Humboldt State Shows Splendid Records For Graduates and Students

In 1914, an institution that had These freshman and sophomore a two-year course taught by a faculty of six in a "borrowed" building.

In 1937, an institution that combines the offering of a four-year liberal arts college, a four-year teachers college, and vocational courses, taught by a full-time faculty of thirtyone with the addition of part-time instructors and a large clerical and maintenance staff, in a plant worth nearly three-quarters of a million dollars.

That in brief is a picture of the growth of Humboldt State College at Arcata in the past twenty-three years.

It is now no longer necessary for students wishing an A. B. degree in Liberal Arts to go outside the county. The state has now legally recognized what was already an rriculum at Humboldt established fact; that the curriculum at Humboldt College included four years of cultural subjects in addition to the more specialized professional work primarily for teachers. Now more and more students who do not intend to become teachers are coming to Humboldt for their A. B. degrees in Liberal Arts.

For entrance into practically all the professions at least two years of college work are now required.

For entrance into practically all the professions at least two years of college work are now required. These freshman and sophomore years are popularly known as "junior college" work. Strictly speaking, Humboldt College does not have a junior college department—neither does the University of California—but the first two years of any liberal arts course, such as is offered at Humboldt, embrace all the subjects that are taught in what is known as the "junior certificate" course.

As a result, students who do not plan to obtain their A. B. degrees at Humboldt but who will later enter specialized fields can do much of their required preliminary work at the local college. They can get two years of preliminary work here for plant and animal science, for forestry, for dentistry, for law, for medicine, for music, for nursing, and one year of the preliminary work in engineering and pharmacy. No matter what field a student plans to enter, he can probably find that some or all of his preliminary work can be obtained satisfactorily at Humboldt.

The training of teachers is still one of the major functions of Humboldt State College. To this end, both academic and professional courses are offered to prepare teachers for the kindergartens, for elementary schools, for the junior high schools, and for the special credential in physical education which is valid in high school. Those who wish to teach English, biological science, or social science in high school can do four of their required five years of college work at Humboldt State.

One of the newest departments is that of commerce which not only gives preliminary training for those who may wish to teach commercial subjects but also prepares

SENIOR BALL TO BE HELD AFTER FINALS THIS YEAR; MARKS STEP TOWARD LARGE COLLEGE'S DATES

Ward Tinker will be the master of ceremonies at the Banquet with Mrs. Arthur S. Gist as the principal speaker. Roses and ferns will be used to decorate the tables for the banquet and the novel dance programs will be in blue and pearl with the class numerals. The dinner will begin at 6:30 in the main dining room of the Eureka Inn, followed by dancing from 9 to 12 to the music of Benny Lubek's orchestra.

Patrons and patronesses for the Ball are: President and Mrs. Gist, Miss Zula Ballew, Garff Bell Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. Preston, Mr. and Mrs. Will N. Speegle, Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Falk, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Durnford, Dr. and Mrs. Oscar E. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hadley, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Nelson.

Former Humboldt Students Shine At California U.

Humboldt State College students who have transferred to the University of California are being congratulated by Dr. Merton Hill, director of admissions at the University of California, wrote President Arthur S. Gist.

"The State College transfers to the University as a whole have done satisfactory work as is evidenced by the fact that the students as a group from your institution have made in the University of California a 'C' average or above."

A total of forty-five Humboldt students transferred to the University during the period studied. University of California have made an enviable record at the University as a report recently released by the University shows.

Humboldt students made the fourth highest record of students from thirty-one four-year colleges for the three-year period 1933-34, 1934-35, 1935-36. In other words, student transfers to the University of California from only three of the thirty one colleges studied made higher records than Humboldt College students.

The thirty-one colleges included the seven State Colleges, eighteen other four-year California colleges and six four-year colleges from outside of the state. Humboldt also made the second highest record of the seven State Colleges as well as making the fourth highest record of all the thirty-one colleges studied.

LIBERAL ARTS DEGREE TO BE GIVEN AT H. S.

A new Liberal Arts degree which requires no foreign language or education courses will be offered at Humboldt State next fall. The requirements for the degree are based upon an evaluation of successful experience and educational activities as a substitute for certain academic and professional courses.

This regulation provides an opportunity for improving the professional competency of those teachers who are now in service and who do not meet the standards of training at present required of new people entering the teaching profession.

The degree is professional in character and is not intended to qualify students for graduate standing in universities.

Federation Awards Music Scholarships

The Humboldt Federation of women's clubs music scholarships at Humboldt State College were awarded recently following try-outs at the college auditorium.

students for immediate employment in the business world.

Humboldt College not only offers its students a wide variety of courses but it also gives them an equally wide choice of various student activities, looks after their health, and offers them the services of a placement bureau. The increased activity in athletics has provided managerial experience for students in addition to the active participants in sports. The departments of music and drama also draw many students with talent in those fields.

For a fee of only one dollar, the Health Department, under the direction of Miss Ann Craig, provides numerous services. Every student is given a physical examination in his freshman year and again in his junior year. In addition, those obtaining teaching credentials are given a third physical examination just before graduation. Students in physical activities are also given special examinations. A physician has a regular office hour at the college every school day. Part of the funds from the health fee also go for hospital care for students living away from home. This means that student patients themselves pay only a part of what they would ordinarily pay at the hospital, the fund taking care of the rest.

The college maintains a Placement Bureau for those who take the teachers course. The bureau collects data on the general moral character and sense of responsibility of the student, his success in his college classes and in his student teaching, his college citizenship, and his leadership in student body activities. These facts are compiled and are sent to school officials when requests are received to fill positions. The cost of this service is kept to a bare minimum, since the charge is designed only to insure the necessary postage for the sets of recommendations.

Humboldt College has what has been called a really remarkable record in placing its graduates. In the last seven years, 306 students of the 326 who asked to be placed have been put in teaching positions; that is, ninety-four per cent of those desiring positions in the last seven years have been placed.

The Commerce department, under Bert F. Wilson, is conducting its own placement bureau. Of the graduates from last year's two-year diploma course, all but one have been placed. In addition, a number of those who took the one-year course have positions.

Mrs. Jessie T. Woodcock, financial secretary, has organized a clearing house through which students desiring part-time work while in college have found jobs. Many students who otherwise could not hope to attend college have been able to pay part or all of their expenses by their own efforts. No charge is made for this or the commerce department service.

The college offers many services to its students and it also serves the community. Its facilities, when Conventions, conferences, or assemblies of an educational nature are welcome to use the college auditorium, commons, or other suitable rooms. Extension courses are conducted at the college and also away from the campus if sufficient numbers enroll for a specific course. At present, extension courses are being offered in English, in biological science, and in social science. Many teachers in the field are taking advantage of these courses to work towards their A. B. degrees. At the end of the past semester three Eureka elementary teachers received their A. B. diplomas. These had previously graduated from shorter courses.

Speakers from the faculty and student body and students talented in music or dramatics appear almost every week before some county organization.

President Arthur S. Gist is an educator known nationally for his successful experience, his authorship of educational books, and his participation in professional organizations. His many contacts, professional and otherwise, have been influential not only in making the school known but have been reflected in the placing of its graduates.

Books by Dr. Homer Balabanis and by Dr. Vernon Puryear have been highly praised by reviewers in periodicals of national circulation. A number of others have written articles for professional magazines. Three of the four Humboldt county residents in "Who's Who" are college faculty members: President Gist, Dr. Puryear, and C. Edward Graves, librarian.

Under Edmund V. Jeffers of the music department, the A Capella Choir makes a tour of Redwood Highway towns and appears in concerts in several cities of the bay district each year. This year the choir not only made the usual tour but in addition appeared at the California Western School Music Conference in San Francisco.

Under the direction of Garff B. Wilson, the latest plays are staged locally and are also given in other parts of the state. The players go annually to Chico and to San Francisco State Colleges.

Every one in Humboldt county is aware of what Humboldt College has been doing in athletics recently. This not only has been shown by the "fans" who attend the games, both football and basketball, but has brought considerable publicity to the college and the community through the sports pages of San Francisco and other cities.

Last fall a faculty member received a clipping from a Seattle paper, printed in black-faced type, which related the story of the sudden rise to football fame of Clarence Edsall. This human interest story of the athlete who was thought too light for college football, who to be with the team took the position as "water boy," and who in an emergency proved that he could hold his own, appealed to the public. The story was picked up and carried over the coast by a national press association.

H. S. C. PLANS TO GIVE JOURNALISM MINOR THIS FALL

Cooperation Offered By Arcata Union To Make Courses A Success

A minor in Journalism may be offered at Humboldt State next semester if enough students are interested.

The State Board of Education requires that a Minor shall consist of 12 semester units at least 6 of which must be in upper division courses. The courses were tentatively outlined as follows:

Lower Division. News Writing, three units; Reporting, three units. Upper Division. Three unit course in copy reading to include headline writing and make-up.

A three unit course in Feature-Writing.

This course would offer many opportunities for students interested in Journalism for a profession. The Arcata Union has offered its cooperation and facilities to make such a course a success.

Fall Semester To Be Replete With New Courses Here

Many new courses will be given at Humboldt State next Semester. Besides the courses in Journalism to be given is a Hostess course which will be taught by Miss Zula Ballew, dean of Women. Others will be, a class in Musicianship to be taught by Miss Garvin of the music department. Advanced Cabinet Work for Women taught by Mr. Jenkins, and a course in organic chemistry will be offered by Dr. McGinitie who will return to Humboldt State next fall.

Of the new courses offered this last year, Photography and Social Dancing have proved to be the most popular. Photography students under Dr. Lanphere have displayed many novel and beautiful pictures in the show cases in the hall. The Social Dancing class instructed by Mrs. Monica Hadley, has sponsored the many noon dances of the year.

HISTORY OF HUMBOLDT STATE COLLEGE

Local College Meets The Educational Needs of Northwestern California

By GEORGE GALLOWAY

It is a proverb that "Great oaks from small acorns grow," and great institutions seem to come quite readily under the same classification. Mushroom are reputed to grow over night; an oak tree requires a quarter of a century to attain its majesty as a king of the forest.

Humboldt State College is nearing a quarter of a century of gradual development and growth while rendering splendid educational service to this area in northern California. Back in the days of 1913, this portion of the state was poorly served in the matter of securing professional preparation for the teaching profession. Young people ambitious to serve as teachers were required to go over the mountains to Chico or down the peninsula to San Jose which in those days meant even greater hardship than at present.

Edward Hyatt, Superintendent of Public Instruction, in his work as leader of public education saw the handicap in teacher preparation for this portion of northern California and mentioned it in a conversation with Hans C. Nelson, at that time representative from this district. Nelson was quick to see the truth as well as the value of the suggestion, and acted on it at once by introducing and securing the passage of an act in 1913 to give the idea a trial in a humble way. The legislative act which was passed created a "Humboldt State Normal School" the seventh of its kind in California. Governor Hiram Johnson appointed a board of five members to establish and administer the new school.

The board was composed of the following members: Henry Bridges, Dr. W. E. Cook, and Mrs. Charlotte Gale of Eureka; Edward Haight of Fortuna and Rease M. Wiley of Arcata. (Ray Edwards of Ferndale and Mrs. Anna Porterfield of Ukiah were added to the Board some time after the school was established.)

Among a number of men who rendered efficient and altruistic service in the community was George Burchard, a lawyer. He assumed a leadership that was of great value in the selection of the site, planning and plotting it, in getting the money for its purchase deposited in the bank, and donating his legal ability to the numerous legal phases which arose from time to time. He is now deceased but his untiring and unselfish services will not soon be forgotten.

The act creating the Normal School was but a trial. The legislature appropriated the sum of ten thousand dollars for the biennium. This amount, did not, of course provide for buildings and one of the provisions of the establishment of the school in Arcata was an agreement that the local community must provide suitable quarters.

The local school board responded to this condition with quarters in the old Arcata Grammar School. This building, since torn down, was a frame structure at Eleventh and M. Streets in Arcata. In addition public spirited citizens of Arcata raised twelve thousand dollars from the community to assist in the maintenance of the school during the first two years.

The present site of the college, to which the school did not move for several years, was donated by Wm. A. Preston of Arcata and by the Union Water Works of Arcata. Officers of the Union Water Co. at that time were N. H. Falk, Mrs. Arthur Way, and Mrs. Kate Harpst.

N. M. Van Matre of Eureka was chosen as the first president of the new Normal School. The Humboldt Normal School opened its doors to students April 6, 1914, then in the old Arcata Grammar School building. Sixty-one students presented themselves for enrollment on the opening day. They were received by a faculty of six members; N. M. Van Matre, the president, also taught and was assisted by five others. There were two courses offered; a one year course for teachers with some experience and a two year course for those who had no experience in the teaching field.

The Arcata Grammar school quarters were temporary. The students were anticipating their going to the present magnificent scenic site of the college which had been generously donated by Wm. Preston and the Union Water Co. of Arcata.

The normal school board formally accepted the site in a resolution passed November 10, 1914. The first student to enjoy the honor and distinction of receiving a diploma from the Humboldt State Normal School was Miss Susie Baker, now Mrs. Eugene Fountain

STATE COLLEGE PLAYERS MAKE BIG HIT IN PRESENTATION OF "THE LATE CHRISTOPHER BEAN"

Mrs. Stella Little Is Honored At Tea At Woodcock Home

Mrs. Stella S. Little of the Humboldt State College faculty, who is planning a tour of Europe this summer, was honored recently at a tea where Mrs. E. McCann Folsom, Mrs. C. Edward Graves, Miss Sarah Davies and Mrs. Woodcock, were hostesses.

Gorgeous rhododendrons, iris and other flowers were used throughout the living rooms and the tea table was attractive with a lace cover, centered with a fluted crystal bowl filled with spring flowers in pastel shades, flanked with tapers in pink, blue, orchid, yellow and green shades in dainty crystal holders, and the silver services at the ends of the table. On the buffet were rows of the pastel tapers and another bowl of mixed flowers.

Presiding at the service during the afternoon were Miss Ruth Bestor, Miss Adelle Johnson, Miss Ann Craig, Mrs. Halsey Carstens, Miss Helen Garvin and Miss Zula Ballew. Assisting in receiving the guests were Mrs. Estelle Preston Koch, Mrs. Vernon J. Puryear, Mrs. Gordon Hadley and Miss Emmalina Winkler were at the door. Miss Helene Hansen, Miss Ellen Metthesen and Mrs. Marjorie Jensen will serve.

Included in the guest list besides the guest of honor and those assisting the four hostesses were: Mesdames W. B. McKittrick, Ernest Stromberg, Harold F. Charters, C. P. Paul Verdier, head of the City of Paris store in San Francisco, will be ambassador of good will from the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition to the Paris, France, 1937 Exposition of Arts and Crafts.

Humboldt State College players under the direction of Garff Bell Wilson played "The Late Christopher Bean" before a full house on Wednesday evening at the college auditorium. The play was enthusiastically received by the huge crowd, and was claimed to be one of the finest presentations given by the school this year.

Barbara Johnson, playing the part of Abby a servant in the Haggert household, turned in an excellent performance in her first leading role.

Barbara Johnson playing the part married a young painter, Christopher Bean, who died ten years before the start of the play. Most of his paintings were believed to have been destroyed. Then it is discovered that Bean is a genius and people are paying as high as a thousand dollars apiece for his pictures in New York.

The play concerns how the lost pictures are discovered and how York Abbey with the help of Davenport, an honest critic, played by Sherman Wahburn, outwits the Haggert family and the crooked dealers from New York.

The action took place in the Haggert household with Richard Jarboe, who played Gramp in Petrified Forest, as Mr. Haggert. Mrs. Haggert, a sharp prententious country woman, was played by Estele Koch, who played in former college productions.

The crooked New York dealers were talent, played by Don Starr and Rosen, played by Ed Warren. Both of these students played in Petrified Forest and Starr had the lead in See Naples and Die.

Graduating Class Visits Humboldt

Members of the Fortuna Union High School graduating class who plan to attend Humboldt State College next fall visited the college recently accompanied by Helen Crozier of the Fortuna faculty.

Luncheon was served the visitors in the Green Room and to the following faculty members: Maurice Hicklin, Miss Zula Ballew, Garff Wilson, and Dr. Homer P. Ballabanis, vice-president.

Following the luncheon the Fortuna students attended classes with graduates of Fortuna High enrolled at Humboldt.

Said the business man to his daughter's suitor: "I regret, Sir, that I cannot see my way clear under present conditions to allow you to marry my daughter. But if you will leave me your business card I will notify you in case nothing better turns up in the near future."

Dr. Anderson, Humboldt's new physics and chemistry professor has had an active background for his keen interest in sports. While attending as an undergraduate the University of British Columbia, he played three yaers of varsity soccer, besides playing baseball every summer.

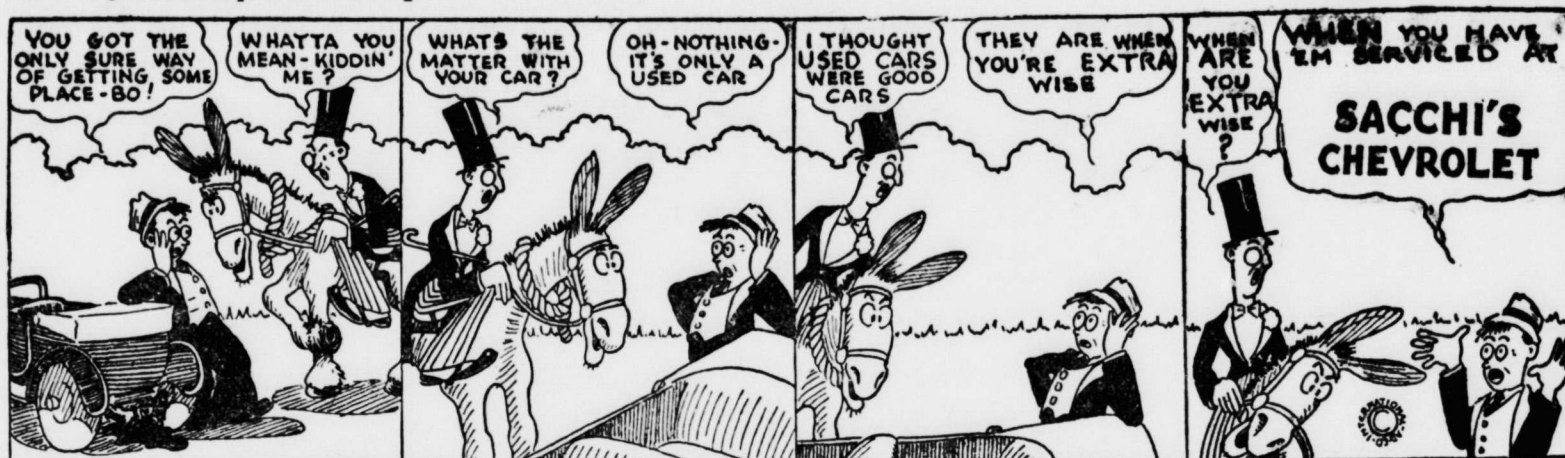

The University of British Columbia's soccer teams do not play other colleges. They are entered in the semiprofessional leagues of Vancouver where the brand of play is better than that displayed in the United States. Soccer rules permit no substituting. A man as he is physically able to stay plays the whole game, or as long on his feet.

While at the University of California as a graduate student seeking his PhD degree, Dr. Anderson played with the U. C. Soccer Club, a group of graduate players, in the East Bay Soccer League. Dr. Anderson is still actively interested in badminton and soft ball.

Expressing hope that there will be no more taxes is a pleasant way of preparing the patient for the operation.

During the year 1933, the College Elementary School Building was completed at a cost of $200,000, and it is said to be one of the finest of its kind in the state for teacher training purposes. It was occupied the same year. Just last summer a large play ground and recreation field was leveled off on the ground just south of the building.

Work on the college athletic field has been in progress for some time past. A large hill is gradually being removed, fills being made and proper drainage installed. When completed the space available will be almost doubled. At present the land, buildings and improvements represent a value of nearly three quarters of a million dollars; $683,605 to be exact.

To grasp the growth of the institution, the reader should fix in his mind these facts and figures. In April 6, 1914 the Normal School had a faculty of six instructors, an enrollment of sixty-one students and was quartered in a temporary building.

In 1937, it is a State College that combines the offsprings of a four-year liberal arts college; a four-year teachers college, and vocational courses, taught by a full time faculty of thirty one with the addition of part time instructors and a large clerical and maintenance staff, in a plant worth approximately three quarters of a million dollars, and an enrollment which runs over 300 students.

This is a brief resume of the growth of Humboldt State College at Arcata in the past 23 years of its history.

The student now desiring an A. B. degree, no longer finds it necessary to go outside a reasonable and easily attainable distance from his father family fireside. The state has given legal sanction to what was already established fact; that the curriculum of Humboldt College included four years of scholastic and cultural subjects in addition to the more specialized work for teachers. The number of students coming to the college for A. B. degrees who do not aspire to become teachers is on the increase.

To the commercially minded citizen the following facts may have an appeal and interest. The value of the plant, with the amount spent by the state for salaries, supplies, and maintenance reveals that the college has been an asset to the community in dollars and cents as well as in the educational opportunities that it offers. Approximately one million, seven hundred thousand dollars has been paid out in salary and maintenance. This is in addition to the value of the land and to the money spent for build-

Banner Athletic Year Enjoyed At Humboldt; Football, Track and Basketball Feats Reviewed

Enjoying one of its most successful years in athletics, the Humboldt State College was the center of Humboldt County's sport's picture during 1936-37 with a brilliant football team, a championship county basketball team, and an up-and-coming track team.

The year in review:

FOOTBALL

Humboldt 7; U. S. F. Frosh 6. California Aggies 18, Humboldt State 0.

"I'm not down-hearted. Our boys feel bad certainly. But remember, the Cal Aggies felt just as bad this time last year." —Charley Erb.

Santa Clara Frosh 7; Humboldt 0.

Playing their hearts out against a heavier Santa Clara team, Humboldt's gridgers acquitted themselves nobly in their 7 to 0 loss on Sunday.

Humboldt 24; Cardinal 0.

A vastly improved Thunderbolt eleven that scored in every quarter crushed the Cardinal Athletic Club 24 to 0 Sunday afternoon in Albee Stadium. Displaying superior strength in every department of the game, Humboldt outmatched its opponents in kicking, passing, blocking, and tackling, and running to turn in its most impressive win of the 1936 season.

Humboldt 40; Southern Oregon Normal 0.

With a 40 to 0 retaliation against Southern Oregon Normal for five long, lean years of defeat behind them, Humboldt's football squad settled down this week to their most intensive pre-game preparation of the season for the encounter with San Jose State Saturday.

Walls of Sparta Crumble, 20 to 0. Power vs. daring and strategy, and weight vs. deception and alertness tells the story of Humboldt States startling 20 to 0 upset over the touted San Jose Spartans Saturday afternoon.

Lumberjacks Give Salinas Cowboys 27 to 6 drubbing.

A badly outmatched Salinas Junior College Eleven gave Humboldt's Lumberjacks a real scare in the first canto of Sunday's game at Albee Stadium before they were finally smothered under a barrage of passing and sprinting by a 27 to 6 score.

Skin Pelts from Scraping Cats. The Lumberjack met a vicious snarling wildcat on Thanksgiving Day and, while 2,000 people looked on, the mighty woodsman emerged victorious after an hour of grueling combat. The Humboldt state football team triumphed over Chico State College 14 to 6.

BASKETBALL

Humboldt 32; San Francisco State 28.

Humboldt 20; San Francisco State 30.

Besides playing a heavy schedule and capturing top honors in the Humboldt County Independent League, Coach Fred Telonichers Humboldt State Cagers tackled intercollegiate competition of the highest calibre in two game series with Chico State and San Jose State.

Unable to penetrate a tight defense, Humboldt State's varsity cage team lost two games to Chico State. Chico used a fast break both nights to 25 to 21 Friday, and 35 to 24 Saturday night.

Humboldt 23; San Jose 37.

Humboldt 42; San Jose 36.

Showing surprising strength against an aggregation which had played and vanquished some of the best coast teams, Humboldt State divided its two game series at San Jose, losing the first game and winning the second. The Junior Varsity under Coach Franny Moore defeated the powerful San Jose Frosh team Friday night but lost on the following night.

tory is divided into two separate units, G. B. Wilson, dean of men and professor of dramatics is head resident of the men's unit which needs no set organization.

The women's unit, however, is organized. The women residents elect officers to work with the head resident, Miss Z. Z. Ballew, dean of women, to attend to the incidental business of the Hall, and to create a spirit of friendliness and a homelike atmosphere in the dormitory. The women residents pay dues each semester in order to buy necessities for the social unit.

Officers for this year are; Evelynne Rhea, president; Doris Martin, vice-president; Lydia Biasca, secretary; Margery Brenner, House Manager.

Jayn Harville, Billie Goff, and Rosemarianne Flowers comprise the publicity committee for the Sunset Hall.

who had completed her work in December 1914. (She had entered with advanced standing, having previously graduated from the Nebraska State University, last spring, Eugene Fountain, completed two years of preparation before transferring to the University of California last fall. He took with him one of the best records ever made at the institution from which his mother graduated which shows that heredity does tell.

In the autumn of 1915 so called temporary wooden buildings were erected on the present site of the college. In January 1916 the normal school was moved from its original location in the old Grammar School to the present site, occupying what was supposed to be temporary wooden buildings, but which incidentally are still in the service. One of these wooden structures was moved to land opposite Rease M. Wiley's residence in Arcata, and is now serving as a girl's dormitory; the others are occupied by the College Cafeteria and the Manual Training department.

In 1917 the state legislature appropriated $245,000 for permanent buildings. Work on the new building did not begin until 1919, and it was not completed until February 1922. This is the present college main building which though a continuous structure surrounding a beautiful court, really consists of four large units: the front, or administration building and class rooms; the rear building, now housing the science, drama and music departments but originally built for the college elementary school; the north wing, or auditorium; the south wing, or library. In February 1922, the college moved into the new permanent buildings, although still making use of the wooden buildings.

Affairs of the school were administered for seven years by the board appointed by Governor Johnson. In 1921, however, control was transferred to the State Department of Education and placed in the hands of the Board of Education and the State Superintendent of Public Instruction who is at present Walter F. Dexter. All California State Colleges are now administered by the same authority. The names were changed from Normal Schools to Teachers Colleges and recently to State Colleges.

In the year 1924, N. M. Van Matre, the first president of the institution was succeeded by Ralph W. Swetman.

The course of study which was originally one year for teachers with experience and two years for others was gradually lengthened to two years and a half, then to three and the next year 1928 to four carrying with it an A. B. Degree in education; and in May 1926, Humboldt State Teachers College gave a diploma which conferred with A. B. degree in education from its new four year course. The lady was Mrs. Estelle Culp, now Mrs. Estelle Tener of Southern California. Incidentally, the second student to graduate from the four-year course was Miss Bess Marshall of Eureka, now Mrs. F. D. Layton. She received her diploma in August, 1927.

In 1930 Ralph W. Swetman was succeeded by Arthur S. Gist as president of the institution. President of the institution. President Gist has worked incessantly to raise the intellectual standards as well as the moral tone of the college, and his efforts have not been without success. The hearty cooperation of parents will assist him and the members of the faculty materially in achieving still further success along these laudable lines.

In 1935 in recognition of the increased facilities and the increased services rendered their communities, changed the seven state teacher colleges into state colleges and gave them authority to confer not only the A. B. degree in elementary education upon the graduates of its teacher credential courses, but likewise the A. B. degree in Letters and Science.

In 1930 the present gymnasium was completed. Prior to this date, a comparatively small room in the old wooden buildings had been used for indoor physical education work. It now serves as a volley court and for tap dancing classes.

With the growing student body and the increased use of automobiles, more parking room became a necessity. In 1932 there was completed the present parking space opposite the front entrance to the college. The same year four new tennis courts were completed adjoining the parking grounds. These are utilized during school days by members of the physical education classes and by individual players. Saturdays and Sundays they are available to residents of the community who enjoy the

NEW BUILDINGS PRACTICALLY ASSURED FOR STATE COLLEGE

Assembly Ways and Means Committee Recommends Passage Of Bill For $200,000

The long-hoped for additional buildings for Humboldt State College neared realization recently when word was received from Sacramento that two measures sponsored by Senator Quinn and Assemblyman Burns had received the recommendation for passage by the Ways and Means committee of the State Assembly.

The two bills call for an expenditure of $202,000; $2,000 of which would be used for armory facilities in the city of Eureka; and $200,000 for the erection of new buildings at the college, including two modern dormitories.

The present dormitories at the state college have long been obsolete, and there has been a student movement on foot for several months to have additional funds appropriated for the construction of new buildings.

The proposed improvements would affect units of the guard in Humboldt, Contra Costa, Los Angeles counties and in 10 other sections where armories are maintained.

The sponsors, according to reports received here, have every assurance that their measures they are presented for a final vote to the legislature. The funds will be available when Governor Merriam affixes his signature to the bills.

Chi Sigma Epsilon Holds High Post

Chi Sigma Epsilon is the college upper division honor society, and in this capacity holds a place at Humboldt similar to the scholastic organizations found in other universities, such as Phi Beta Kappa of the University of California. The chief reason for the establishment of Chi Sigma Epsilon was to have on the campus some adequate means of recognizing and honoring those students who have maintained high scholastic averages throughout their college careers. But, in addition, the society considers that a well rounded personality is the first goal of college, and therefore chooses its candidates on the basis not alone of scholarship, but also of active participation in and worthy contribution to the affairs of student life on the campus.

Integrity of character, honesty, high ideals, and similar traits of personality also pay a part in the selection of candidates, so that election to Chi Sigma Epsilon embodies one of the highest honors the college can bestow upon a student. The present active membership of the society composed of those at present in Humboldt's student body, include: Marie Nordquist, John Van Duzer, Nona Acton, Harveen McElroy, Evelyn Quarnheim, and John Gallop. Miss Adella

Johnson, associate professor of modern languages, is the faculty sponsor.

As part of its activities, Chi Sigma Epsilon sponsors a sophomore honor society, the Rousers. Purpose of which is to select from the freshman class eight students who have shown themselves worthy of election by maintaining high scholarship, fine qualities of character, and the ability to adjust themselves to college activities. Those belonging to this society, who are now on the campus, include Edward Warren, Jeanice Hornbrook, Lois Bird, Virginia Nelson, Edward Graves, Carla Petersen, Esther Ritola, Katherine Wrigley, Violet Susan and Irving Manson.

From among this group, is selected one student who has made the greatest advance toward fine manhood or womanhood during the first year of college life, to whom is presented the Chi Sigma Epsilon Freshman Medal. The student of the latest elected group to receive such an honor was Edward V. Warren. This honoring of freshmen at the end of their first year of labor, is intended to serve first as a reward, and second as a stimulus for increased attainment in scholarship and the widening of interest in college activities.

On the whole, Humboldt's two honor societies should serve as a goal of attainment for every student of the college, and should be ings and other improvements.

To the civic and socially minded there are values created by the College that far exceed the financial. A large number of these students just entering young womanhood and young manhood are enabled to live at home where they may have the advantage of the home environment, and the parental guidance and supervision. This privilege is invaluable especially to the young people in the two years known as the junior college years. The scholastic and cultural opportunities furnished many young students, whose parents would not possess the means to send them away to a larger college or University, are likewise immeasurable in terms of monetary units. The small college has its advantages as well as the larger. There is a much closer personal relationship between the student and his instructor the instructor knows the student better and his personality influences the student to a greater degree. The writer is fully conscious of the advantages of a larger college with a background that reaches three centuries into the past, high paid instructors, vast equipments for scientific purposes and millions in the endowment funds, but there is still some compensation lies with the small college.

Some of our greatest statesmen and illustrious men in other lines of public service have received their education in the small college. Dartmouth College in New Hampshire is a small institution, and yet on its walls hangs a picture of the immortal Daniel Webster. Today even his picture is a source of pride and inspiration to those who now sit within her classic walls. And well they may be proud since but for his generous service and profound ability as a constitutional lawyer, Dartmouth might have been wiped out.

In the early part of the 19th century the legislature of the state passed an act revoking the charter of the little college which had been secured for it by her founders from the colony under its charter. When the case reached the Supreme Court of the United States, Webster rose to one of his greatest heights as a constitutional lawyer and a masterful orator. The peroration of his argument before Chief Justice Marshall is grand and moved the great Marshall to the point of tears which was an unusual sight.

Here are a few of his words: "Sir you may destroy this little institution; it is weak; it is in your hands! I know it is one of the lesser lights in the literary horizon of our country. You may put it out. But if you do you must carry through your work! You must extinguish, one after another, all the great lights of science which for more than a century have thrown their radiance over our land!

"It is Sir, as I have said, a small College, and yet there are those who love it...."

Then testifies Goodrich, Webster broke down with emotion, his lips quivered, his cheeks trembled, his eyes filled with tears, his voice choked. In a few words of broken tenderness he spoke of his love for Dartmouth in such a fashion that the listeners were impressed with recollections of father, mother, brother, and all the trials and privations through which he had made his way into life.

The entire family including his older brother, Ezekiel, contributed to the support of young Dan at Dartmouth from their scanty returns from a New England farm; they could never have found the means to send Dan to Harvard. All of our small colleges can not contribute a Webster to the country, but they can give us a more intelligent and cultured group of young men and women and let us hope a higher moral character. This is the mission of Humboldt and let us trust that she will fulfill her destiny.

"Young man," said the court as he halted proceedings and directed his remarks to a distributor in the seem to be having a lot of trouble. What's the matter?

"Well Sir, I lost my overcoat." "I must inform you that many people lose whole suits here without making half as much trouble as you are."

U. C. Accepts Humboldt Credits At Full Value, According To Dean

Students planning to transfer to the University of California at the end of their first or second year will receive full credit for their work at Humboldt if they have taken the proper subjects, have made acceptable grades, and have not carried excess units, according to Maurice Hicklin, dean of lower division. Students transferring from Humboldt receive the same consideration as transfers from other colleges.

The university permits no liberal arts freshman to carry more than 16½ units later semesters unless he has at least an average of "B." Although advised to conform to this regulation, Humboldt students at times carry excess units and thereby lose transfer credit.

The experience of certain Humboldt transfers to the University of California in the last few years may make the situation clearer, Mr. Hicklin said.

Three students who made respectively 33½, 54½ and 62 units at Humboldt received full credit at the university. All entered Humboldt without deficiencies from high school, carried the proper subjects here, and did not register for excess units.

A fourth student made 63½ units at Humboldt and received advanced credit for 63 at the university. This student, however, carried 17 units his first semester; he probably lost the half unit because the university's limit for beginning freshman is 16½ units, according to Mr. Hicklin.

A fifth student made 66 units at Humboldt and received 64½ units credit at the university. He carried 17 units his first semester at Humboldt, or an excess load of a half unit, he carried 17½ units his second semester but did not quite have a "B" average, and the university does not permit students to carry more than 16½ units without a "B" average. According to the U of C catalog statement this student had an excess of one and a half units, the amount that he lost on transferring.

Two other students lost three units for a different reason; they had entered Humboldt with deficiencies from high school; In each case the student had failed to take in high school what the university terms a "restricted elective," namely, an extra year course in foreign language, science, or mathematics and consequently three units of Humboldt credit were used to satisfy a high school deficiency.

Scholarship To Be Given High School Student

The Chi Sigma Epsilon, Humboldt State College honor society, is offering a scholarship this year to some student in Humboldt or Del Norte County high schools who is high in his grade standings and has received the best recommendations from the school principal.

The scholarship will include tuition and student fees and will be for one year. The Chi Sigma Epsilon has also sponsored several "On to College" programs in various high schools of Northern California during the past year. Miss Adelle Johnson is faculty adviser for the society.
