Superintendent Good of Fort
Bragg Will be Speaker

A change in the hour of one of the ceremonies planned for the day of the formal inauguration of President Gist, Friday of next week, March 20, has been made. The dedication of the gymnasium, which was originally set for 2 o'clock that afternoon, will now be held at 10 o'clock Friday morning, during the regular assembly period.

Those in the dance will be Ione Russell, Hazel Christensen, Kathryn Nellist, Haven Howatt, and Melvin Thomas.

The formal inauguration of President Gist will be held in the auditorium beginning at 2 p. m. According to present plans, the faculty members, who will appear in academic costume and various representatives from other institutions will sit on the stage. SCIENCE NOTES

On Tuesday night, March 10, Mr. Howe motored to Miranda where he delivered an address on the "Romance of Yosemite." He was accompanied on this trip by Mr. McKay, Woodrow Thompson, and Karl Cooperrider, who played several musical numbers.

A three or four day trip for the advanced botany class has been planned to take place the first or second week of May. They intend going to the Sacramento Valley to collect flower specimens.

Mr. Doughty of the Ferndale High school has asked Mr. Howe to come down and take a group of students for a trip on the beach to study the faults of rock formations. He plans to go the first week after the Easter vacation.

Mr. Howe is giving a course in wild flower classification at the Fortuna High school, Thursday nights. This course is intended mainly for Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls, and at this time he has about fifty people enrolled in the course.

Plans to take the Advanced Geology class to Horse Mountain in the near future to study rock formations where the dredging has washed upper layers of soil away and left the bed-rock exposed.

THESPIANS WILL GIVE SNAPPY COMEDY

If You Like to Laugh and be Mistified too, See Grumpy

GRUMPY

Grumpy, by Horace Hodges, is to be the next presentation of the Dramatic Workshop. H. Cyril Maude played Grumpy, making the play a master mystery of the present day. The play has been produced in London, Paris, and many parts of the United States with paramount success. After the work achieved by the Workshop H. in "Dolly Reforming Herself," Miss McLane, dramatic coach, feels that it is no sense a dramatic risk to present this famous detective play.

If one has ever seen the "Bat" he will appreciate in a small way the thrilling scenes depicted in "Grumpy." The scenes themselves shift from one place to another which adds color to intensity of the plot.

Miss McLane's idea is to stress the educational play, leaving the farce to less ambitious students. She desires that each student shall have a definite piece of character work—you will remember that she emphasized this in the characters of "Dolly Reforming Herself"—and she has chosen this play with this idea definitely in mind.

Miss McLane believes that no one student should monopolize the stage. She believes that everyone in the Dramatic Workshop should have a chance, so, while she is using some members of the cast of "Dolly Reforming Herself," she is adding new characters. The cast is as follows:

Mr. Bullvant (Grumpy).....James Usher
Ernest HeronIrvin Jepsen
Ruddock (his valet)Clyde Patenaude
Mr. JarvisGeorge Crichton
Mr. Valentine WolfeLouis Tallman
Dr. MacLarenLester Dedini
KebleDale Merriam
MerridewHarlan Still
DawsonReuel Fick
Virginia BullvantJaunita Larson
SusanHarriet Finne

Mrs. MacLaren—(tryouts have not been completed for this character).

One of the best criticisms in regard to the popular play, "Dolly Reforming Herself," was that the play was presented by a high-grade stock company rather than by an amateur theatrical group. The cast, with its director, promise an equally high-grade presentation in "Grumpy."

MR. JARVIS

George Crichton plays the part of Mr. Jarvis in the next presentation of the Dramatic Workshop H, "Gumpy".

George will be remembered for his work in "Dolly Reforming Herself" and "The Bishop's Candlesticks."

HARR WAGNER ADDRESSES STUDENTS

Friday morning an assembly was called for the purpose of hearing Harr Wagner, an authority on Joaquin Miller, speak on "Joaquin Miller on his Other Self." Mr. Wagner is president of the Harr Wagner Publishing Company of San Francisco.

Mr. Wagner an intimate friend of Joaquin Miller, attempted to give his audience an insight into the soul personality of his subject. He characterized "The Poet of the Sierras" as a man who was accused of being a horse thief but yet achieved high spiritual personality. As a man who believed that he had no right to the money that he received for his poems because they were a gift of the Gods. However, he considered his prose work differently because it was hard work to write.

Mr. Wagner spoke at length on the early life of the great poet; of how he traveled about with his father for eleven years, of how he came into conflict with the law, and how he managed to escape with the aid of the Indians. And finally of his death with these words on his lips, "Death is delightful—death is dawn."

WHOOPEE TIME PLANNED FOR THURSDAY

Everybody Welcome at the Pep
Smoker to be Held at Gum

"Lade-e-es and Gentlemen!" It is with the greatest pleasure that I introduce to you your speaker for the evening. The man of the hour! "Mr. Master of Ceremonies in the flesh and soul" who is none other than the honorable George Gregory, man of the evening at the Semester's gala event, "The great Pep Smoker."

A committee selected from the Student Body by the members of the Sunday Discussion group met Monday, March 9, for the purpose of making plans for the gala event of the year, "The Pep Smoker." The smoker, it was decided, would be held in the College Gym at 7 p. m. on Thursday, March 19. All College Students after that good old college "good time" are requested to attend. The seniors of the high schools of the county will be special guests at the occasion, at which time they will become more acquainted with the college in its worse way.

Lots of Smoke, yells, women, and song, are to be the features of the planned program which will include a variety of "hot" numbers by the "Collegians" jazz orchestra, and a bloody boxing and wrestling bout, probably between "Brite" Johnny Blackburn, the "Ferndale Terror," and the local midget, Irwin Jepsen. Then we'll have that great combination of Finne and Usher in a short skit, and "Four hands on the Keyboard" in a piano duet by Inskip and Nellist. On top of it all will be the public initiation of the new members of the Black H Society. Then to windup this hilarious night of nights and informal hop of about an hour and a half will prevail. WHAT A NIGHT!

TO THE FROSH!

Welcome, Freshman! We upperclassmen of Humboldt State Teachers College extend to you a hearty greeting with the sincere hope that Humboldt State will mean more to you every day that you are with us. No matter where you are in life, or what you are doing, you never receive more than you give. If you remember this as you go through school, if you put great effort into whatever you are doing, you will receive equally as good results. These two to four years before you can be the finest of your life, but you have to contribute much to their formation.

Try to keep in mind that "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." When you work, work hard, and when you play, play hard. Live these years so that you will always experience a pleasant thrill when you recall them. Humboldt State is rich with opportunity for all of you. We have dramatic, literary, athletic, and social organizations and a weekly newspaper which may be of great interest to you. Surely one of these will interest you and help further your ambitions. All of these organizations have improved annually. We want your interest in them and your endeavors to make them better in coming years.

WELCOME ALUMNI?

Humboldt State College used to welcome its frosh; it doesn't now. It used to welcome its alumni. It hasn't practiced this custom for once a year. The old pioneer Humboldt Staters must feel like outcasts. Do we want this situation to exist? The answer is No, and yet what can the college do? It can at least set aside one day in the college year when alumni may be invited to visit the old Alma Mater and acquaint themselves with the "Bigger and better Campus." A day of spirit, entertainment, and amusement when the college student can cast aside the old binder and join in a friendly program of Humboldt Hospitalities with the builders of Humboldt State—the Alumni.

"Say you saw it in the Lumberjack."

FORUM

Palo Alto, March 2.

The Editor, Sir:

The printing of the Lumberjack is indeed a great advancement. From the first, when the Lumberjack was the "Rooter," a printed paper was the ambition of the staff. If the Lumberjack is a success in its printed form, Humboldt can well be proud of its paper.

But the bare fact that it is printed will not make the paper a success. It is a pity that the first printed edition should be marred by needless mistakes and pomposity. No paper can be perfect, but the labeling of the edition as Volume One and the unpardonable attitude of the editorial are inexcusable. Aside from the slight on previous editions, the failure to have the right volume number shows an ignorance of common newspaper practice. Regardless of minor changes, it is customary to change the volume number twice annually. The Lumberjack should now be Volume Four.

As a member of last year's staff, I feel that the aspersions cast on the 'literary excellence' of former issues is insulting, unjustified, and uncalled for. The Lumberjack is not yet on such a high plane that it can set itself up as an arbiter of quality. True, the first editions of the weekly paper did not rank with the Portland Oregonian or the Daily Californian, but they were the result of the honest efforts of a few interested persons to get a newspaper established at Humboldt State. The degree of their success is attested by the present standing of the Lumberjack. The patronizing attitude towards these efforts is quite out of place.

Humboldt has, or is supposed to have, student self government. To be a complete success, the paper must be a product of the students themselves. Nothing is more dear to a paper than its right to dictate its own policies and to control its own destinies. Last year, as faculty advisor and the only faculty member with a voice in the control of the paper, Mr. Hicklin established the precedent of non-interference by members of the faculty. Unless this precedent is followed, the Lumberjack can not be truly representative of Humboldt's student body. The paper was established by the students themselves and if it cannot survive without faculty aid, it is most unfortunate.

Dear Mr. Morris:

The Lumberjack is sorry to see that your interpretation of the editorial was a wrong one. We, however, apologize for the typographical errors which resulted in the misrepresentation of the volume number of the issue and the needless mistakes in copy. Due to lack of organization and time, such mistakes were unavoidable under the conditions which prevailed. As for the pomposity of the editorial, it was never intended toward either praising the literary excellence of the present Lumberjack, or discrediting the past Rooter. The Lumberjack which the editorial involved was a mimeographed sheet.

Frosh Cagers Lose Game With Yeasters

Closing a long drawn-out season the Frosh quintet lost a hectic extra period game to the Yeastcakers last Friday evening by a score of 38-35. The Yeastcakers, composed of members from the Owls, Eureka Hi, Samoa, and Humboldt State varsities, found the freshmen boys far from out-classed in a struggle to wind up the season with a victory. The game started out fast and the Frosh quickly went into the lead, which they kept until the last few minutes of the game. At half time the college babes had a 20-14 advantage, which was partly due to their good playing and also to the continual crabbing of their opponents, who were penalized by Referee Simpson. With less than five minutes to go the Yeastcakers tied the score and then jumped into a two-point lead, which they held until a minute before the end of the regular time. Here the collegians sank two out of three foul shots and tied the score. However, in the extra period the Frosh were able to garner only three points while the Yeastcakers made six. Howard Gregersen, center for the winners committed his fourth foul in the second half but due to the fact that they had no substitutes he was allowed to remain in the game, a factor which undoubtedly lost the game for the Frosh. Fleishman for the winners played a good game and took high-point honors with 20 tallies. Murphy, playing his third game for the Frosh, finally broke into the scoring column with 12 points.

COLLEGE, HIGH SCHOOL TENNIS TOURNAMENT WELL UNDERWAY

The A. U. H. S. H. S. T. C. tennis tournament is well underway, but it is being temporarily interrupted by old man Jupiter Pleuvius.

Amy Vance defeated Mary Louise Weber in two fast sets Monday afternoon on the high school courts. Vance took the first set in fine style, holding her high school opponent to three games. Weber rallied in the second set and fought her on even terms until she finally weakened and Vance took a long set, 12-10.

Elmore and Shorlig of the high school won two hard fought sets from Giuntini and Woodcock of H. S. T. C., 6-4, 6-3. Shorlig and Elmore are the men's doubles champions of Humboldt county. Archie Forson and Louise Johnston lost to Paul Hunter and Nadine Null, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3. Archie Forson took an easy match from Tommy Jenkins of A. U. H. S., 6-0, 6-1.

At present the competition is even, with H. S. T. C. the winner of two singles matches and the high school the victor of the two doubles matches. The schedule is on the bulletin board for the benefit of all interested.

PLANS FOR OPERETTA UNDERWAY

According to Mr. McKay we are going to have a chance to see, and enjoy and possibly take part in a Gilbert-Sullivan operetta this spring. In fact the first rehearsals and try-out are planned already. A large group have already shown their interest in the operetta, H. M. S. Pinafore, but it still is not too late to try-out. If you are interested and can sing or act a little, drop around to the music room and tell Mr. McKay about it. The following have already signed up: K. Nel-list, L. Parr, R. Carroll, E. Coulter, K. Duffy, L. Dougherty, M. Titlow, G. Rutledge, L. Robinson, L. Henningsen, C. Wilson, L. Wood, I. Hamilton, H. Christiansen, H. Gregerson, G. Harley, L. Hepler, B. Hughes, R. Hunt, D. Jones, J. Stewart, E. Stewart, E. Swanson, F. Theophilus, C. Taubman, G. Clary, and B. Sturrock.

More boys are needed, in fact, the above list is all girls. What an operetta it would be with all girls!

BANQUET CLIMAXES H. S. T. C. CAGE SEASON

Well, folks, she's over!

The most successful basketball season in Humboldt State Teachers College history was brought to an enjoyable close on Tuesday night when the members of the championship team were honored by a most delicious raviola feed at the Big Four restaurant in Trinidad. Despite the fact that our coach, Fred Telonicher, was confined to his home with an attack of "flu," the boys had a good time, literally wading into the food on the table and yelling for more.

Although there was no one present to assume charge of the affair, the boys conducted themselves very well considering the fact that it was possible to throw food at one another and act uncivilized in general. Humboldt State can well be proud of the team which represented her on the court during the basketball season just past.

AEROCAR COMING TO ARCATA

The Aerocar shown above, one of a fleet now touring the United States, will be in Arcata next Tuesday afternoon on its maiden trip to Brizards Store, local agents for Enna Jettick Shoes. Built by Glenn Curtiss, its lines are those of the airplane body, mounted to ride with utmost smoothness. Modernistic wicker and plush furniture, radio, a telephone, barometer and a ship's clock make up its furnishings. The makers of Enna Jettick shoes and Brizards of Arcata join in extending an invitation to all H. S. T. C. students and faculty members to visit the Aerocar during its visit here.

Baseball Begins on college Diamond

With the basketball season brought to a close with a rare Raviola feed at the Big Four, the College athletes are now turning their attention to the national pastime—baseball.

At present fifteen aspirants are trying to land berths on the Green and Gold team. With only four veterans in the fold, Coach Telonicher is faced with the problem of molding a team together from new faces. With "Suse" Brundin, star southpaw, back in school, the pitching duties will be well taken care of. However, the catching assignment is causing no end of trouble to our coach. At present several are trying out for the position, but none of these can hold down Suse's slants. Derby, W. Simpson, and Moore are the likely-looking prospects in the order named. The infield will be composed of all new players. Either Brantley or Gregersen will be stationed at first base and as they are of practically equal caliber, it is certain that the initial sack will be well fortified. Murphy and Giuntini are trying out for second and short, respectfully, and as these two formed the keystone combination for the Championship Arcata Hi team last year, they will be able to work as a unit. Hemphill, on the torrid corner will round out the infield, which is composed of three Freshmen. Jimmy is a polished infielder and a steady player, who never gives up until the last out, and few balls will be hit past him.

In the outfield, coach Telonicher has the choice of several players. However, it looks like Merrian and Hadley, veterans from last year's team, and Penn, the third member from last year's Arcata Hi team, will get the starting call. Other candidates are, J. Simpson, Quintrell, W. Simpson and Woodcock.

That at Cherrapunji, India in 1861, the annual rainfall was 918 inches or 76.5 feet? 372 inches of rain fell in July and 425 inches fell in one day. The average rainfall each year is 466 inches.

TO THE LONG SUFFERING EDITOR OF THE HUMBOLDT LUMBERJACK

Wistfully, he passed me by:
Returned, and tried to grin:
Approached, with teardrops in his eyes,
And wearily asked me where I'd been.

Said I, "my friend, what is your woe;
What can your trouble be."
"Have you a tooth-ache or sore toe;
Or was your uncle lost at sea."

He turned away without reply.
My conscience hurt within.
For both of us were well aware,
That I didn't "have my write-up in."

MASCOT CONTEST TO RE-OPEN TUESDAY, MARCH 17

The mascot contest, a contest for obtaining a mascot or battle symbol for Humboldt State, will reopen again at 8:00 a. m. Tuesday, March 17. In a recent contest of similar nature held at San Francisco State Teachers' College, the "Golden Owls" and "Golden Gaters" prevailed as favorites. California has its Bears—Stanford its Indian, and St. Mary's its Gael, while Humboldt State struggles under the suggestions of "Howling Hyennas," "Gallop-jelly Fish" and "Warty Frogs."

During the recent contest many suggestions were submitted and four finally voted upon. These four suggestions will be added to the new list of the re-opened contest and voted upon by the student body at a general election. And remember a liberal prize is to be awarded to the victor in this contest for the College "War prize."

Remember the works, and remember time; give Humboldt State a name. Time, name, and date should be on legs.

Contest opens Tuesday, March 17, and closes two weeks from date.

3. Three contributions are allowed each student.

4. Every Student Body member is urged to turn in at least one contribution.

COLLEGE COMMONS

This month will be a busy one for Miss Johnson and all those connected with the College Commons. This week-end, beginning Friday, the Commons will serve all the meals for those attending the Older Boys' Conference. Fifty or sixty boys are expected.

Monday night, March 16, is the date of the Rotary banquet, at which 200 people will be served.

The following Friday, March 20, the Inaugural banquet will be served to 200 guests.

The 20-30 club, which meets for dinner every Monday night at the Commons, will hold a Charter Banquet on Friday, March 27.

On April 3 the Boards of Trustees of the various schools in the county will be guests of the Commons at a luncheon.

FACULTY NOTES

Mr. Graves reports that all the 600 books have been moved upstairs in the library to accommodate an increasing supply. This section includes the useful arts—agriculture, home economics, etc.

Mrs. E. A. Clements, Chief of the State Division of Student Teaching and Certifications of State Department of Education, visited here this week.

The Training School seventh grade, under the supervision of Lois Cottrell, put on a very interesting exhibit on China, Wednesday of this week. The exhibit depicted the industries and social and economic conditions of China. The students were present to show visitors the various articles on display, and it was very evident that they enjoyed the open house.

Miss Platt is contemplating a trip to the Orient; in fact, she has already booked passage on the N. Y. K. steamer, Sama Marie, sailing from San Francisco, June 25. She plans to spend two months on the trip. She will visit Honolulu, Japan, China, and Korea, and return in the middle of August.

For the last several weeks the ornithology classes have been making trips to study the ducks on the bay. Recently they made a trip to Fields Landing where they saw an excellent collection of birds at Mitchell's Store. Later they went out on the pier and enjoyed an enviable sight—that of approximately ten thousand Black Bient geese feeding on the bay.

ANOTHER USE FOR THAT S. B. CARD

We are finding more and more uses for that little piece of blue card board that costs us five dollars—you know, the Student Body ticket! We have been getting a discount at all Humboldt State league games, and now we are going to use them in order to attend the dances. And why not? The dances cost the students money. According to the Student Body Constitution, we—provide dwe are S. B. members—are entitled to bid one guest to a dance, and we should accompany that guest to see that he has a good time, of course. So, boys and girls, trot your guests along, one at a time, and don't forget the S. B. card.

But invite all the alumni. For that same constitution of ours extends these old friends a hearty welcome.

Another interesting thing dug out of the above mentioned document is that we poor mortals who have neglected our fees are left out in the cold night air. We can't even poach on our friends for a bid. We'll just stay home or go to the show and hear about the dance later. Unless we trot down and see about that S. B. fee, which is not a bid idea. Eo we'll be seeing you—Maybe.
