The Puzzle of Me

Matt Aung

My blood runs through borders Eclectic in my DNA, I represent a lineage of cultures, vast and diverse My face is that of generations past, present, future.

Yet the blood that makes me is muddled in mystery and confusion Disconnected from my tribe, navigating foreign lands searching for a piece of me lost to time, fate, destiny.

I am from the land anew, the world of old,
and eastern temples
Out west, I'm bounded skywards Breaking through the Earth, I return to the land I come from...
