

Celebrating Writers and Writing in our Communities

---

Volume 3

Article 10

---

2020

A Man Who Had A Dream

Cayleb I. Riley

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.humboldt.edu/rwc>

---

Recommended Citation

Riley, Cayleb I. (2020) "A Man Who Had A Dream," Celebrating Writers and Writing in our Communities: Vol. 3 , Article 10.

Available at: <https://digitalcommons.humboldt.edu/rwc/vol3/iss1/10>

This Poetry Informational/Argument is brought to you for free and open access by the Journals at Digital Commons @ Humboldt State University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Celebrating Writers and Writing in our Communities by an authorized editor of Digital Commons @ Humboldt State University. For more information, please contact kyle.morgan@humboldt.edu.

A Man Who Had a Dream

By Cayleb Ilani Riley

There was a man who had helped the world
He had a dream
A dream to make a voice
For all people of race
To have equals
Among this place
He was a king
The Martin King
He helped not only men and women of color
But also taught us the ways of respecting a fellow life lover
He is remembered for what he did for us
So we give him thanks for his perseverance
He had helped this nation to become what it is
He created a fellowship
That was for all to join
To be one as a nation
He was respected all around
But people of power wanted to keep their ground
He was shot down
He was attacked
He was thrown
He was bat

But in the end he gave a speech

And he said

“I have a dream”

But if we all did that

Think

What would that do