If You Were Around

By Anonymous

Where do I start?

If you were around...
I would know my culture.
I would know my language.
I would know the principles.
I would know me.

You were supposed to show me things a dad does.
You were supposed to protect me from boys.
You were supposed to teach me about MY culture.

Instead, now I am in the middle of 2 cultures;
knowing nothing of the culture that represents me,
knowing nothing about the thing that makes me stand out.

I am half Korean, half American, & often the oddball out.

I don't want to blame you... but I do.

I blame you for leaving.
I blame you for not visiting.
I blame you for not teaching me.

But I will continue...
