

All-School Picnic Set Wednesday

STUDENTS, FACULTY DESERT CLASSES FOR DAY OF FUN

Wednesday, May 15, will be a day of empty classrooms with the seventh annual All-School Picnic, and the faculty show, taking the undivided attention of Humboldt's students and faculty.

The day will begin with the two performances of the faculty show at 9:30 a. m. and 10:30 a. m. Then at 12 noon, or immediately after the last performance of the faculty show, a police-fronted caravan will leave on the approximate ten-mile drive to Camp Bauer for an afternoon of entertainment, and games climaxed by a barbeque dinner, bonfire and a dance on the open-air pavilion.

All persons attending are requested to bring their own lunch, with Nelson Hall cafeteria meal ticket holders to pick up a sack lunch at the cafeteria before the caravan leaves.

The schedule of games will include men and women's softball and volleyball games, faculty included, with archery and one volleyball court to be open for non-scheduled activities. The losing class or the faculty will act as a clean-up committee after the picnic.

Entertainment includes a tug of war between Nelson Hall and Redwood Hall men and a variety show to be emceed by Gary Mead.

There will also be children's activities consisting of games, relay races and a kite contest.

To date no traffic accident has marred the first six picnics, and all attending are urged to do their best to keep this record.

As a part of the picnic tradition all persons taking a car to the picnic are urged to decorate their car with colorful crepe paper or other ornamentation.

Sign-up sheets will be posted in the main hall Monday, May 13 and all attending are asked to sign up and indicate the number of persons they expect to bring to the picnic.

So everyone will have a complete schedule of the day's activities a program sheet will be placed in every student and faculty box by Tuesday, May 14.

This year's picnic committee is stressing three things . . . fun, safety and complete lack of intoxicants at the picnic. This is asking no more of the students than has gone on in the past.

Admission to the picnic is free to ASB activities card holders and 75 cents for those without, with children to be admitted free. The picnic dinner is free.

Fraternity Initiating 15 HSC Students

Delta Sigma Phi will send 12 to 15 HSC men to Chico this weekend for their final initiation into the national fraternity. The initiation will be a two day affair, Saturday and Sunday, and will make the men lifetime members of the fraternity.

The initiation will consist of the informal and formal types. The informal will be taken in levis and old clothes and promises to be the more excruciating of the two.

The formal initiation will be a dressup and here the group will receive their sheepskins and pins to the national fraternity.

This group that is getting initiated now will in turn initiate the remainder of the pledges in the fall with the help of a team from Chico.

The local pledge group of Delta Sigma Phi is hopeful of getting a house by Sept. 1. This would enable them to move in by the fall semester.

A new group of pledges are being invited to a pledge party Monday night. The group now consist of approximately 45 members and should go to 60 by the next pledge party.

Two Faculty Shows Are Scheduled

The first performance of the approximate 20th Faculty Show will begin at 9:30 a.m. next Wednesday, May 15, in the Humboldt State auditorium, with a second, or "command performance" being given at 10:30 a.m.

Mr. Paul Johnson, associate professor of music, is chairman of this year's show which is the traditional kick-off the annual All-School Picnic which this year, as it has been for the past six years, will be held at Camp Bauer, at Korb, California.

This year's show is divided into eight skits with the members of the faculty in the show participating in a skit according to the year they came to HSC.

The eight skits cover the years 1942 and prior, 1945-48, '49-'51, '52, '53, '54, '55 and '56.

Each skit will symbolize some outstanding event that occurred during that particular period.

The continuity of the show is very clever being a muse of poetry that will come from a clamshell.

Admission to the "reputedly best" faculty show to date is 25 cents with the proceeds going into the faculty's student emergency fund.

Alpha Psi Omega To Hold Banquet

The Alpha Psi Omega dramatic fraternity has made plans for its first banquet to be held May 18 at the Bella Vista Inn.

The group hopes that the dinner will become an annual event for persons active in dramatics, Alpha Psi Omega and the speech department.

Attendance at the banquet is by invitation only. Members of the Drama Club, Alpha Psi Omega, past members and cast members of the 1956-57 play season are invited. The speech faculty and Pi Kappa Delta are also invited.

Announcements of new members of Alpha Psi Omega will be made. Five awards for worthy contributions to the 1956-57 theater season will also be given. Two awards will go to the best actor and actress of the season, and two awards will be given to the best supporting actor and actress. The best technical contribution of the year will also receive an award.

The names of the students receiving awards will be engraved on a plaque which will be displayed in the new theater. Each year names of award winners will be added to the plaque.

Dr. Jack Pauley, chairman of the division of language arts, will make the presentations at the banquet.

Crawford To Speak On Campus Soon

Charles Crawford, college secretary of American Friends Service Committee, will be on campus Monday to interview students interested in summer work projects.

He will speak to sociology classes and the remainder of the time will be available in the dean of students office.

The projects include employment at work camps, in mental hospitals, schools for retarded children, industry and community service projects.

BAND CONCERT IN PARK SUNDAY

A band concert in the park is in store for the whole family next Sunday when the Lumberjack concert band presents a diversified program of music in the Sequoia Park band shell. The 2:30 p.m. concert will be directed by Daniel Backman and will include polkas, marches, popular tunes and light classics.

Featured star of the show will be the popular drum major and baton twirler, James Nameth, who will do a twirling exhibition with the band. Appearing as trombone soloist will be Woodrow Thompson, director of instrumental music at Arcata High School. James Babcock, trumpet soloist for the Lumberjack band will also perform with the band.

Student director Robert Harris and Donald Moenke, band member, will conduct the band playing Sousa's "Our Flirtations March" and "The Teddy Bears Picnic" by John W. Bratton.

The concert will include twenty selections beginning with the concert march, "Burst of Flame" and ending with the Humboldt State "Alma Mater." Among the selections will be such popular favorites as "American Patrol," "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers," and a Medley of Victor Herbert favorites.

JV Forensic Squad Returns From Meet

Humboldt State's junior varsity forensic squad returned from the annual Spring NCFCA Individual Events Tournament at Modesto Junior college last weekend with a respectable competitive showing.

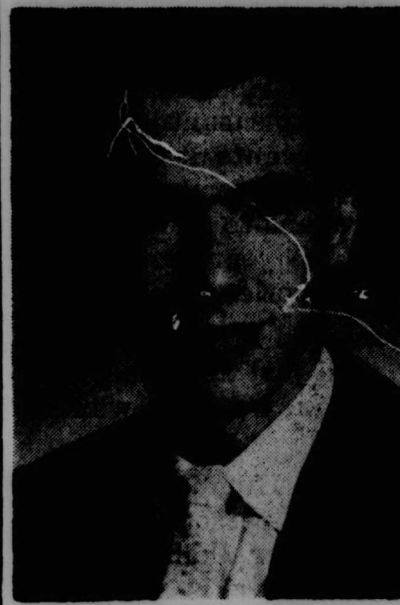

Among the Lumberjack squad who placed in the competitive speech tournament were Larry Beebe, third place in "speaking to entertain," Garry Brennan, fourth place in parliamentary impromptu, Carol Molinder, fifth place in speaking to entertain, and Ed Spencer who made the semi-finals in extemporaneous interpretation.

The Northern California Forensic Association event was experimental in terms of the new types of contest speaking attempted, and even though Humboldt State College's entry was limited by budget considerations to junior varsity squad members only, other colleges and universities who participated entered their regular varsity teams.

Eleven collegiate institutions in addition to Humboldt participated in the closing affair of the competitive season including the University of California, College of the Pacific, Modesto Junior College, St. Mary's, Santa Clara, San Francisco City College, San Francisco State, Sacramento State, Shasta Junior College, Stanford University, and the University of San Francisco.

DOBKIN ELECTED

Milton Dobkin, assistant professor of speech, was elected president of the Northern California Forensic Association when debate coaches of the sixteen member colleges recently held their final meeting of the year in Modesto.

Debaters Present Fortuna Program

Three Forensic squad members entertained the Fortuna Monday Club with a demonstration of competitive speech techniques Monday in Fortuna.

The program was moderated by Milton Dobkin, debate coach. Included were a humorous interpretation by Bob Lloyd, and a mock-serious debate in cross examination style by Marni Brede and Bob Chegwidan.

CONSERVATION WORKSHOP SET

The fourth annual workshop in conservation education sponsored by Redwood Region Conservation Council and the college, has been scheduled for July 15 to July 26 on campus.

1957 Sempervirens Scheduled To Be Distributed During Week Of May 20

Barring unforeseen delays at the printing plant, the 1957 Humboldt State yearbook, the Sempervirens, will be distributed on campus the week of May 20.

Sandra Aycock and Kay Price, co-editors, said plans are being worked out to make the distribution the smoothest ever, despite the growth in number of volumes. Tom Freeman, organizations editor and distribution manager, will handle the circulation.

Students who have full-year activity cards are entitled to a yearbook without extra charge. For those with a one-semester card only the charge is $4, for students with no activity card $6 and for faculty $4. A faculty card does not entitle the buyer to a book.

In addition, the staff will place on sale a durable, vinyl transparent cover for the yearbook. The custom-built covers will sell for 50 cents and are designed to give a lifetime of protection to the book.

The staff already has received the nonbreakable 45 rpm record, "Moments to Remember," that will be included with every yearbook as a "talking page" this year at no extra cost. The record was produced for the Sempervirens by the staff of radio KHSC.

While the editors were mum as to other contents of the book, they pointed out that the volume had a number of brand new fea-

DALE CALLIHAN ELECTED PREXY IN RUN-OFF

Dale Callihan was elected president of the Associated Student Body in Monday's run-off election.

He defeated Harman Bonniksen with 273 votes to 221.

Callihan's ticket, the Octagon Volunteers, swept five other offices, with the Senate Party taking two and the Hilltopper Party only one. The run-off election capped one of the most intense campaigns in HSC history.

Others elected were Roberta Johnson (OV) over Nick Zupo (SP) for vice president 396-198; Diane Johnson (OV) over Pat Hodges (SP) for secretary 284-228; Donald (Snuffy) Smith (OV) over Jim Ely (HP) for treasurer 302-198; Larry Westlake (SP) over Dick Fauerbach (OV) for assemblies commissioner 262-231; Warren Baker (SP) over Ralph Mayo (OV) for awards commissioner 268-225; Tony Vasquez (HP) over Joe Romero (OV) for publications commissioner 264-225; Sandi Wahlund (OV) over Gary Mead (SP) for rally commissioner 253-245.

Joe Chappelle defeated Jim Knox in the general election last week in the only contest in which a candidate received a clear majority then.

tures, lots of color, and is the largest ever in number of pictures and pages.

Second Hay Hop Set Tomorrow

Tomorrow night, Saturday May 11, beginning at 9 p. m. and lasting until 1 a. m. marks the Spring night of the second annual Hay Hop to take place in the Humboldt State gymnasium, featuring an enjoyable evening of informal dancing.

The mood of the evening will be set by a barnyard which will include a barn, trees, animal cutouts, and baled hay in the center of the dancing area and next to the wall.

Dancing will be to the music of the Duttons featuring the vocalizing of Jesse Washington. Other members of the combo include Arman Baradat, accordion; Frank Metcalf, bass; and Joe Romero, drums.

Also during the dance there will be a short variety show to be emceed by Homer Ratcliff.

Also in the planning stage is the possibility of a square dance or two.

Admission to the stag-or-drag, come-as-you-are affair is 75 cents with HSC activities card or $1 without.

Don't Mar The Day

Next Wednesday, the day of the All-School Picnic, is a day to look forward to, and when it is here, a time to enjoy. Only two things may mar the pleasantness of the day: an accident or the use of intoxicants at the picnic. During the past six years there has never been even a minor traffic accident in the caravans to and from the picnic area. Those participating this year are urged to do their utmost to keep the record spotless.

Drinking at this school-sponsored affair has never been a major problem either. And just as we all want our accident record to remain clean, we don't want to spoil things by the use of alcohol.

Whether many realize it or not, Humboldt has always relied upon the good taste and personal sense of responsibility of the students, rather than specified rules governing conduct. This, I believe, is a credit to ALL HSC students. And in like manner, students should realize this and not abuse the faith put in them. If some should disregard this faith and use bad judgment (that is, bring liquor to the picnic) it will only reflect back on the individual. If something such as this should occur, the honor and reputation of Humboldt, OF WHICH THE STUDENTS ARE THE MAJOR PART, will be affected.

We are not taking this opportunity to preach the "evils of alcohol" -- far from it. We do strongly believe, however, in the adage that there is "a time and a place for everything."

Since an organization is usually responsible for the actions of its members, is it not only fair that the members be "responsible" for the organization? We think so.

Let's all get on the bandwagon Wednesday, have fun and relax -- and remember to keep our standards high.

HSC WANDERING MINSTRELS RETURN TO OLD GRIND

The HSC choir returned Monday to studies and other campus activities after a week of wandering minstrelsy.

The happy choral warriors directed by Dr. Leon Wagner, carried their banner into four counties, singing an average of nearly four concerts a day to audiences ranging from 100 to 900, including 13 high schools, two churches and two civic groups. Total attendance for the 17 concert programs was approximately 5000, Dr. Wagner said.

Traveling by chartered bus, the choir made a fast sing-and-run trip down Highway 101, with side trips to Fort Bragg on the west and an excursion into the Clear Lake area on the east.

Friendly home hospitality greeted the choir members at each overnight stopping point. Attentive audiences gave enthusiastic reception to the varied choral fare, which ranged from sacred to secular and from ancient to modern.

Unexpected highlights included two on-stage hugs and kisses, the first from Louis Davis to Jeanette Dick in their duet, "Jon, Come Kiss Me Now," and the second from soloist Hank Pierson, who chased director Wagner across the stage in a moment of amorous excitement which nearly brought on a collapse of both audience and choir.

The choir returned to Arcata on Saturday night, to give on the following afternoon its annual spring concert in the First Baptist Church of Arcata.

Dr. Roske To Sign Autographs Today

According to Howard Goodwin, graduate manager, the college bookstore has just received copies of "Lincoln's Commando," and HSC's newest author, Ralph Roske, will be in the bookstore today to sign autographs. The bookstore will be open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. and refreshments will be served.

"Lincoln's Commando" has already made the New York Herald Tribune's best seller list and has been publicized recently on the Dave Garraway and Steve Allen TV shows.

Also it has been reviewed from coast to coast. Pulitzer prize winner Bruce Catton in the New York Herald called it "a useful, thought-provoking and completely hair-raising study in unadulterated courage." The Christian Science Monitor said "Lincoln's Commando" was "a thoroughly researched and generally well-written account of one of the lesser known heroes of the Civil War."

The Washington Post and Times Herald calls it "a crackling good tale" while the New York Times says "The facts are recorded . . . in simple and unforgettable prose . . ." In summing up, the Norfolk, Virginia Pilot says, "It is easy to visualize Cushing . . . to find him breathtaking, devil-may-care, murderously logical in attack, beyond fear, and altogether an extremely interesting young man. He makes fascinating company, and his acquaintance is recommended by all means."

On Dec. 5, 1929, a Marine aviator, Captain Alton N. Parker, became the first pilot to fly over the Antarctic Continent.

Final Performances Of Synge's 'Playboy' Tonight And Tomorrow In Auditorium

By ANN MILLER

Tonight and Saturday evening, May 10 and 11 at 8:30 p. m. will find the Humboldt State College Players repeating John Millington Synge's delightfully astounding play, "The Playboy of the Western World." To describe the play, its people and its action would spoil it. "Playboy" is the kind of play to see and relish and not to vivisect.

The production staff, as always, did blue ribbon work. John Van Duzer's sets never cease to amaze audiences, not only because of their authenticity but because of their feeling of space, distance and a certain "lived-in" look. Ethelyn Pauley's costuming, as usual, is flawless. Details such as the boots and scarves convinced the audience before the actors lifted a finger.

The lighting was as effective and as gracefully done as anyone could wish for. One was never conscious of button being pressed or switches being pulled. The only out-of-mood note was in the overture and intermission music.

As far as direction goes, again Dr. Stanley Glenn lived up to the high level originally established by Dr. Don Karshner and so superbly carried on by Dr. John Pauley. Dr. Glenn seems to be able to make a sensitive actor out of a robot. His stage blocking and his stage pictures are utterly "fluent"; no movement, no entrance or exit seems labored, no bits of business over-contrived.

BRIGHT STARS

Like crackling, bright stars in a nicely star-studded sky were two of the actors. One was Robert Lloyd as Christopher Mahon and the other was Herbert B. McLellan as Old Mahon. The very second Robert Lloyd stepped on the stage one could relax and enjoy it. Mr. Lloyd was eloquent from his sensitively moving feet to his sensitively breathed breath. Mr. Lloyd has more than flair; he is a natural.

As the bloody-scalped father, Herbert McLellan was exactly what one expected. His verve, his full-bodied stage presence, his subtly handled nuances of feeling and characterization were, as always, completely professional. The audience's reaction proved this.

Peegen Mike, played by Sally Conklin, is not too satisfying a role. Miss Conklin, however, lived up to her part with charm and sincerity. She should be especially lauded for the hauntingly hopeless manner in which she delivered her curtain line.

Art Loveland played the part of Peegen's father. He had ease and authority. Mr. Loveland has a fine, decisive atmosphere about him.

As that reckless, old reprobate, Widow Quin, Irene Riley was convincing to no end. Her style of acting, particularly in this role, has true flourish. The audience unreservedly enjoyed Mrs. Riley's swashbuckling humor and hearty vitality.

INDIVIDUALISTS

The men, Stan Mott, Hal Lewis and George Steele, played their various parts to the hilt. They added a great deal to the play, each one successfully maintaining his own individuality.

The women, Pauline Hendrix, Carole Wise and Anne Johannsen, fulfilled their roles beautifully. Anne Johannsen, in a slightly larger part, displayed her usual striking style.

The "crowd", especially Joline Bettendorf as the "village loony", was excellent.

This play has impact. It's well worth seeing. You may not approve of it but you'll certainly enjoy it.

CIPA CAPITOL REPORT

Librarians in California's public schools may continue picking books on their merits following the action of an Assembly committee.

The Education committee of the Lower House rejected a proposal May 1 which would have banned books from library shelves which were inconsistent with the principles of "morality, truth, justice and patriotism."

Although the measure supposedly was aimed at grade schools and high schools, the provisions of the censorship would probably have extended to the state college libraries.

The bill, authored by Sen. Hugh Donnelly (D-Turlock) had already passed the Senate before it was killed in the Assembly committee on an overwhelming voice vote.

Proponents of the measure presented their often emotional

Certificates Of Award Presented To 17 In Industrial Arts Exhibit Last Week

Certificates of award were presented to 17 high school students for prize-winning work exhibited in the Humboldt State College third annual Industrial Arts Club show last week.

Awards are made each year to high school students for entries in each of the major industrial arts areas, and judges are industrial arts instructors from the schools represented in the show. Judges for selection of "best in the show" were members of the Industrial Arts Club, who chose a mahogany cedar-lined chest made by Eugene Gage, sophomore at Eureka High School.

In charge of the annual exhibit and club sponsors were Dr. Ernest Bednar and Arthur Stegeman.

Students receiving awards for the 1957 show in the wood turning classes were Robert Cartwright, Fortuna, a pair of turned cedar lamps; Kay Collins, Eureka, maple salad bowl; Jack Arlington, Fortuna, redwood burl bowl. In machine woodwork I, awards went to Eugene Gage, Eureka, mahogany cedar chest; Mickey Lee, Fortuna, mirror backed shadow box; and Jack Hodgson, Fortuna, mahogany coffee table; machine woodwork II, Wayne Orcutt, Arcata, mahogany coffee table; Wayne Marcella, Arcata, cedar chest; Bob Porter, Fortuna, mahogany night stand; machine woodwork III, Dick Leach, Eureka, spruce and mahogany boat, Bob Porter, Arcata, cedar chest.

Mechanical drawing students who placed were Chuck Murphy, Fortuna, bench vise ink drawing; Jim Davis, Arcata, sectional view machine drawing; and Sally Wilkerson, Arcata, architectural drawing.

Students winning awards in general metals projects were Richard Coe, Eureka, anvil; Richard Lighthill, Arcata, machinist clamp; and Jerry Jeffries, Arcata, wrecking bar.

TWO REVENUE SPEAKERS

Two agents from the Internal Revenue Service office in Eureka will discuss "Job Opportunities with the Internal Revenue Service" at a meeting of the Business Club Monday, May 20, at 7:30 p. m. downstairs in the Coop. Speakers will be Robert Driscoll and Joseph B. della Maggioria. All students are invited.

Three Attached To Instruction Dept.

Announcement of three new staff members attached to the office of Dr. Homer P. Balabanis, dean of instruction, was recently made by Dr. Cornelius H. Siemens, college president.

Dr. John Pauley, in addition to his present duties as chairman of the division of language arts will also act as administrative assistant to Dr. Balabanis. Holding the new title of curriculum evaluator is Dr. Joseph Trainor, newly promoted associate professor of education, who will also continue teaching on a part-time basis in the division of education and psychology.

Dr. William Ladd will be audiovisual and radio-television coordinator.

CU Emblem Sign Reported Stolen

Unknown persons have removed Conservation Unlimited's emblem sign from the roof of the CU house in front of the gym. CU's president, Reed Sanderson, found a note in the place vacated by the sign which asked for the moose head in the Wildlife Building as ransom. The head is to be "left in the middle of the football field at midnight Saturday."

Lumberjacks Edge Crescent City, 5-2

The Humboldt State College Lumberjacks took the second victory in a week over the Crescent City nine Tuesday night by a score of 5-2 at the losers park.

Ike Peterson led the attack for Humboldt getting three hits in four trips to the plate. The Jacks got three runs in the first, one in the third and one in the fourth.

Bill Wilbur pitched his way to the four hit win.

Students Invited To Enter Road-e-o

All college students under 20 years of age are invited to enter the Teen Age Driving Road-e-o, sponsored by the Arcata Junior Chamber of Commerce, on May 18.

The local winner will be sent to the state-wide Road-e-o, and winners from the 48 states, Alaska, Hawaii and the District of Columbia will compete for $4,500 in scholarships this August in Washington, D.C., in the National TAR Finals. Local and state awards will be given as well as scholarships on the national level.

Knowledge and performance tests will be given.

Persons who are interested and wish to participate are to contact Dr. Richard Boehmler at the speech clinic or call extension 26 on or before tomorrow, May 11.

The small amount of rain last week didn't do any lasting harm and the rivers are in good shape again. The Mad River looks pretty good at the time of writing and the open water below the 101 Highway should produce some nice sea-run cutthroats about this time of year. Single eggs or a fly fished near the bottom is a good bet. A few steelhead are still coming into the Mad River. Last week, over 100 were counted at the fish ladder at Sweasey Dam, and a few were taken at Pifferini and Tyee Holes by local anglers.

Mr. Charles Bloom, college librarian, bumped his way over Highway 299 to Trinity County last week and fished in Big French Creek which empties into the Trinity River near Big Bar. Charlie reported that Big French Creek was high but clear. Though he didn't stay too long, he managed to catch several small trout and see several steelhead.

The lagoons have been getting some fishing activity, but have slowed down since opening day. Hal Brusher and Clyde MacQuoid reported that their creel census on Big Lagoon showed only about 50-70 fishermen for the two days last weekend as compared to

FWC GOLF TOURNEY IS THIS WEEKEND AT SACRAMENTO

Coach Phil Sarboe and the top five HSC golfers left for Sacramento yesterday to compete for the Far Western Conference golf championship. The first 18 holes of the medal play tourney will be played over Sacramento's Haggin Oaks Country Club this afternoon with the final 18 holes to be played tomorrow morning.

Sarboe announced his traveling squad for the final match of the season would include Bob Bestor, Bob Rice, Bob Archibald, Rod Sandretto and Jim Knox.

The Lumberjack golfers go into the big meet as decided underdogs while Chico and San Francisco are the heavy favorites. Despite this Sarboe has said that "almost any team will have a chance to win. The odds are against us, but if our kids play very well, as they are capable of doing, we should be among the leaders."

Last Monday in a tune-up match in preparation for the conference the Lumberjacks won their second match in a series of three with Benbow Country Club. Humboldt completely dominated play Monday afternoon in winning 17-1. Bob Rice was medalist for the 18 hole match with a 79 followed closely by Bob Bestor's 81 and Rod Sandretto's 82.

INTRAMURAL BASEBALL IS UNDER WAY, TWO TEAMS DROP

BY TONY VASQUEZ

Intramural baseball is beginning to show some signs of the coming contenders. Nelson Hall and the IQ's appear to have the stronger teams now but the others are even with them at present and it will take several more games before any conclusions can be reached.

An early disappointment to the baseball tournament is the loss of the Faculty and the Ramblers as participants. The teams were unable to field a squad and consequently had to forfeit the remainder of their games. This is bad in that these two teams had made very good showings in other sports.

There were two games scheduled for May 29. The Ramblers forfeited the first game to CU. In the second game Nelson Hall continued their domination over Redwood Hall in all sports as they marched over them 5-2.

Tuesday, April 30, featured two forfeits. In the first game the Ramblers forfeited to Block H and the Faculty forfeited the second game to IK.

Wednesday, May 1, Block H beat Alpha House 9-8 in a heated contest. The second game between IK and CU was called because of rain.

In the after dinner activities Thursday night the Ramblers forfeited to Redwood Hall in the first game. Nelson Hall and Block H went into extra innings before Nelson Hall gained a 4-3 decision.

The week ended with the Ramblers forfeiting to the IK's. The IQ's had Alpha house for dessert in the final game of the week Friday and remained undefeated.

Action started this week on Monday night. Redwood Hall nosed out CU 5-4 in an exciting game. The undefeated IQ's once again gathered behind the arm of Pete Cengia and romped over the Block H 13-3. Hank Cooper carried the pitching chores for Block H.

A special reminder should go out to all participants in horse-shoes and tennis to keep posted on their upcoming games. There have been some forfeitures this past week because the participants did not know their playing time. Therefore keep posted.

BASEBALLERS HOME, THINCLADS TRAVEL

Manuel Vazquez, fresh sprint sensation of the Lumberjacks, flashes across the tape to win the 100 yard dash in an early-season track meet with the Cal Aggies at HSC. Vazquez and a dozen other Jacks thinclads will take part in the Far Western Conference Meet tomorrow at Davis.

BARNUM BREAKS RECORD; JACKS LOSE TRACK MEET

The Humboldt State Lumberjacks 11 man track squad finished last in a three-way track meet at Chico last weekend. The 'Jacks' scored a total of 27 points following Chico's 65½ and the Cal Aggie's 69½ points.

Outstanding Humboldt performance of the day was turned in by the 'Jacks' fine athlete Earl Barnum as he won the high jump at the school record breaking height of 6 feet 2¾ inches.

Paul Williams, who took over the dash events in the absence of Manuel Vazquez, won the 100 yd. dash in the time of 10 seconds flat and finished third in the 220 yd. dash. Rigo Piva continued his winning ways in the pole vault for the 'Jacks' with an effort of 12 feet.

On the basis of last weekend's meet the Cal Aggies and the Chico State Wildcats have established themselves as co-favorites to win the up-coming Far Western Conference track meet.

NEVADA TAKES TWO TILTS OVER JACKS

Dick Dudley, Humboldt State's power hitting second baseman, blasted a pair of three run homers in two games against the University of Nevada Wolfpack, but HSC still couldn't squeeze out a win in either of the Far Western Conference games as they lost them both by identical 8-7 scores.

The Humboldters have now lost their chance to gain the championship, or even share it as they did last year, for the red-hot Hornets from Sacramento have piled up an 8-0 win and loss record in Conference games while Humboldt now has a 3-3 record. These two teams will clash tomorrow at the Arcata Ballpark in a double-header.

In the first game the Nevadans banged the horse-hide covered sphere around the park freely to take a 7-0 lead in the first four innings. Humboldt came back to tie it up, as they scored 4 in the fifth inning and 3 in the seventh inning, only to lose out by the single run.

In each game the Jacks rallied in the top of the last inning, but they couldn't quite make it either time.

Both of Dudley's big blows came with two men on base, and were to almost the same spot clearing the screen at 350 feet.

Three HSC Netters Compete In FWC Weekend Matches

Jack Geary, number one tennis player at Humboldt State, will be the only Lumberjack netman entered in the single matches of the Far Western Conference meet. John Marcuz and Bill Williams, the leading doubles duo, will take part in that event in the meet which is being held this afternoon and tomorrow morning at Sacramento.

Geary has defeated every other team's top player with the exception of Sacramento and San Francisco, and has a good chance to reach the finals. This will not be a team meet, as Sacramento State has already won that honor, but will be for individual performances.

Joe Dawkins of San Francisco and Bill Reinhardt of Sacramento are the favored players in the single elimination tournament.

There may be a "B" bracket included in which case three other tennis men would make the trip from Humboldt to play in the non-trophy meet.

Humboldt ran up against the conference powerhouses, the Hornets and the Golden Gators, and came out loser of both matches by identical scores of 7-0.

JACKS BATTLE CHAMPS FOR SECOND PLACE; TRACK TEAM IN FWC MEET

With the Far Western Conference diamond championship shattered dream, the HSC Lumberjacks host the newly-crowned Sacramento State Hornets Saturday at 1 p. m. in the Arcata ball park in a doubleheader that will see the Jacks fighting to stay in the running for second place in the circuit.

At the same time 13 members of the Lumberjack track squad will be in Davis to compete in the FWC thinclad championships.

Last week's double loss at the hands of the Nevada Wolfpack dropped Coach Ced Kinzer's diamond crew from contention and gave the Hornets their second league title in a row after sharing a co-championship with the Jacks in 1956.

Now owning a 3-3 league mark and a 16-7 overall standing, Humboldt will be out to pick up two wins over the Champs, who are 8-0 in FWC action, to keep hopes for a second place alive.

In the conference track meet Nevada will be favored to take the title because of its all around balance. Other strong contenders are Chico State and the Cal Aggies. While Coach Bob Doorink states that the Jacks have a very slim chance of winning if things go well HSC may make a good showing and stay in contention much of the way.

Humboldt promises to be strongest in the dashes, broad jump, high jump and relay events and weakest in the relays. Qualifying heats will be run at 10 a. m. in the sprints and hurdles. The finals and the track competition will be in the afternoon.

The California Rodeo, held each July at Salinas, has been called "a model for cowboy contests the Nation over."

The other day our vice president in charge of good news announced that someone, somewhere, enjoys Coca 68 million times a day. You can look at this 2 ways:

Either we've got an incredibly thirsty individual on our hands. Or Coca-Cola is the best-loved sparkling drink in the world.

We lean to the latter interpretation.

Former Humboldt Writing Newspaper Reports Of Life In North Africa

Sprightly newspaper reports of life in North Africa are being written by a former Humboldt State student who is combining army duty with some foreign correspondence.

The former Humboldt is Ray Smeltzer, recently promoted to specialist, third class, at Tripoli, Libya. Smeltzer was editor of the 1955 Sempervirens and before entering a three-year hitch in the army in the fall of 1955 also was a photographer and campus correspondent for the Humboldt Times.

His articles have been carried since December in the Times under the headings of "Soldier's Report" and "Libyan Notes." Ray started writing them last December, when his unit, the 542nd Engineer Company, sailed for Casablanca from New York.

In a recent article Ray described a trip made by a survey party of which he was a member into the "land of rolling sand dunes" miles from his base. His reports have been full of imagery and detail of the desert country and its people. In one dispatch he described the state visit of King Saud of Saudi Arabia to King Idriss of Libya at Tripoli.

Ray recently made a visit to Tunisia to make pictures of one of the survey parties locating points along the Libyan border. He is assigned as company photographer. In a recent letter to Miss Kate Buchanan, dean of students, Ray said he hoped to be assigned to Europe this summer.

arguments for almost 90 minutes before Henry Madden, president of the California Librarians association, presented a brief case for the opposition.

Madden called the measure "unnecessary" and "dangerous." He pointed out that one of the books which proponents had attacked, Laughing Boy by Oliver La Farge, was a "Pulitzer Prize winner 25 years ago."

Four witnesses urged passage of the bill. They included Mrs. Anne Smart, who achieved nationwide prominence several years ago when she appeared on Edward R. Murrow's television show to protest the "low morals" of books in Marin county schools.

In an earlier report, Mrs. Smart named Oscar Hammerstein, Eleanor Roosevelt, Carl Sandburg and John Steinbeck as authors who "are extremely well-listed as

Although most of the advocates hit at "immorality," one witness, a representative of the "California League of Christian Parents" condemned books pertaining to "communism," "one-worldism," and the "Godless United Nations."

Three Win Awards In Writing Contest

Three Humboldt State students won awards in the recent creative writing contest sponsored by the Redwood Council of Language Arts.

The students were entered in the college short-story bracket. Winners were Tod Collins, M. Arkley Carter, Lawrence Henson.

The Redwood Council of Language Arts is an organization of English teachers of the Humboldt area. Dr. Ralph Samuelson, assistant professor of English, was one of the judges.
