Jeffers - Fulkerson Play Here Thursday Night

Hazel Jeffers and Charles Ful- companist and soloist. kerson will perform here Thursday evening at 8:15 in the college auditorium. The artists will present a varied program of selections by Bach, Shumann, Debussy, Brahms, and a modern group including two Jamaican Street Songs and the Jamaican Rhumba.

The recital will be the second in the Mu Epsilon Psi concert series, which has been bringing artists to Humboldt State for three years. Since then they have brought such artists as violinist Sascha Jacobinoff, pianist John Crown, and Mary Tiffany, dancer.

Mrs. Jeffers, member of Humboldt State's music faculty, has studied piano with Edmund Munger of the Illinois Wesleyan University and later studied at Columbia University and the University of Southern California. She

WELCOME ALUMNI? (March 16, 1931)

Humboldt State College used to welcome its frosh; it doesn't now. It used to welcome its alumni. It hasn't practiced this custom for once a year. The old pioneer Humboldt Staters must feel like outcasts. Do we want this situation to exist? The answer is No, and yet what can the more fitted to the natural talents college do? It can at least set aside one day in the college of his actors. year when alumni may be invited to visit the old Alma Mater and acquaint themselves with the "Bigger and Better Campus." A day of spirit, entertainment, and amusement when the college student can cast aside the old binder and join in a friendly program of Humboldt Hospitalities with the builders of Humboldt State—the Alumni.

One of the school problems that seems to be confronting some of the teachers and students is, "Quiet in the library." The library should be a place for quiet study. Authorities were floored this week by the announcement by Don Karshner that plans for the first fall play, "Bachelor Born," have

Annual Work Day Set April 23

April 6, 1937
Plans this week were nearing completion for the first Annual Student Work Day on Friday, April 23, according to an announcement by the chairman of the project, Bob Madsen.

Student Work Day is being spon-sored by the Men's Association in conjunction with the Woman's Athletic Association and the As-sociated Students of Humboldt State. The idea was presented several weeks ago by Bob Madsen and is being brought about so that the students can aid in beautifying the campus.

With but five minutes remaining in the bitterly fought contest, Humboldt fumbled on its own 30 yard line and the Aggies recovered. Nedderman, Agie halfback, crashed through center for ten yards, then followed with a repeat performance to the green and gold 17. Thoroughly aroused and determined to score, Nedderman again took the ball ar wide around his own right end and realized his ambition. Klein blocked the conversion attempt and the final score was 12 to 7. The game ended with Humboldt trying some very unorthodix spread plays which found three confused Humboldt players preparing to go out for a pass from an already overcrowded press booth.

Lumberjacks Meet Undefeated Bear Ramblers Sat. Night

By WHITEY COMBS

When California's Ramblers invade the northland to take on Humboldt State they will be meet-ing their sixth grid opponent of the grid season and are seeking to maintain an umblemished record that boast victories over Santa Rosa J. C. 46-O, Mather Field 57-0, Alameda Navy 33-0, California Aggies 20-0, and Chico State 30-0, and in these five games hav rung Riddle up 166 points for 14 points against.

The Ramblers very potent attack has been put together by menator Zeb Chaney, a Louisiana gentleman who has been on the Bear coaching staff since the war. Their offense is built around the Waldorf "T" and that means power, speed and passing artistry, backs like Dick Houston, Pat Martin, Will Lotter, Roland Maples and a host of others are capable performers who know what to do with a pigskin once they have it tucked in their arms. The quarterback chores are handled by two of the greatest prep prospects to come out of Southern Calif. in many a year, Rube Navarro and Charley 'Boots'

The Ramblers are for the most part a very static outfit with many of their personel moving up to the varsity from week to week and with many of the top dogs coming down for stints with the Junior Bears. Lynn Waldorf, Bear head man, believes in giving all of his boys the most experience possible and it is with that in mind that he works a shuttle affair between his top squad and the Ramblers.
