Summer: An Accordion Poem

Kyra Alway and Paolo Bosques-Paulet

*I long for days of pool floaties and sun rays dancing through the air, looking for a moment
The heavy trees and sunken clouds, slick with summer heat*

Sun shining bright against our eyes A glimmer in their reflection as the waves roll into the tide, come in, come out Sky hues of pink and purple shift and change, like the fluidity within me.
Fluidity within me

*Can you see me in you?
Share what we have, learn what we share
Learn the knowledge passed on from the people who pass through me Giving me guidance in hopes of being Free*

A flashback to good times, to fond memories to hold, in our gentle hands Held close
