SEX, CONSENT AND CULTURAL MEDIA STEREOTYPES

Through a cultural lens, we'll explore the narratives about sex that we grew up with, the ways the media sexualizes people of color, and its impacts. We'll discuss the difficulties and opportunities in talking about sex and sexualized violence in our multiple communities and ways we can create a more consent-centered culture.

We are pleased to announce the release of Volume 2, Issue 1 of Humboldt State University's REDWOOD ROOTS Digital Magazine. Redwood Roots highlights the many wonderful ways that students, faculty, and community partners are engaging in community-based learning practices in and around Humboldt County.

Redwood Roots is a collaboration between the Center for Community Based Learning and HSU Press. We publish stories that promote deep and enriching connections through learning, and enhance inclusivity within the community through efforts and examples of social and environmental justice. Redwood Roots is a magazine of place and community.
