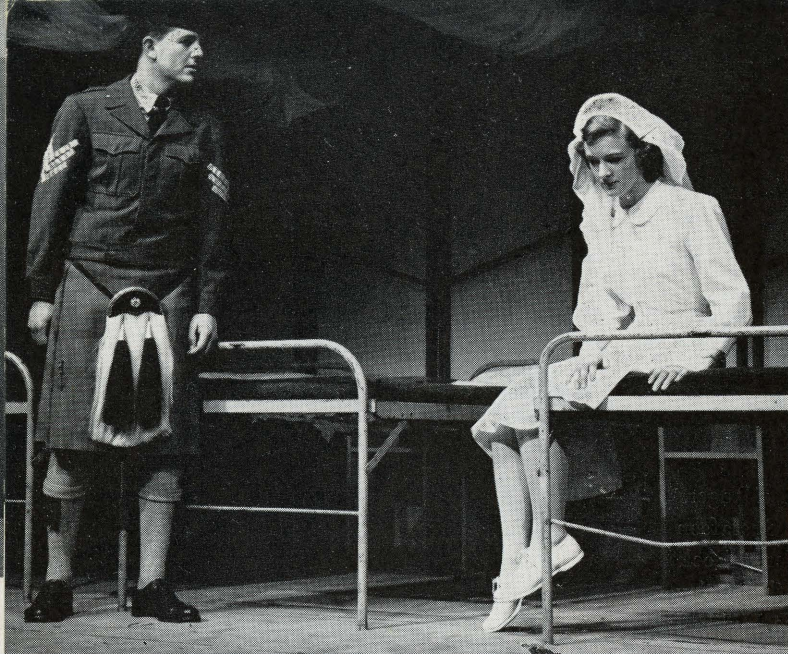

It is this soul at a crisis that he portrays.

FOOTBALL

Our new Lumberjack coach, Phil Sarboe, not only has had a successful record as a football mentor, but was a star college and professional athlete. Now in his fifteenth year of coaching high school and college teams, he was an outstanding halfback in his own playing days at Washington State College where, after three seasons with the Chicago Cardinals and serving as a high school coach in his native Washington and as coach at Central Washington College of Education, he returned in 1945 to become head football coach at his alma mater. During five seasons Sarboe's Cougars won 17, lost 11, and tied two against opposition in the Northern Division of the Pacific Coast Conference. His teams finished in the upper division of the P.C.C. in 1945 and 1948. Arriving at H.S.C. in January, 1951, Sarboe coached the spring sports and served as the basketball coach in the 1951-1952 season.

LUMBERJACKS PLACE SECOND

In Far West Conference

4 VICTORIES — 3 DEFEATS — 1 TIE

OWLS ARE 'JACKS' FIRST VICTIMS, 19-12

Humboldt State College opened the 1951 season with a win over the Owls from Oregon Technical School at Klamath Falls, 19-12, gaining their first victory in two years. Freshman Bob Eggers at right end scored the first touchdown, catching a deflected pass and running 51 yards. Eldon Watts added the point from placement. Later in the first quarter, quarterback Dennis Kinser rifled a pass from his own 47-yard line to Jerry Schroeder for another score. The 'Jacks gained their final six points in the third quarter by another pass play from Kinser to Schroeder covering 37 yards. The Owls' two touchdowns were scored on passes.

LUMBERJACKS TIE LINFIELD, 20-20

An underdog Lumberjack eleven came back twice to earn a tie with Linfield College of McMinnville, Oregon, in a game marked by good defensive play and passing for most of the scores. After Linfield had tallied from the five, a Kinser to Schroeder pass covered 85 yards to tie the score. In the second period the 'Cats led again following a 45-yard march to 7 points. In the same quarter Dennis Kinser passed to Bob Eggers in the end zone, with Louis Simas adding the point. After Linfield scored again, Kinser rifled to Wallace in the end zone, and the extra point was blocked.

CHICO STATE DOWNED 36-0

Picking up steam, the Lumberjacks crushed Chico State College at Chico, and brought home the coveted axe. Bob Girsback scored the first of six H.S.C. touchdowns from the 26-yard marker through center in the first quarter. In the third period halfback Dick Stacy powered over from the five, not long after Garcea had thrown to end Bob Dunaway who ran 60 yards to tally. Jerry Garcea made it four on a pitchout from the one-yard line and soon added another six points when he took a running 55-yard pass from Kinser on the Chico 45-yard line and ran on to score. Humboldt's final score was in the fourth quarter on a pitchout to Ray Koziuk from the seven-yard line.

FIRST GREEN AND GOLD DEFEAT, 27-13

The Cal Aggie team from Davis, with a hard-charging Mustang line, prevented the Staters from launching their passing attack, but the H.S.C. line played well on defense. Three of the winner's scores came on passes. Jerry Garcea provided consolation in this Homecoming defeat by throwing a 27-yard pass to end Richard Harris in the third period to tally for the first time. In the fourth, Garcea passed to Glenn Wallace from the seven for another score. Bob Kezsely added the extra point. The Homecoming throng numbered over 5,000.

LOCALS LOSE TO E N M U , 19-6

A fighting Lumberjack team bowed to a fine eleven, the Greyhounds from Portales, New Mexico, conference champions of the New Mexico Conference from Eastern New Mexico University. Wilson, E.N.M.U. end, intercepted a pass on his 27-yard line and ran 80 to score. Dennis Kinser completed an 18-yard pass to Schroeder to score for H.S.C. two minutes before the half. A third quarter punt fumbled by H.S.C. and recovered by the visitors was good for another E.N.M.U. score. Midway in the fourth quarter the Silver Pack put together line plunges for a 45-yard march for the final touchdown of the evening.

DUCKLINGS EDGE 'JACKS, 14-13

Our H.S.C. gridders spotted the University of Oregon Jayvees 14 points before they went into action to give 3,000 fans a thrilling football show. The Ducks from Eugene, Oregon, scored the first time they got the ball. The touchdown play was a 19-yard pass over the middle. The kick was good. Seventeen plays took them to another tally with the try for point good. The H.S.C. Paul Bunyan boys came to life and Eggers tackled Oregon quarterback Holland in the end zone who fumbled, and Ray Lorenzen recovered to score for Humboldt. Simas kicked the point. Garcea scored a short time later and the try for point was wide of the goal posts.

HILLTOPPERS OVER CAL POLY, 33-0

The 'Jacks outclassed the Cal Poly eleven from San Dimas, 33-0 in the final home game at Redwood Bowl. Approximately 3,500 fans witnessed Humboldt State's third victory. Twelve plays after the opening kickoff Jerry Schroeder threw a pass to halfback Ray Koziuk for a touchdown with Louis Simas kicking the extra tally, the first of three successful placement kicks. Before the end of the half, end Glenn Wallace caught a pass in the end zone. Schroeder propelled the third score on a run from 14 yards out. Later in the game, Bob Girsback went around end from the four-yard line to score. The final touchdown was set up on a pass from Stacy to Garcea, with Keith Darling crossing the striped line from the five.

RED RAIDERS VANQUISHED, 37-6

In the first bad weather of the season and the final game, the Hilltoppers smothered Southern Oregon College of Education at Ashland, Oregon. Early in the first period fullback Keith Darling scored from the four. In the second quarter Dennis Kinser sneaked over for the second touchdown. Bob Kezsely passed to Ray Mechals for the point. S.O.C. scored in the same period. In the third, Jerry Garcea snagged a Red Raider pass and ran 55 yards to paydirt. Ken Gipson set up another six pointer in the fourth on an intercepted pass with Garcea scoring. Dunaway snared another on the 15-yard line and ran 85 yards to score. Sub halfback Tim Corrigan barreled over for the final in the closing minutes.

THE LUMBERJACK BAND

Our H.S.C. band turned in a stellar performance, part of which was the trip to Ashland, Oregon, where they are pictured playing in the stands.

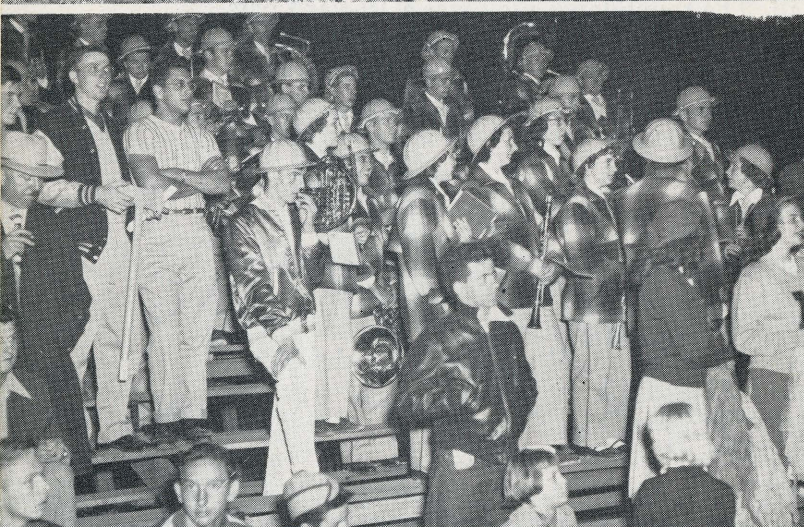

The most outstanding formation during football season was the "falling" redwood tree that the majorettes "felled."

Student body and band members stand up at Chico, the first band performance off campus, as our team rolls on to capture the axe.

"Charlie" and the band pose for a pre-game snap, preparatory to marching out of the gym and onto Redwood Bowl turf.

"So It's Ever Onward Humboldt State" resounds in all corners of the stadium as the band passes under the goal posts.

Majorettes Rita Lou Bertain, Mary Rowe, and Jackie Stein in their green and gold uniforms in front of the Student Union.

SKI ADVENTURE

Rex Pryer and fellow Ski Club members get ready to take the ski lift to the top of the course.

These Humboldtters agree that there's nothing like food after a hard day's skiing.

This group is relaxing, with boots and coats hung up, inside the Ski Lodge, while Willy Gredagin watches the stove.

Humboldt students, like this group, flock to the mountainous areas of Humboldt County only a few hours' drive from the college, to take advantage of the winter sports.

One of the many recent improvements is the handy ski lift which increases the pleasure by saving the long walk up the hill.

The "gang" outside the Humboldt State Ski Lodge, built through the inspiration of Dr Lanphere, and improved throughout the years by each successive Ski Club. This year's president is senior Jim Palmer

LUMBERJACK SPORTS

Mr. Elwood Sturdivant's freshmen physical education class plays basketball and volleyball inside the main gymnasium. Other department instructors include Mrs. Hermie Johnson, Mr. Phil Sarboe, director of athletics, and Mr. Birger Johnson.

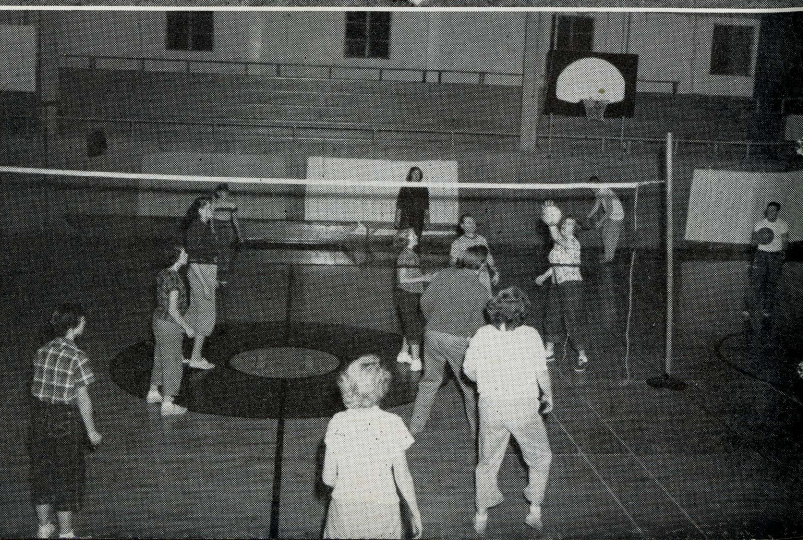

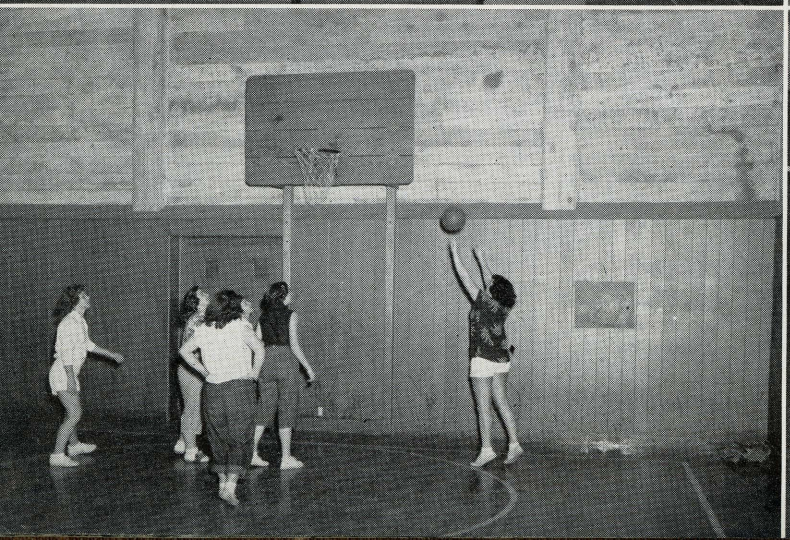

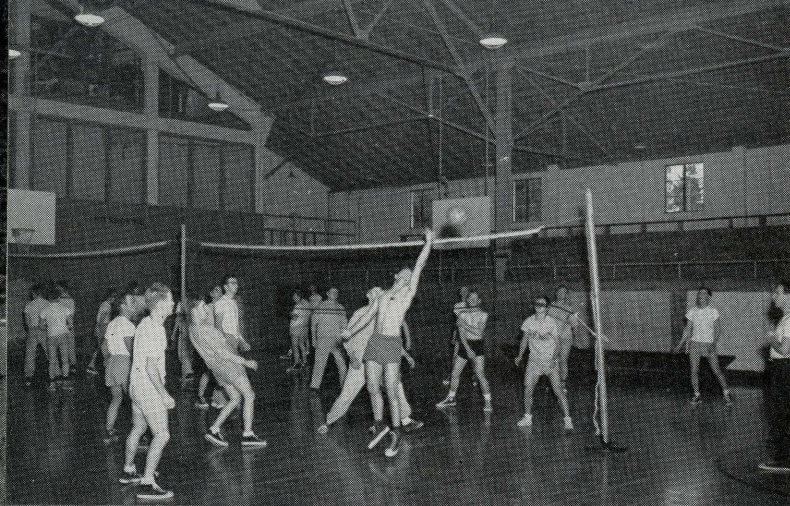

Mrs. Johnson's class in archery practices in the quonset hut.

Co-recreation night usually finds many faculty members and students at the "gym," like this group who are playing volleyball.

These girls won the baseball championship in the spring of 1951. All belong to the Women's Athletic Association.

The Nelson Hall girls' basketball team practices for the intra-mural competition. Both a boys' and girls' intra-mural program is offered at H.S.C.

Another shot of the "co-rec" volleyball game, only one of the many "co-rec" activities that include all types of dancing.

1950-'51 BASKETBALL

Consisting predominantly of freshmen players the Green and Gold Varsity basketball team of Humboldt began practice in earnest after Thanksgiving holidays determined to improve on the record of last year's club, which failed to win a single game in 17 starts.

The 1951-52 aggregation wound up its season at the close of February with 7 wins in 24 games and in a tie with Southern Oregon College for third place in the Far West Conference, each with three wins and nine losses. Loss of two players by scholastic ineligibility hurt the Jack chances. Chico State College and California Aggies shared the Conference laurels with records of nine and three in the four-team loop.

For Coach Phil Sarboe in his first year as basketball coach, it was an important step forward in a rebuilding basketball program. All of the regular H.S.C. quintet will return next winter to give the Lumberjack cagers valuable intercollegiate experience for the new campaign.

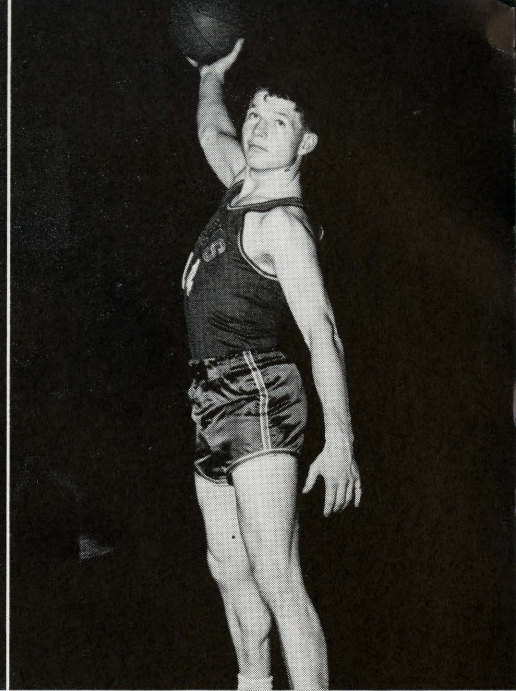

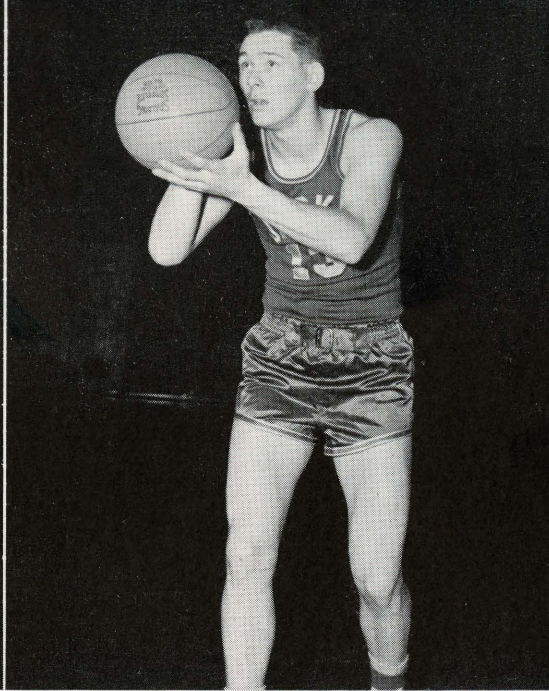

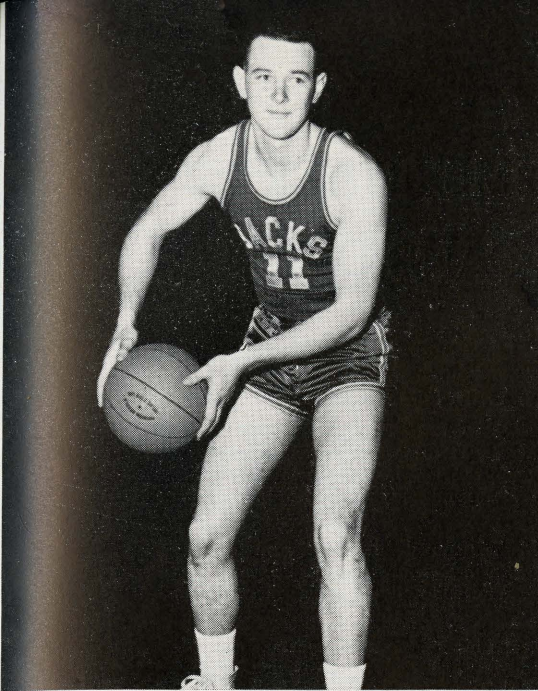

Pushing them for berths on next year's team will be many players from the College Junior Varsity five coached by Birger Johnson. The Jayvees were well-known this past season for their fighting spirit in games with fine high school teams of the area.

SECOND ANNUAL "SNO-BALL"

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Siemens attended the "Sno-Ball" as honored guests of the student body

Blanche Evans and Roy Hilburn performed an exhibition dance as part of the entertainment.

These carolers, led by Mr. Barlow sang festive Christmas music in keeping with the winter theme.

Nelson Hall was beautifully decorated for the dance, which was very successful. Some of the students who attended can be seen below

Jim Edwards and Carla Travis, Roy Hilburn and Blanche Evans are two of the couples that relaxed at the tables and enjoyed the buffet.

Lee Oberti and Bob Olsen as Raggedy Ann and Andy in the "Camel With the Wrinkled Knees."

CAMPUS CAPERS

Our Lumberjack band marches in the "Big Trees" parade before its Eureka premiere.

Miss Delta Hogue and Mrs. Myrtle McKittrick received this year's honorary staff memberships at the "Sempervirens Coronation Assembly"

The Spokes, an H.S.C. women's organization, put some of their new pledges through an initiation.

Humboldt State College's attractive float was one of the outstanding features of the "Big Trees" parade, and carried a bevy of beautiful campus queens.

ON THE HILL

King and Queen of the Mardi Gras voted from the ranks of the faculty by student club representatives, were J N McIntyre, who came as an animal trainer and Kate Buchanan, complete with padding for her fat lady role.

Seven H.S.C. lettermen pose for our cameraman in their new jackets and sweaters.

Late in the evening of the Third Annual Popera, the dancers found the populace on the floor thinning out. Excellent music was furnished free by the 17 piece all-star orchestra, musicians Local 333

Best costumed couple at the Mardi Gras was Dan White as a yellow-faced bug and Linda MacMillan as the sad-faced clown.

Pistol River State Teacher's College sent their band to perform at the Popera. In their first year of concert performances, this group is composed of business men of Humboldt County

King of the Popera was Jerry Smith on February 22 at the Eureka Municipal Auditorium. The Inter-collegiate Knights form the honor guard. In the background members of the royal court are on the steps.
