Whether in-person or virtual, every year over 1000 HSU students participate in community-based learning, reinforcing their understanding of their curriculum by connecting concepts to real world scenarios while serving community needs. We thank you for taking the time to learn about the wonderful ways in which our HSU students, faculty and staff, and local community partners have collaborated to grow deeper connections between classroom and community.

Share Your Story and Get Published
Help us celebrate community engagement at HSU and get published in Redwood Roots Magazine. We are looking for personal reflections, digital stories, creative projects and articles that celebrate your experiences in the community. Submissions can be individual, as a group, or even as a whole class. For more publication information, please visit ccbl.humboldt.edu/redwood-roots.

Thank You to the Student Marketing Center

We thank the HSU Student Marketing Center (SMC) for their work and communication with our team in creating our new logo. The logo is everything that we desired to represent our magazine due to the care and efforts of the SMC team. Special thanks to Student Marketing Center Coordinator Mona Mazzotti and Graphic Designer Andrew Russell for their work and communication with us. Our team is proud to present our new logo to the campus and community.
