The College Civics Club was organized during the school year of 1924-25 by Mr. Schussman's classes in education for citizenship to improve conditions about the campus. This objective was achieved by the completion of some definite project each semester.

The first project undertaken was the installation of the lights

Four Game Schedule Aim of Telonicher

A four-game schedule for the 1934 football season at Humboldt State is the aim of Coach Telonicher. He wants to get two home games and two games away from home.

Coach Telonicher believes that if more games are arranged than there were this year more men will turn out for the team. These games will be scheduled early so as games can be gotten with the best of the junior colleges. Practice games will also be lined up for the college varsity.

The only difficulty facing the college in getting games early is that the stadium in Eureka is not always available to use by the college team as the high schools have first choice.

Archery Range to Be Made in Gym

The Archery Club voted at a meeting last Friday noon to purchase steel cable, screw-eyes, turnbuckles and snaps to support the backstops for an indoor archery range in the big gymnasium. The club already has the backstops, which will be placed behind the standard straw targets to stop arrows which miss.

The range will be 27 yards long and will permit holding both archery classes and club shoots throughout the rainy season.

C. E. GRAVES TALKS TO COLLEGE Y CLUB

"Mountain Climbing" was the subject of a talk given by C. E. Graves, Humboldt State Teachers College librarian, before the college Y. M. C. A. Tuesday noon, October 31, in Mrs. Marie Clark Ostrander's music class room.

Mr. Graves illustrated his talk with a number of snapshots, which he had taken on some of his various climbs. He also explained the use of the Alpine stock and the ice axe, one of which is a necessity to a mountain climber. Mr. Graves uses the ice axe.

The Alpine stock is a small pole, about six feet long, with a sharp steel point on one end. The ice axe is shorter and resembles a small mattock with a sharp steel point on the end of the handle, the handle being about four feet long. The Alpine stock is superior in descending a mountain as the longer handle enables the climber to use it as a brake in sliding down ice covered slopes. The ice axe is superior in ascending the mountains as it may

Rehearsals of Play Open to Students

Tonight at 7:30 and also on Monday night at 7:30 in the College Auditorium, Garff B. Wilson will present dress rehearsals of the play "Interference" to which the students and friends are invited. Anyone not having the pleasure of seeing this excellent production in its premiere showing will be able to see it at either of these two times. The cast of the play and the director will leave shortly for the bay region where "Interference" will be presented at the San Francisco State Teachers College, and also at Ukiah and Willits. They will leave Wednesday morning on this tour and will return to Arcata Sunday.

Pi Alpha Pi Will Debate Farmers' Plan

"Resolved that the Farmers Allotment Plan is economically impossible" will be the subject debated at the meeting of Pi Alpha Pi November 14, with Oliver Viale, Elva Baumgartner and Evelyn Renner taking the affirmative, and Ruth Carroll, Elva Quarnheim and Louis Tallman, the negative.

PAUL ROBERTS AT STANFORD

Paul Roberts, former student of Humboldt State Teachers College, and resident of Eureka, is now attending Stanford University, where he is studying medicine.

STUDENTS TO TAKE OVER ASSEMBLIES

PRESIDENT HEMPHILL IS GIVEN FULL POWER FOR PROGRAMS

The management of all assemblies will be handled by the Student Body from now on, according to President Gist.

James Hemphill, student body president, will appoint committees to look after the details; such as community singing, preparation of the stage and other necessary duties.

The meeting will be conducted as regular student body meeting with the president, and the practice of students introducing speakers will be continued.

The president of the student body, and his assembly committee, will work with the administration in selecting speakers for the assemblies.

The plan is to have not more than two assemblies each month with programs headed by a speaker.

It has been suggested by many that members of the faculty be asked to speak on different occasions because they possess information interesting to all students.

COMEDY HIT IS TO BE NEXT PLAY

"The Butter & Egg Man," the next play to be directed by Garff B. Wilson, will be presented in the college auditorium Monday, December 18, at 8 p. m.

Tryouts for the play in which eight new actors got parts, were held in the auditorium recently.

The cast is as follows:

Fanny Lehman -- Helen Mitchell
Jack McClure ---- Merton Meng
Mary Martin -----

Dr. Homer Balabanis Talks to Kiwanis

"Isolation vs. World Trade" was the subject of a talk given by Dr. Homer P. Balabanis, vice president of Humboldt State Teachers College, before the Arcata Kiwanis Club Thursday evening.

Mr. Balabanis believes that it is impossible for the United States to receive payment for the war debts from the various nations that owe her unless she accepts foreign trade.

Former Student Is Engaged to Scotian

The engagement of Francis Nielson, former Humboldt State Teachers College student, to Miss Vivian McLean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. McLean of Scotia, was announced at a party given in honor of the 25th anniversary of Mr. Nielson's parents Saturday evening, November 4.

Students Urged to Participate in Parade

All students of Humboldt, who possibly can, are asked to march in the Armistice Day parade to be held in Eureka Saturday afternoon at 1:30. Everybody be there and show the people of Humboldt County that Humboldt State is a real institution!

All students living in Arcata, who have no way to and from Eureka, be in front of the Hotel Arcata at 1 o'clock and there will be a ride for you.

MISS E. JOHNSON RESIGNS POSITION

Miss Ellen O. Johnson, director of the College Commons, whose resignation has been accepted and which will go into effect beginning the Christmas holidays, will be married to Horace E. Walter of Portland, Oregon, following the holiday season.

Miss Johnson, who came here in 1929 to serve as Director of the College Commons and teach home economics, not only developed her jobs, but grew with them. Beginning the fall semester of 1933 she was appointed head resident of Sunset Hall, the girls' dormitory, and Dean of Women of the Humboldt State Teachers College.

Many students and teachers say they will miss the delicious foods that Miss Johnson has served. According to President Gist, who said: "the food is about as tasty as I have eaten in any college commons. Miss Johnson is a splendid manager where it concerns large groups. Her leaving Humboldt is a distinct loss, for she is thoroughly competent and her interest has always been in the welfare of the students and

Senior Dance Set For December 19th

December 19 has been the date chosen for the senior dance which will be a formal affair. "Tuesday the 19th has been chosen because it will give all teachers and former students who teach in rural schools, a chance to attend a dance at their Alma Mater," said Bertil Munther, president of the senior class. "It will also give those students who are home from their respective universities a chance to attend at least one dance at Humboldt."

We hope the dance will be one of the best ever given at Humboldt, and the way the committees are working there should be no doubt about it," Mr. Munther said.

A Cappella Choir To Make Appearance

The A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Edmund F. Jeffers, will make its first public appearance on November 24. On this date they will appear in the College Auditorium in conjunction with a speech by Dr. Tully P. Knowles of the College of the Pacific.

NEW JANITOR AT H. S. T. C.

'INTERFERENCE' CAST TO MAKE LONG TOUR

PLAY TO BE SHOWN AT WILLITS, UKIAH AND SAN FRANCISCO

The cast and stage staff of "Interference," the play recently given here to a crowded house, are going on a five-day good-will tour during which the play will be presented at Willits, Ukiah and San Francisco November 15-20.

The objects of the tour, according to Garff Wilson, dramatics director, are to create good-will between the different schools, and to give the cast the valuable experience of acting before strange audiences on different stages.

About 20 people will make the tour in four private cars. They leave here for Willits early Wednesday morning of next week. After a rehearsal in the afternoon, the play will be presented in the Willits High School at 8 p. m.

The troupe then goes to San Francisco, where it presents the play Thursday at 8 p. m. the first night of a two-day play festival at the San Francisco State

E. Jeffers Heads Northern District

Edmund V. Jeffers, associate professor of music at the Humboldt State Teachers College, has been appointed chairman of the North Coast Section of the California Western Music Conference recently. The music conference in California is a division of the national Association of Music Supervisors, the headquarters of which are in Chicago.

Mr. Jeffers' position will place him in charge of the north coast district, California, which includes four counties, namely: Humboldt, Mendocino, Del Norte and Trinity. In each of these counties there will be a chairman to represent the music conference, appointed by Mr. Jeffers. The aim of the music organization is to further musical activities in the county, and to see that more music is brought before the public.

Anyone teaching music in public schools is eligible to join the music conference.

The appointment of Mr. Jeffers was made by Amy Grau Miller, first vice president of the California Western Music Conference, who lives in Los Angeles.

An Orchestra To You

What was wrong with our last college dance? No one seems to know, but they did say that it was one of the dearest dances the college has ever put on this year. Why? Well, we might do a little analysing. Was the floor all right? yes, we think it was. Were the decorations and lighting all right? Yes, we don't think they could have been any better. Was it the orchestra? Well, we might stop here and say a few words. The orchestra was pretty good, but don't you think if they practiced together more and put more pep into the pieces that are supposed to be peppy, that they might sound better? To tell the truth someone thought that waltzes were the only type of music played Friday night. Maybe they were right and then again, maybe they were wrong. What do you think? We would be willing to bet that the same orchestra can do a lot better, if it wants to. Anyway, a number of people left the dance before the dance was over. Why? Because they didn't like the sound of the orchestra.

Now this student body is paying good money for dance orchestras and there is no reason why a good orchestra cannot be hired.

Did You Sign Your Name

Observing creatures—these human beings. Shortly after the attempted assassination of the President-elect, Roosevelt, there was an account in the newspapers of some practical joker who wagered that he could formulate a petition for the election of the attempted murderer for president and a get a number of signers in a certain time. He did it. This was obviously a case of someone signing something he didn't know about. It might be thought that this person getting those signatures had resorted to some deceitful methods, but it is quite likely that he shoved the petition under the noses of some of the most intellectual of the city and told them to sign if they agreed with the principal. They either read it, but didn't know what they read, and went ahead and signed it or just signed it.

It is hard to believe that the highly intelligent Homo Sapien would be guilty of such carelessness, especially when the thing he is signing is apt to result so disastrously to him. For all he knew it might turn out to be a promissory note, a marriage license, or a confession of guilt. Or, as is the case of from three to four hundred students at Humboldt each semester, perhaps he signed a solemn pledge to withdraw from his Alma Mater if he should violate any principle of the self governing system. A pledge of this type is intended to provide for the self-elimination of unworthy students.

Before your next offence that might cast shadows of disapproval on Humboldt State, read the pledge you signed. You will know then what may be asked of you.

Are We Going To Take This?

By UGO GIUNTINI

A week or so ago the Community Recreation class posted the volleyball schedule and a few minutes after it had been posted members of the Y. M. C. A. had it changed. Was this necessary? Let us review the facts in the case. It is true that "Y" has its regular meetings scheduled for each Tuesday during the noon hour. It is also true that when the Community Recreation class asked for a sign-up of the volleyball enthusiasts, it announced that only those who had free time during the noon hour should sign up. There are about from 20 to 25 members in the "Y." Should these two-score students have the privilege of having all Tuesday noon activities cancelled? It hardly seems fair to the other 250 odd students. If this club is allowed to prevent Tuesday noon functions, what is there to stop other organizations, such as the W. A. A., Board of Control, Chi Sigma Epsilon, etc., from scheduling meetings on other days and asking that other functions be cancelled or not scheduled? It seems to me that if the "Y" members thought so much of their club, they shouldn't have signed to play noon volleyball.

Let me leave you with this statement and question in mind:

The volleyball sign-up was for those who had time and were willing to play during the noon period, Tuesdays as well as other days. What are those men students who do not belong to the "Y," and the women students to do on Tuesday noon?

HUMBOLDT'S GREATEST NEED

What is the greatest need of Humboldt? The greatest need of a new, small college is to establish itself among other higher institutions. This can only be done by achieving a reputation for thorough work. Why is an academic and a professional reputation so essential in building for the future of Humboldt? The students who graduate and plan to secure teaching positions can realize their ambition only when our college has the confidence and the good will of school trustees and school superintendents. Those students who transfer to other institutions will be seriously handicapped in securing credit for their work done here unless these other colleges and universities have confidence in the quality of work which Humboldt students accomplish.

How may Humboldt secure the confidence of school trustees, superintendents and other institutions? First, by selecting for our faculty only those instructors who are highly recommended by the leading institutions in California. Nothing we can do will offset lack of confidence in our faculty.

In the second place, a high standard of accomplishment in the classroom is essential. This requires good instruction by the faculty and intelligent effort by the students. In the short time Humboldt has been in existence it has done well in establishing itself among the colleges and universities of the state and the nation. We must ever guard, cherish and increase this confidence in Humboldt.

Signed:

ARTHUR S. GIST,
President of Humboldt State Teachers College.

EXCHANGES

By W. H. K.

Sports enthusiasts at San Jose State are gnashing their teeth in a fine frenzy, because of certain unladylike suggestions by College of Pacific sports writers that San Jose is subsidizing triple threat men. Three cheers for Humboldt! Thank God we're pure!

* * *

Sacramento Junior College students, no doubt hearing of the depression, intend to cut out the price of their annual, the "Pioneer," from $2.50 to a mere $1. Anyway, they will have "something to remember you by," even if, figuratively speaking, it is only a kick in the face.

* * *

A student committee from San Jose State College is playing an active part in conducting a Community Chest Drive for the benefit of the needy during the coming winter.

* * *

Football Supporters at Sacramento J. C. constructed a 122-foot pyre (yes it was really that high, because they said so) only to have it prematurely fired by the Cal Aggies. Imagine their chagrin.

What The "Whats It" Was, Now Decided

A mystery has been solved. Much debate has been held as to what the "what's it" was; namely, was it a cross between a dachshund and an Australian dingee, or a Malemute and a fox terrier, or a Great Dane and a Pekingese, or a Newfoundland and a Chihuahua.

One day the owner thought that something was wrong. The dog was growing too large for the kennel which had been built for him. His feet were large, and his hind legs were growing faster than his front legs. The collie from next door which used to come over and play with him, now had to stay home to save its own life.

Maybe some gland was functioning improperly. So the dog was taken to the veterinarian.

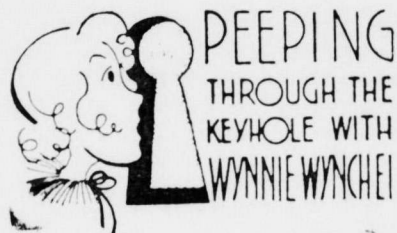

Now Edmund V. Jeffers, associate professor of music, wishes to announce that his big-footed pup Tippy (so named because it could be tipped over so easily) has been found by authorities to be a genuine German Shepherd dog and not an alley joblot.

College Varsity Is Getting Into Shape

With the candidates for the Humboldt State Varsity and Reserve teams showing up well, the school should have a basketball team that it will be proud of.

Archery Club Will Sponsor Team Shoots

The Archery Club decided at a meeting last Friday to sponsor a series of shoots to be held in the near future during the noon hour between mixed teams of men and women archers, and a notice has been posted on the bulletin board requesting those interested to sign up.

No archer need hesitate to enter these shoots on account of either inexperience, lack of recent practice or low scores because team scores will be all that count, those in charge say, and teams will be evenly matched in ability by each team captain choosing in turn from the list of those who sign up. Individual scores will not be published.

It is thought that a faculty team may be formed to enter the series.

At the hour of going to press the following students had signed the notice on the bulletin board, indicating their intention to take part in the shoots:

Gordon Hadley, Robert Caviness, Jack Frost, Marcus Roe, Mary Neilson, Gillis Courtright, Robert Adamson, Frank Look and Ethel Carroll. It is hoped, according to the president of the Archery Club, that 20 or more students will have enrolled before the shoots start.

FOUR PLAYS ARE AIM OF DIRECTOR

Garff B. Wilson, new dramatics director, contemplates a spring season of the Humboldt College Repertory Theatre Group, in which three or four smash hits, such as "The Trial of Mary Dugan," "The Drunkard," Noel Coward's "Easy Virtues," or Shaw's "Arms and the Man," will be presented to the public.

"In order to produce these plays in one short season," said Mr. Wilson, "it will be necessary to have a large group on hand, as it takes more than just the cast to make a success. Some people are needed to construct stage sets, some for collecting stage properties, some to handle publicity, to prompt actors, and to control lighting effects."

Mr. Wilson plans to rehearse two plays simultaneously so that all of the contemplated plays can be presented in the spring season. Season tickets will be sold, and the purchasers of the tickets will be entitled to reserved seats at the plays.

Sunset Hall Girls Give Party for Men

The girls at Sunset Hall had a party at the dormitory on November 4, for the men who stay at the Elmore house. "Kid" games were played, and refreshments were served.

Those present were: Doris Clark, Bessie March, Eleanor Renfro, Mary Shinn, Anna Brandt, Elizabeth Ferrill, Blanche Charles, Annabell Stockton, William Morehouse, C. B. Claypool, Mark Rowe, Mark Ely, Paul Ely, Dave Neilson and Archie Forson.

Arcata Boy Scouts Take Long "Hike"

J. Wendell Howe, assistant professor of biological science, and leader of Troop 9 of the Arcata Boy Scouts, took the Scouts to Kneeland Prairie recently on a "hike" in a truck.

The truck broke down about five miles above Kneeland Store and everybody turned and started walking down Jacoby Creek Canyon, a shortcut home, with the following results:

Four boys were lost and had to be found.

Lunch was delayed until 2 o'clock that afternoon.

The going was hard, so the group had to return to Kneeland road and struck it about a mile below where they had left it.

Darkness came when they had walked about five miles.

One boy had a stomachache—too many berries.

They arrived at Freshwater Store to find that a truck which Mr. Howe had phoned for from Kneeland had come for them there and then left. Mr. Howe had to telephone again.

And—oh yes, the results of the trip: five rhododendron pods.

The $125 needed to complete this work was earned by means of candy and food sales and an entertainment staged under the name of "High Jinks."

Other projects have been the fountain in the court by the library, the benches beside the tennis courts, the round galvanized-iron waste paper containers, the benches south of the commons, and the students' mail boxes in the hall by the bookstore. The trophy cases built into the wall by the library door were also paid for in part by the Civics Club. The ink in the large ink well in the library from which whoever will fill his pen is paid for by the Civics Club.

Other movements, such as freer use of the social unit, were initiated by the Civics Club during its nine years on the campus.

be used to cut steps in the ice slopes; however, it cannot be used to brake ones speed when descending because the handle is so short.

There is little danger in mountain climbing, according to Mr. Graves, because the climbers are tied together, therefore, if one member of the group slips, the other members are able to hold him. However, there are occasional accidents where whole strings of climbers are hurt.

Mr. Graves began his mountain climbing in his college days. He climbed Mount Washington, a 6200 foot peak in the New England states by means of a cog-wheeled railroad. However, since that time he has actually climbed Mount Blanc in Switzerland, Mount Hood and Mount Rainier in Washington.

of the college."

Since Miss Johnson came to Humboldt there has been many improvements in the commons and makes it one of the most up-to-date eating places in the state, according to reports. Some of the improvements that have taken place are: The installing of a Frigidaire, the installing of an oil burner in the stove and a complete remodeling of the kitchen, such as new tables, the dish washing annex et cetera. Some of the electrical appliances that have been installed were: an egg beater, potato peeler and a toaster. A new set of aluminum kettles and a new set of silverware have also been added to the equipment of the commons.

The policy of employing as many students as possible has been followed during the past years and more so during the year of 1933.

Miss Johnson can easily carry another title and that is, "one of the best women golfers who has ever played on the Arcata Golf course." Her score of 46 for nine holes still stands unbeaten by many women.
