Christmas Art Show Opens Monday, Sale Wednesday

The annual week long Christmas art show and sale is scheduled to begin Monday.

Both faculty and student works will be on display, with the mainstay of the show being pottery seconds. Drawings, graphics, paintings and some sculpture will also be displayed. All sale prices will not exceed $5 and many items will sell for under $1.

The first two days of the show will be entirely devoted to viewing purposes. Actual sales will begin on Wednesday morning at 8 a. m. and continue for the duration of the week. Buyers are asked to form a line in the west hall of the art building. Purchases the first day will be limited to one piece of pottery plus one are object per person, and will be carried out on a first come, first served basis.

Receipts from the sale of these art objects are used for scholarship and lecture funds, the first $100 going to a student art scholarship.

This year's theme is "stained glass windows" and will feature Christmas windows-murals by students in the art education classes.

Activities Head Is Appointed

Mrs. C. K. Leonard has been appointed to a newly created post as Activities Adviser attached to the office of the Dean of Students.

Her duties are to work with the head residents of all campus living quarters to set up a coordinated program of scholastic social and student government activities.

Mrs. Leonard is the wife of Professor C. K. Leonard of the Education Department. They came to Arcata this fall from the University of Missouri, where he was an instructor and she worked with the resident student program on the Columbia, Mo., campus.

Forestry Club Sets Tree Sale

Humboldt State College Forestry Club will hold its annual Christmas tree sale this year starting tomorrow and ending around Dec. 21 or 22. The club will sell top quality Bishop pine, Douglas fir, and white fir trees, cones, greenery on the lot at the Arcata Safeway store, 12th and G streets.

The club members cut the trees themselves in order to insure the best quality and most perfectly formed trees that can be found. The cutting will cause no damage to the surrounding trees and will probably be beneficial in that a thinning of the stand will be accomplished, enabling the remaining trees in the stand to increase their growth. Stump culture will be practiced on trees cut from an open area by the Forestry Club members.

As in the past, the club will price its items as low as possible and will handle only the best of trees, cones, and greenery.

Bud Richardson is chairman of the Christmas Tree committee for the club.

Yule Assembly Scheduled For Next Wednesday

Christmas music directed by Dr. Leon Wagner, associate professor of music, will feature the annual Christmas assembly next Wednesday at 1 p. m. in Founders Hall auditorium.

Five students will be heard in solo selections from "The Messiah." They are Joan Iverson, "Recitatives for Soprano"; Richard Ames, bass-baritone, "Thus Saith the Lord" and "But Who May Abide"; Gwen James and Miss Iverson, "Recitative and Aria for Alto and Soprano"; Joe McAlister, "Recitative and Aria for Tenor"; and Dorothy Elliott, soprano, "I Know my Redeemer Liveth".

Piano accompanists for "Messiah" solos will be Judy Nielsen and Sara Hallin.

Selected poems for Christmas will be read by Mrs. Jean Wagner, British born and trained in drama and interpretative reading. Mrs. Wagner has appeared before numerous audiences in the south and mid-west, as well as in the Humboldt area.

The program will end with the Madrigal Singers presenting a group of Pan-American Christmas Carols, including Carol of the Mistletoe (Canada), "Ru, Ru, Ru, My Little Jesu" (Mexican), "Rise Up, Shepherd, and Follor" (U. S. Spiritual); "Lullaby for Baby Jesus" (Brazil) and "The Journey" (Venezuela).

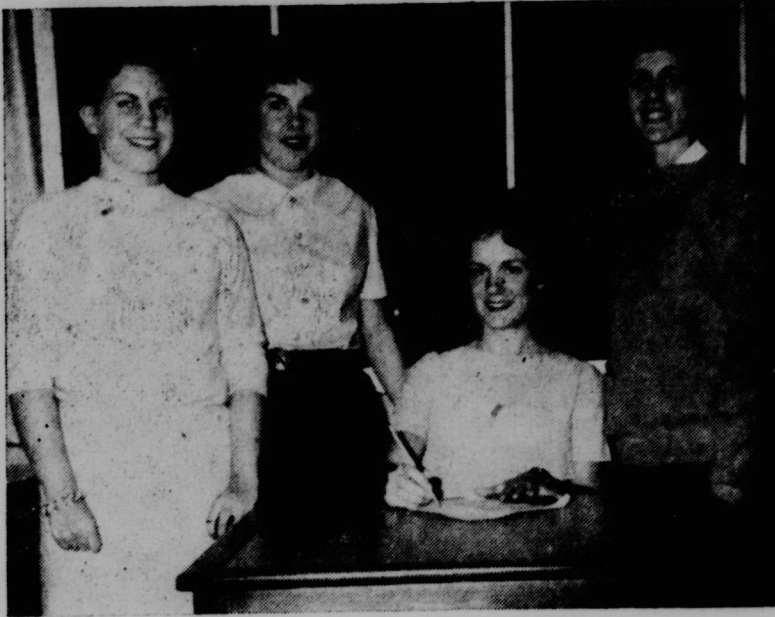

The Madrigal Singers are Miss Iverson, Kenna Koenig, Rella Hammond and Gwen James, sopranos; Carol Reddick, Judy Johnston, Billie Frasier, Pat Sanderston, altos; Jerry Flora, McAlister, Will Dublin, tenors; Frank Alden, Bill Shreeve, Mel Messenger, basses.

Last Two Nights For 'Our Town'

Tonight and tomorrow night are the last nights that the Sequoia Masque's production of "Our Town" can be seen by HSC theatre-goers.

The play, staged arena style, which means the audience entirely surrounds the stage, has been shown four times and has been well received.

Director George Goodrich, assistant speech-radio professor, urges those wishing tickets to contact the studio box office on the Language - Arts Building Square for reservations.

Starlighting Set Sunday By Spurs; Will Follow Traditional Ceremony

The lighting of the Christmas star by the Spurs on Founders Hall at 7 p. m. Sunday night will mark the beginning of the Christmas season on the HSC campus. Edna Gammon, Spurs chairman for the annual event, is pictured above with her co-chairmen, Karen Sundquist, who is in charge of the program, Linda Farrell, general planning, and Joyce Taylor, publicity. Not pictured is Sandra Johnson who is in charge of invitations and communications for the affair.

The traditional reading of the short story, "The Littlest Angel" will be done by Spur Billie Thomas. The Spurs held tryouts to determine the reader of the familiar Christmas story. At a critical moment in the story the star atop the entrance of Founders Hall is illuminated.

The starlighting ceremony traditionally includes the playing of the chimes by Dr. Lawrence Turner, executive dean at HSC, and the singing of Christmas carols by the Humboldt State A Cappella choir. The choir is directed by Dr. Leon Wagner, Associate Professor of Music.

The Spurs, a national service organization for Sophomore women on campus, have been conducting the annual starlighting ceremony for seven years. The Spokes, fore-runner of the Spurs, conducted the starlighting before that time.

Starlighting, which begins at 7 p. m. on the steps of Founders Hall, precedes the annual Community Concert, which begins at 8 p. m. in the Men's gym. Choral and orchestral groups from HSC as well as from Arcata High School orchestral groups from HSC as well as from Arcata High School and the community combine for the Community Concert.

Annual Community Xmas Concert To Be Held Sunday On Campus

The annual community Christmas concert will be held this Sunday at 8:15 p. m. in the Men's Gym. The concert will be preceded at 7:30 by the Spurs Starlighting ceremonies.

The program will include: a Prelude of Christmas Carols with Merle M. Smith, organist; "Christmas Hymn," arr. Juengst; "What Child Is This?" and English Carol; "Carol of the Drum," arr. David; "On This Good Christmas Morn," Cain. These four numbers will be performed by the Arcata Union High School Combined Choirs, Ruth Carroll, director.

Under the directorship of Woodrow Thompson, the Arcata Union High School Band and the Humboldt State College Band will present: "Sleepers, Awake!", J. S. Bach; "Prayer and Dream Pastime" from "Hansel and Gretel", Maddy-Humperdinck.

The Humboldt Chorale, Leland Barlow directing, will present: "A Child Is Born In Bethlehem", J. S. Bach; "The Sleep of the Little Jesus," F. A. Gevaert; "Ye Watchers And Ye Holy Ones," W. A. Fisher; Merle M. Smith, accompanist.

Following the Humboldt Chorale, there will be community singing, Dr. Leon Wagner, associate professor of music at HSC, directing.

The Christmas Oratoria by Saint-Saens will also be performed. The Prelude will be played by the orchestra; "Recitatives and Chorus," Leon Wagner, Leland Barlow, Betty Gordon-Carter; "Air," Ruby Raybourn; "Air and Chorus," Donn Stephens; "Benedictus," Betty Gordon-Carter, Leon Wagner; Chorus; "Trio," Leon Wagner, Betty Gordon-Carter, Leland Barlow; Chorus; "Quintet and Chorus," Betty Gordon-Carter, Mary Speakman, Ruby Raybourn, Leon Wagner, Leland Barlow.

The Arcata Union High School Choirs, the Humboldt State College Choir, the Humboldt State Symphony will present the Hallelujah chorus from the "Messiah" by Handel. Prof. Charles Fulkerson will conduct. Merle M. Smith will be organ accompanist.

Crowning Rites To Highlight Formal Dance

HSC's annual formal Sno-Ball, following the theme "Noel Nocturne", will be held tomorrow evening from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m. in the Eureka Inn Ballroom.

Bids for the dance, which is sponsored by the Associated Student Body and is free to all ASB card holders, are still available today in the Activities office in the Administration building. Students without bids will be admitted to the dance if they present ASB cards.

The crowning of the Semper-virens Sweetheart in the traditional coronation ceremony and the announcement of Man of the Year and Woman of the Year are highlights of the annual Christmas season dance.

Efrem Zimbalist Jr. and Roger Smith, both stars of the popular television series "77 Sunset Strip", have selected the Sweetheart. Their selection will be made on the basis of beauty.

The selections of Man of the Year and Woman of the Year are made by the Semper-virens staff. The Man and Woman of the Year will receive the annual Corbett cash award presented by Mrs. Katherine Corbett, associate professor of sociology.

The winners of the awards Outstanding Seniors are determined by Senior Class members. They nominate candidates for the presentation and decide the winners by vote.

Both Outstanding Seniors and

Absentee Ballots Now Available

Absentee ballots will be available for students not able to vote for the representative at large during the Jan. 16 and 17 elections.

The constitution reads, "Any student who will be absent during the election period and who desires to vote, will register with a member of the Executive Council not less than four school days before the elections. It will be the duty of the Executive Council to draw up special absentee ballots and distribute them to the registered voters. The absentee ballot will be essentially the same as the regular ballot except that there will be printed at the top, "ABSENTEE BALLOTS ONLY!! The absentee voter's signature shall be placed on the envelope. After absentee voting has taken place, each voter will seal his vote in an envelope and place it in a locked ballot box set up for that purpose."

LANGUAGE CLUB MEETS

The Foreign Language Club, under the direction of Thelwall Proctor, assistant professor of languages, met Wednesday night in the Green and Gold room to hear Mr. John Kozack, guest speaker. Refreshments were served after the talk and, in other business, semester dues of 25c were collected.

'Noel Nocturne'

"Noel Nocturne", which will begin to weave its blue spell over the Eureka Inn at 9 tomorrow evening, marks the tenth annual Sno-Ball ever to be held on the Humboldt State campus.

Today on its tenth anniversary we find the Sno-Ball practically on a traditional parallel with Sno-Balls of years past. The first Sno-Ball, held in December of 1949, was decorated along a Christmas theme with old-fashioned ornaments gracing evergreen trees and a giant snow man greeting the students; the theme picked by the Sno-Ball committee of 1959 is a Christmas evening - "Noel Nocturne".

In 1949 the Sno-Ball was held in the Eureka Inn; the Inn is also the site of 1959's Sno-Ball.

Since its beginning, the Sno-Ball has been sponsored by the Associated Student Body and has been free to all ASB members; bids are still available in the Activities office in the Administration building, without any cost to the student and if it is impossible to get to the Activities office, presentation of an ASB card at the dance will be accepted as a bid.

That first Sno-Ball was the only formal dance of the whole school year of 1949-50 and was tremendously received by the student body; far from being the only formal dance held on campus, "Noel Nocturne" is claimed will still be the largest and best attended dance of the year.

The Sno-Ball has been an HSC activity for such a length of time that planning for it is almost traditional too. Although plans do fall into place easily, there are many small pitfalls that must be overcome by the committee to be sure that the dance is just as perfect as it can be. The committee for 1959 has done a wonderful job of avoiding these pitfalls or smoothing them over when some were unavoidable. Congratulations.

Traditions on campus are nice to have and "Noel Nocturne" follows the best of them. —Vicky Williams.

A 'Well Done'

Hearty congratulations to the HSC music department for the wonderful job it did on the half-time performances at the football games, the first formal concert of the Humboldt Little Symphony and the Popera.

Dr. David Smith, HSC band director, can be proud of the job his band students did to enrich school spirit. Their performances at half-time were very clever and colorful.

The first formal concert of the Humboldt Little Symphony also proved successful for Charles Fulkerson, symphony conductor. Performed in the St. Bernard's School auditorium in Eureka, the concert drew a large crowd of music-lovers.

The tenth annual Popera festivities also drew a large crowd, and the various organizations of the music department were at their best in performance. Linda Woodruff, general chairman, and her committees worked hard to make this year's Popera one of the most successful. Ike Peterson also proved a worthy Popera King.

Mu Epsilon Psi has been quite active in the music department. Besides sponsoring a dance and giving a car wash, they were essential in bringing on the campus Emilio Osta, famed concert pianist. His performance at the piano in the interpretation of Spanish music was a delight to hear and watch.

So, congratulations HSC music departments, for a job well done. —Judy Ross.

LETTERS To The Editor

In the Dec. 4 issue of the Lumberjack, Bill Hayward offered to the reader his observations of the American jury system. In doing so, however, Mr. Hayward has indicated an ignorance of the premise upon which the concept of trial by jury is based.

Mr. Hayward has argued that each of us carry with us a set of political, economic, social, religious and other values. Whenever a person is called upon to render a judgment, his values will influence if not predispose his conclusions. Well, this is nothing more than a verifiable social phenomenon. But, it is Mr. Hayward's association of this with the concept of impartiality in trial by jury that is appalling. For value judgments on the part of men are as inevitable as is the human process of excretion. However, the concept of impartiality accepts the phenomena of men making value judgments, and argues that men are entitled to be judged by those who are able to place the situation in proper perspective. Leo Pfeffer, who the N. Y. Times recognized as "one of the greatest experts on individual liberty and constitutional law now living," had this to say: "the first jurors in the history of the Anglo-Saxon jury system were neighbors of the accused or were acquainted with the facts . . . 'impartial jury' means a jury representing a cross section of the 'community involved.' It would then appear that Mr. Hayward has confused the phenomenon of value judgment with the legal concept of impartiality.

It's amusing, however, to examine just what Mr. Hayward would substitute for the jury system. To use his own words, "if we hire retired lawyers, put them in a room carefully hidden from all outside pressures, and let them be the jury, we would be closer to the impartiality we profess." There seems to be a contradiction in the reasoning of Mr. Hayward at this point. He feels that men are influenced by their own values, yet he grants to 12 lawyers, who I might remind Mr. Hayward are men also, the omnipotence of being "your" jurors. The question must immediately be asked, do not lawyers hold values as you and I? Will not lawyers be influenced by values as you and I would? You will agree with me, that the answer to these questions is an emphatic YES. Furthermore, a lawyer may actually be the most biased of any individual! For in addition to his personal values, he also has legal values! I would pity the poor accused whose case ran a divergent course from the legal values of the lawyer jury judging him.

In the case of Fay vs. New York and in Moore vs. New York the U. S. Supreme Court held "that an accused is entitled to be judged by a fair sampling of his neighbors who can best place in perspective what has happened . . . the accused should not merely be judged by those who are of superior intelligence or learning." For, any method that permits only the "best" of the community to judge the guilt or innocence of an accused opens the way to grave abuses and does violence to the fundamental concept of fair play, of which trial by jury is a part.

In conclusion, I refer you to the significant words of the former Justice Rutledge. He felt the need for the continuance of the "present" jury system, as well as all procedural guarantees. He said:

"The old-time-tried principles and institutions of the common law perpetuated for us in the Bill of Rights are a basic charter of personal liberty, and there should be no experimentation with them under the guise of improving the administration of justice."

My friends . . . and all of you are my friends, I am an anxious man. I barely choke down my oatmeal . . . I beat my wife regularly . . . I smoke 4 packs of cigarettes a day . . . My dextrene is running low

And why all this nervousness? Because the Snowball (THE dance) is coming, and it's going to be held in the Mayfair Room. This little place has several advantages, the most important being that 40 people can set at one table (a new record in college annals).

Some people have referred to the Snowball as a place where all the downtrodden peons slurge their life savings on a tuxedo. Speaking of tuxes, to all those who are willing to wear one they become a suit of armor. A man can neither get in once he is out, nor can he get out once he is in (a tux, that is). But the women are no better off.

A girl prepares for the Snowball as if it were a trip to Siberia. One thing men learn at the pre-Snowball activities is patience, preferably to the nth degree.

You climb in the car after an hour wait, but someone has taken the keys to your car. After an hours worth of searching, you find them in her purse. You insert them in the watchbit, press the button, and there is blessed silence! Someone has stolen your battery. You leap out of the car window, madly figuring to borrow a car or a battery. The suspenders of your tux hang up on a tree, and you are suspended a half mile above the ground.

Three hours later, a pair of cut suspenders and a mangled tux lie in a heap at the bottom of the tree, and you have missed the dance of the year. But please do not fret, for after the dance you can catch the crowd at any one of a number of places. I found most of my friends in the parking lot behind the Mayfair Room last year, quoting poetry to the stars in a fit of ecstasy.

But what if you miss the dance in a series of unfortunate accidents. Well friends . . . and all of you are my friends, this is what makes me so anxious.

Editors note: The dance is in the Eureka Inn, you have probably guessed it, Bill is going to attend the wrong dance.

Bill's note: I'm going to attend my own dance, you are welcome to join me. It is a pay as you go proposition, in our own little corner of the Eureka Inn.

Pat's Perusals

-- Hunkering --

Pat Baker

Have you ever heard of hunkering? Well, neither had I until the following letter came to my attention:

Dear Pat's Perusals: In a recent column you asked for suggestions for contests to raise the attendance at basketball games — well here goes. How about a hunkering contest . . . ?

The letter was not signed, and I had no idea whatsoever what hunkering was, so I let it lie. But the other evening I was reading the November 23 issue of Life magazine, and there it was, Hunkering!

I was informed that hunkering is the sport of sociable squatting, (or down on your haunches everyone). Hunkers is the Scottish word for haunches.

It is believed that the fine art of hunkering probably originated in the Ozarks where mountaineers squatted while whittling to escape a lapful of shavings. The college craze for hunkering, I found out began at the University of Arkansas. There the undergraduates wrapped it up in college style.

STYLE

But, hunkering is not easy, you just don't get down on your haunches and let it go at that. You have to have style. For example if your elbows are on the outside of the knees, this is an outside hunker. If you are holding a book, elbows extended on the outside of the knees this is called an outside study hunker. For further examples see the aforementioned issue of Life.

By now it is apparent that endurance is important in the sport of hunkering. A contest between the University of Arkansas and Memphis State University has already been proposed. And, why not have one at Humboldt between the faculty and the student body. This could be staged during time outs at the basketball games. Ground rules should be established in public or private debate, or through the Lumberjack, I will be happy to oblige.

lished first. The most important thing in the hunkering game is how far the participant's posterior should be off the ground. This is usually determined by the style of hunkering you are using. As a point of information the Hornbrook Special Hunker (very difficult to perform) is named for the student who invented this particular style, (invent your own).

Life magazine reports one of the most popular hunkers is the Boy-Girl Hunker. It says this popular off-campus pastime is a combination of "hunkering, huggin' and nuzzlin'."

"Christmas Around the World" is the theme of the Christmas Door decoration contest being conducted at the San Jose State College campus. A perpetual first place trophy will be presented for the best entry selected from one of the living groups and Greek houses on the campus. A $5 expense limit for the decoration has been set.

Sigma Pi fraternity on the Long Beach State College campus is sponsoring their fifth annual Barber Shop quartet contest, with the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity making a bid for their fourth straight win. Last year, the fraternity retired the contest's first perpetual trophy with their win.

Contestants were recently interviewed for Santa Claus at the Oregon State College campus. The occasion? Each year a Christmas party is given for the children of faculty members and married students and Santa is scheduled to make an appearance.

Minutes of the Student Council

The meeting was called to order in the Student Union Office by vice president John Burger at 4 p. m., Dec. 4, 1959.

Those present were John Burger, Joan Rasmussen, Helen Wilson, Dr. Karshner, Dr. Jerry Turner, Marty Hessel, Pat Waters, Pat Miller, Mona Armstrong, Betty Bird, Bob Merritt, Ray Smeltzer, Judy Warren, Joe Romero, Ross Stromberg, Ken Matias, and Joe Mayfield.

Correspondence

A letter from Mr. Alwyn Sessions, Ski Club advisor, was read requesting that the ASB pay for the Ski Lodge Insurance. This matter was referred to the Board of Finance.

Committee Reports

Organization's Chart Committee — Helen Wilson moved we accept the organization's chart the committee drew up as submitted, it was seconded and passed.

C Average—Bob Merritt stated that the committee will draw up an amendment to the ASB Constitution stating that all club and organization officers must have a 2.0 average; this amendment will be submitted to the council for approval.

Frosh Bonfire — Marty Hessel reported that the traditional rivalry will continue between the Freshmen and Sophomores, but it will be constructive rivalry, not destructive. The class who can bring in the most wood for the bonfire will be the winner. A group of judges made up of a Rally Club representative, Sophomore and Freshmen class representatives, three faculty members, and Bill Johnson will determine the winning group.

Old Business

The possibility of official ASB stationery with a seal was discussed. A committee of Joe Romero and Pat Waters will investigate this matter.

New Business

Dr. Jerry Turner, representing the HSC theatre, was the council's guest. He told the council of the plans for the opening of the Sequoia Theatre in the Spring, and of the need for souvenir programs. The council thinks such programs are worthwhile, and after considerable discussion as to whether a benefit performance should be given, or the money be taken out of unallocated for the financing of the program, it was moved and seconded that $125 be taken out of unallocated for the financing of these programs upon the Board of Finance's approval. A definite policy concerning benefit programs is needed, the council feels.

Commissioner's Reports

Publications—Ray Smeltzer reported that the Sempervirens is one-third completed.

Treasurer's Reports

Joe Mayfield brought up for council approval the prices of 50 cents and $1 for the Mu Epsilon Psi dance Saturday night, December 6, 1959. Since these prices were not referred to the Board of Finance for approval and are not the approved prices, the council decided to inform Mu Epsilon Psi of the approved prices of 50 cents — $1 with ASB cards and 75 cents — $1.25 without ASB card.

Representatives-at-Large Reports — A committee consisting of Joe Romero, Judy Warren and Helen Wilson will decide where the election booths for the representative-at-large elections will be located.

Dean of Student's Reports

Dr. Karshner brought up the agenda for the forthcoming California Student Presidents Association meeting in Los Angeles, December 12, and 13, 1959. At our next council meeting we will discuss our stand on paid parking, student Unions and hazing.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Joan Rasmussen,
ASB Secretary.

Placement Opportunities

Teaching:

Approximately one thousand foreign teaching posts are available each year in the Army's dependents schools. Two years of teaching experience is required. The 1960 issue of "Opportunities for Educators", which announces the positions, is available in the Placement Office. Application must be made before March 26, 1960.

Anchorage, Alaska, public schools will have a number of positions open in grades one through six beginning September, 1960.

Nationally known company with store in Eureka wants full-time man in his 20's to become store manager. Starts at $350 plus bonus.

Her picture of her cat, "Tabby," was made for an available light photo assignment in the Art 50, Beginning Photography, class of Prof. Thomas Knight.

Judges said, "Sometimes it is very difficult to place the difference between a picture that 'has it' and one that leaves you cold. The judges thought the quizzical expression on the cat's puss (if you will permit the pun) made it fascinating, even humorous. She used an Ikoflex set at 3.5, one tenth of a second, with Verichrome Pan film."

Faculty Art Show At Stafford Inn

Krippenspiel Play to be Presented By German Language Students

Plans for presentation of two German Christmas plays, 'Krippenspielen' have been finalized by Dr. Glenda Richter and her German language students. The plays will be presented next Thursday, Dec. 17, in Founders Hall auditorium at 1 p. m. A performance for elementary school children will be given at Stewart School the next day at 10 a. m.

The first play, 'Sankt Peter mit der Geiss' (Saint Peter and the Goat), deals with Saint Peter's dissatisfaction with God's operation of things in general, and his attempts to improve the world. However, the goat disputes his authority, and much ribaldry and horseplay (or perhaps goatplay) result.

Cast members are: Christ, Dean Hawkins; St. Peter, Roger Cheg-widden; old woman, Sara Hallin; Goat, Jim Styner; Narrator, Bruce Chetty; Prompter, Wilma Simmons; Publicity, Helen Kretner; Costumes, Mrs. Lyn Paulley; Karla Lockwood, Judy Warren, and Sandra Styner.

The second play, 'Weihnachts-spiel' (Christmas Play) retells the familiar biblical story of the first Christmas with humor and simplicity. Historical accuracy is ignored for the sake of freshness, as Christ is born in Nazareth rather than Bethlehem. Characters of high rank are treated with humor as ordinary people.

This performance marks the second presentation of the play at Humboldt State, as it was performed in a slightly different form last year. That performance was the first foreign language play at HSC, and was noted as being extremely successful in both presentation and reception.

Cast members of Weihnachts-spiel are: Mary, Jane Senter; Joseph, Jim Styner; Angel Gabriel, Annita Teifke; Innkeeper, Tim Potter; Innkeeper's wife, Geraldine Fletcher; First Shepherd, Ingrid Gurcke; Second Shepherd, Ross Stromberg; Third Shepherd, Sandra Styner; First King, Tom Nelson; Second King, Dixie Knife; Third King, Richard Schneider;

Monk, Ted Shaner. Others are: Narrator, Jerry Batten; Properties manager, Sandra Styner; and Publicity, Virginia Reynolds and Janice Spitzengel.

Dr. Richter assures the excellence of the plays and the competence of the performers and promises an enjoyable afternoon to those viewing the production.

Wagner Featured At Social Hour

Dr. Leon Wagner, Associate Professor of Music, sang Christmas songs from different lands last Sunday at 4:30 in the Sunset Hall lounge during the Social Hour.

Last Sunday Dr. Jerry Turner, assistant professor of drama, gave a reading.

The Social Hour is being handled by Dorothy Elliott, sophomore from Eureka. "We hope that the dorm girls can widen their knowledge of various aspects of life through these lectures," states Miss Elliott.

Next Sunday they hope to have a lady from a Charm School speak.

Home Ec Club Tea Scheduled Dec. 17

The Home Economics Club will hold its eighth annual Christmas Tea Dec. 17. The tea is held for all college employees desiring to attend and will be held from 3 to 5 p. m.

Refreshments will be prepared by the food preparation class and the Home Economics Club officers will pour the tea.

Ron Sells, standing left, editor of the Hilltopper magazine, confers with his staff on the fall issue, which is due for distribution on campus next week. Seated left to right are Bob McMahon, photo editor;

Brooke Thomas, assistant editor; Mary Ann Miner, contributor, and Billie Thomas, business manager. The Hilltopper is Humboldt's general-interest feature magazine.

Hilltopper Staff Readies Issue For Next Week

The fall issue of Hilltopper, the campus feature magazine, will roll off the presses next week and should be ready for distribution about Wednesday, it was announced by Ron Sells, editor.

Sno-Ball Tomorrow

the Man and Woman of the Year will be featured prominently in the 1960 Sempervirens yearbook.

Joe Romero, junior art major and editor of the 1960 Sempervirens, will act as master of ceremonies at intermission and will present the awards to the Outstanding Man and Woman of the Year and to the Outstanding Senior Man and Woman.

The eight candidates for Sempervirens Sweetheart are Janine Ford, senior elementary major from Eureka; Dolores Dahl, freshman elementary education major from Eureka; Donna Cleveland, junior elementary major from Ukiah; Stacey Stevenson, freshman elementary education major from Eureka; Karen McDonald, freshman business administration major from San Bernardino; Marcia Johnson, freshman political science and economics major from Lafayette; Phyllis Peltonen, senior elementary education major from Eureka; and Linda Arvola, freshman physical education major from Eureka.

Committee heads for the Sno-Ball are Carol Johnson, general chairman, Dave Shank, decorations, Mary Jean Campbell, orchestra and facilities, Barbara Dunn, refreshments, Carol Johnson, receiving line and chaperones, Charlotte Smith, invitations and favors, and Jerry Flick, publicity.

Vendors will sell the magazine at strategic points on campus for 25 cents a copy. Copies also will be available in the college bookstore.

Hilltopper is in its fourth year at HSC as a general-interest magazine devoted to interpretive stories, photographs and drawings about the campus and its people. It is produced by the journalism laboratory.

This issue, Sells revealed, is an "international" issue built around the theme of the cosmopolitan campus.

Sells himself has contributed the lead article, "Hosteling Through Europe," an account of a four-month sojourn through most of the countries on the continent, undertaken on a shoestring budget. Sells tells how he got along on his modest purse, some of the sights he saw and some of his adventures and misadventures abroad.

Printed by offset lithography, this issue makes use of many illustrations in the form of photographs, cartoons and spot drawings. The issue is 32 pages, largest ever produced.

ROOK KUNSTAL

The intramural flag football race comes to a close next week with the Block H and Delta Sigma Phi fraternity both in the top running.

Next week a complete look at the season with possible final standings will be highlighted in this column.

The inter-dorm ping pong tournament is now down to two contenders from Redwood Hall and Nelson Hall. Representing Redwood Hall in the championship flight is Doug Webb while John Bley is representing Nelson Hall. Webb defeated three men on his way to the final playoffs. In order he beat Dave Visser, Steve Sherk, and Lloyd Welzbacker. Welzbacker had moved into the semi-finals by defeating Gary Brown.

In Nelson Hall action Rich Olson beat John Yingst, but in turn was defeated by John Bley. Bley had forfeited up through his match with Yingst.

The championship will be decided on Monday, December 14 at 6:30 p. m. in the Redwood Hall recreation room. The winner will have to win two out of three games to snare the championship.

The pinocle tournament sign-ups at Redwood Hall have been completed. Approximately eight teams have tentatively entered the contest. The tournament is being headed up by Gene Bowman who is the athletic director of the third floor of Redwood Hall and who is a member of the dorm recreation committee.

Any other team entrants still wanting to enter should contact Bowman as soon as possible.

Humboldt Debate Team Scores In Stockton Western Championships

Humboldt State debate team members returned from the Western Speech Association Fall Championships, held in Stockton, with the best record ever recorded by HSC fornsics students, according to Milton Dobkin, debate coach.

The debaters placed four members in the semi-finals of the Nov. 22-25 tournament, the best showing of the HSC team to date.

Sixty colleges from the western states competed in the event, with 450 entrants composing the teams. Humboldt's team of ten was composed of Doug Kane, Don Price, June Sakamoto, Diane Gillespie, Francis Padgett, Joan McBeth, Karla Kaski, Donna Peeples, Tom McGowan, and John Rawlinson.

Price made one of the better showings of the tourney, placing sixth in the Senior Men's Extemporaneous Speaking competition.

The team of McGowan and Rawlinson went undefeated in the preliminaries of the Junior Men's division, being defeated by Utah State in the finals.

The best women's team was Karla Kaski and Donna Peeples, while Francis Padgett ranked best in individual extemporaneous speaking for the Humboldters.

Dobkin terms the team "very much improved. I see a good potential for next year," he states.

In further action this year, debaters from USC will come to Humboldt county to tour the high schools with the HSC team, giving demonstration debates.

Health Teachers Give Information To HSC Classes

With our growing concern over the cancer scare and the effects of smoking on the lungs, Humboldt State instructors are undertaking a program of education in the disease and possible prevention of panic.

Franny Givins and Larry Kerker, in their Health and Safety classes, recently distributed kits containing literature on cancer. The kits contained such items as pamphlets describing various cancers, information on the death rate in smokers as opposed to non-smokers, and illustrated representations of the threatening sickness.

Givins, in his efforts to provide education in the cancer field, required his students to visit a health agency, possibly the American Cancer Society office in Eureka. Upon going to the office the student was greeted and swept off his feet by the mass of information given him. The cancer people are eager to provide material to anyone who desires it. Visitors are only a small portion of their educational field, but they form an important service, providing word-of-mouth propaganda to others.

Dr. Vincent Sansone of Eureka General Hospital visited the Health classes and gave an elucidating lecture covering the field of present cancer knowledge and research and prevention techniques. Dr. Sansone is an annual visitor to the classes, being invited by Givins in his crusade against the killer, cancer.

Burger Attends LA College Meet

John Burger, vice president of the Associated Student Body, left today for Los Angeles State College to attend a conference of California college student leaders.

Purpose of the event will be to discuss problems facing the member schools and set up a common policy. The parking problem will be one of Burger's primary concerns at the meeting.

Sigma Xi Club Hears Range Expert Discuss African Tribes, Animals

By BEVERLY O'NEIL

The customs and problems of East African peoples was the topic of discussion as Dr. Harold Heady addressed the Science Club, Sigma Xi, at its meeting Tuesday evening.

C. S. T. A. Holds Spaghetti Feed

C.S.T.A., California Student Teachers Association, will hold a Spaghetti Dinner at CES Cafeteria, Monday, Dec. 14 at 6 p. m. The dinner will be 75c and an exchange gift 25c among the members will be added to the evening.

Speakers for the evening will be Past President Russell Bradford and Past Vice President Carian Donely who will speak on "Experiences in my first year of teaching."

For reservations contact Mary Lou Barnes, No. 83, before Friday at 4 p. m.

Any details on the tournament can also be obtained from Bowman.

The volleyball team lists for intermural action must be turned in to the director of intramural activities, Dr. Ford Hess by Monday.

Unless the lists are in by Monday a team will not be assured a berth in the league. The volleyball team will consist of six men with four man teams being accepted.

Dr. Heady, from the University of California, is an expert on grasses, grazing and grasslands, and recently returned from East Africa, where he was carrying on his studies in that field. While in Africa, Dr. Heady spent 200 days on safari and traveled in areas where no other white man appeared. Dr. Heady illustrated his talk with color slides of the people and the country.

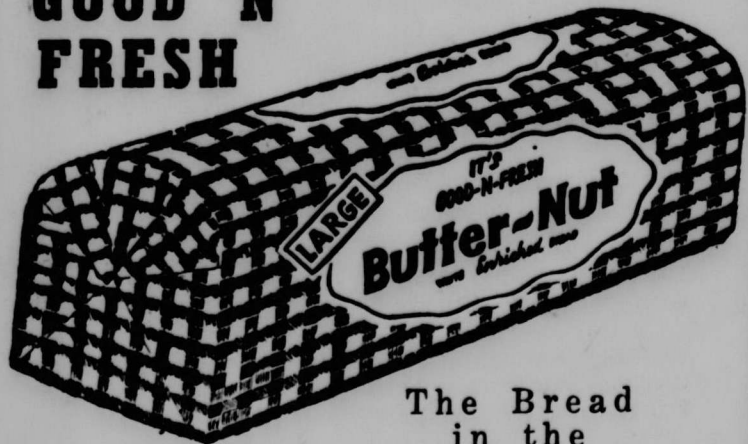

Zanzibar, Tanganyika, Kenya, and Southern Rhodesia were countries included in his travels, which carried him over an area a little larger than our six western states. Pictures were shown of such famous African sites as Mount Kilimanjaro, Mount Kenya, Victoria Falls and Merchinsen Falls.

Dr. Heady also discussed the various African tribes. A great many of these people live on crops of corn, peas, beans, and rice. However, African agriculture is very poor due to poor farming methods, Dr. Heady said. These people are being helped and educated, but persist in carrying out their ancient tribal customs.

Dr. Heady also showed colored slides of African wildlife. These included pictures of capke buffalo, cheetah, hippopotamus, crocodile, baboon and lion.

Approximately 60 persons heard Dr. Heady speak. The public was invited.

Water levels at Tule Lake Wildlife Refuge have come under the personal inspection of Secretary of the Interior, Fred Seaton. This area is maintained as a resting and feeding area for ducks and geese during their south bound flights. It also serves as an important nesting ground during the summer. In past years it has been maintained by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, but the water level, which is the main management tool is now the responsibility of a local irrigation district. Since the changeover the water levels have not been maintained and since parts of the refuge are open to limited hunting, it also is lousy. Good shooting is related to the amount of water present. Local farmers who run the irrigation district would like to reclaim the land. Thousands of hunters want their hunting grounds restored to their original shape, and millions of ducks need the protection and feed offered by the Refuge. The farmers don't seem to realize that if this area is removed from the refuge system, the millions of ducks will wreck their crops. The hunters realize that the farmers are trying to get away with something, and are doing a lot of howling. The ducks don't realize anything but that the vast mudflats are no longer feeding areas. Secretary Seaton realizes that the interests of various groups will have to be reconciled to the old hackneyed "most good" concept but this time it'll be the "most good for the greatest number of DUCKS". The government often does things at exorbitant costs, but the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service managed to do one thing well at Tule, that was to keep the water level where it belongs!

A check of the Gray Lodge Waterfowl Management Area near Gridley showed very few pheasants taken during the end of the first week of the open season. Roosters become cagey after opening weekend and it takes a lot of hard hunting to take birds. Several thousand cocks were taken during opening weekend but the average daily bag dropped to less than fifty birds a day. This is one of the two State-run areas that does not stock pen reared birds because the natural reproduction is excellent. Hunters from every part of the State use these Public Lands are it can be a real education to spend a night waiting in line for a permit to hunt on opening day. Tyro and nimrod, farmer and city white collar worker, young and old are there. One hears misconceptions as well as truly brilliant ideas on game management and manners run from the shooting of bird dogs to retrieving of another's bird and actually returning it to him. As the season progresses the chances of taking home your Thanksgiving Day bird diminish, but the hunting is there for everyone.

Dr. Glenda Richter, assistant professor of modern foreign languages, helps Richard Schneider, left, and Ted Shaner get ready for a dress rehearsal of the annual German-language Krippenspiel productions to be presented by members of the German 1A and 2A classes on Thursday, Dec. 17. Schneider plays King Balthusar and Shaner plays a monk. Plays to be presented are "Sankt Peter mit der Geiss" and a "Weinachtsspiel" similar to the manger play presented last year.

Rep-at-Large Elections Set For Jan. 13-14

Elections for the offices of ASB representatives-at-large were held Jan. 13 and 14. Two men and two women students are to be chosen for these positions.

Duties of the offices include voting membership in the Executive Council and special assignments from the student body president. Term of office is one year.

Nomination petitions will be available from next Monday until January 6. These may be obtained in the ASB office in the Coop. Twenty-five members of the association must sign the petition to nominate. Completed petitions may be turned in to any ASB officer.

The election will be conducted on plurality basis. The two men and two women receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected.

Any student who is going to be absent during the election period may receive an absentee ballot. To do this he must register with an ASB officer before Jan. 10.

Library Displays Art Murals

Currently on display at the library are examples of Education 120 experiments in mural technique. All of the art work was done as group projects by students in the art methods class.

Women Students To Go Caroling

On Dec. 14 there will be no basketball or synchronized swimming for the Women's Athletic Association. Instead, any students interested can go caroling at 7:30 p.m. After caroling they will go to the home of Miss Lee Zion, instructor of physical education to warm up. Please dress warmly if you are coming.

A basketball officiating clinic will start on Monday nights on Dec. 7. The clinic will be held in conjunction with the WAA basketball games.

A basketball sports day will be held on Dec. 12. Chico State, Lassen J.C., and Santo Rosa J. C. will attend the sports day here at Humboldt State.

HSC Junior Jacks Suffer Double Loss to Shasta JC

Humboldt State's, frosh-studded Junior Jack five suffered a pair of setbacks last weekend when the Shasta Junior College Knights scored 44-24 and 63-44 wins over the Hilltoppers.

On Friday night, the Knights took quarter leads of 14-5, 22-12 and 34-14 over the low scoring Jacks. Humboldt's center Bob Halvorson scored eight to pace the losers. Jim Miklick and Gary Dix scored 11 and nine points each for the winners.

Saturday night the tactics changed and Humboldt got some scoring punch, but fell far behind in the opening minutes of play as Shasta employed a full court press, taking a 24-8 first quarter lead. However, Humboldt came in with its own press defense and the score stood at 34-24 at halftime.

Height took its toll for the Humboldtters and they lost precious rebounds to the Knights. Reserve guard Larry Moffet topped the HSC effort and emerged high point man of the evening with 16.

'JACKS BEAT WILLAMETTE
The Humboldt State Lumberjacks beat Willamette College last season in the Far Western Conference Christmas Tournament 61-43.

HSC Wrestlers To Open Season

Humboldt State's wrestling team is working out daily at noon and on Thursday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock in preparation for the season's opener on December 17th at Davis with the Cal Aggie Mustangs.

Coach Gordon Schroeder reports there are about 25 out for the grappling sport. The Lumberjacks will carry 10 on the regular intercollegiate traveling squad, one for each weight classification.

Currently, there is some stiff competition being staged in the various weight divisions. Returnees from last year's abbreviated two-match season include Ron Kunstal, John Tanning, and Al Frakes. Some top prospects are Manuel Vasquez, Manuel Simas, Matt Kelley and Cecil Stephens from the football team.

There is also John Bobell, a former Navy wrestling champion, and Al Hagerstrand, a high school section champion. The two are first year men.

Ten Named To All-FWC Elevens; Others In UPI, NAIA Selections

The Far Western Conference coaches, the United Press International News Service and the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics all singled individual Humboldt State players for recognition on their All-Teams this past week.

Ten Lumberjacks were named to the All-Conference first and second teams, both offense and defense. Three were in the UPI and NAIA selections. All of these came on the heels of the Hilltoppers' best season in history which they accomplished with a 39-28 victory on Thanksgiving Day over the Whittier College Poets.

Senior end Darol Foster and sophomore tackle Vester Flanagan came in for most of the awarded berths on the mythical elevens followed by junior guard Pete Carpino and junior halfback Cecil Stephens.

Foster was selected as a first team end on the UPI Little All-Coast team, was given honorable mention on the NAIA California-Nevada district eleven and was one of three first string offensive receivers named by the FWC.

Flanagan was first team on the NAIA selections, was honorable mention in the Little All-Coast and delegated a first string tackle spot on the FWC offensive club.

Carpino and Stephens were both named as second stringers on the FWC offensive team while Carpino was an honorable mention selection on the NAIA picks and Stephens honorable mention by the UPI.

Three members of Humboldt's 'Green Chain' club, the defensive unit, were given spots on the all-FWC defensive eleven. Manuel Simas, Jerry Flynn and Jim Barker were given spots on the first team. Simas was a rugged tackle, Flynn, a defensive end and Barker, a wing-back. Linebacker Jim Walker and middle guard Sal Siino were second team defensive players.

Dave Littleton, who sat out the final three games of the season with a knee injury, was named to the second team fullback slot.

San Francisco State's undefeated Gators headed the FWC selections winning 16 of the 46 berths. Humboldt was second followed by Nevada, Chico, Cal Aggies and Sacramento.

The only player to break into the first string offensive backfield which was dominated by the Gators was Chico's Frank Enos, a junior who can do just about anything with the football.

Vince Asara, Dick Cate and Gary Campbell were all first team players on the NAIA district eleven and end Ken Gregory received honorable mention. San Francisco's Jim Sochor edged Campbell in the UPI picks for the signal calling job.

Following are the complete FWC selections as picked by the coaches at their annual fall meeting held this past weekend at San Francisco. In the case of a tie, the coaches put all players in the positions.

OFFENSIVE

First Team: Ends, Darol Foster, Humboldt State; Ford Joy, San Francisco and Tom Whitaker, Nevada. Tackles, Vester Flanagan, Humboldt State and Jim Palmer, San Francisco. Guards, Gary Boggs, Chico and Bob Sexton, San Francisco. Wes Fry, Cal Aggies. Backs, Jim Sochor, San Francisco; Charley Fuller, San Francisco; Frank Enos, Chico and Hank Marshall, San Francisco.

Second Team: Ends, Mos Mastelotto, Chico and Mike Miller, Chico. Tackles, Niel Laughlin, San Francisco and Art Mathis, Chico. Guards, Bob Hodel, Cal Aggies. Pete Carpino, Humboldt State and John Lanzavecchia, San Francisco. State, Center, Chuck Walker, Nevada. Backs, Bob Peck, Nevada; Cecil Stephens, Humboldt State; Lonnie Cagle, Cal Aggies and Dave Littleton, Humboldt State.

DEFENSIVE

First Team: Ends, Ted Treu, San Francisco and Jerry Flynn, Humboldt State. Tackles, Manuel Simas, Humboldt State and Julius Varnado, San Francisco. Middle Guard, Alan Abraham, San Francisco. Humboldt Loses Two In NAIA Tipoff Tournament

Humboldt's Lumberjack basketballers ran into experience deluxe last Monday and Tuesday at the NAIA tipoff tournament held at the Pasadena and Whittier College gyms on successive evenings.

The Jacks lost 85-67 Monday evening to host Pasadena and then traveled to Whittier where the Poets scored a 70-50 win over the Hilltoppers.

The four team tourney ended with Pasadena and Whittier on top with 2-0 marks while Humboldt and Cal Western University of San Diego each lost both games. Pasadena whipped Cal Western 65-48 and Whittier dropped them 85-57 to give Humboldt a definite edge on paper for at least third place in the tourney.

The Lumberjacks fell behind 33-12 in the first 12 minutes of play to Pasadena. Humboldt closed the gap at halftime behind at 44-24. Center Larry Krupka and guard Eddie Thomas found their range scoring 21 and 17 points each.

Rebounding also made a difference and Pasadena had 30 to Humboldt's nine. Humboldt closed it to 45-38 and 48-41 at various points in the second half. Center Chuck Baily and Jim Davis made 17 points each for the winners.

Whittier's "Loaded" Poets got at Humboldt's inexperience during the second ten minutes of play after chalking up the slimmest, 14-13, margin after the first ten minutes of action.

Height and backboard control moved the Poets out in front 40-26 at halftime. The spirited Jacks rallied and made it 43-38 at one point in the second half, but the odds were too great to overcome. NAIA 3rd team All-American last year, Herb Mason, fouled out after scoring a single point, but guard Bill Caver who had done a superb job of defending him all evening soon left the game after reinjuring his bad knee.

Bill Johnston paced the Poets with 16 points while Krupka's 16 and Thomas' 16 was tops for the Lumberjacks.

Humboldt Splits Series With SOCE Red Raiders

Humboldt State employed a fourth quarter stall to win a 65-56 verdict over the Southern Oregon Red Raiders in the opener of a two-game series last Thursday at the Ashland, Oregon school, but fell victims to a zone defense in the second game and met a close 45-53 low scoring defeat.

In the first game, the two teams traded buckets and the Hilltop five had a slim 40-39 lead going into the final quarter. Coach Franny Givins sent in a stall pattern which netted personal fouls and consequential Lumberjack charity shots. They netted 17 from the free throw line during the evening and that's what provided the margin of victory.

Each team hit 24 field goals during their respective collegiate opener for the season. Felix Rogers who was high point man for HSC, scored 10 of his 16 points in the first half to keep the Jacks above board. Guard Eddie Thomas followed his teammate with 15. Givins had words of praise for center Larry Krupka who meshed 13 points while playing a good game under the boards and newcomer to basketball, Russ Ashburn who was instrumental in HSC board control. Guard Gordie Carrigan and forward John Payne tanked 17 and 15 points for the losers.

Friday night, inexperience cost the Lumberjacks the game they had almost won to make it three straight. The Raider effective zone defense hurt HSC's shooting ability and they made only 14 of 49 attempts for a lowly 28 percent.

Carrigan paced the winners with 13 while guard Billie Caver added 10 for Humboldt.

Junior Jacks Host Two Prep Fives

The Humboldt State Junior Jacks basketball five returns to the cage wars this Monday evening when they meet the tall Eureka High Loggers in a preliminary game Monday evening at 7:30.

The following night they meet a shorter, but more experienced Fortuna High quintet in the preliminary meeting. Coach Tom Schubert will probably open with forwards Doug Caldwell, and Doug Reidmiller, center Bob Halvorsen and guards Dave Hope and Walt Tweedy.

Lumberjacks Name 1959 All-Opponents

Humboldt State's Lumberjacks named three all-opponent teams last week amid the announcements of All-Coast and All-Conference teams.

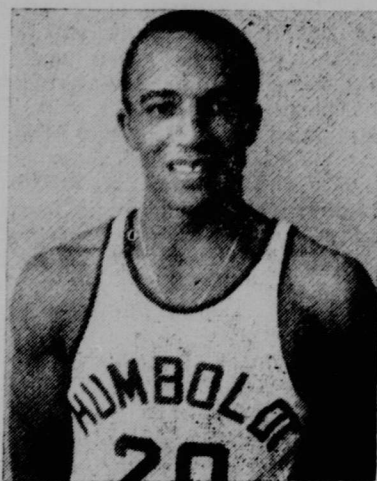

The Lumberjacks looked to the undefeated San Francisco State Gators for a number of their choices and picked many members from Whittier Poets' team.

The All-Opponents team included ends Ken Gregory (Whittier) and Tom Whitaker (Nevada), tackles Dick Ripley (Nevada), and Wes Atkins (San Francisco), guards Bob Sexton (San Francisco) and Willie Garner (Southern Oregon), center Vince Asarao (Whittier) and backs Jim Sochor (San Francisco) and Gary Campbell (Whittier); for quarterback, Frank Enos (Chico), Charley Fuller (San Francisco) and Gene Risko (Whittier) at the halfbacks and Lonnie Cagle (Cal Aggies) fullback.

The All-Conference opponent offensive team included: Tom Whitaker (N) and Ford Joy (SF), tackles West Atkins (SF) and Art Mathis (C), guards, Bob Hoedel (CA) and Bob Sexton (SF) and center Chuck Walker (N). The backfield had quarterback Jim Sochor (SF), halfbacks Charley Fuller (SF) and Frank Enos (C) and Lonnie Cagle (CA) at fullback.

The All-Conference opponent defensive unit boasted ends Alan Crouch and Travis Baker of SF, tackles Julius Varnardo (SF) and Cal Ower (CA), guards Niel Laughlin (SF) and Wes Frye (CA), linebacker Garvin Boggs (C) and Don Baldini (N), halfbacks Jim Whitaker (N) and Raul Quezada (S) and safety Manuel Perry (SF).

'Jack of the Week'

EDDIE THOMAS

No one else could possibly be a better choice to start the 'Jack of the Week' series for this basketball season than Humboldt's little sparkplug guard Eddie Thomas, a 5' 7" playmaker on this year's Hilltop five, is a consistent scorer, hitting mostly from the outside of the key. He is also a fair rebounder and good defensive player. Thomas is a senior playing his final year for HSC. He comes to Humboldt from Compton, in Southern California where he picked up his prep playing experience. He is only one of two seniors on this year's 12-man roster, the other is Bill Caver.

Play Cal Poly Of Pomona In 1st Game Monday

Humboldt State's travel weary Lumberjack basketballers returned home after a week-long road trip covering from Oregon to Southern California here last Wednesday evening and yesterday started drills in preparation for two-game home series next Monday and Tuesday with Cal Poly of Pomona.

Cal Poly's five is practically unknown to most Northern California cagers, however they are reputed to have a taller and more experienced team than Humboldt.

They are not rated quite as good as the Pasadena College Crusaders or the Whittier College Poets whom the Lumberjacks inflicted near routs to earlier this week in the NAIA tipoff tourney.

The Lumberjacks have also shown vast improvement in their five games so far and carry a squad of mostly freshmen and sophomores. The Hilltoppers are definitely building for years to come.

Following the series with Cal Poly, the Jacks receive a two-day rest before they host a rugged Oregon Tech five from Klamath Falls, Oregon on Friday and Saturday nights of next week.

Coach Franny Givins is expected to start forwards Bill Crichton and Felix Rogers, center Larry Krupka and guards Bill Caver and Eddie Thomas.

Local fans will also get a chance to see footballers Dennis Giuntini and Drew Roberts on the hardwood as they will probably get their initial taste of cage play.

Injuries and sickness may hold back the Jacks performance if they are healed by Monday. Caver reinjured his knee Tuesday at Whittier and Crichton still has a tender ankle he injured during the first half of the Alumni game. Rogers is recovering from a slight flu attack.

Student Union Organizes, Occupies Coop Upstairs

By MARY ANNE MINER

The Student Union is actually part of the Activities Commission. Betty Bird, activities commissioner, is heading the union. Miss Kate Buchanan, dean of activities, is the adviser. The Student Union is concerned first and foremost with the developments and sponsorship of an activity that meets the recreational, social, and cultural needs of the campus community. It may also be known as "The living room of the campus."

The Student Union is currently occupying all of the rooms upstairs in the Coop, with the exception of the photography lab soon to be vacated. The old Lumberjack office will be used as the Student Union Conference Room. Other rooms will be used by the various union committees. A poster room is being set up with all the necessary materials and paints for posters. All campus organizations and activities groups may have access to the poster materials through the union.

The Student Union Board consists of: Hal Koke, Paul Asp, Glenn Bridges, Josie Fagundes, Betty Bird, and Glendyne Baldwin, secretary. Union committee chairmen are Darlene Garcelon, activities; Mary Ann Miner, games; Joan Iversen, exhibits; Tom Nelson, publicity; and Glen Bridges, Nelson Hall co-ordinator. Other members are Hal Koke, Marcia Johnson, Kenna Koenig, Nedra Graves, Karen MacDonald, Shannon Snowhill, Peggy Bailey, Don Bird, John Steven, and Carolyn Ragsdale.

The Student Union committee has declared Thursday night as Student Union night. Their meetings will be held every Thursday night at 7:30 p. m., in the Coop. Campus clubs and organizations, by getting permission from the Student Union, may use the upstairs rooms for their regular meetings.

Student Union Night

The Student Union committee is making plans for an activity program for the college students. At the present activities are being arranged for the very near future. Some of the program's activities include: social hours, games, movies, exhibits, music, discussion, and personnel.

The social hours are going to be scheduled for Sunday nights. The first one will be held shortly after Christmas vacation, in Nelson Hall recreation room. These informal affairs will feature entertainment and free coffee.

Feature films are also being scheduled for student viewing. The films are going to be some of the best recent movies and will be shown at a time when most of the students will be able to attend.

All kinds of exhibits will be sponsored by the Student Union. The exhibits will include professional and student art exhibits, photography exhibits, industrial art exhibits, and any others which will be of interest to the students. These exhibits will be set up in Nelson Hall and in the Green and Gold Room.

Games Planned

Many games are being planned by the committee for student participation. Table tennis, checkers, chess, different kinds of card games, and bowling are some of the games that can be played. Tournaments are soon to be scheduled for table tennis, chess, checkers, and bowling. Bridge instruction will also be offered. Some of the games may be obtained from the committee very shortly.

The Student Union is trying to develop this program to its fullest extent as soon as possible. The needed essentials for such a program are an adequate budget, trained staff, student committees for activities, and a co-ordinating student group to pull the program together. The activities program is yet in its very early stages and it will need a great deal of work on the students' part. All students who are interested in the activities of the Student Union are invited to help out by coming to the meetings to work on various committees or to give any new ideas to the program. All suggestions will be appreciated by the committee. The Student Union is for the students, and therefore it should be what the students themselves want.

LA Conference Attended By CSTA Officers

Mary Lou Barnes, president, Buddy Smith, vice president, Barbara Schneitman, ICS representative, JoAnne Meussig, and W. Jean Stradley, adviser for CSTA, attended the California Student Teachers Association meeting in Los Angeles last Friday and Saturday.

Better communication between faculty and students preparing to be teachers at Humboldt State College was urged through action taken by the Executive Council of the CSTA. Nearly 200 students and faculty advisors from 47 local chapters of the statewide CSTA attended the two-day meeting at Chapman Park Hotel.

The Council urged that professional standards committees composed of students and faculty be formed on each campus to work for the continual improvement of teacher preparation programs. "Students must have a more active voice in improving these programs which directly affect their professional futures," James Relph, CSTA president stated.

In other action, the Council advocated that every CSTA chapter form a local ethics committee to promote understanding of the teacher's professional obligations among all credential candidates.

Melvin Schuler Displays Art Work

Melvin Schuler, associate professor of art, is being honored this month with a one man show on the campus of Midwestern University at Wichita Falls, Texas.

This is Prof. Schuler's seventh one man show and his first out of state exhibit. The collection includes thirty water color and case-in paintings and six drawings. The paintings are mainly from Prof. Schuler's last two summer's works done in Vancouver, Arizona and particularly those landscapes of the California coastal area from Big Sur northward.

The show began last Sunday and will continue at the University until Christmas vacation.

Jacks And Jills To Dance For March of Dimes

An invitation is being extended to HSC students, faculty and staff members to join the Lumberjacks and Jills Square Dance Club. Membership for the semester will soon be closed to beginning students. The club will continue next semester at the same time, 7 p. m. Monday evenings. Beginners may join during the Spring semester.

For those members who have been attending the regular meetings there will be a chance to perform some exhibition square dancing at the Country Square Dance Convention in January. The funds raised from this convention will be donated to the March of Dimes. Those interested in the exhibition dancing should attend the Jacks and Jills meeting this Monday evening at 7 p.m. in the Green and Gold Room of Founders Hall.

Work Resumes On Cafeteria

General construction work on Humboldt's new cafeteria-bookstore building, virtually halted in recent weeks by the steel strike, resumed this week with the delivery of open web steel joists needed for the roof.

Despite the delay, it is still anticipated that the cafeteria will be completed next May, the original deadline, according to Nelson C. Crawford, construction superintendent for the state division of architecture.

General contractor is McDonald, Young and Nelson Co., of Oakland. Heating and electrical work is being done by Brizard Construction Co. of Eureka and plumbing by Ed Peterson Inc., of Sonoma.

The new HSC Health Cottage is nearing completion and should be ready for occupancy some time in January.

In other college building news the final working drawings on four new buildings are being pushed to completion with bids to be let in the spring. The four are the Forestry building, the Education-Psychology building, the Physical Science building and the Library.

Playboy Magazine Names Romero Representative

Joe Romero, junior art major from Eureka has been named Playboy Campus Representative for Humboldt.

Romero is especially known on campus for his unique style in making posters for the various functions. He is presently on the student council as Representative-at-Large; editor of the Semper-virens, and an active member in Alpha Phi Gamma (honorary Journalism fraternity, Inter Collegiate Knights and Delta Sigma Phi, Humboldt's first national social fraternity).

Playboy maintains an organization of students on college campuses who can represent them in many different ways. As representative on Humboldt's campus, Romero will act as liaison between Playboy and its national advertisers, all campus organizations and the important stores that cater to the campus trade. He will handle all promotional, public relations and special assignments on campus.

Death Takes Carol Sue Glass

Carol Sue Glass, 19, sophomore at Humboldt State college and active in the Spurs, died Dec. 2 at a local hospital of a lengthy illness. Born June 16, 1940 in San Francisco, she had lived in Eureka for the past 17 years and was graduated from Eureka High school in 1958.

She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Aileen M. Glass of Eureka; a grandmother, Mrs. Bertha McAlister of Eureka; three uncles, Frank W. McAlister and Charles L. McAlister of Eureka and Harold McAlister of Bayside, and an aunt, Mrs. Margaret Frederickson of San Bruno.

Funeral services were held last Thursday at the Pierce Mortuary with the Rev. Roy K. Malde officiating. Interment was at the Sunset Memorial Cemetery.

Students and Faculty Invited To Hear Christian Science Lecture

Christian Science will be explained at a lecture Monday, Jan. 11, at 8 p. m. at 647 14th Street, Arcata, by Ralph Castle, C. S. of Belvedere, Calif. This lecture is especially for college students, faculty members and their immediate families.

Delta Sigs Hold Sat. Open House For Student Body

An open house for the general student body preceding the Sno-Ball, will be conducted by the Delta Kappa chapter of the Delta Sigma Phi, first national fraternity on campus, from 7:30 to 9 p. m. at the fraternity house at 464-12th st., Arcata.

Lou Gurney, activities chairman for the Delta Sigs, is in charge of the open house. Gurney is a sophomore group major from Stockton. He will be assisted by social chairman Ray Stanley.

The men at Delta Sigma Phi would like to impress upon any and all guests how a group of young men can live under the same roof, eat at the same table, enjoy the same parties, play on the same team, and at the same time achieve their man objective at HSC - scholarship.

Officers of the local chapter of the fraternity are President, Sid Fauerbach; Vice-President, Ralph Perry; Secretary, Mike Berry; Treasurer, Dick Wild; Steward, Micke Zupel; House Manager, Joe Romero; Historian, Dick Ray; Editor, Darrell Garcia; and Pledgemaster, Alex Pulaski.

The fraternity wishes to acquaint the general student body with the purpose, policies and house life of the Delta Kappa chapter of Delta Sigma Phi.

Mr. Castle will explain the healing power of Christian Science.

On nationwide tour as a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, Mr. Castle will speak under the auspices of the Christian Science Organization at Humboldt State College. During February, March and April, Mr. Castle will be lecturing throughout Europe and Ireland.

A newspaperman for many years, Mr. Castle held various editorial positions and also served as Pacific Coast Advertising Manager of The Christian Science Monitor before resigning to enter the public practice of Christian Science in 1934. He has been a student of Christian Science since 1914.

Reserved seats are available for those who are attending a Christian Science lecture for the first time. Those who need transportation or wish further information may phone VA 2-2160 or drop a note in Box 1381, Founders Hall.

Library Tree Now Decorated

The annual Christmas tree on the Library parking lot was decorated by the freshmen last Sunday. It can now be seen lighted at night.

Decorating the tree were: Barbara Schmiedt, chairman, Marty Hessel, Ellen Milhous, Tom Ivers, Mel Messenger and Sue Albrecht.

The stars decorating the tree are made from tin can lids from the cafeteria.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

Freshmen Class Votes In Favor Of New Constitution at Meeting

The freshman class, at a Dec. 2 meeting voted in their constitution by a majority vote. Led by president Marty Hessel, the class discussed the Christmas tree decorations, the Sweetheart Ball and the constitution.

The constitution is generally the same as the class of '61 and '62's except for a few changes in the duties of the president and vice-president and appointive officers. A Representative-at-Large office was also added.

Barbara Schmiedt, Christmas tree chairman gave a report on what the decorations were to be on the Christmas tree and when it would be decorated. She reported that tin can lids would be used as decorations and that the tree would be decorated Sunday afternoon and lighted Sunday night, Dec. 6.

The meeting then shifted to a discussion of the place and orchestra for the Sweetheart Ball. The Melodiers were selected to play for the Ball. The men's gym was selected for the place but complications set in when it was discovered that the gym would be in use that night for a basketball game.

Our Town Cast Shows Poise, Ability In First HSC Arena Production

By JOHN RAWLINSON

The current production of "Our Town", a play by Thornton Wilder, is unusual for the Humboldt State drama department since it is the first time that an arena style play has been done at the College.

Arena refers to the fact that the audience sits all around the side of the stage, and the play takes place in the middle. When this is considered from the technical view, the lighting is notably good since there is a maximum control of light and a minimum loss of control. The lighting, of course, was supervised by John Van Duzer, professor of drama.

The acting is generally good, but there are times when it is a little inconsistent. Roger Good, the stage manager, has a fine command of his lines and delivers them convincingly; however, he tends to lack the carriage and poise of the character he portrays.

All members of the cast tend to fall short on their use of pantomime since at times it distracts from the action due to the unreality of that pantomime.

Cast Shows Poise

Poise and stage presence are generally assets to the players. Even though they operate within two feet of the audience, the actors never make on conscious that they know you are there and that you may disturb them.

Cast members are to be commended for their reality in ad lib talking which goes on at the required times. Instead of just sitting and staring when another group is performing, the groups react naturally, though they do not distract at all from the main action. This adds greatly to the establishment of the reality of the plot and play.

George, Bob Merritt, tends at times to be not the stage character, but the player in certain nervous mannerisms and gestures. But Bob does a nice job of controlling his voice and gaining the needed variety.

The finest job of variety and adaptability is evidenced in one of the last scenes of the play in which Emily, Margaret Pitek, must be a little girl of 12 and a woman in her twenties viewing the scene - both at the same time. The only way to distinguish the two is by the way Margaret uses her voice, and there is never any doubt about which one of the two is speaking at a particular time.

Comic Relief

A note of comic relief is added by Prof. Willard, Bob Graham, during the first act. Bob does another good job of making a small part count the fullest it can in the minds and hearts of the audience members. He demonstrates that the size of the part is not important, it is what you make of it that is important.

Another person who does a lot with a little part is Paul Connors, choirmaster Simon Stimson. Paul ably suggests a drunk character without losing control of the situation. Unfortunately the character sometimes appears to lack a uniformity in the degree of drunkenness within the same scene.

George Goodrich, assistant professor of radio and television, who is directing, is to be commended for a fine job of overcoming obstacles in the production. The pantomime, proximity to the audience, lighting, and sound effects system are but a few of the many problems he has successfully overcome.

Costumes are excellent examples of the era of the 1900's. They are so consistent that one forgets they are costumes for the stage. Mrs. Ethlyn Pauley supervised the designing and making of all costumes.

Aside from the few minor inconsistencies, the production exhibits an over-all cohesiveness and uniformity. Most of the technical problems have been overcome. And the acting is very good on the whole.

This production is one which ought to be seen by all college students from the view of the quality, novelty, and text of the production in the Studio Theater.

Yearbook Staff Meets Deadline

A third of the 1960 Semper-virens has been completed and shipped to the printer, it was announced this week by Joe Romero, editor.

The staff met a deadline of 70 pages. The 1960 yearbook will contain 208 pages, an all-time high, Romero said.

Among pages completed are those covering activities so far this semester, some faculty and staff pages, football, clubs and organizations, student government, publications, and advertising.

The staff, he said, is currently working to meet the second deadline Feb. 1.

Staff members in addition to Romero are Mary Ann Miner and Joan Rasmussen, business managers; Brad Fry, Carol Ayers and Ron Petersen, organizations; Dennis Giuntini and Fred Whitmire, sports; Tom Shepherd and Doug Wilson, photography; Art Dalianes and Jan Reynolds, activities; Larry Westlake, faculty and administration; Barbara Dunn, recognition; Juli Gavey and Ralph Perry, classes.

Sophomores Elect Matias President

Ken Matias, sophomore elementary education major from Arcata, was the unanimous presidential choice when the sophomore class went to the polls Nov. 18. Matias, a graduate of Arcata High School where he was an outstanding athlete, played Lumberjack baseball last spring and intra-mural football this fall. He is also a member of CSTA.

The new sophomore vice president is Bill Turner, a music major from Eureka. Turner is active in choir, Rally Club and Intercollegiate Knights. He is a yell leader and was chosen by last year's drama department as "Actor of the Year".

Larry Moogerman, political science major from Canoga Park, was elected class treasurer. Moogerman is an active member of the debate squad and a member of Pi Kappa Delta, a national forensics fraternity.

Pat Mayer, P. E. major from Lake Arrowhead, is sophomore class Secretary. Miss Mayer is active in WAA and Rally Club, is a song queen, and "Miss Eureka" for 1959.

Elected to ICS is Barbara Hammer, an elementary education major from Eureka. Miss Hammer is a member of Spurs where she holds the office of Historian.

It Waved Proudly, Then Disappeared

Humboldt State's victory flag waved proudly atop the student union building for eight straight weeks, one for each football victory, and then suddenly disappeared. HSC student body president Art Dalianes reported it missing and nothing has been heard or released about it since. It would have furlled in the breeze for a ninth consecutive week following the Whittier victory Thanksgiving Day, but was not available for the Humboldt rally club. The campus question of the week is, Where is it?
