Norman Rockwell Consents To Choose This Year's 'Sempervirens Sweetheart'

Norman Rockwell, famed American artist, has consented to select the Sempervirens Sweetheart, announced Hugh Mendon, Sempervirens editor, this week.

The photos of six lovely Humboldt State coeds have been sent to Rockwell and the results of his choice will be revealed at the eighth annual See Bell, Bell, Dec. 7, at the Eureka Inn.

Candidates are: Gayle Baker, freshman. While attending Eureka High school Miss Baker was a majorette, French Club treasurer and senior class play chairman. She was a member of the choir and band, and appeared in several drama club presentations.

Marilyn Wright, senior, elementary education major has a record of achievements in the CSTA. In her freshman year she was a member and has gone from secretary and vice president to her present status of president. She has been a member of rally committee, student council and was Homecoming Queen candidate during her junior year.

Dorothy Heckman, a 1957 graduate of Rim of the World high school at Lake Arrowhead, resides at Nelson Hall. In high school she was president of the Girls' Athletic Association, cheer president, pep leader and a member of the tennis team.

Mary Lou Barnes, freshman physical education major lives at Nelson Hall. She graduated from Fortuna Union high school where she was a member of the scholarship society, Future Teachers' band, director of public information and a member of the school annual staff.

Chlorita Furnish was graduate of Arcata Union high. She is a freshman secretarial training major.

Ila Harris, freshman business major, graduated from Arcata Union high school. She was freshman class secretary, song queen and was a member of AUMS's a cappella choir for two years. (continued on page 5)

Other contestants for the Daisy Mae contest were: runner-up Jackie Abbey and Gretta Lehto of Eureka high school; Lillian Rossmann and Margie Tupper, Fortuna Union high school; and Carolyn Henry of Arcata high school.

1ST 'RIVALS' PERFORMANCE SCHEDULED FOR DEC. 5

By DIANE ANDERSON

When it comes to good entertainment, "The Rivals," the most major production of the Humboldt College Players, cannot be rivaled. Full of ingenious situations, "The Rivals" contains a great deal of a delightful humor of events.

Directed by Dr. W. L. Turner, "The Rivals" will be produced at the main auditorium on the evenings of Dec. 5, 6 and 7, and 13 and 14, with curtain time being 8:15 p.m. Inasmuch as the play was written in the 18th century, its production will be in keeping with the manners and styles of the times. Instead of what we consider today to be "regular practice," the form of the period will be used, even to the printing and style of the programs, which offers an excellent opportunity to graphically show the contrast of earlier theatre with that of today.

In keeping with the style of the day of the author, Richard Sheridan, Mrs. Dineen Pauley's costume class is preparing elaborate and interesting costumes for the cast, and, judging from past presentations, will add much color to the play, both figuratively and literally.

John Van Dusen's construction crew is now in the process of building appropriate sets for "The Rivals," no moon project by itself.

Butler Accepted By Art Society

Max W. Butler, assistant professor of art, has been accepted as a member of the California Water Color Society and will be included in the 37th National exhibition of water color painting in the Pasadena Art Museum, Dec. 1 through 20.

Butler joined the HSC faculty in September, coming here from Texas Christian University where he taught art. He earned his Master of Fine Arts degree from the University of Southern California in 1950.

His water color painting "Blackbirds and Pansygrasses" by inclusion in the exhibit, automatically becomes eligible for consideration for one of 15 awards offered by the exhibition.

After being shown in Pasadena in December, the exhibition will move on to Richmond, where it will be shown Jan. 10 through Feb. 11.

Religious Emphasis Week To Begin Next Sunday

By ED SPENCER

The annual Religious Emphasis Week at Humboldt State College will be held next Sunday through Tuesday.

The "three-day week" is the result of three years of experience in planning R.E.W. at Humboldt. A full week has been tried in the past and was found to be too long. A shorter time was needed. The committee decided on a three day period, feeling sure the impact would be sharper and more deeply felt than if it were drawn out to a full week.

Sunday will be the day for all good men to come to the aid of their church. Whether you have been attending church in the past is unimportant. Whether or not you profess interest in religion is insignificant. Honest faith calls for straight dealing. The fact is you are alive — consciously aware of existence. The Where, How, Why and even Who of true existence is all-important. Doctors, physicists, chemists — all deep searching thinkers are raising an earnest question today as to the validity of matter. More and more "Einstein" are seeing the inevitability and necessity of becoming "Emersonians." The signs of the times and the questions they raise merit your honest consideration. Why not attend church and learn more of the vital art of living? You may be surprised at what you find.

Monday morning from 9 a.m. to 12 noon there will be a colored film strip on the "great religions of the world" shown in the audiovisual room of the library. This is a film of a series of articles that appeared in Life magazine. Drop in at any time, leave at any time.

Monday at 2 p.m. a faculty panel will be held in the auditorium in answer to the topic "This I Believe." The faculty members serving on the panel will be Dr. Ralph Rott, Mr. Phil Sorbo, Don Bonhusen and President Siemon. John Funk will be the student chairman of the panel. There will be refreshments served in the Green and Gold room following this panel. Leonard Barlow, professor of music, will speak on the universal language of religion Tuesday at 2 p.m. Mr. Barlow's subject will be closely related to a recent study he conducted on hymnology. Here we have sacred music binding men and faiths in a common harmony.

AF SELECTION TEAM HERE

An Air Force Aviation Cadet Selection Team will be on campus today to interview applicants for the Air Force's pilot and observer training program.

The two-man team headed by Captain Clyde Pickens will be available in the Coors from noon to 4 p.m., according to M. Sgt. Louis F. Foreman, Air Force recruiter in the Eureka Post Office Building.

Forensics Tourney For Championship Set This Week

The championship of the 11 western states of the Western Speech Association will be decided at the Forensics tournament to be held this coming week at Pepperdine college in Los Angeles.

Seven students will represent Humboldt State in this event. Debate teams are: John Mayfield and Jim Shaver; Karl Harber and Doug Kane; Ed Spencer, Don Prior and Lillian Smith. These people were chosen for the trip through intra squad eliminations. These students will also take part in two individual events, extemporaneous speaking and impromptu speaking.

The team will leave for the tournament on Saturday. Registration will be made on Sunday evening. The rounds of events will continue through Wednesday evening, Thursday through the following Saturday will be spent at the Convention at the University of California, Santa Barbara College. This event is also sponsored by the Western Speech Association.

About 300 entrants are expected at the meet from 35 colleges in the 11 western states.

Holiday Recess For Humboldters

A four day weekend will be in store for students and faculty of HSC beginning with the termination of classes next Wednesday. The only notices expected to be heard around campus will be coming from the direction of Redwood Bowl. Thanksgiving afternoon when Humboldt meets Lewis and Clark in the annual Thanksgiving Day game.

No Lumberjack will be published next week. The next edition will be two weeks from today, Dec. 6.

All offices on campus will be closed during the four day holiday, academic and non-academic included.

DICK'S DUNGEON

By Dick Wassmouth

I was enjoying a typical Saturday evening at home the other day, picking the lint out of my belly button and getting my Mad comic books in order, when I perceived a crazy paradiol on the door. I opened it and in popped Casper Staghorn III (commonly known as Old Stag).

"Let's move Daddio-O", he said. "The ball game starts in a matter of minutes, if you hurry we can make it in time to see ye olde pigskin get booted off."

Now I hadn't ever been to a football game and not wanting to be rated as an old-stick-in-the-mud, I decided to make it to the football field and really get stuck in the mud. "Who's playing who?" I asked.

"We're playing SOCP", he said. "That's Southern Oregon College of Pugilium."

I stuck my finger out the door and when I pulled it back in it was royal blue. This gave me a little hint that it was cold so I decided to bring the wife along. I also brought my Old Granddaddy.

"He likes football!" We all headed up the hill toward yonder gridiron but as I passed the library I could hear sounds of revelry going on inside. Thinking there may be a season in progress, I moved closer. I could see the private room in the back. All the librarians were there, having their monthly wing-ding. They were reading Chaucer as if flipping their lids on tea (spiked with lemon and trumps). I thought "So this is what happens to the money they get for fines" and made haste to fall in. Then I thought better of the idea, I still owed them 17 cents for being late with "How to win crap games and influence dice."

Late
I finally got in the game and got seated. I guess we were late because there were a lot of people running around down on the field.

All of a sudden some crazy-looking cat in a striped shirt blew a whistle. I thought it was a raid and ducked under the stands but nothing happened so I came out. Well, Stripes picked up the ball and walked all the way down to the other end of the field. Everyone else out there followed him and started playing down that end. Someone said something about the end of the first quarter and I decided it was time to take five for some coffee. I left.

One end of the field was a little short with one side pushed out. Inside this shed were a bunch of people who were trying to serve coffee, hot dogs, coke and watch the game at the same time. A little round man they called Dean seemed to be the boss. (I didn't know what he was dean of but I guess he was the dean of hot dogs.)

I stood there trying to figure out whether to have coffee or coke with my Old Crow (my wife really isn't very old, when this guy in the striped shirt blew his whistle again and picked up the ball and ran. This time he ran right off the field and both teams followed him. I guess they wanted the ball back. Everyone else in the stands figured this would be a good time for coffee and in a flash there were about six thousand people between me and the coffee stand.

Just as I got to the counter that guy in the striped shirt came running back on the field with the ball and both teams came right after him. (They don't give up easy.) They got in two big

Marine Recruiters Scheduled To Be Here On Dec. 2-3

A U.S. Marine Corps Officer Procurement Team from San Francisco will be on campus on Dec. 2-3 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Coop.

Major Charles R. Stephenson III and Captain W. G. Crocker will be available at the above time to interview men interested in enrolling in one of the Marine "in college" training programs that lead to a commission as a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve.

The platoon leaders class (PLC) and platoon leaders class (Aviation) PLC (AVN) are open to freshmen, sophomores and juniors. These programs are draft deferable and require no drills or military classes during the school year. The PLC receives his training at the famed Marine Corps Schools at Quantico, Virginia, during two six week summer training periods and upon graduation are commissioned and ordered to Pensacola, Florida for flight training.

The Officer Candidate Class (OCC) and Aviation Officer Candidate Class (AOCC) are open to seniors and graduates. These programs require a ten week training course at Quantico, Virginia after graduation. Candidates successfully completing this course are commissioned Second Lieutenants in the Reserve and ordered to active duty. OCC graduates attend the Officers Basic School at Quantico, Virginia prior to further assignment. AOCC Candidates take their flight test prior to enrollment in the course and upon completion of the ten week training period are commissioned and ordered to Pensacola, Florida, for flight training.

MU EP INITIATION

Following the initiation there will be a banquet at a local restaurant. Mu Epsilon Psi is open to all who wish to join, and those interested should contact Ted Hamilton.

bunches and started hollering and talking. I guess they were trying to figure out a way to get that ball back.

Memor
Anyway, pretty soon the defenders of the old Alma Mater went over and shook hands with all the other team. I figured the last round was about to start and started back to my seat to watch the finish of the bout.

They were all just standing around out on the field so I decided to take a short cut across the middle. Just as I did they kicked that ball and it came right at me. I knew the guy in stripes was the boss and it was his ball so I caught it and ran over to give it back to him. I guess he didn't want it though because he ran away from me.

It seems as though everyone else out there wanted it though because they all started chasing me. No man, I'm no coward, but when there's ten ton of beef on the hoof wanting to make me hamburger, I was like scared - you dig?

When I finally got home with that ball I hid under the bed for two days. I can hardly wait for basketball to start. It's so peaceful.

By JIM ADAMS

A bumper batch of pheasant and quail has produced above average shooting, although the rain has dampened the harvest. Reports from both the Central Valley and the Tule Lake region indicate successful pheasant hunting, with limits scored the first few days by most hunters. No figures are yet available for the Lake Co-op area.

Let us forget (some have) that season is closed until Dec. 8.

For those of you who wonder what good a "bugologist" can do for the sportsman, here is an example.

Several years ago the major portion of the Russian River in California was chemically treated to reduce the rough fish which infested the stream. Fish biologists considered the presence of these fish a serious limiting factor to the production of steelhead trout. At the time rough fish, consisting of carp, suckers, and squawfish, were 95 per cent game fish.

The elimination of the rough fish gave living space to the young steelhead. Sampling a year later indicated that juvenile steelhead had increased thirteen fold while rough fish were reduced.

40,000 Steelhead

During the 1956-57 steelhead season, resort owners and sportsmen's groups in the area estimated that over 40,000 steelhead were taken, with a catch of 7,000 recorded in one week. The most probable answer to the record harvest dates back to the rough fish removal project. This year's bumper crop of adult fish were those that two and three years ago had successfully hatched, migrated to sea and finally returned.

This is a splendid example of stream improvement that pays real dividends to the angler. The cost of this rough fish removal was a fraction of the State's expensive catchable trout program. The results are mute evidence that stream improvement will provide more catchable fish than can ever be raised in our hatcheries - at a fraction of the cost.

W. Winston May, Chief, California Wildlife Service, gave it this way when urging sportsmen to rely on fishery biologists: "There is no point in having a dog and then barking yourself."

Incidentally, free publications on "Trouts of California," "Upland Game of California," and "Ducks of California" are available from California Dept. of Fish and Game, 722 Capitol Ave., Sacramento. These pamphlets give description, range, and facts about life history, and are liberally illustrated. These are printed for you, so write.

Angling

Anglingwise, the best hope for the weekend is the Smith River. Salmon were taken this last week in spite of rain. Reports from Tule Lake state that most of the ducks have moved out, although geese are still plentiful.

The progressive-minded Sportsmen's Clubs of Texas have come up with a new idea - Lady Game Wardens. Maybe we should move to Texas.

MEAD ELECTED

Gary Mead was elected president of the sophomore class in Wednesday's soph. balloting. Others elected to office were Ann Norstrom, vice president; Sherry Murray, secretary; and Mary Hale, treasurer.

HOW TO STUDY

The makers of Marlboro Cigarettes have bought this space so I can bring a message of importance to American undergraduates each week. There is no more important message I can bring you than this: College can be beautiful. Don't lose it up with studying.

That was my mistake. At first, cowed by college, I studied so much that I turned into a drowsy, blinking creature, subject to dry mouth and night sweats. This dismal condition prevailed until I learned the real meaning of college. And what is that? I'll tell you what to prepare you to face the realities of the world. And what do you need to face the realities of the world? I'll tell you what: pose. And how do you get pose? I'll tell you how: not by sticking your nose in a book, you may be sure!

Relax! Live! Enjoy!... That's how you get pose. Of course you have to study, but be poised about it. Don't be like some drones who spend every single night buried in a book. They are not learning pose; what's more, they are playing loby with their posture.

The truly poised student knows better than to make the whole semester hideous with studying. He knows that the night before an exam is plenty of time to study.

Yes, I've heard people condemn cramming. But who are these people? They are the electric light and power interests, that's who! They want you to sit up late and study every night so you will use more electricity and enrich their bulging coffers.

Don't be taken in by their insidious propaganda! Cramming is clearly the only sensible way to study. But beware! Even cramming can be overdone. When you cram, be sure you are good and relaxed. Before you start, eat a hearty dinner. Then get a date and go out and eat another hearty dinner. Then go park some place and light up a Marlboro. Enjoy the peaceful pleasure it affords. Don't go home till you're properly relaxed.

Once at home, stay relaxed. Do not, however, fall asleep. This is too relaxed. To insure wakefulness, choose a chair that is not too comfortable. For example, take a chair with nails pointing up through the seat.

Place several packs of Marlboro's within easy reach. Good, mild tobacco helps you relax, and that's what Marlboro is - good, mild tobacco. But Marlboro is more than just good, mild tobacco; it is also cigarette paper to keep the good, mild tobacco from spilling all over the place. And a filter. And a flip-top box. And a real tape to lift the cigarettes easily... It is, in short, a lot to like.

Now you've got the uncomfortable chair and the Marlboro's. Now you need light. Use the lit end of your Marlboro's. Do not enrich the light and power interests. Read your textbook in a slow, relaxed manner. Do not underline; it reduces the resale value of the book. Always keep your books in prime resale condition. You never know when you'll need getaway money.

As you read you will no doubt come across many things you don't understand. But don't panic. Relax. Play some Pat's Domino. Remove a callus. Go out and catch some night crawlers.

Relax! Live! Enjoy! Remember - any number of people have bachelor's degrees, but precious few have posed!

It doesn't take long to learn that the most important cigarette on the market today is Marlboro, when millions take pleasure in bringing you this volume regularly.

About 60 HSC students participated in the first Co-Recreational Night held Nov. 14 in the men's gymnasium.

Dr. Forbes said he was quite pleased with the turnout to the first recreation night. Although there was only one girl at this first affair, Dr. Forbes said there were many upper classmen who took advantage of this opportunity to work out.

Dr. Forbes emphasized the only stipulation of the wearing of tennis shoes and that all HSC students are welcome. Instructors for the night were Dr. Forbes and Gene Asprey, assistant professor of physical education.

The schedule for the instructors are as follows: Franny Givins and Miss Elizabeth Slagle, Nov. 21; Ced Kinzer and Phil Sarboe, Dec. 5; Gordon Schroeder and Larry Kerker, Dec. 12; Dr. Forbes and Miss Kay Gott, Dec. 19.

The Recreation Nights are held each Thursday, 7-9 p.m.

Irving Kitchenberg, Maintenance Clerk, Is Also Banjo Player Of Renown

A man who can "strum up a storm" on a banjo, and who has demonstrated this by his many travels, is Irving Kitchenberg, senior clerk of HSC's maintenance department. He is known to his friends and in the entertainment world as "Kitch."

His life began in Russia about

1900. When Kitch was seven years old his father immigrated to America to avoid serving a second time in the army for the Czar. The Russians were then fighting the Russo-Japanese war. The Kitchenbergs settled in New York City where Kitch's father became a clothing salesman and in time a citizen of the USA.

As Kitch grew he began to teach himself to play the mandolin. This became his main instrument until he served in the Navy where he took to the banjo and since then he has become quite famous where he has travelled as a banjo player.

Valuable Book Given To Library

A valuable addition has been made to the HSC library in the form of Vol. VI, Memoirs of the American Museum of Natural History, "The Night Chant, A Navaho Ceremony," according to Mrs. Helen Everett, college librarian. It was written in 1902 by Washington Matthews, an outstanding anthropologist and author on the Navaho Indians. It was published by the Hyde Southwestern Expedition.

This book which cannot be purchased upon the market today, contains a valuable record of Navaho customs and ceremonies. It consists of 322 pages of print and eight plates showing costumes and artifacts used in Navaho ceremonies.

It was given to the library by Lucia and Sidney Arroyo of Eureka, who have been friends of the college for many years, said Mrs. Everett.

After leaving Imperial Valley he hired out for a summer in Yosemite National Park, playing in a four string group known as "The Sons of The Sage." When his summer engagement was over he began a radio show from Brawley, California, with another entertainer. It wasn't long before Kitch's partner had to leave. Kitch then decided he would go to Alaska where he had wanted to go for some time. Kitch left not knowing where in Alaska he was going. He first came to Juneau, Alaska where after three days of looking for employment, he began a ten-week engagement in a night club. He later had a radio show for three months from Ketchikan and also played in a night club there. He has made three trips to Alaska with the first trip taking place in 1950.

In 1954 Kitch decided to visit Manuel Presson, night custodian at HSC. Mr. Presson had played the guitar for Kitch in Yosemite. While the two were renewing their friendship Mr. Presson introduced Kitch to Bill Johnson, corporation yard superintendent, who was needing clerical help at that time. Kitch didn't have anything doing at the time so he took the job and has been working here at HSC since that time.

Weekend Games For Jacks, JV's

VARSITY HOSTS HORNETS IN IMPORTANT MEETING, JUNIOR JACKS MEET HAMILTON FIELD

By DON HARRIS
Lumberjack Sports Editor

A busy weekend faces Humboldt State College gridgers as the Lumberjacks clash with the Sacramento State Hornets in a battle for third place in the FWC standings tomorrow night, while the Junior Jacks host the mighty Hamilton Field Defenders tonight.

Both meetings are make-up games that were postponed earlier in the season. The Defenders game was called off when the Hamilton Field plane was unable to land here because of a fog bank while the original Sacramento game date went out the window when flu hit 46 out of 47 team members of the Jacks.

Tomorrow night's game is the more important of the two week-end clashes. In fact it is termed by Coach Phil Sarboe as "the big game on our schedule." It may well be that as both teams have 2-2 league records and need a win to take over third place.

Big Battle

In addition the Hornet game promises to be the hardest fought. Some SSC officials were of the opinion that a forfeit was in order when the Jacks were unable to fulfill the Oct. 12 date. It took a one-sided effort by Humboldt to get the game rescheduled, finally resulting in HSC being forced to foot the bill for part of the Hornet's journey to Arcata, if it cost more now than it would have cost the visitors last month.

While it would hardly be appropriate to say that there is bad blood between the two schools because of the unfortunate incident that developed, it is safe to say that a certain amount of friction was created.

That slight touch of animosity will undoubtedly show itself in the game, and fans on hand can expect a good tough rock-em, sock-em ball game.

Coach Sarboe has commented, "It can't help but be a good ball game. Our records are identical in conference play. We host the same two teams and lost to the same two. In every way, it's a toss-up."

Lineup

He indicated that the starting lineup will remain the same; that is Dave Thomas and Carl Carlson at the ends, Bill Hicks and Dick Cahill at the tackles, Pete Carlson and Roy Eacore at the guards, Zeke Van Deventer at center, Warren Baker at quarterback, Earl Barnum and Marion

Mayes at the halves and Chuck McAninch at fullback.

HSC's second backfield, made up of Jack Menzia, Darol Foster, Joe Beeson and Ralph Mayo, has been coming along well and it is possible that the Jacks will substitute in units, changing both line and backfield at once. The second line is already considered the near-equal of the first and is actually an alternate starting seven.

Sacramento's backfield boasts Joe Beaver, a junior letterman fullback with good speed, John Eator, an all around performer that is plenty dangerous, Jay Gillampy, a sophomore redheaded speedster, and quarterback Fred Scott, who spent a season at the University of Kentucky.

In the line guard John Skube, the team's most valuable player in 1956, anchors a rugged forward wall.

Defenders Loaded

Tonight the Junior Jacks, bolstered by reserve varsity players, meet a potent Hamilton Field team that is loaded with former All Americans and several players that are property of pro grid clubs.

While HSC is undoubtedly in for a rough night against Hamilton, it will be valuable training for players who will be candidates for the varsity next season and will give them a chance to show their wares against some of the roughest competition around.

The Junior Jacks will start Mike Montano, a former varsity player, at center, Rich Ames and Bill Bartlett at guards, Ralph Johnson and either Tiny Hubler or Bub Renwick at tackles, and Ray Flemming and Pete Cengia at the ends.

In the backfield it will be Pete Dye at quarterback, Manuel Vazquez and Mike Beapelle at the halves and Charlie Miyashiro at fullback.

Such grid greats as quarterback Pepper Martin, most valuable player in the Sugar Bowl game in 1954, All American tackle Chuck Doud from UCLA and standout Terry DeBay from UCLA dot the Defenders roster.

BASKETBALLERS LAUNCH SEASON AGAINST SOC

Humboldt's 1957-58 basketball team will face one of the toughest schedules in the school's history, with a 22 game schedule plus the annual Far Western Conference Tournament.

Included in the schedule are such powerful clubs as the Pacific Lutheran College, which placed third in the NAIA national playoff in Kansas City last year, Central Washington and Whitworth, who finished second and third in Pacific Lutheran in the Evergreen Conference, will also be Lumberjack opponents.

The San Francisco Presidio, who handed the Jacks a pair of one-sided setbacks here last year, will tangle with Humboldt again in a two game series on Jan. 3 and 4. Cage mentor Franny Givins has said that the Presidio will be the toughest team his squad will face.

Since last issue, Givins has named a 15 man squad to make up the 1957-58 varsity team. At present, 14 are working out and Warren Baker who lead the 1956-57 team in both scoring and rebounding, will be out after foot ball season is completed.

SOMETHING

By TOM FAY

We were reading through some papers from other schools last week when we ran across a column - "Sports Corner" by Leo Farnsworth in the Sacramento State Hornet which had some interesting material about the re-scheduled SSC Hornet game, to be played tomorrow night. No sounded rather bitter.

"According to Farnsworth -

The game figures to help the Jacks. On Oct. 12 the northern eleven had yet to win in four battles while the high flying Hornets had yet to lose in three contests. Now Humboldt has found the victory trail. This is not to say that the SSC eleven will love the contest, but it seems the Lumberjacks have nothing to gain and the Hornets have everything to lose when the contest is played."

We feel that there are several things in the above statements to be questioned. The Jacks and the Hornets are now both 2-2 in league play and the game will decide the third place in the FWC standings for the winners and the lower division for the losers.

Not only that - the only way Humboldt could get Sacramento to reschedule the game was to send two planes down (so they could bring their whole team) and pay the difference between the cost of the original plane and the two we send down.

Incidentally, during last week's game with Southern Oregon tempers flared and both benches erupted onto the field and engaged in the manly art of fist-cuffs. Several blows were landed but there were no injuries, except fallen pride and muddy pants on the part of Al Ahins, the SSC coach and a few muddy football suits.

Pioneers Ramble To 46-0 Triumph

PORTLAND — The Pioneers of Lewis and Clark rolled to an easy 46-0 victory over the Portland State Vikings here last weekend to claim the mythical city title.

THANKSGIVING DAY CONTEST AGAINST L&C ENDS SEASON

Humboldt State's Lumberjacks will wind up a gruelling ten game football slate next Thursday against the not-to-be-underestimated Lewis and Clark Pioneers in a Thanksgiving Day afternoon contest that will start at 2 p.m.

The Pioneers are a young team, made up largely of underclassmen and stressing several freshmen, but with nine college games under their belts now they are also an experienced outfit.

HSC will feature its six seniors in the final game of the year. Making their last appearances in the gridiron for the Green and Gold will be end Dave Thomas, tackle Jerry Bartlett, guard Jim Ennis, fullback Ralph Mayo and Quarterbacks Warren Baker and Jack Menzia.

Coach Phil Sarboe states that it will be "another interesting ball game" and one well worth watching.

Top ground gainer for the Pioneers has been freshman speedster Gary Grill, who stands only 5' 6" and weighs 135 pounds. First year quarterback Royce McDaniel is an excellent signal caller and passer despite his lack of extensive college experience and is a real threat with the ball. Lewis and Clark is the stronger at the ends where Bill Stempel leads a pack of experienced and skilled receivers.

The third period and adding three more in the last quarter.

LAS VEGAS — Despite a one-man show by Nevada quarterback Ken Fujii, the Wolfpack lost to the Arizona State of Flagstaff 26-20 in a season finale here last weekend.

Fujii, ranked among the nation's leading small college passers, completed 20 out of 37 attempts for 177 yards and one touchdown but the winners played a superior ground game. They were out in front 19-0 early in the second quarter and were never headed after that.

GOLDEN GATORS STOMP CHICO TO WIN FWC CROWN

San Francisco State, sparked by the performance of fullback turned quarterback Bob Rodrigo routed Chico State 23-6 last Saturday in Chico to capture the Far Western Conference Championship with a 5-0 record.

Rodrigo took over signal calling duties early in the fourth quarter and passed for two touchdowns to make a run away of the title meeting.

The Wildcats got on the scoreboard on the second play in the last stanza on a two yard pass from Syl Lucena to end Dave Gohbato. On that play regular Gator quarterback Jim Socher was injured and Rodrigo took over for him.

The former fullback promptly hit halfback Don Johnson with a 28 yard scoring aerial and later added a five-yard six-point flip to end Monty Hesa.

The Golden Gators scored early in the second quarter when Rodrigo kicked a field goal to cap an 10-yard 11 play drive. And three plays later Socher passed to halfback Leander Murphy for the first San Francisco touchdown.

Hornets Upend Aggies, 26-0

DAVIS — Sacramento State College exploded for three touchdowns in the final quarter to upend the Cal Aggie Mustangs 26-0 in a Far Western Conference game that marked the Hornets first win over the Aggies.

After a scoreless first half, Sacramento found itself and halfback Larry McNear plunged over one yard out midway through the third quarter.

The Hornets scored three more in the fourth quarter, the last one as the final gun sounded. Surging Hornet fans swarmed over the field and began tearing down the goal posts even while Sacramento State quarterback Tim Zunino was preparing to try the extra point. The kick was moved to the other end of the field where it was blocked.

Quarterback Fred Scott accounted for one of the fourth quarter tallies on a one yard plunge. Zunino added another on a 20 yard sneak and halfback John Eaton added the third on a ten yard end run.

HSC Explodes For 33 Points In First Half In Romping To 39-14 Triumph For Third Win Of Year

Humboldt captured its second straight and third win of the 1957 football season Saturday night by thrashing the Southern Oregon Red Raiders 39-14. The Jacks scored 33 points in the first half and were in command for the entire game, with the reserves playing most of the second half.

The Lumberjacks played by far their best game of the season and looked excellent both on offense and defense to show local fans what they really could do.

Earl Barnum started things off fast when, with only three minutes gone, he took a lateral from Chuck McAninch on a punt return and cut his way through the entire Red Raider team for 73 yards and the first Jack touchdown.

Humboldt lead 14-0 after Jim Colwell had recovered a SOC fumble on the violators 34 and McAninch pounded the pigskin over the goal line from six yards out four plays later.

Ennis Stars

Senior guard Jim Ennis, who recovered three fumbles the week before, picked up two more to set up the next score.

Ennis' first recovery gave Humboldt the ball on the Raider 28. McAninch scored again, this time on a 16 yard jaunt up the middle.

The fourth score was set up and scored by David Foster, who practically made a one man show out of it. Foster intercepted a SOC pass on the HSC 22 and returned it 64 yards to the 14.

On the second play Foster circled left end for the 14 yards and the TD. Then to top it off, he kicked the extra point.

Southern Oregon came back quickly for their first score when halfback Delmar Brund scampered 54 yards to paydirt on the third play after the kickoff.

After the ensuing kickoff, Humboldt marched downfield once again, this time scoring on Jack Menzies' 42 yard aerial to End Dave Thomas.

The last score in the first half came when the Raiders got the ball on the HSC 22 where a short Jack punt had gone out of bounds.

It took four plays to get the touchdown, with quarterback Larry Locke tossing to end Chuck (Grandell) for the final seven yards.

Tempers Flare

The third period was scoreless, but not without its share of excitement. Tempers were short and several times fighting broke out. Two players were asked to depart from the playing field, one Lumberjack and one Raider.

The final score of the game came after Ralph Johnson recovered a loose ball on the SOC 26. Johnson also scored the touchdown on a tackle-eligible pass from Warren Baker from two yards out.

Humboldt's third unit was trying hard to add another touchdown but time ran out on them when they were on the Raider five yard line.

The fascinating history behind the Christmas seals soon to make an appearance in all student mail boxes on campus reads like something out of the "Wizard of Oz".

Did you know that the crusade to stamp out TB was begun only 50 years ago by a man who thought he had only a few days to live? Or that all of the scientific advances in combating the disease have been made in only 50 years since then?

Before 1900, tuberculosis was known as the "White Plague" from which there was no known cure. So that when a young graduate of medical school named Edward Trudeau learned he had contracted the dread malady, he retired to the Adirondack Mountains of New York, to wait to die.

Instead the quiet rest and fresh air restored his health, and he lived to pioneer the "Rest Cure" that is still the most effective treatment for TB.

In 1904, the man who had gone to die and remained to live became the first president of the National TB Association, the first organized effort to promote a nationwide fight.

FROM DENMARK

The Christmas seal used so widely today was borrowed from Denmark, where the idea was conceived by a Danish postal worker. The biggest problem in promoting the sale of these seals in the U. S. was that of making the public aware of the need and potential effectiveness of a nationwide cooperative fight.

To do this, the National Association enlisted the aid of an active Red Cross worker, Miss Emily Bissell. It was she who suggested the use of the seal, and she, too, like an inspired Joan of Arc who battered down public lethargy by persistent insistence on attention. It was her enthusiasm which enflamed the seal of Leigh Mitchell Hodges, who caught the vision of "not a piece of pinholed paper, but a sort of flaming banner to vanguard the fight against a dread foe."

How well Hodges told the story to the American public during that first sale was demonstrated by the ragged little street urchin in New York who sidled up to the seal sale stand in the postoffice, stood on tiptoe to pass over two pennies clutched in a grubby little fist and whispered timidly "Gimme two of 'em, my sister's GOT it."

The first seal sale raised $3000 — an amount sufficient to secure operation of the first TB hospital — but more important — a way of killing the killer had been found.

From that first beginning, the double barred cross that was chosen as the symbol of the battle has grown to be internationally recognized. Today, the pennies YOU spend for the seals you find in your boxes will help the protective double bars to hover over the HSC campus and over Humboldt State.

The Humboldt County TB association is one of 3000 local and state TB associations operating through the nation in a program that includes adult education, community education, patient education and services, research, school health, world wide cooperation, work with doctors, and X-rays.

These services are available to YOU today, because someone else bought seals. The pennies you spend this Christmas season will mean along that help to someone else — maybe just in the nick of time.

Letter Received From Chico State

A letter commending Humboldt State students for "the fine spirit" they displayed at the HSC-Chico football game in Chico last week has been received here from Bruce R. Baker, Chico student body president.

"On behalf of the Associated Students of Chico State College may I congratulate Humboldt State College for the fine spirit they displayed at the game held on our field last week. There has been discussion about the spirit your song leaders possess."

"I was quite pleased that there were no arguments over the 'Humboldt - Chico Lumberjack Victory' axe and I feel that your song leaders were a necessary help in keeping your fanfare in hand just as did ours."

"Thank you for the axe and we shall look forward to meeting you next year when once again the two teams will meet on the gridiron to vie for the axe. We shall also look forward to the same type of sportsmanship that was displayed this year."
