WHAT IS THE SANCTUARY?

We are a 501c3 non-profit found at 13th and J Street in downtown Arcata (right by the Veterans' Hall!). We offer tons of events, from creative workshops where you can come in and learn a new craft, to art shows and musical performances done by local artists.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Sanctuary is a space devoted to artful living and building community. We believe it is important for community members to be able to explore new mediums and reach their creative potential.

COLLEGE CORPS SERVICE

During our time at the Sanctuary, we have helped with:

- Food preservation
- Seed packets for community usage
- Community outreach via the Arcata Farmer's Market
- Garden maintenance and improvement projects - creating a greenhouse, growing food, and planting native plants.
- Event organization and support
- Outreach projects with other local organizations such as Food for People, Old Town Community Alliance and Flowers for People

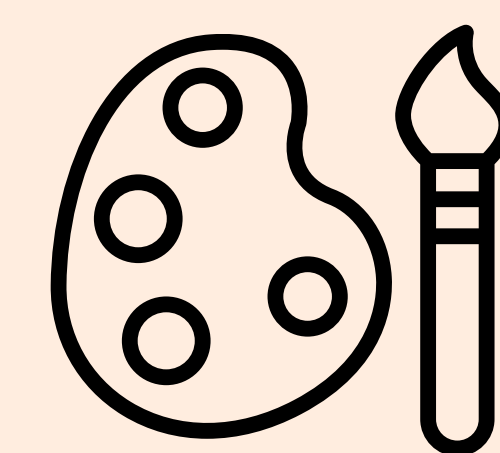

SUSTAINABILITY

- Repurposing - maker's space
- Help preserve food through canning, dehydration, fermentation, etc
- Clothing Rummage Sale

ART AND COMMUNITY

- Sewing Night
- Taco Tuesday
- Art Night
- Ambient Cafe
- Cooking Classes
- Jewelry Lab
- Experimental Music
