Tomorrow evening at 6:15 the College Commons will be the scene of the semi-annual Senior Banquet which precedes the Senior Ball and both of which are sponsored by the graduating Senior Class of Humboldt College.

The affair tomorrow night is to be as formal as possible — strictly formal for women and formal for men as far as possible. Men not wearing dark suits will not be admitted and no outside "stags" will be allowed at either the Banquet or the Ball.

Following the Banquet, the Ball will begin at 9 o'clock in the College Gymnasium with Herbert Inskip and his Collegians furnishing the music. Novel decorations featuring a false ceiling and the revolving light in the center of the gym are being arranged. Punch will be served throughout the evening.

The list of committees in charge of the affair are as follows: dance, Alice Renfro and John Simpson; banquet, Alyce Finne and Edgar Samons; programs, Mary Carter, Agnes Johnson and George Monroe.

Musical Production Is Postponed

The opera, "Chimes of Normandy," has been postponed until next fall on account of the congestion of events so near the week of final examinations.

Edmund V. Jeffers, associate professor of music, states that the opera will be staged under the same plans as were to be used this spring, and will probably be the first musical event of the fall season.

Most of the cast will be back at school and will have the same parts they were working on this spring.

C. E. Graves to Be District President

C. E. Graves, librarian of H. S. T. C., has been appointed president of the Seventh District of the California Library Association, which includes Humboldt and Del Norte Counties.

The appointment is for the period of one year and was made by Jasmine Britton, president of the California Library Association. Mr. Graves will be required to preside over a district meeting which is held once a year. There are nine such districts in the state of California.

The fourth grade class under the direction of Eleanor McCammon student teacher gave a "Pioneer Tea" at 2 o'clock last Friday, May 12, in the Social Unit of the college. Miss Belle Dickson, assistant professor of education, supervised the program.

NOTICE!

Students and Faculty, don't forget the Senior Assembly tomorrow at 10 a. m. in the College Auditorium. The program will be very light and it is possible that a part of the hour will be given over to a short Student Body meeting.

JEFFERS HAS HIGH HOPES FOR MUSIC

Edmund V. Jeffers, associate professor of music, plans to enlarge the various parts of the music department next semester.

The orchestra will be enlarged to about 30 or 35 members. It will have about five new violinists, another cellist, several new reed and brass players, and a tympany drum player.

Josephine McCurdy and Mary Emily Speier will probably be the bass players. Herbert Moore has indicated his desire to play second violin next semester.

Mr. Jeffers hopes to have men's and women's glee clubs of 40 voices each next semester, from which will be taken the members of the choruses and principals of the opera to be given next fall.

The glee clubs, A Cappella choir, and orchestra will again give Sunday afternoon musicales. The auditorium was filled to overflowing at each of the Sunday musicales this semester.

The course in Brass Instruments will be offered by Mr. Jeffers next semester and not again for three semesters.

Keyboard harmony will be offered in connection with theoretical harmony next semester.

Association Elects Officers for Fall

Herbert Moore, basketball star and member of the tennis team was elected president of the Men's Association at the election last Friday.

Other officers elected were: Vice President, Earl Tatman; secretary-treasurer, William Oliver; yell leader, Carl Owen.

These men took over their duties at the scheduled meeting of the Men Students last Monday.

Former Students Visit On Return From U. C.

Two former Humboldt students, Hazel Christensen and Ernest Turner, were seen about the campus last week.

Miss Christensen, better known as "Christie," who has just completed a semester at the University of California, has returned to take part in the graduation exercises of this year's class. She graduated from Humboldt last January.

Ernest Turner went to Humboldt for two years and then went to California, where he is majoring in Forestry.

A Cappella Choir to Be Credit Course

A Cappella Choir is being offered as a credit course next semester. The class will be held once a week, from 7:15 to 9:15 on Thursday evenings.

The choir will probably be enlarged to about 30 voices. Members of the men's and women's glee clubs will be given preference in choosing additional material for the A Cappella Choir, according to Mr. Jeffers.

BACCALAUREATE PLANS COMPLETED

The Baccalaureate Service for the graduating Senior Class will be held in the Christian Church in Eureka Sunday evening, May 21, at 8 o'clock. Rev. Hudson of the Congregational Church, will be the principal speaker.

Rev. Roscoe Smith of the Christian Church will conduct the service. The College A Cappella Choir will sing and Rev. Saywell of the Methodist Church will give the scripture reading. Rev. Ekaas of the Scandinavian Methodist Church will pronounce the invocation.

This service is to be a Union Service and the Congregational, the Christian, the Methodist, the Scandinavian Methodist and the Presbyterian churches will participate.

The public is invited to attend the annual commencement, and the administration is anxious to have the people of Humboldt realize that the commencement is a community affair.

CHOIR - DRAMATICS CREDIT TO H. S. T. C.

That the A Cappella Choir and the dramatics fraternity have brought credit to Humboldt State Teachers College in their recent trips was the statement made yesterday by President Arthur S. Gist. He and Mrs. Gist accompanied the choir on the recent trip to Berkeley and other cities in that district, and they also went with the students who presented the one-act plays in Chico.

"These trips are enjoyable and profitable from every standpoint," President Gist said today.

"Giving productions before strange audiences where the reputation of the college is at stake stimulates the students to do their best work. The contacts of Mrs. Gist and myself with these students on these trips were most pleasurable to us.

"Trips of this kind arouse genuine interest in the fields of music and dramatics and recognize meritorious work done by the students. High-type productions bring credit to the college so needed at this time. Friends of the college in other parts of the state supplemented the work of local organizations and individuals in saving the college.

"The high quality of work done by the students on these last two trips justifies the confidence of our friends in working to continue Humboldt as a college. Good will and confidence in our integrity and in our accomplishments are always valuable assets."

Men's Association to Hold Annual Jubilee

The annual outdoor jubilee of the Men's Association of Humboldt State will be held Thursday afternoon, May 25, at Big Lagoon, according to Ralph Goodwin, chairman of the outing.

Games will be participated in and Coach Frederick Telonicher will be in charge of the recreation.

Each member of the Association is bringing food, and H. L. Jenkins, teacher of industrial arts, has promised to cook the beans.

Edmund V. Jeffers, associate professor of music, and Mrs. Jeffers are going to the World Fair at Chicago this summer.

NOTICE!

The group left Oakland at 6:30 a. m. Monday, and sang at San Jose state teachers college at 10 a. m. The members of the choir were guests at a luncheon given by the San Jose college Monday noon.

Monday night the group stayed in San Francisco. Many of them had French dinners and attended theatres in the evening.

Tuesday the choir sang at Santa Rosa and Ukiah, returning to Humboldt late in the evening.

COMMUNICATION

Dear Editor:

Why is chewing gum so vigorously objected to in institutions of learning? What peculiarities are there about an innocent stick of this product that renders it so seemingly undesirable? A satisfactory answer to these questions has never been furnished.

There are two sides to every matter except the fourth dimension and chewing gum. According to French logic, therefore, all arguments are in behalf of the favorite American pastime. Let us enumerate a few of these attributes.

The student, by means of gum during school, not only develops strong firm teeth for self-protection, but he produces a noise that is a means of keeping his fellow students awake.

Think of the lives that gum has saved. Think of the happy homes it has helped to keep together. Think of the boy friends and girl friends that would have been lost if it weren't for this product. What would those students, who are addicted to garlic, do if it weren't for this salubrious commodity?

Why not sell gum on the campus?

A. STUDENT.

HUMBOLDT SPORTING NEWS

BASEBALL ON THE AIR

For the first time in Humboldt's history, an athletic contest was announced over the air.

Last Saturday morning, through the courtesy of KIEM, the baseball game between Humboldt and Ashland was announced on the air.

The management of the radio station graciously consented to the announcement, and informed the students that if in the future our college desired any programs, or rallies on the air, they would be pleased to co-operate with us.

THE GRAND OLD LADY OF HUMBOLDT

By DICK MCCOY

Eleven years of reticent observation have passed since the headless statue first took her stand in the main entrance to Humboldt State Teachers College. During that time not so much as a single word has escaped her feminine lips. Peculiar to her sex, she has gazed with unbroken silence at those who have come within the scope of her vision. Like the wise old owl who sat in the oak, "The more she has seen, the less she has spoke."

If only the statue could talk, what secrets she might divulge. For the past decade she has seen students of all description coming and going. This all-seeing all-knowing creature has wept with the weary, worn scholar, and has rejoiced with the carefree youth who knows no responsibility. She has watched the mischievous student slyly slip down the front steps, headed for parts unknown. She has even seen the time when college lads and lassies were lured from school by the mythical sunshine.

All has not been a life of ease and quiet for the statue, however. She had her share of troubles. She has lost her head, but not from excitement. It is an inherited characteristic. She has been stripped of her robe, and on several occasions playful students have almost thrown her off her balance.

This statue is the Winged Victory of Samothrace, and is a reproduction of the famous statue that now holds the most conspicuous spot in the Louvre at Paris. The original Winged Victory was found on Samothrace, a small island in the Aegean Sea. The statue was created in honor of a great naval victory by the inhabitants of the island over a tribe of invading barbarians.

"Shall we have a friendly game of cards?"

"No, let's play bridge."

College Wins Two From Webfooters

Hitting the ball hard behind Charley Timmons' good pitching, the Humboldt State Teachers' College baseball team took the first game of the annual series with Southern Oregon Normal School by a 10 to 5 score here May 12.

Timmons hurled great ball for the local collegians, striking out 13, and outside of the second and seventh innings, he was practically invincible. Two runs scored in each of these innings. Timmons had his opponents hitting in the air, only one ground ball going to the infield and that resulted in an error when the fielder threw high to first.

Howard Gregersen led the Humboldt State hitters with two doubles and a single. Giuntini and Hartman each cracked out a pair of singles for the winners. Timmons, himself, connected for a triple.

Adamson with a home run and a single and H. Hartman with two singles were leading willow widders for the invaders. Adamson's home run was a high fly to center that probably would have been caught had not Merriam tripped in a jumping pit and could not recover soon enough to snag the ball which fell almost within reaching distance. There was one man on at the time of the clout.

Seven Ashland errors, all in the infield, materially aided the Humboldt cause although few runs scored as a result.

Dobe Harrison, who played outstanding baseball in the county several years ago and who is now teaching school, umpired.

SECOND GAME

Southern Oregon Normal School baseball team suffered its second defeat at the hands of the Humboldt State Teachers College team at Albee Stadium Saturday by a score of 7 to 4.

Humboldt got away to a fluke start in the first inning. With two men on base and two out Buster Marshall struck out, but the catcher dropped the ball and Buster beat the throw to first as two men scored. Humboldt followed up in the second with two more runs when Penn knocked a long fly into the tall grass at the edge of the grove just beyond right field. The fielder had difficulty in finding the ball as Penn made the complete circuit. A runner on second also scored on the hit.

In their half of the fourth the visitors with the bases loaded, Frannie Moore made a bad throw to third and two men scored as the third one was put out trying to reach third from first. The side was retired before further damage. In order to appease for his bad peg, Moore at his time at bat hit the ball a sizzler and it flew out to the club house and he had plenty of time to cross the plate for a homer, stopping momentarily at third base. This brought the score to 7 for the H. S. T. C. and 4 for the Southern Oregon team, and there the scoring stopped, neither one adding to their record during the remaining three innings.

Buster Marshall, pitching for the College allowed only 8 hits, five of which were bunched in the second inning and things looked

COMMUNICATIONS

H. S. T. C. May 3, 1933

Dear Editor:

Since the Humboldt State Teachers College first began, its graduating seniors have left the institution without taking with them some token of remembrance developed around their class members. They have never had a tangible object symbolizing the sentiment of their college days.

In other schools, this token of fond recollections is found in a form of publication. There is hardly a high school or college in the country which does not have its annual. This work is usually produced by the Seniors, and consists of literary contributions, and pictures of the senior class.

An elaborate publication such as the Eureka High produces is a financial impossibility for Humboldt. However, some small production consisting of only the seniors pictures and a few comments would be perfectly feasible. After all, it is not the paper upon which these books are written that counts, it is the memories which they revive and the sentiment which they embody.

Sincerely,

RICHARD MCCOY.

Miss Ruth Bestor, associate professor of education, will spend her summer vacation studying at the Columbia University, in New York City.

"Y" Secretary Urges Men to Form Opinions

"The people of present times have a tendency to avoid the expression of their personal views upon important issues," stated C. E. Morrow, district secretary of the Y. M. C. A., in an address on the Ten Commandments, before the members of the College Y at their regular Tuesday noon meeting in the music room.

"Not only in politics, but in other fields as well people are inclined to get by without taking a definite stand upon important matters," Mr. Morrow said.

In placing the ten commandments in the order of their importance, a large majority of 500 college students placed at the head of the list: "Thou shalt not kill." There was any number of arrangements for the other nine commandments. This variation in the order of importance shows a lack of definite conviction regarding these vital declarations, the speaker said. "When an important issue arises in your life, consider the evidence for and against, and then take a definite stand in the matter," Mr. Morrow concluded.

Collegians Will Open Summer Engagements

For the past year H. S. T. C. has been very fortunate in having a wonderful amount of musical talent. A group of the musicians have organized, and in the very near future, they are going to surprise Humboldt County with original selections of novel stunts. The band is not only going to provide the most exceptional music, but are going to feature entertainment that is excelling in every respect.

The orchestra is assuming the name of "Collegians" because nearly all of the members have been assisting in the interpretations of entertainment that has been heard in the college. The personnel of the band, which follows, will undoubtedly warrant their appearance for every occasion in the principal habitats of the merry.

Herbert Inskip, piano; Leonard Early, saxophone; James Fasullo, saxophone and violin; Robert Tracey, saxophone; Roy Malloy, trumpet; Woodrow Thompson, Trombone and violin; Clarence Heney, Tuba; Carl Owen, drums.

This combination will render the crowd at Blue Lake, May 27th, with vocal ensembles, soloists, novelties and the latest request numbers will not be out of order.

A ROMANZA

"A Major" loved a maiden so
His warlike heart was soft as Do.
He oft would kneel to her and say,

"Thou art of life my only Re.
"Ah, but if kinder thou wouldst be,

And sometimes sweetly smile on me.

"Thou art my life, my guiding star,

I love thee near, I love thee far.
"My passion I cannot control;
Thou art the idol of my Sol."

The maiden said, "Oh, fie, ask pa,
How can you go on so? Oh, La!"
The major rose from bended knee,

And went her father for to sl.
The father thought no match was finer,

"A major" once had been "A miner."

They married soon, and after that

Dwelt in ten rooms all in "one flat."

So happy ends this little tale,
For they lived in the grandest "scale."

Dear Friends:

I was deeply touched by your thought of me in my bereavement, and I thank you for expressing it so beautifully.

One of the memories of my college teaching that I prize most highly is that I had the confidence and respect of the students.

I wish you all splendid futures of usefulness and happiness.

Your sincere friend,
