Tinker Has Returned To Humboldt State

Ward "Tommy" Tinker, former student, has again enrolled at Humboldt State. Tinker attended Humboldt in 1933-34. Last spring he was elected to the student board of control for last term. Last fall he attended the University of California at Los Angeles and took a specialized course in optometry.

Another former Humboldt student who is attending U. C. L. A. is Thomas "Barney" Bland who is studying law.

Meetings Successful President Believes

That the two conferences held last week at Humboldt State were highly successful was the opinion expressed yesterday by President Arthur S. Gist of Humboldt. President Gist said:

"Our two educational conferences held last Saturday were stimulating and highly successful if we judge the attendance and the interest shown. The Northern California Vocational Guidance Association started five years ago with a small attendance. The interest has grown steadily each year. There seems to be a definite carry-over to the high school teachers' instruction and guidance of pupils.

"The elementary teachers' conference held in the new College Elementary School was the first held under the sponsorship of the college. Nearly 200 attended. The programs were carefully planned and well carried out."

Net Team Prospect Is Enrolled Here

Howard Lester, former Arcata High School basketball and tennis player, is now enrolled in Humboldt State Teachers College.

Lester was a member of the championship Arcata High School tennis squad, being a member of the doubles team. He also served as student body president.

He is now completing his work for the Ph. D. degree.

Mocking Bird Seen In Humboldt County

The mocking bird, popular in Southern California, may be moving slowly northward, reports Robert H. Poultney, professor of biological and physical science at Humboldt State. Recently Mr. Poultney saw one of the birds in this section of the country. In the last ten years this is the second mocking bird seen in this section.

The bird is generally found far south of the San Francisco bay region, but recently has nested as far north as Richmond.

The bird, slightly larger than a robin, is easily recognized by a white band on the wings. The color is grey, slightly lighter underneath.

Anyone who has or does see the bird is asked to notify Mr. Poultney.

All-County Guard Is Out for Basketball

Jimmy Moore, former Eureka High School lightweight all-county guard, is a new addition to the Humboldt State Teachers College basketball squad.

Name-Change

The proposal that the word "Teachers" be omitted from the title of the seven state teachers colleges in California is meeting with approval from the schools involved and with opposition from the state university. Editorial opinion in the college papers favors the change because of the increasing number of "J. C." students who are entering the teachers colleges of the state.

Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie of the San Jose State College in commenting on the Assembly Bill Number 174 and Senate Bill Number 172 as the bills were introduced, said:

"These bills are very important and should be mentioned in the students' home communities and they should be brought to the attention of the legislators in these communities if the students feel that such a change should be made."

Opposition to the proposal comes from the "Daily Californian," student publication at the University of California, who fear that the change would draw students and state appropriations from the state university to the state teachers colleges as the enrollment increases in them.

Success

Miss Grace Schell, editor of the "Lumberjack" the first semester, is now in the advertising department of Daly's in Eureka, having accepted a position with that firm shortly before the close of the first semester.

Members of the "Lumberjack" staff regret her leaving the paper, but they are happy that she has an opportunity to enter the advertising field and thereby keep up her contacts with this paper.

To use the vernacular, just about the time the "Lumberjack" editor "gets to going good," he departs for greater opportunities. Gordon Hadley, a former editor, for the past year, has been on the staff of the Humboldt Times in Eureka. He is now sporting editor of the paper.

Ruth Carroll is now teaching, but keeping up her interest in newspaper work by having her pupils write for the papers.

Buster DeMotte is now a student in journalism at Oklahoma A. & M. College in Stillwater, Oklahoma. In a recent intelligence test he received the highest rank. DeMotte plans next year to

H. S. T. C. Grads Tell of Life Since Leaving "Alma Mater"

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Humboldt of Southern California, who attended the educational conference at the college last Saturday, told friends of some of their varied experiences since leaving college, and of how they happened to settle in the southern part of the state.

The older faculty members here remember Mr. and Mrs. Humboldt, who were married some ten years ago by a Bishop.

Humboldt, who before entering college was a Cooper by trade, was fond of Goff and also quite a Hunter. When he rode in the hunts he used to jokingly say he was a Cooperider. He had one peculiar habit: he would always Carroll on the Gallop when the Chase led past or over any Waters near a Hill.

He told Saturday of the famous trip to the Middle West and its consequences.

Mrs. Humboldt—he calls her Merriam—had the task of getting their two sons ready for the trip.

"Samuelson," said she, "come here." She took him Anderson Albert to buy the latter some Moxon. Little Albert had hurt his Shinn on a long March with the Boy Scouts, on which he lost his Barlow knife.

The trip took some days. They finally arrived at the Platt River where they hoped to Speer some fish. However, while crossing at the Ford marked by some fine Elmes, they had an automobile accident.

After trying for some time to salvage the car, the situation began to Paul on them.

"This is a Thorne in my side," said Mr. Humboldt.

"We'd better Russell out of here," rejoined Mrs. H. "But what'll we do?"

"Oh, Look," said Mr. H. "There's a Hudson no one's using."

"Ott we take it?" Mrs. H asked. "The Marshall might get us."

"But, my Little Rhea of sunshine," Mr. H. restorted, "we wouldn't have to go to Court-right away, you know."

Then Inskip the Hull family and they are off. Encountering Frost, they decided they didn't like this Nordquist land.

"What Henders our going home?" wailed Mrs. Humboldt.

But since they had spent most of their money and had only a little Silva left, Mr. H. had to get a job. He found one as a gardener with a Sweet old lady. But he was a Baumgartner. In fact, as a gardener he was a fine Lawyer. So they started off, in the Snow.

"If this car Myers again, Hugo Senn a wire for help" advised Mrs. H. as she leaned over to Patterson Albert on the head. Albert, in fact, got Moore than his Meade of affection; he was really only a Foster son.

Finally they got back to California; near Stockton their luck changed.

Suddenly Mr. H. shouted, "I Speier." And he jumped out of the car and picked up a packet containing several hundred-dollar Williams. (Incidentally, Mrs. H. made him Falk over right there some money he'd been Owen her a long time.)

With this money they bought some Unsoeld land where they planted a Grove and began raising Sunquist oranges. It was hot work for awhile; many a day Mr. H. got a Thurston and Mrs. H. had a hard time keeping him from spending their few Nichols for Beer.

But finally fortune was kind; in fact, they are now making $10,000 Puryear.

"My Little Lovejoy," said Mr. H. when the first big check came in, "you Schell have your Brown dress you've wanted so long."

"And you," she answered, "can buy that Fountain Penn, some late books to Read, visit a Taylor to get a good suit, and buy yourself that pair of Spetz."

Then he put an Armstrong as Steele around her and Kistner.

The San Francisco State team has scored 716 points to their opponents' 453. Carl Gellat and Mervyn Chioino are the leading scorers with 136 and 123 respectively. Harry Post, guard, is outstanding on defense.

The probable starting team that Coach Telonicher will send on the floor are Harry Zook and Franny Moore, forwards; Wallace Lozensky, center; Captain Charles Timmons and Bill Henders at the guard positions.

Coach Dan Farmer of the San Francisco State team will probably start Carl Gellat and Mervyn Chioino at forwards, Cy Atkinson at center, and Harry Post and Tom Bragg at the guard positions.

There will be a preliminary game between the College Junior Varsity and the Hawkins Bar CCC team on Friday night and another game for the J. V. team on Saturday night with a formidable opponent.

Guidance Meetings Grow in Attendance

A letter received here by Professor J. Wendell Howe, declares that the Vocational Guidance Conference held at the Humboldt State Teachers College last Saturday was "very worth while and profitable."

"This was the fifth annual conference to which seventy-five teachers of high schools and junior high schools attended. Dr. Mallary of the University of California, was the guest speaker.

The following statistics are given of the attendance to the conference during the last five years, show the increasing interest:

First Conference, five teachers present; second conference twenty present; third conference forty; fourth conference sixty; fifth conference 75.

The group voted to call the conference the "Guidance" Conference instead of the "Vocational Conference," because the group takes into consideration not only vocational guidance, but social and education guidance as well.

CHANGE IN COURSE MUST BE APPROVED

The same old regulations still stand, according to Miss Imogene Platt, registrar of Humboldt State Teacher's College, concerning conditions under which one can withdraw from a course. "It is wise to call attention to these regulations at this time of the new semester," she said.

A student dropping a course with official approval during the first six weeks of any semester will not have that course reported or charged against his record for that semester.

During the second six weeks of any semester, a student may be permitted to drop a course without prejudice to his record in case this is done with the approval of an advisory committee, such approval to be based presumably upon considerations of health, outside work, or other matters for which the student is not held culpable. Otherwise, the dropping of a course during this interval will be recorded as a failure.

During the final six weeks of any semester, the dropping of a course will result in a record of failure or incomplete, depending upon whether the work had been of passing grade up to the time of withdrawal.

In any case of withdrawal from a course, a student should be careful to obtain a petition from the Registrar's office, have it signed by his faculty advisor, the registrar, and the professor concerned, Miss Platt said.

In case of withdrawal from school an honorable dismissal or indefinite leave-of-absence may be granted upon petition to any student in good standing with the approval of his faculty advisor and of the registrar.

Students who discontinue their work without formal petition for leave-of-absence do so at the risk of incurring failing marks in their subjects, Miss Platt said, and at the risk of having their registration privileges curtailed or entirely withdrawn.

Extension Course Is Completed in History

"Recent Russian History," University of California Extension course under the direction of Dr. Vernon J. Puryear of the Humboldt State faculty, was recently completed and the final examination held.

Students who successfully completed the examination will receive two units in upper-division history.

New Scarlet Dahlia Brings Acclaim to Humboldt Senior

Claude Kistner, Humboldt senior, has been invited to exhibit "The Gypsy Queen," a new scarlet dahlia which he has developed, at the next annual flower show at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles. The Gypsy Queen, an eleven-inch flower with unrolled petals, is one of those which attracted one of the promoters of the flower show who last fall visited Mr. Kistner's gardens near the Samoa road in West Arcata.

This will not be first time that Mr. Kistner has exhibited flowers. He has taken prizes at several Eureka and Ferndale flower shows during the years that he has made dahlia growing his special interest. He has won awards both for individual flowers and for bouquet arrangement.

Mr. Kistner's hobby is establishing new sub-species of dahlias, as well as growing perfect specimens of existing species. Developing a new flower is a process which takes time and patience, for a new sub-species cannot be named until it has bred true to type for three generations, which, according to Mendel's laws of inheritance, is proof that the purity of the strain has been established.

The Gypsy Queen is one of a score of new sub-species which Mr. Kistner has developed. The first one, which is now six years old, he named after his grandmother, "The Anna Kistner." It is of the hybrid cactus type with rolled pointed petals. Many of his other new flowers he has named after people, the names being chosen because the flower, its color, or its characteristics, remind him of personalities. Among the names are Ruby, Ruth Delight and Buttersup.

Taking care of a dahlia garden is, according to Mr. Kistner, an all-year job. In the fall all the bulbs must be dug, cleaned, labeled, and stored. During the winter they must be looked after to prevent their freezing, moulding, or being attacked by bugs. In the spring the bulbs must be cut and planted. During the flowering season careful records must be kept of all experiments in cross-pollination and the results tabulated.

Although it is exacting work, the thrill of producing a species which has never before existed is worth the trouble and the study that is involved, says Mr. Kistner.

For several years Mr. Kistner has had a steady income from his dahlia gardens. In addition to selling bulbs, he has established a regular clientele to whom he supplies flowers for decorations. He has made a special study of bouquet arrangements and selects the colors and the types of flowers in keeping with the occasion for which they are to be used. To supplement his dahlias he raises chrysanthemums, carnations, gladioli, and other flowers to use in bouquets and floral pieces.

Mr. Kistner is majoring in education and minoring in biological science, with special study in botany. He has done much personal research in finding out what other dahlia growers are doing in the same field in which he is interested.

Student Body Dance Held Saturday Night

The first Student Body dance of the semester was given last Saturday evening in the College gymnasium, and was sponsored by the College Science Club.

The committee in charge used a nocturnal setting as the theme of their decorations. Blue streamers, representing the blueness of evening, floated above the heads of the dancers. Stars, a moon, and a planet seemed to add to the realism of the heavens. White streamers, representing clouds on the horizon, seemed to float lazily by. From above the decorations, colored lights shone through the man-made heavens. Music for the occasion was furnished by Herbert Inskip's orchestra.

Myron Schussman was general chairman of the affair. Assisting Schussman were the following:

Decorations: Evelyn E. Quarnheim, chairman; June Solee, Martha Sunnari, Prudence Brudin, John Gallop and Virginia Clark.

Program: Barbara Jean Russell and Eleanor Ritola.

Patron and Patronesses: Marie Nordquist, chairman; Golde Tamburovich and Ethel Carroll.

Cleanup: Virgil Hollis, chairman, Harold Jenkins, William Beer, Paul Hunter, Dave Hummel and Harold Del Ponte.

Humboldt Five Keeps Win-Record Unbroken

The Humboldt State Teachers College basketball team ran its undefeated record up to eight straight victories by defeating the Hollander Sparklers 25 to 16, last night at the Eureka High School gymnasium.

The college team started out playing cautious basketball and holding the Sparklers to a lone free throw during the first half by playing a man-to-man defense.

STUDY PROGRAMS RULES ARE GIVEN

A regulation that should be made known by all students according to Miss Imogene Platt, registrar, is that regulation governing the student's program. Fifteen or sixteen units of work in addition to a half-unit activity in physical education constitute a full average program for a semester. According to the definition of semester unit this means forty-eight hours of actual work each week for the student.

Variation from the normal program will be permitted only by action of the Scholarship Committee on written petition of the student. Such variation will be permitted according to the demonstrated ability of the student. This ability will be measured in terms of the "index of scholarship" of the student. If the student does not conform with these regulations and carries an excessive number of units, he will receive no credit for any over the allowed number. If a student is auditing a course, he should, also, notify the registrar's office.

In order to secure credit for their work, students must have their programs approved by the faculty advisor, and by the registrar. All subsequent changes in program must have similar approval.

A minimum program of twelve and one-half semester units, including physical education, is required for classification as a regular student.

Anger or other passions aroused, reason dethroned.

Essays for Contest Expected by May 1

Students who wish to enter an essay in the annual essay contest should begin work immediately, according to Mrs. Elma M. Folsom of the English department. Several students have already started work on their essays in order that they may be perfected by the closing date of the contest, May 1.

Any student who is regularly enrolled in Humboldt State is eligible to compete for the ten-dollar cash prize, which is awarded by President and Mrs. Arthur S. Gist. The award is given to the contest winner shortly after the closing date of the contest.

The essay must be a personal one. It must not exceed 2,500 words. Last year's winner was Martha Sunnari, who wrote "Over the Bar and Back." The story was about a fishing trip out to the sea. Mrs. Folsom has a copy of Miss Sunnari's theme and any prospective entrant who wishes to read it may do so.

Prudence Brudin Is Volleyball Manager

Prudence Brudin was elected volleyball manager for next year at the annual volleyball luncheon held recently in the College Commons. Short talks were given by Miss Florence Shearer, Miss Monica Wright, June Solee, Prudence Brudin, Martha Sunnari and Evelyn Quarnheim.

A program was presented as follows: Tap dance, Harlean Esping, accompanied by Margaret Hessel; vocal solos, Ethel Carroll, accompanied by Merle Morton; reading, Eva Mathisen. Golde Tamburovich and Marie Nordquist led the group in singing and yelling.

The affair was under the direction of Evelyn Quarnheim, volleyball manager for this year.

First Humboldt Game Broadcast on KIEM

Humboldt's first athletic activity to be broadcast by remote control over KIEM was the basketball game between Humboldt and Hollander's Sparklers, Tuesday night, November 23. The game was played in the Eureka High School gym, and since KIEM has a permanent direct-telephone line to the building, the broadcast was made possible.

This type of broadcasting is called "remote control" because a special pre-amplifier is needed at the location of the broadcast to push the audio-radio frequency waves over the direct-telephone line to the radio transmitter where they are again amplified and sent into the air.

There is a possibility that KIEM will broadcast the football games that Humboldt will play in Albee Stadium next fall.
