SWEETHEART BALL COMING FRIDAY

Humboldt State Amateurs Win Boxing Championship

Coach Grady Lawrence's Humboldt State College amateur boxing team walked off with the big team trophy at the Redwood Empire Championships held last Friday and Saturday nights in Eureka's Municipal auditorium.

Clarence "Fergy" Ferguson, ace mittman on the team brought victory to the Lumberjacks with a stirring decision over Darrel McCovey of the Eureka Elks Club to take the senior division welterweight title in the final bout on Saturday night's card.

Ferguson, probably the smoothest working boxer to appear in the show, had the capacity crowd on its feet in the third and last round of the fight as he twice had the hard punching McCovey in trouble with a vicious head and body attack. Ferguson had won the opening round by a narrow margin, and the second canto had been nearly even, but the last round flurry left no doubts about the decision.

Lawrence was the happiest man in the auditorium as he accepted the beautiful team trophy on behalf of the Lumberjack boxers immediately following the Ferguson-McCovey bout. Fred Peterson, announcer for the show, tried to get Grady to say a few words over the public address system, but Fergy expressed the feelings of the team when the mike was handed to him. All he said was, "We owe it all to Grady."

A brief summary of Humboldt's Saturday night's fights follow:

In the opening bout of the evening, Charlie Dowd of Hoopa defeated Ralph Goldsmith of HSC in a wild swinging slugfest. Dowd dropped the Lumberjack for a seven count in the first round.

In the fourth bout, Ronnie Marshall of Hoopa packed to many guns for Chuck Piper of the Lumberjacks to cop the novice welterweight title.

The junior welterweight trophy was won by Ray Kern, hard punching Arcata Lions club boxer, who narrowly outpointed Don Ellison of Humboldt in the fifth bout on the card.

Humboldt State got into the win column in the eighth fight of the evening as Bryan Shieman knocked out Sam Brown of the Arcata Lions to cop the novice light heavyweight championship. Shieman had the Arcata boy in trouble all the way, having him on the mat in both of the two opening rounds, and finally registering the kayo in the final heat.

In the senior light heavyweight title bout, Ad Holden of HSC was a mighty tired fighter at the finish, but he held the title by virtue of his close verdict over Walt Corriea of the San Jose Walker's Club.

Tom Viracola, the hardest puncher seen in the show, punched out a clear cut decision over Hank Hawkins of the Eureka Elks club to cop the senior heavyweight crown.

Turkey Thompson won the senior middleweight trophy as he de-cisioned Rebel Wall of the Elks club. Thompson was never in trouble during the fray as he used his left to keep his longer-armed rival at a safe distance in the long range swinging and then poured in rights and lefts in the infighting.

All champions in the senior division earned the right to compete in the coming Golden Gloves competition in San Francisco. All expenses will be paid if the boxers decide to attend the tourney.

Profits from last weekends show went to purchase medical equipment to be used locally for the treatment of infantile paralysis. The tournament was sponsored by the Eureka Lions, Twenty-Thirty, and Kiwanis clubs.

Students Discuss World Government

Featured at the last regular meeting of the Student Federals was a panel discussion by HSC students on the subject of World Government Attempts. Various plans for a unified world were compared as to method of relative success. A record crowd attended the meeting which was held Sunday night at the Telonicher home.

Library Rules Go Into Effect

A policy of cracking down hard on those who persist in infringing up on the "no noise" edict in the library has gone into effect this week with the board of control handling the system and punishing the offenders. For the initial violation, the offender is suspended from the library for one day; for the second offense, the penalty is a suspension for one week; and if the person persists in breaking the rules, he will appear before the board of control, whose members will decide upon further punishment.

We'll see you all at the Sweetheart Ball. It's Friday night in the Eureka Municipal auditorium.

Chorus To Give "Lonesome Train"

The College Chorus, under the direction of Charles Fulkerson, is scheduled to present the musical legend "The Lonesome Train," in the Spring Concert. It is the story of Abraham Lincoln's funeral train which traveled from Washington, D. C. to Springfield, Illinois. Tryouts will be held in the near future for the numerous solo voices which are heard throughout the number.

Mr. Fulkerson states that there is still a need for Chorus members. In order to do justice to "The Lonesome Train," a group of 120 voices would be desirable, which number would approximately double present chorus enrollment. No previous musical experience is necessary for membership in the organization.

HSC Enrollment May Go Over 700

At the end of registration the count of students was 593 as compared with 549 at the close of Fall registration. Late entries in the fall boosted enrollment to 651 which would seem to indicate that registration may top 700 during the current semester. Only twice before in the history of the school has Spring Semester enrollment exceeded that of the preceding Fall Semester. Some of the results of the apparent increase will be more crowded classes and an increasing problem of housing. Nelson Hall will continue to house three and four per room instead of reverting to the original two-in-a-room setup.

Modern Dancer To Appear Here

Miss Barbara Lyddane, assistant professor of physical education and instructor of modern dance at HSC has announced that Mary Tiffany, will appear at Humboldt State Tuesday night, February 25 to give a program in modern dancing. Miss Tiffany, a Los Angeles girl, is making a tour of the Pacific Coast at the present time. She presents a complete and varied modern dance program, and has made a hit in all her past appearances. The program will be held in the HSC auditorium.

Nightclub Dance Plans Being Laid

Tentative plans for a dance to be staged in nightclub fashion have been laid by the HSC Rally Committee under the direction of committee chairman Patty Murray. At present, the dance is planned for the later part of February, barring any conflict with the basketball schedule, in which event the affair may be postponed until sometime in the future. Music will be provided by Don Wilson's Collegians. Further announcements regarding the exact date will be made soon.

Class Of '50 Sponsoring Big Dance in Auditorium

The high spot of the Humboldt State College social season will be reached this Friday night when the Class of '50 presents the first annual Sweetheart Ball in the Eureka Municipal Auditorium with dancing scheduled from 10 until 2 to the music of Don Wilson's Collegians.

The dance will be a closed affair, with admission open only to HSC students, faculty, alumni, and their guests attending. Attendance will be limited only to those having bids for the ball. The Sweetheart Ball will be one of the largest ever given by a college organization, with up to 1000 expected to attend.

Highlight of the evening will be the selection of the Sweetheart Queen who will reign over the festivities. Three freshman coeds are in the running for the honor of presiding over the Valentine's Day affair. They are Peggy Allen, Eleanor Brannock, and Norma Conti. Miles, Eureka florist, is designing a special floral crown for the queen and two beautiful bouquets for the maids of honor. Daly Brothers will present some lovely gifts for the queen, and Fluher's bakery is obtaining two tea cookies from the east which will be beautifully decorated for her. A miniature queen to top a three layered cake which is being baked by Mrs. Goodin of the HSC home economics department is also being brought for the queen.

The decoration committee, working under chairman Arlene Hoosier, plans to turn the auditorium into a fairyland garden for the affair. A large plate of glass will be used as an artificial pond in the center of the floor and it will be surrounded by rocks and moss.

In order to have a permanent record of the dance, Jim Jenne will take colored slides during the festivities, Dick Woodcock will be on hand to take photographs, and Ellis Williamson will make a 10 minute movie.

Humboldt State alumni may purchase bids for the ball at the Bon Boniere in Eureka, Bledsoe's in Arcata, and the Rexall Drug store in Fortuna. Tickets are also being sold in Ferndale and Scotia, but none will be sold on the night of the dance.

Committees for the dance include Mrs. Goodin, Charles Coen, Rita Lou Waters, refreshments; Peggy Allen, dance program; Jackie Anderson, publicity; Jim Jenne, colored slides; Ellis Williamson, movie; Dick Woodcock, pictures; and Arlene Hoosier, decorations.

Be sure and bring out the alumni for the Sweetheart Ball. They will all be welcome, but they must have bids.

The big social event of the season this Friday night is in Eureka's Municipal Auditorium.

Congratulations to that Class of '50. They have done a great job on the Sweetheart Ball.

Crown Concert Huge Success

Wednesday eve marked a highlight for the season of music activities at Humboldt State when John Crown, concert pianist, gave a brilliant performance at the college auditorium.

His virtuosity and musicianship was of the highest calibre. Particularly outstanding was the presence of melodic line and clarity of tone even in his tutti passages. The subtle changes of moods in the various passages of Schumann's Kreisleriana were particularly commendable. His interpretation of Chopin was perhaps more masculine than most performers of Romantic composers, and his effortless execution combined to make an evening of lasting significance.

The audience caught the mood of the performer during his opening number and sustained it throughout in spite of the heaviness of the program. Mr. Crown acknowledged the enthusiastic applause by playing three encore—C Flat Minor Waltz by Chopin, Waltz Oublier by Liszt, and Novelette by Poulenc.

A suggestion to the audience that would improve future concerts here and at Community Concerts, is to remain seated until the performer is finished acknowledging the applause.

Yearbook Staff Ready For Work

The staff of the Sempervirens, the Humboldt State College annual, is preparing for a tough grind in the coming few weeks when the large share of work for the yearbook must be completed.

Editor Norma Sprague has completed the dummy for the yearbook, and last week held a meeting with the staff to discuss the completion of the work. Another meeting was slated for this week to iron out all the difficulties involved in both editorial and advertising and to insure the students an annual of which they can be justly proud.

Cage Photographs On Display Here

Now on display in the library is a set of enlarged photographs taken at the HSC—Chico State basketball games by Peter Scmitt and Stanhope Pedley, both Humboldt graduates, of the Photo Specialty Shop in Eureka. The pictures are all action shots which catch both Lumberjack and Wildcat cagers in the tense moments of battle. Prominent in many of the shots is Darrel Brown, the great Lumberjack forward, who ran up a new HSC scoring record of 42 points against Chico in the second game of the series.

In recent weeks there have been noted several outbursts of a brand of sordid, appalling, and, to say the least, disgusting "humor" which, we believe, have ever disgraced a college campus at any time, anywhere. And if the above inference does not sink into the minds of certain dim-witted souls in which group are undoubtedly included the instigators and perpetrators of the aforementioned acts, these dramas of twisted personalities have been taking place right here at Humboldt State College under everyone's nose.

We are not certain where the idea for all of this foolhardiness was hatched, though it was probably born in the mind of some poor soul who was eager to bask in the limelight as the doer of daring deeds, but we are certain that it has gone way too far, and that the time to put a stop to it is now. Because if it is not stopped immediately, the good name which Humboldt State has built up over a long period of years is destined to carry a scar which will take many more years to heal.

It can be said with a reasonable degree of truthfulness that at first it was slightly funny when one of this regions more common domestic animals was led into Nelson Hall one evening. But this was the place where those who committed the act should have had the sense to desist and turn the dubious talents in some other direction. However their scheme must not have satisfied them, so they repeated the performance in substantially the same manner. After this, their exuberance continued to grow, culminating in the placing of a cadaver in a prominent spot in the women's dormitory of Nelson Hall.

It is silly, we believe, to attempt to hush up actions of this nature. In the first place, it has become a common subject of conversation on the campus, a subject which is now uppermost in the minds of a good number of the people here. In the second place, a policy of lightly passing over this sort of misconduct will only lead the offenders to believe that they have a free reign to do whatever they please. Only one's imagination can tell what this might lead to.

Humboldt must not only face the seriousness of these actions alone, but must also face the wave of criticism which will certainly come to the student body and administration of the college if this vandalism is allowed to continue. It is the old story of the many suffering for the misdeeds of a minority. And if the many allow that minority to continue, they are just as guilty if they had perpetrated the acts themselves.

We sincerely trust that this editorial will do something to curb this disgusting behavior. If it does not, it is up to the board of control to take the situation into their hands. Members of our student government have seen fit to take over the policing of the library, a worthy task, but it seems that noise in the library is rather small potatoes when compared to some of the acts mentioned above.

THE BLACK DIRT

Muffled mutterings from dissatisfied Frosh. Seems all sorts of upper classmen can go to the big, big Freshman Ball, members of the Class of Tupper have to fork over a fabulous sum for the same privilege. In re above mentioned event: we heard a telegram was recently received notifying the Refreshment Chairman that the cookies had just arrived from the East. But it really isn't big-time unless all food is imported.

When we interviewed Tup he was very busy. He was denouncing some of the dissatisfied who had been caught by his Gestapo burning him in effigy. When asked for a statement he informed us that he had just checked his genealogy and had discovered that he was not a second-cousin of Huey Long.

John Van Duzer asked us to state emphatically that he is not in the livestock business and does not intend to convert Nelson Hall into a dairy. While the recent donations were undoubtedly made in a true spirit of cooperation by well-meaning admirers, they proved to be rather bothersome and somewhat messy.

Seems last Thursday nite the WAA threw a big dance to welcome the new students and give them a preview of HSC's fabled friendliness. Mixer Dance that is. But something went wrong somewhere. Maybe it was lack of publicity, maybe it was general lack of interest. About 75 people showed. Out of six-hundred and some odd.

Charlie Fulkerson got tired of cutting off sardine tails and ambled back to Humboldt and his mansion on Fickle Hill. The other day he was busily drawing chalk lines on the various floors of the Ad Building. Reason: need for more members in the College Chorus. Chas. plans big things for the Chorus and Orchestra during the semester. Biggest deal will be the production of "The Lonesome Train," a really spectacular and interesting piece of music with scads of solos. Juciest solo spot is that of the ballad singer, which, in the original recording, is sung by the now well known Burl Ives.

Also along the musical line we might mention the John Crown Concert which is reviewed in this issue in the all-out Oliveira style. For days before the concert Maggie Puckett, Mu Epsi secretary, was fluttering around the campus, writing Dear John Letters, and making like a bobby-soxer generally.

Come to the Sweetheart Ball and make your choice for the Sweetheart Queen.

THE RENTAL SHELF

Nothing disgusts a mystery-novel reader more than a haughty, patronizing leer from the local intellectual as he spies the reader's latest copy unless it's the pleading excuse of "I just didn't have a thing to do!" from the rather weak-skinned character who is caught with a late "Blood-and-Gutser" and hates to admit he reads them.

The reading of good mystery novels is not a disgrace. It hasn't been a disgrace since men like Wilkie Collins and Edgar Allen Poe started turning them out. It will never be a disgrace as long as men like men like Raymond Chandler and Dashiell Hammett keep turning them out.

Women? Yes, even the women, from old war-horses like Mary Robert Rhinehart and Agatha Christie to the new and exciting Hilda Lawrence and Elizabeth Daly, can swing a wicked, blood-curdling typewriter.

Of course, there are phonies in the profession. There are phonies in every profession. The writers have Kathleen Windsors and Kathleen Norrises. The movies have Monogram and P.R.C. I won't bore with the lists of others. That isn't what this article is for. It's to get people to read good mysteries, the people who deride them.

The people that deride them fall into two classes. Either they're the ones who haven't recognized a play since "Romeo and Juliet," a novel since "Pamela," or a movie (if they lower themselves to mention the subject) since "Birth of A Nation," or they're not reading the right mysteries.

We can't help the former group. People that are mentally dead are beyond help. But we can help the latter. We can steer them to the right ones and let nature take its course.

Good books to start them on their way are "The Big Sleep," "The High Window," "Farewell My Lovely," and "Lady in the Lake" by Raymond Chandler; "The Thin Man," "The Dain Curse," "The Glass Key," and "The Maltese Falcon" by Dashiell Hammett; "The Pavilion" and "Blood on the Snow" by Hilda Lawrence; and "And Then There Were None" and "The Murder of Roger Ackroid" by Agatha Christie.

Naturally, this is just scratching the surface, but we think that it's enough to start nature on its way. Come on. Let's not be mentally dead. Join the clique!

Ace Halfback Leaves School

Next fall's grid prospects at Humboldt State were dealt a stiff blow last week when Bob Hayes, star halfback on the 1946 Lumberjack varsity eleven and the recipient of the Arcata American Legion trophy awarded to the outstanding varsity gridders as selected by his teammates, left HSC for Los Angeles due to his inability to find living quarters for himself and his wife of four months after they had been evicted from their previous accommodations.

In Hayes' departure, Humboldt not only lost one of the fleetest backfield men ever to set foot on a local gridiron, but also lost a bright prospect for this spring's baseball team. Hayes was also tabbed as a probable point winner for the 1947 track squad. He broad jumped 23 feet last spring in high school competition.

Lumberjacks Upset SOCE To Halt 16 Game Streak

The sixteen game victory string of the Southern Oregon College Red Raiders was finally broken last Friday night as Coach Joe Forbes' Humboldt State Lumberjacks handed the Raiders a 53-39 setback, their first defeat of the season. The Southern Oregon five came back the following evening to take the second and last game of the series, played at Ashland, by a 59-45 count.

Humboldt started fast in the opening game, and was never in much danger as they ran up a 31-18 halftime lead. With the Raiders' big guns silent, Darrel Brown, Gene Moses, and Claude Eshleman hit the hoop consistently to give the invaders a lead which they never lost. Brown paced the Lumberjack offensive with 18 points, while Moses counted 14 and Eshleman netted 12.

The second game was a repetition of the opener, except that this time the shoe was on the other foot, and Al Simpson's cagers were going to town. The fast breaking Oregonians, who earlier in the campaign swept both ends of a two game series on the Humboldt hardwood, got off to an early lead with lanky center Wes Peters carrying most of the offensive burden, and were out in front 32-17 at the intermission.

The Lumberjacks got back on their feet in the last half, but could not whittle down the big Southern Oregon margin. Peters packed off high scoring honors

Championship Play In Intramural Set

The final round of play in the HSC Intramural league will be run off this week, with play in the championship round slated to get under way next week. Competing in the championship round will be the two top teams from leagues 'A' and 'B' and the first round champion of league 'C'.

The Dorm II team qualified for the right to represent league 'C' in the championship round by going through its round robin schedule against the other three teams in the loop undefeated. The Married Vets II five copped second honors in league 'C' with a two and one won and lost record.

In leagues 'A' and 'B' only one team in each loop is certain of qualifying for the championship round. In league 'A', Red Hunt's Eureka I cagers are undefeated and will enter the title play regardless of the outcome of their game this week. The Men's Association five in league 'B' is another combine with a goose egg in their loss column, and will be one of the teams from league 'B' to participate in the championships.

Games in the championship round will be played in a different manner as those in the qualifying round, since the championships will be run off on a single elimination basis, a team being eliminated after its initial loss. Games will be played during noon hours and a small admission will be charged in order to purchase medals for the winners.

Three new members have been added to the Intramural board. They are Bob Thoman, Ed Oliveira, and Chuck Gordet.

HSC Jayvees Win From Oregon Five

The Humboldt State College junior varsity basketballers registered a 52-42 victory over the Brookings, Oregon, town team last Saturday night in the college gym.

The games were close all the way through the first half, with Humboldt on top at halftime by only two points, 26-24. However, with center Jim Carvell leading for the winners with 22 points, while Brown again led the Humboldters with 13 tallies.

HSC Cagers Leave Tomorrow on 11 Day Road Trip

The Humboldt State College basketball team will leave tomorrow on an eleven day road trip which will take the Lumberjack cagers to San Francisco, Los Angeles, and Davis for seven games with five of the top small college hoop combines in central and southern California.

Opening games for the traveling Forbesmen will be a pair of contests with the San Francisco State College quintet on the bay city five's home court. The Golden Gaters have always been tough for the Humboldters, and some of the roughest opposition of the trip may be expected in the Friday and Saturday night games. In recent games, the Gaters had little trouble in disposing of Chico State in a two games series played in Kezar Auditorium.

The Lumberjacks will hit the road again on Sunday for Los Angeles where they will play three games on successive nights, starting with Pepperdine College on Monday. The Pepperdine Waves have won national hoop fame in recent years with some of the greatest fives ever to perform in Southern California, two years ago copping top honors in the Kansas City Invitational Tournament.

Tuesday night, Humboldt will face the Occidental College five in the Occidental gym, and the Green and Gold hoopers will conclude their visit in the city of angels Wednesday night when they meet Chapman College.

The Lumberjacks will embark Thursday on the final leg of their journey for Davis for a twin engagement with the Cal Aggies on Friday and Saturday nights. The HSC cagers will return home the the way, the jayvees pulled away slowly to walk off with the victory. Carvell topped the scoring for Humboldt with 17 points.

Boxing Summary For Friday Night

(A brief summary of the performances of the Humboldt State boxers in the Redwood Empire Amateur tournament last Friday night in Eureka's Municipal auditorium was as follows.)

Humboldt State College was well represented in the first round of the boxing tournament held in the Municipal auditorium in Eureka. HSC men won six out of the eight bouts in which they participated.

In the opening bout Fritz Coulter of HSC met Harold Derr of the Arcata Lions club. After a slow first round, Coulter came back strong in the second and third to decision Derr.

Zenon Nieckranz of Humboldt met Gene Short of the Arcata Lions. The boys had a hot first round in which they both scored knockdowns. In the last two rounds, Nieckranz marked up his man pretty badly with a long left and a looping right to take the decision.

James L. Jones gave the Lumberjacks their third straight win as he southpawed his way to victory over Manny Perez of the San Jose Walker's club. Jones scored knockdowns in every round to win by a large margin.

Harold Tupper collided with Ronnie Marshall of Hoopa in one of the wildest bouts of the show with both boys slugging it out from bell to bell with Marshall winning the decision.

Chuck Piper put HSC back in the win column as he chased Don Bliss of the Arcata Lions all around the ring, catching up with the White City boy often enough to earn a clear cut decision.

Tom Hall of Humboldt had Bob Bartow of the Eureka Elk's club on the floor in the second heat, but following day, and expect to arrive at Arcata Sunday night.

Intramural Loop Ends First Round

Play in the opening round of the Intramural basketball league will conclude next week with the following games.

Married Vets vs. Arcata I — noon, Feb. 18.

Eureka I vs. House of Stromberg—noon, Feb. 19.

Knights I vs. Eureka II—noon, Feb. 20.

Dorm I vs. Fortuna—noon, Feb. 21.

The first two games will bring an end to the opening round in league 'A,' while the latter two bring together league 'B' teams for the final contests.

Bartow had too much experience and too strong a right hand and won the verdict.

Ralph Goldsmith, another Lumberjack battler, and Dowd of Hoopa clashed with Goldsmith displaying some fancy footwork and an aggressive punching ability to win the decision.

Clarence Ferguson, Humboldt, showed the crowd the classiest boxing exhibition they saw all evening as he completely outclassed Louis Ortiz of the San Jose Walker's club. Ferguson kept a long left hand in the San Jose boy's face until midway through the second round when he boomed in several hard punches to register the initial knockout of the

Hilarities Work Well Under Way

Under the critical eyes of Don W. Karshner and senior manager, Gerry Falor, the tenacious, unwieldy Hilarity material is being definitely molded into shape. Rehearsals have been tentatively scheduled, student managers are being chosen, stage props are being dusted off, and plans and ideas are being devised, corrected, revised and scrapped.

The final day for casting the principle parts, is Thursday, but scene-casting will continue until the end of the week. Rehearsal hours will be arranged for each of the scenes, and notices will be placed on the special Hilarities bulletin board, telling when, where and why to report. Participants should have two consecutive hours free, twice a week. Students may participate in two scenes, or,

Pape Posts Call For Baseballers

Ten battery men answered Coach Larry Pape's initial call for pitchers and catchers last week and the entire turnout of diamond talent was slated to report for pre-season practices this week as the national pastime begins to come into the spotlight at HSC.

The playing season for the Lumberjack tossers will not open until the latter part of March, but when it gets under way it should prove to be the biggest baseball campaign ever enjoyed by a Humboldt State College nine, since a wealth of material is at large on the campus.

Games have already been scheduled with several teams in the bay area and central California and also with teams from Oregon. The complete 1946 baseball schedule will be released at a later date, when all games have been arranged.

This week, candidates will work out on the practice field in back if they wish, in one scene, and also on the production staff. For acting parts, see Mr. Karshner, and for stage construction work, see Mr. Van Duzer.

In the wide variety of acts, there is, however, a special need for men in the modern dance group. The finale has opportunities for a wide variety of talents.

The program is as follows, and shows the broad scope covered by the Hilarities:

FIRST SECTION
Opening Pajamorino scene.
Magazine advertising.
Married Vet skit.
Western bar-room skit.

SECOND SECTION
Beer Hall-Geisha House.
Younger Generation.
Ski-Lodge (Choir)

THIRD SECTION

EUREKA

February 13th — "Bachelor's Daughters" — Four charming young ladies get together and put on an act to get rich husbands. Heard that one before? Then, stay home with the rest of us!

February 16th — "Sister Kenny" — Rosalind Russel gives what is said to be her greatest performance in this highly controversial film. It should be seen.

STATE

February 12th — "Spectre of the Rose" — and — "Step By Step" The former is an interesting, but very arty, film written, directed, and produced by Ben Hecht. It concerns the ballet and has Judith Anderson in the cast. I don't know too much about the second film but doubt very much if it will appeal to those who will go to see the first one.

February 15th — "Heldorado" — and — "Little Iodine" — It is films like this that make Britain the leader in film distribution throughout the world. However, you might be the type that goes for Iodine. Oh well, why comment on it?

February 12th — "Thrill of Brazil" — and — "Bedlam" — Ann Miller shows off her legs dozens of times in the former, and Keenan Wynn and Evelyn Keyes try their best, but — Well, "Bedlam" is one of the better horror films, anyway.

February 14th — "White Tie and Tails" — and — "Home in Oklahoma" — Dan Dureya and Ella Raines make with the love and laughs in the former, and Trigger and his straight man try their best with Pitchers reporting last week included Red Hunt, former ace of the Eureka High school mound staff who performed for the Paladini Humboldt Crabs for two seasons, Bob Clarke, the lone south-paw to put in an appearance last week, Don Carlson and Gene Johnson, both of whom toiled on the slab for Eureka High last season, and Dick Lawitzke and Chuck Piper, a pair of Indiana boys who show plenty of promise.

Catchers who signed up for the initial workouts included Royce Lima, a long ball hitter and ace receiver who is another product of Eureka High, Phil Young, Jim Carvell, and Bob Thoman.

Senior manager for the baseballers is Chuck Gordet who is assisted by Mark Melendy.
