SOLOISTS PICKED FOR 'CARMEN' ROLES

PLANS GOING FORWARD FOR OPERA PRODUCTION NOVEMBER 26

Two students from the College of the Pacific will take the baritone and tenor solos in the opera "Carmen" in the college auditorium on November 26; Lewis Farone will take the tenor role of "Don Jose," corporal of the dragoons; Bruce Handley will take the baritone role of "Escamillo," the torero.

George Inskip will take the part of "Zuniga," captain of the dragoons. Carla Peterson will take the mezzo soprano role of "Carmen," the gypsy girl, and Mrs. J. M. Garrison of Eureka, will take the role of "Macaela," the village maiden.

With these will be the college symphony orchestra, the men's and women's glee clubs, and the A Cappella Choir. Ed Warren and Ray Posic will have a large job on their hands in taking charge of the percussion section of the symphony orchestra, because of the large number of instruments.

Much interest has been shown in "Carmen" throughout Humboldt County. One Eureka merchant asked the admission price of Carmen and was surprised to hear that it was fifty cents. He said that he expected to pay one dollar at the least.

The Eureka Chamber of Commerce has written to the various organizations throughout the county and is trying very hard to keep all dates open for "Carmen."

Plans for Year Made By Alpha Psi Omega

Tentative plans for this year's Alpha Psi Omega activities include the presentation of several one-act plays for the various high schools of this vicinity, the sponsoring of a dramatics Hi-Jinx, and the entertaining of the Chico State College Players when they visit here next semester. Alpha Psi Omega is the only chapter of a national fraternity on the campus. Only those who especially distinguish themselves in play productions are members.

The officers of the organization are Julius Hooven, president, and Claire Speier, secretary-treasurer. The present active members in college are Julius Hooven, Claire Speier, Devina Taggard, Catherine Bull, John Van Duzer, Helen Mitchell and Oden Hansen. Garff Bell Wilson, director of dramatics, is an honorary member.

DANCE SATURDAY NIGHT

To secure money to send the band to San Jose with the football team, the rally committee will give a dance at the Eureka Inn Saturday night from nine-thirty until one o'clock. Music will be furnished by the collegians and admission will be forty cents for men and twenty-five cents for women.

NO MORE CLIPPING

The Student Board of Control has announced that anyone reported to the board for clipping articles or pictures from any material in the library will be excluded from the library.

Music Hath Charms For Humboldt Guard

Seven weeks away from his beloved accordion was too much for "Futz" Littlejohn, Humboldt guard. So when he, along with Coach Erb and several others, went to scout the St. Mary's frosh, "Futz" dropped over to the home town of Emeryville and secured his most treasured possession.

Now peace and quiet no longer reign in the home of Lambda Theta Chi, for at all hours of the day—and night—notes both beautiful and not so beautiful are heard issuing from Room 27. Littlejohn specializes on request numbers if the requester agrees not to give him a vocal accompaniment.

MEN'S GROUP WILL HAVE "HELLO DAY"

"Hello Day," sponsored by the Men's Association, will be held on Friday, November 1, at H. S. C.

"Sweetheart of Hello Day" is to be the title bestowed upon the woman student who offers the most co-operation or in other words, the largest number of hellos. In addition to this she will be presented with one ticket to each of Humboldt's remaining home football games.

A young man will also be chosen by the Men's Association and though he will be given tickets to the remaining home games, he will not be given a title.

This day is held to help promote more friendship and a more congenial spirit in the school. The Men's Association asks that everyone co-operate. In the words of an associated student, "Just act as though everyone you meet is your best friend."

A card with "Hello" printed in large letters across its top will be given to each student. After writing his name in large letters on the card, the student is to pin it to his lapel. Then, according to Tommy Tinker, secretary-treasurer Men's Association, he is to go down the hall with a large smile and a big "Hello" for everyone.

Cluxton Is Speaker On Work of C. C. C.

"The Educational Implications of the C. C. C." was the subject of a talk given by Henry T. Cluxton to the Eureka District C. C. C. recently.

This summer while visiting his son, who is adjutant in charge of personnel of C. C. C. in the Phoenix, Arizona, subdivision of the Ninth Corps Area, Mr. Cluxton attended an all-state conference of educational advisors, from twenty-four C. C. C. camps.

GIVE SCHOLARSHIPS

The Eureka Rotary Club has established a transportation scholarship at Humboldt State by undertaking to contribute five dollars a month during the school year. This money will be spent for transportation expenses of needy and deserving students who attend college from Eureka and vicinity, it was learned.

NEW RENTAL BOOKS

Two new books are to be found on the library shelf. "It Can't Happen Here" by Sinclair Lewis is a story of dictatorship in the United States. "Over African Jungles" by Martin Johnson, tells of his experiences in big game hunting and is literally filled with pictures of wild life and natives of the jungle.

CHOIR PICKS OFFICERS

The A Cappella Choir has elected Myron Schussman, president; Geo. Hugo, treasurer; Charles Fulkerson, chairman of the men's section of the choir, and Emy Lou Grove, chairman of the women's section.

CHICO WILDCATS NEXT OPPONENTS

HUMBOLDT SEEKS TO AVENGE PREVIOUS DEFEATS BY ACKER'S TEAM

Undeclared in five straight games to date this season, the Humboldt State College football team will unleash another of its colorful grid attacks against Coach Art Acker's Chico State Wildcats here Saturday at Albee Stadium. Humboldt will seek to avenge the two defeats administered by Chico college when they played Humboldt in 1929-30. In 1929 the Wildcats upset the Green and Gold 19-3 and then trounced the locals 53-0 in 1930.

Chico holds an 18-to-14 win over the powerful Sacramento Junior College. Chico also held Fresno State scoreless for three quarters only to lose 13-0 in the final quarter because of their opponents superior man-power.

Both teams have played San Francisco State and the California Aggies but the comparative scores lack the decisive punch to prove anything. Here are the scores:

Humboldt State 25, San Francisco 12.

Chico State 26, San Francisco 0.

Humboldt 19, Cal. Aggies 0.

Chico 3, Cal. Aggies 21.

Chico is the third four-year college to clash with the Green and Gold this year.

Guidance Conference Slated for December

What to do with the senior high school student who is undecided as to the future will be the theme of the addresses of Dr. C. Gilbert Wren, Assistant Registrar at Stanford University, at the sixth annual Vocational Conference to be held at Humboldt State December 7. Particular emphasis will be given to the consideration of the place of manual occupations in the vocational field.

A Eureka business man will be selected to present the problem of vocational guidance from the standpoint of the business man.

The Elementary School Conference under the direction of Leo G. Schussman will be held at the same time. The two groups will meet for lunch together in the Commons. Each group will have panel discussions on various phases of vocational guidance.

The October fifteenth issue of the News Letter carried the first announcement of this conference. Included in this issue was an article by Allen Ham of the Arcata high school faculty describing method used to help the senior classes of Arcata High School to find their vocations and an article by John Bowersox of the Fortuna high school faculty on vocational plans for senior girls.

Any student interested in this issue of the News Letter may secure a copy by applying to J. Wendell Howe.

The officers of the Northwestern California Guidance Association are Glenn J. Guthrie, Eureka high school, president, and J. Wendell Howe, Humboldt State College, secretary-treasurer.

Movie on Ethiopia Viewed by Children

"Wings Over Ethiopia," film featured at the Rialto in Eureka this week, was seen by the sixth grade of the College Elementary School. The picture gave a survey of geographical, economic and social conditions in the African country.

The children have been studying Ethiopia in their social science curriculum. Their teachers, Maewilda Speer and Elizabeth Fautz, accompanied the pupils.

ARCHERS ARE BUSY

Keith Emenegger, Blair Graham, Jack Smith and Leonard Anderson show promise of becoming good archers, according to Fred Telonicher of the physical education department. The archery class, which meets on Monday and Wednesday at one o'clock, has recently begun keeping its scores.

Pavlovian Pirouettes Call Curious Crowd

A graceful figure is pirouetting to the left, dipping to the right, waving its arms in graceful motion. It skips forward, executes a few difficult steps of the ballet, spins to the left and leaps high into the air. The body of the dancer is as lithe and limber as a willow tree.

Spectators draw nearer. Whispers are heard: is it the ghost of Pavlova? There seems to be something familiar about the dancer. No, it is not Beryl Unsoeld or Virginia Torp.

It is that running guard of football fame, Franny Moore.

SANTA ROSA TEAM FAVORED BY 'DOPE'

Coach Dick Blewett's Santa Rosa Junior College football team passed and kicked their way to a 13-6 victory over Marin Junior College last Friday at Santa Rosa. It was the second straight victory for the Santa Rosans who defeated Ricks College of Idaho, 6-0, the week previous.

Humboldt is scheduled to clash with Santa Rosa on November 9 and a close, hard-fought game is anticipated. Santa Rosa defeated the Green and Gold 21-0 last year using Herschel Moore, flashy coffin kicker, to put them in scoring position. Moore and several new men from Washington will be in the Bear Cub lineup when they meet Humboldt, and man for man they are a stronger team than last year.

The Marin Junior College eleven that was defeated by Santa Rosa holds a 19-7 victory over the University of San Francisco freshmen. U. S. F. Frosh and St. Mary's Frosh battled to a 0-0 tie. On paper this puts Santa Rosa out in front by two touchdowns and gives Humboldt something to think about.

Book by Balabanis Receives Acclaim

"The American Discount Market," the recently published book of Dr. Homer Balabanis of Humboldt State, is receiving recognition not only from colleges and universities, but from men high in the financial world.

The publishers recently wrote Dr. Balabanis that the New York office of the American Acceptance Council had requested that a circular describing the book be sent to their 100 members. The American Acceptance Council is an association of prominent bankers of this country engaged in worldwide banking.

Soccer Team Picked By Freshman Women

Members of the freshman women's soccer team are: forwards, Bettie McWhorter, Irene Anderson, Arlene Thompson, Vesta Marke, Nathalie Brenner; halfbacks, Helene Hansen, Kathryn Wrigley, Kathleen Larson; fullbacks, Ethel Lee, Marjorie Bull; goal-keeper, Henrietta Reed.

Substitutes are Viola Stransberry, Beatrice Hanson, Margaret Catey, forwards; Olive Stockton, half; and Pauline Knudsen, Alice Cakin, full.

Ten-Piece Orchestra At Play Production

Lillian Snow has organized a ten-piece orchestra which played the entr'acte music for the recent production of "The Last of Mrs. Cheyney." This orchestra will play for future college functions at which light chamber music is desirable.

The group consists of Virginia Torp, Roberta Hood, Myron Schussman, violins; Kenneth Samuelson, cello; Sarah Davies, string bass; Marie Nordquist, John Samuelson, clarinets; Charles Fulkerson, flute; June Sundfors, trumpet; Merle Morton, horn, and Lillian Snow, director.

ORCHESTRA HOLDS EXTRA REHEARSALS

SYMPHONY GROUP PREPARING TO ASSIST AT COMING "CARMEN" PRODUCTION

The college symphony orchestra, under the direction of Edmund Jeffers of the music department is holding extra rehearsals for the opera "Carmen" to be given in the college auditorium November 26. Members of this year's orchestra are:

First violins—Mrs. Maurine Miller, Fritz Anthony, Bernice Rasmussen, Myron Schussman, Lucinda Parr, Virginia Torp. Second violins: Roberta Hood, Donald Malone, Meta Johnson, Brigitta Leskinen.

Viola—Mrs. William Crane. Cellos—Dorothy Williams, Lillian Snow, Kenneth Samuelson. Bass—Sarah Davies.

Flute—Charles Fulkerson. Oboe—Eugene Fountain. Clarinets—Marie Nordquist, John Samuelson.

Trumpets—June Sundfors, Lorena Swanson, French horns—Merle Morton, La Verne Elmore. Trombone—Gerald Geiger.

Percussion—Edward Warren, Raymond Posic.

Piano—Virginia Nelson.

Of the foregoing, Mrs. Miller is on the music faculty; Misses Williams, Parr and Rasmussen are former students. Others who are not students are Mrs. Crane who is from Ferndale, Meta Johnson of Loleta, Brigitta Leskinen and Fritz Anthony of Eureka; the latter was a member of the Tri-City Symphony of Davenport, Iowa.

Next semester Mr. Jeffers will add three saxophones to the orchestra to assist in playing some modern compositions such as the "Rhapsody in Blue," and "Yamekraw," a Negro rhapsody.

Students Will Give Program Over Radio

Humboldt students are giving a varied program over Radio KIEM on Thursday at 5:30 p. m.

Last week's program included vocal solos by Mary Samons; a talk by Jack St. Claire, Lumberjack business manager; a trumpet solo by June Sundfors; a talk by Harry Falk on the trips sponsored by the San Francisco Chronicle; a piano duet by Charles Fulkerson and Virginia Nelson; Eva Mathisen's "scandal column"; piano solo by Virginia Nelson, who also played the accompaniments for the other soloists, and an interview with Coach Tom Meckfessel by the sports reporter, Tommy Tinker.

C. Jasper Teaching In Military Academy

Cedric Jasper, '35, is now a master in the San Rafael Military Academy, Bay District preparatory school, according to a letter received recently from the former Fortuna student.

He teaches the fifth and sixth grades, and also has charge of the rifle range. The masters are on duty from 6:30 a. m. till 9:15 p. m. and are not permitted to leave the grounds at any time save on alternate week-ends.

The school has about 115 students boarding there, and is well equipped, with five dormitories, classroom building, dining hall, gymnasium, infirmary, swimming tank, drill field, and athletic field on the campus.

FORMER STUDENTS ATTEND

Nine former Humboldt State students who are attending universities or colleges in the bay region attended the performance of "The Last of Mrs. Cheyney" by the Humboldt players at San Francisco State last Friday night. They were Richard Albert, Marcicelle Spetz, Charlie Cooperrider, Joe Walsh, Everett Watkins, David Bean, Jack Lennox, Herbert Stuart, Jean Baldwin.

The seniors elected the following officers last Wednesday: Leiland Cloney, president; Clarion Moxon, secretary-treasurer; Garff Bell Wilson, faculty advisor.

Is It Necessary?

Because of an increased enrollment at Humboldt this semester, one is liable to see many new things happening all around the campus. Such incidents as the immersions in the fish pool are illustrations.

Lately in the halls there has been a new public game, carried on chiefly by freshmen. Visitors to our college would probably not get a high opinion of the student body because of these particular students. "Lagging for a Line" with coins may not be a new game but it is new to Humboldt halls. A public building is hardly the place for such a game.

Support The Opera

A short time ago, approximately 250 windshield and window stickers for "Carmen" were issued to the students of Humboldt. The music department would highly appreciate it if the students who received the stickers would display them on their cars or on the windows of their homes. Also, any publicity by the students will be greatly appreciated. Tell your aunts, uncles, parents, brothers, sisters, in-laws, and friends about "Carmen." Support it!

Just One Year Ago

This Was Live News

The following was the concluding paragraph in a message from President Gist:

"As long as Americans hope and work for the means of making a living, we have little to fear in economic and social readjustments. However, when we expect our governmental structure to provide us with the sustenance of life with no effort on our part we are lost as individuals and as a nation."

Miss Marjorie Bull, accompanied by Miss Margaret Paulsin of Coquille, Ore., Miss Peggy Montague of Seattle, Wash., and Miss Eleanor Boysen, arrived in Arcata from the Castilleja school of Palo Alto to spend the weekend with Miss Bull's parents.

Humboldt defeated Lick-Wilmerding 24-6. A smooth and hard-plunging line led Humboldt to a victory when they consistently opened up holes for the two fast and shifty backs, Franny Moore and Watkins. The final score was made by Bruce Compton, H. S. half, on a twisting twenty-yard run. Michael Coris, Lick-Wilmerding fullback, fractured two vertebrae and was confined to the Eureka general hospital.

The awards for the Excalibur Club mustache contest were won at the Arcata high school by Bill Inskip, Frank Emeneger and Lee Seidell—first, second and third prizes respectively. In a private contest between Harry Wineroth and Ramon Carrol, both now of Charlie Erb's H. S. C. football squad, it was decided, after close examination with a microscope, that Harry had won by a hair.

Evidently believing that the inmates of the Eureka city jail were in need of higher education, Miss Margaret McCammon, star of the play "Easy Virtue" at H. S. C. and Miss Eleanor Renfro, student body president who at that time was president of the Women's Athletic Association, attempted to leave books for them. The books, however, were eventually returned to the county library which was to have been their original destination.

Editor Grace Schell and Assistant Editor Eleanor Ritola of the Humboldt Lumberjack, spent some time in Arcata Union office, in company with Faculty Advisor Maurice Hicklin, observing Geo. Black, foreman, and Richard Minnie, head make-up man, while they "made-up" the forms for the bi-monthly edition of the college paper.

Tea-Taking Technique Termed Powerful Part Of Personality

Recent observation has revealed to a certain student that enlightenment on tea - drinking techniques is in order. This knowledge, he continued, is especially needed by freshmen. So the student outlined the following procedure:

"First it is necessary to acquire a proper attitude toward tea-drinking, which, in my sense of the word, does not mean merely swallowing an amber-colored liquid. I regard it as I do talking of interesting things such as the weather, or prize-fighting, or operations, or knitting. Dr. Samuel Johnson, James Boswell and Alexander Poper were all famous tea drinkers. Does not this suggest that one should take his tea-drinking more seriously? Tea-drinking is a vitally important part of the climb up the hill of success.

A proper attitude, however, is not all that is required of the accomplished tea drinker. He must consider his teating attire with some measure of seriousness. For a formal tea it is generally conceded good taste to add a shave and necktie to one's normal accoutrement; whereas, at an ordinary tea the addition of a clean shirt and a pair of garters will suffice.

Most important to the would-be tea drinker, moreover, is a thorough knowledge of tea-room procedure. Here are a few things for the invitee to bear in mind. Suppose the door has been opened for you. (It is improper to admit one's self, of course.) As one enters, he should glance quickly about the reception room, locating all the things that might be upset or stumbled over. Then holding these locations firmly in mind, you "barge" in, shaking hands or otherwise greeting friends as you go.

The next step after having gained entrance, is to locate yourself. A darkened corner is preferable. One should hold this position while he is being introduced and remember, too, that the limp hand shake is always proper. The darkened corner offers an advantage in listening, and one is not so likely to be asked a question if he is well hidden. The actual tea drinking is not so important; yet there are some things which should not be overlooked. For instance, always be among the first to grab your cup and several lumps of sugar. Such speed shows that you are alert and gives you distinction.

The opportunity for the real impression, however, comes at the time of departure. Few people realize the significance of a graceful departure. Most people, on leaving, erroneously cause much discussion and turmoil; whereas, the master tea drinker awaits his chance, then vanishes in silence like a shadow.

NEW EQUIPMENT

New equipment consisting of music stands, stand lamps, a metronome, and a set of castanets, has been ordered by the music department for the opera "Carmen."

STUDYING LABRADOR

Patricia Little, teacher of the eighth grade at the College Elementary School, has started her pupils on a study of Labrador, with the works of Dr. Wilfred Grenfell as source material.

Indians Are Studied At Elementary School

A sympathetic understanding of the American Indian is the purpose of a study which the seventh grade at the College Elementary School, under the direction of Eloise Aune, has begun.

Dances, songs, art, literature, and general culture of the Indians as well as their forms of shelter are being studied.

SOPH SOCCER TEAM

Members of the sophomore women's soccer team are: forwards, Ethel Anderini, Annabel Christie, Minnie Forbes, Merle Morton, Edna May Renfro, Virginia Torp; half backs, June Solee, Billie Fielding, Hazel Nichols, Lois Hedley; fullbacks, Ruby McCallister, Frances Poulson, Gladys Marke; goal-keeper, Hazel Smith.

"I presume—ah—every one heah dresses for dinner?"

"I charge extra for meals served in bed," said the boarding-house keeper.

Howard Barnes, running guard: attended high school in Sacramento. Barnes spent two years at Sacramento high and two at Christian Brothers high. He played one year at guard for Sacramento high and two years in the same position at Christian Brothers high. Howard also played a year as basketball guard in the latter institution. At Christian Brothers high, Howard won a cup for highest scholastic and athletic rating among football men. Last year Barnes played on the Sacramento Junior College team at guard. Weighs 170, and stands 5 feet 9 inches.

Jack Smith, fullback: was born in Marysville, California. Attended Sacramento High school where he played three years of track, and two years of baseball. He has also played on the Sacramento American Legion football team, which was runner-up for the state championship. Last year Jack attended Sacramento Junior College for a semester, played half in football and took part in track. Weight 175, and stands 5 feet 6 inches.

John McGrath, end: hails from San Francisco. He attended Sacred Heart and Mission high schools in that city, but because of various other activities was unable to compete in athletics. John, however, has played four years for the Bayview Athletic club at center, tackle and end. Here he is using his 170 pounds, and 6 feet 1 inch of height at an end position.

Robert "Butch" Caviness, tackle and captain: born in Vale, Oregon, but came to Humboldt county in time to play four years of tackle at Eureka High and do three years of track. This is his fourth year at tackle at Humboldt State and his second as captain. Weighs 183, and stands 5 feet, 11 inches.

Len Stillings, quarter, went to Fortuna High school where he distinguished himself in all forms of athletics: one year of football at quarter before it was stopped in the valley city; four years of basketball at forward, three years on a championship team; three years at second base in baseball, and two years each of track and tennis. After graduation Len spent a couple of years in Texas during which time he played for the Waco Athletic Club. Weighs 160, and stands 5 feet, 10 inches.

James Hall, guard: born in Healdsburg, but attended high school in Willits. He played two years at guard on the Willits High football team, Hall's pet hobby is photography and he is rapidly photographing Humboldt State. Weighs 196 and stands 5 feet, 10 1/2 inches.

Franny Moore, guard: born in Korbek; spent his high school days at Eureka high, where he played four years a half-back in football and four years as forward in basketball. He is a senior at Humboldt and has to his credit two years of football as fullback, three years of basketball at forward, and two years of baseball as catcher. Franny was injured before the season started in his sophomore year or he would have gotten in three years of football. In addition he has caught for the Arcata Redwood League team the past two summers. Weighs 170, and stands 5 feet, 7 inches.

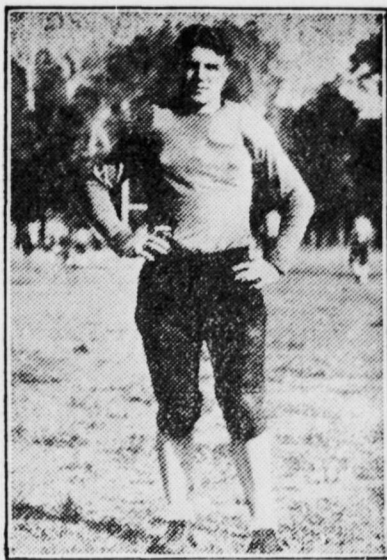

Don Gould, guard: born in Fortuna, but came to Eureka where he attended high school. There he played four years of football at guard, tackle, and fullback, and participated in four years of track. Don has played one year at fullback for Humboldt State. Weighs 190, and stands 5 feet 10 1/2 inches.

Fred Sievert, center: was born in Eureka and attended Eureka high. He played two years as center in football, two years as catcher in baseball, and had one year of track. For the past two years he has played on local amateur basketball and baseball teams. Weighs 200, and stands 6 feet 1 inch.

Harry Winerth, center: born in San Francisco; attended Willits high his first year where he played football guard. His last three years were spent at Arcata high where he played for two years, and last year quarterbacked Arcata's championship football team. Harry also played three years of basketball at guard and forward, and last year was captain. Weighs 185, and stands 6 feet.

Selvin "Sal" Nygard, halfback: has lived all his life in Eureka. In high school he played three years of football at end and half, three years of basketball at guard and four years of baseball in the outfield and behind the plate. "Sal" has also played two years of basketball with the Hollander's Sparklers of the Independent League. Weighs 168, and stands 5 feet 9 inches.

Collins Mahan, halfback: born in Garden Grove, Orange County; attended Fortuna high, where he was a one-man track team for four years. All he does is run the hundred, two-twenty, four-forty, high and low hurdles, high jump, broad jump and heave the shot. Collins won an individual track meet at Monterey in which there were 200 participants. He also plays basketball and is a crack sharp shooter. Weighs 160, and stands 5 feet 8 inches.

USE VERSE CHOIR

Longfellow's "Evangeline" was the subject of a study which the eighth grade, Nita Hinch, teacher, has completed. The work is featured by a verse choir, group reading of selections from the poem.

Humboldt Dramatists Have Some Adventures

The Humboldt College Players arrived home from San Francisco Sunday after presenting "The Last of Ms. Cheyney" at the San Francisco State College Friday night.

While driving in San Francisco, Julius Hooven was stopped by the traffic officer when he made a left hand turn. After a short talk, he moved on. On the afternoon of the play, it was discovered that the make-up was missing. Barbara Johnson remembered that it was in her mother's auto about twenty miles away from San Francisco. One of the San Francisco State students finally recovered the kit.

It was reported that seven members of the group decided to take a taxi out to the beach on Saturday evening. When they arrived, the concessions were not running, and the members being practically broke, had to hitch-hike back to their hotel. On the return trip, Barbara Johnson's car had two flat tires.

Those who went on the trip were Julius Hooven, John Voyle, Helen Mitchell, Catherine Bull, Claire Speier, Donald Inskip, Audrey Kjer, Richard Jaboe, Barbara Johnson, Laverne Elmore, Lawrence Clark, Jack Lewis, Violet Susan, John Van Duzer, Devina Taggard, Mrs. Johnson, and the chaperones, Mrs. Lester Johnson, Mrs. Monica Wright Hadley, and Garff Bell Wilson.

"Vic" Hutchinson is now filling a vacancy in the A Cappella Choir in the first-bass section. He has had much experience in glee clubs at other schools.

Humboldt's Dean Of Women Was In Hawaii Three Years

One Friday evening before a football game not long ago, a group of Humboldt's next day's opponents were standing near Hotel Arcata when Humboldt's dean of women passed. "Aren't you Miss Struve?" one of the boys asked. He was from Hawaii and had attended Kamehameha school.

Miss Struve lived for three years in the Hawaiian islands, teaching at the Kamehameha schools in Honolulu.

The Kamehameha schools were founded fifty years ago through the foresight of Princess Bernice Pauahi Bishop, the last of the Kamehamehas, who left her vast estates and fortune as the foundation for a school for the education of the young people of Hawaii.

There are two Kamehameha schools—one for boys and one for girls. They are equivalent to American junior and senior high schools as they now offer a six-year course. From a beginning class of twelve the enrollment has increased to about four hundred students. The student must be at least part Hawaiian to be admitted to Kamehameha. The average general cost is around $200 for a boy and $180 for a girl for the first year. This includes tuition, room and board, various fees, books, gymnasium outfit, athletic uniform, writing materials, spending money, dress uniform, play uniform, and various other expenses.

One might think that because the school is Hawaiian the courses, activities and customs would differ from those of the United States. This is not true, however, as the Kamehameha schools are very similar to those of the United States. The courses are the same; the sports are the same—in fact if an American student were suddenly set down in Kamehameha, he would hardly notice any difference—except perhaps in the students themselves.

Miss Struve commented on the singing of the Hawaiians, saying that they had gorgeous voices. Every spring a song contest is held. At this time every class sings an original song. The class presenting the best song is awarded a cup. There is also a competition in the singing of an old song. It was a Kamehameha student, Joseph Kekuku, who in 1890 experimented and discovered "steel guitar" playing.
