Men's Association To Sponsor Dance After Chico Game

Humboldt Men's Association is sponsoring the first afterschool dance Saturday night, October 18, after the Chico game. Dancing is scheduled from 10:30 p.m. until 12:30 a.m. in the clubhouse of the Eureka Women's Club. Admission has been set at 50 cents per couple, and 25 cents per single. Len Longholm, Men's Association president, has announced that the Chico players will attend the dance, and he hopes Humboldt students will also attend "to make and first football dance as successful as these dances have been in the past."

The position of assistant editor is also open, but one semester's experience is not required. Charles Moore is Business Manager and Chasbee Pedley is yearbook photographer. BIG RALLY, BEAN FEED FRIDAY NIGHT

"Hear Ye, Hear Ye!—Oh yes, on yes, and oh yes, the Annual Bean Feed and Rally is finally going to be held Friday night. Oh ladies, you are invited to our Rally Hall!" Things will start booming at 6 p.m., when the red hot jam session to open the program. Sutherland's musical aggregate consists of Claude Girard, pianist from Eureka; Chico, casual clarinetist from Eureka; and Stan Roscoe, trombone. Versatile Roscoe will render songs and imitations from Lowa Bland, Siret, Len Link, and Mauk, who will present a jitterbug number entitled "Blitzy's Wiggled." Plus much more! The Bean Feed will be followed by a serpentine and rally in downtown Arcata and Eureka, led by the HSC Pep Band.

If Tuesday's Freshman Initiation is any criterion, the Freshman class seems 200-odd strong, has plenty of howling spirit this year—and the Pre-game rally is the place to see it. Incidentally, there will be a Pigtail in the Powder Plate.

A Cappella Choir To Sing for Redwood Empire Meeting

The Humboldt State A Cappella Choir will sing for the Redwood Empire Association at the Eureka Inn on Friday, October 17. They will sing two numbers: Ave Maria, from the Seventeenth Century, and an English madrigal, Mother I Will Have a Husband. This is the earliest in the season the choir will have performed. The choir has been practicing only for three and one half weeks.

STAN ROSCOE

Above is pictured Stan Roscoe, Junior student, who wrote an editorial on "WHY NO BEAN FEED AND RALLY BEFORE THE GAMES!"—so they made him Rally Chairman. Roscoe personally urges all Humboldtians to "eat plenty of beans at the pre-game rally Friday night, make the rooting section a solid block at the game, and plan to attend the after-the-Chico-game-dance Saturday night in Eureka." Roscoe was appointed by the Executive Council last week.

Vivienne Nelson, St. Rita Raus, Ilene Jensen, Alice Wilkerson, Ruth Segal, Pat Dil- lon, Pat Bartlett, Jane Bolger, Ellen Hurlbutt, Mary Acherson, Alta Fulton, Phyllis Gray, Zelma Woodcock, Jane Morrow, and Margery Clooney compose the core council.

Hilarious Spirit Reigns During Fresh Initiation

BY BARBARA BIRD

"I'll bet there are plenty of them freshmen class, moon-bathing crew though they were yesterday during initiation. It is admitted that faces and forms were at times unrecognizable as the girls appeared in clown minis, all make-up, stockings, wearing alippers, hair-nets, hair-curlers and dresses wrong-side-out."

TRANSFORMATIONS

Transformations were equally startling when the men were examined by overbearing sophs, Lipstick rouge, and mascara produced unbelieveably lovely mascara visages, while many a shapely male calf was revealed when pants were rolled above the knee.

Before the assembly (at which the initiation peaked its peak), the freshmen men filled the halls with a<highly unusual cloths that they marched around and around singing a funeral chant. (The library was unable to function all morning.)

"President (Jack Sutherland) Gist" announced the initiation ceremonies at the general assembly, the highlighting various fresh "wowing and wailing" approaches to be learned at Humboldt State. Dr. Balabanis proved his sportsmanship by singing a request solo.

This marks the doing-away with of actual "brawling"—and yesterday's informal initiation went off without a casualty—May next year's be half as good!

"LISTENING ROOM" Session Again October 22

One week from tonight, October 22, Mr. Charles Fulkerson, head of Humboldt's Music Department, will again conduct a "Listening Room" evening session beginning at 7:30 P. M. in Room "K." The program is to be entirely of request numbers, and will range from snaphy swing and "boogie-woogie" to the finest concert and symphonies. Requests should be turned in to Mr. Fulkerson. Anyone may bring personal recordings also.

The "Listening Room" idea is something new in musical enjoyment at Humboldt, presenting an opportunity for informal sequenc-

Rally Committee Announces Song And Yell Contest

The Rally committee announced yesterday that it will sponsor a song and yell contest, which will begin this week. "Humboldt State should have an original school song—a new carol," Mr. Charlie Fullerton, music professor, said yesterday.

Stan Rezac, Rally chairman, made a plea for "new yells—unusual yells, and lots of them!" Mr. Fullerton urged students who were sincerely interested to try their ideas to music immediately. He added that if a student couldn't write both the music and words alone, two students should collaborate—one to write the music and one the lyrics.

Miss Helen Gavin, Mr. Edmund Jeffers, and Mr. Fullerton will judge the entries. The best songs and yells will be submitted to the student body for approval. Songs should be turned up to Mr. Fullerton, and yells to Stan Rezac.

Clarke Nellist Plays Leading Role—In New Drama

Clarke Nellist, veteran of three plays while still a sophomore at Humboldt, will again have a leading role in the first offering of the dramatic season, "Bachelor Born," which is to be presented in mid-November under the direction of Don W. Karrasch. Nellist's role is that of Frank Haftang, an elderly teacher in a British boy's school who is noted for his sarcasm. The role offers a fine opportunity for Nellist to display his wares as an actor, as evident last year in "Margin for Error," "French Without Tears," and in the one-act, "Slope of a Hill.

LUMBERJACKS MEET CHICO 'CATS SATURDAY

SPORTS

Chico Gridders Will Be Out To Break Losing Streak
Both the Chico State Wildcats and the Humboldt State Lumberjacks will be gunning for their first Far-Western Conference win when they meet tonight at 7:30 at Albee Stadium.

The Lumberjacks, dumped last week by the Cal Poly Mustangs, 18-9, are determined to stop their two-game losing streak and beat Chico. The Wildcats, one of Humboldt's oldest grid rivals, have yet to win a game this season.

Chico dropped their first two games with scores of 20-8 and 6-0 to Moffet Field and College of Pacific respectively. Last Saturday she held Cal Poly to a scoreless tie on the Wildcat Field.

PROBABLE LINE-UP
Coach Earl Hoos will probably start the following line-up:
Fred Hem and Art McGrath, ends; Harvey Sw Fatti and Arlo Murray, tackles; Dick Fitzpatrick, Gene Ward or Elmo Giulleri, guards; Ernie Garceen, center; Billy Lee, quarter; Jack Piersall and Red Briggs, halves; Len Llongholts, fullback.

GAELETS SWAMP LUMBERJACKS
35 TO 6
The big, fast St. Mary's gaelets, swarmed over Humboldt State Sunday, October 5 by a score of 35 to 6. From their first play when Noreals stepped off 88 yards to a touchdown it was all St. Mary's.

The Lumberjack score came in the second quarter on a 68-yard run-back of an intercepted pass in the fourth quarter. The Lumberjacks couldn't sanction any alibis.

Season Ticket Sales Go "Over The Top"
Interest was brought to bear this week on the advance ticket sales and its progress this week. To date the sale has brought in $745, $349 over the amount estimated by the Student Bodzele, and sales are still going strong.

This sale started last August when the Eureka Junior Chamber voted to boost Humboldt and give support to all St. Mary's.

BOIL IT IN OIL
The Mutumalling Fall Frolic was a pretty smooth affair but one thing spoiled it for a lot— the presence of absolutely too many stag. Such Casanovas only cut down terrific offensive and defensive efforts.

The Aggies had a white horse look to their first two games.

Nelson Hall Has Skating Party
Residents of Nelson Hall held their skating party Oct. 8. Injured in action were: Phyllis Hancour, Abbie Chapple, Phyllis Gray, Sadie Ranta, and Willie Fadler.

Art McGrath Does Good Job Against Cal-Aggie Eleven

HUMBERT CAN'T SANCTION ANY ALIBIS

DON HURST
Well, this has to be it! After losing to St. Mary's Freshmen and to Cal Aggies, we should show Chico our real stuff this coming weekend. Let's all hope that the team is in awail shape and comes through with flying colors.

CARO DIDN'T PLAY
Too bad for the Lumberjacks that Ernie Caro was unable to play in the Aggie game. Although Glatta, Orlando, and Galloway plugged the hole in center numerous times it seems that the Blue and Gold cleaned up on their plays through center.

BOIL IT IN OIL
It seems to me that the boys on our team folded after the Aggies first touchdown. After playing a terrific offensive and defensive game, the Aggies had a 75c scientific and human-like San Francisco.

Plan ahead for the DANSE MACABRE on Hallowe'en—sponsored by the Lumber Jack staff—a wild night's in store for YOU and YOU and YOU—date your special night soon.
