Amendments On Election Ballot To Change ASB Constitution

During the annual Spring Retreat held at Forest Lake last year, Humboldt State College's executive council established a new commission to handle the development of an activities program in connection with the proposed Student Activities Building. This commission has been known as the Special Activities Commissioner and it has been filled by Art Dalianes.

In order for the Activities Commissioner to have a vote on the council, an amendment to the constitution establishing this new position must be passed by a two-thirds majority of the Associated Students voting and at least one-third of the association must vote to qualify election results.

The proposed amendments will be on the ballot during the representative at large election Wednesday and Thursday. The amendment will read as follows:

Article II In section 26, the phrase "a Commissioner for each of the five permanent commissions, Rally, Publications and Publicity, Organizations, and Activities, Awards, and Assemblies" shall be changed to read "A Commissioner for each of the six permanent commissions, Rally, Publications, and Publicity, Organizations, Activities Awards, and Assemblies."

In section 90, delete the words "and Activities" from both phrases of the section, so that section 90 will read "Organizations Commissioner; The duties of the Organization Commissioner shall be: To add a Section 140, to read, "Activities Commissioner: The duties of the Activities Commissioner: shall be: . . ." To add a section 141, to read, "To attend all meetings of the Executive Council as a voting member." To add a Section 142, to read, "To be in charge of the student activities program." To add a Section 143, to read, "To be the presiding officer of the Student Activities Committee. The Student Activities Committee is organized and the size is determined by the Activities Commissioner."

Article III In section 160 the phrase "five Commissioners" shall be changed to read "six Commissioners." The first phrase appears twice in the section and shall be changed in both instances. In Section 166 the phrase "five permanent commissioners" shall be changed to read "six permanent commissioners."

Article X To add a new Section 375, to read "The Amendments to Article II and III of this Constitution of January 1959, shall become operative February 3, 1959. The position of Activities Commissioner provided for in this amendment shall be filled by the Executive Council until the regular spring semester election of 1959."

Faculty Reading Features Two Unusual Plays

Two short plays will be presented at the fourth annual Faculty Play Reading Sunday evening at 8 p.m. in the Administration Building auditorium. Eugene Ionesco's "The Lesson" and "A Tale of Chelm" from Arnold Perl's "The World of Sholem Aleichem" will be directed by Mrs. Ethelyn Paley.

"The Lesson" will be of particular interest to students and faculty alike inasmuch as the theme revolves around a professor and a student, plus a third party. How the theme resolves itself is such as to leave the audience with mingled feelings. Cast members are Mrs. Kathryn Corbett, Mrs. Evelyn McCurdy, and Dr. Jerry Turner.

What happens when a nanny goat continually turns into a billy goat, and back again, and the effect of such happenings constitutes Arnold Perl's Jewish folk play, "A Tale of Chelm." Cast members are Dr. James McNelis, Henry Tropp, Mrs. Raisa Abacarian, Mrs. Jean Wagner, Lloyd Crisp, Mrs. Kathryn Corbett, Milt Dobkin, Mrs. Evelyn McCurdy, and Dr. Jerry Turner.

Season ticket and ASB card holders will be admitted free of charge. There will be no reserved seats.

Opinion Poll On Rep Ballot

Since there has been some controversy as to whether a married woman should be permitted to be a candidate for Sempervirens Sweetheart, Homecoming Queen, or Freshman Sweetheart, a public opinion poll will be taken. The questionnaires will be attached to the ballots of next Wednesday and Thursday's Representative - at - Large election. ASB president Don Peterson states, "The cooperation of the students by filling out these questionnaires honestly and thoughtfully will be greatly appreciated."

Hilltopper Goes On Sale Monday

The Hilltopper Magazine for the Fall semester of 1958 will make its appearance this coming Monday. The theme for the magazine this semester is, "The Arts at Humboldt State College."

Salesmen will be vending the magazine from a booth in the foyer of the Administration Building Monday from 8 a. m. until 1 p. m. and in the Coop and Nelson Hall cafeteria during the noon hour.

Copies also will be sold by roving salesmen in strategic locations such as the Library, Jenkins Hall, and Wildlife Building.

If any copies are left they will be sold Tuesday noon in the Hilltopper office, at the head of the stairs in the Coop, and thereafter in the Bookstore.

However, Gary Timmons, business and circulation manager, pointed out that since only 500 copies are being placed on sale, students, faculty and staff members should buy early to avoid disappointment.

The magazine, using as its staff of photographers, the Photography 150 class, is rich in photographs. The photographs have in fact made the magazine a veritable art gallery. It was this fact that prompted editor Tony Vasquez to use one word captions for many of the illustrations, feeling that the photographs were strong enough to carry themselves.

The photographers included Norm Wright, Bob Jones, Terry Healy, Jerry Batten, Jack Mays and Jim Stover.

Photographer for the special jazz cover was Jerry Batten. The designer of the cover was yearbook editor Jack Mays.

Pauline Gaw, Hilltopper art editor is responsible for all the cartooning and jokes featured in this year's edition. Miss Gaw helped on much of the layout.

Leading off the magazine is the piece entitled, "Jazz, Cool and Cooler." It is written by Tony Vasquez and depicts the jazz picture at Humboldt State College and in the colleges across the country in general. This is the longest story in the magazine and runs over a four page spread. The photographer for the article was Jerry Batten.

Elvera Ryerson, junior speech major, has given us a short piece on Modern Dance. This is strong in photographs. Elvera Ryerson, Karen Dillard and Miss Kay Gott are featured.

"Pottery, an Evolving Art" is given the intellectual treatment by Rolph Hellberg. Rolph gives first, pottery, an indicator of a culture and then he goes into the technical end of pottery making. Photographs for this article were taken by Bob Jones.

Ron Sells, a past contributor to the Hilltopper magazine has written a very incisive report on "Schuler, the Instructor - Artist." Sells' article sheds some bright light on an exceedingly interesting personality. Norm Wright was the photographer.

"Music, Concert Style" written by Lumberjack business manager Bill Hayward gives some up to the minute news on the Humboldt State College Symphony. This

Gump Art Works On Display In Gallery

By RON SELLS

A contemporary American Graphic exhibit is now on display in the art gallery. The art show will run through next Friday. The exhibit is on loan from Gump's Art Gallery of San Francisco. It contains works of 12 nationally known artists, two of whom are located on the west coast: Nathan Oliveria, instructor of graphics at San Francisco School of Fine Arts; and Sister Mary Corisa of the College of Immaculate Heart in Los Angeles. The other artists are primarily located on the east coast.

The media of the exhibit runs in lithograph, color lithograph, woodcuts, silkscreen, and etchings. All prints were made from the artist's original printing blocks, which were destroyed after a limited number of prints were made. The prints are on sale with prices ranging from $25 through $60. They may be purchased from Gump's Art Gallery by contacting Melvin Schuler, room A209 in the Arts Building.

piece is used to show another side of the music field and to counterbalance the jazz story. Photographer for the article was Jim Stover.

Robert Brant, English - fencing instructor at HSC contributed the article, "Choose Your Weapon." It is a story of the evolution of fencing and its present status. Terry Healy was the photographer.

Rounding off the program is a story by Diane Anderson, Lumberjack Editor, called, "Drama and Buildings." It gives a preview on the new Speech-Arts Building.

Some of the other features include an art gallery with sculpture, watercolor, photography, and charcoal being featured. There is also a joke page.

Timely Topic Selected For Faculty Forum

DR. LOUISE WATSON

"Relaxation" will comprise the topic of Dr. Louise Watson, associate professor of health and physical education, at the third Faculty Forum of the academic season. It will be held Wednesday in the Science Lecture Room starting at 8 p. m.

The talk will include the effects of tension on the human body and the resulting physical disorders. Methods of relieving muscular tension will be discussed. Dr. Watson explained, "There is a great concern in the present day about tranquilizers and relieving stress. This theme can be found even in the field of popular literature." The main emphasis of the lecture will concern the conscious relaxation of muscular tension. Dr. Watson continued, "Coming two days before final exams, this lecture will prove highly valuable to both students and professors."

Dr. Watson has been teaching at Humboldt State since 1953. She received her bachelor of arts degree from the University of Oregon and taught at that institution before coming to Humboldt. She received her master's degree from the University of Illinois and her Ph. D. degree from the University of Oregon.

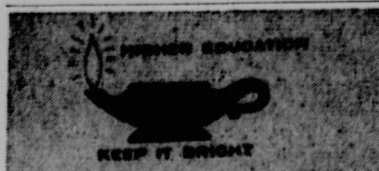

'Waiting for Godot' Next HSC Drama

By LORRAINE CHARTER

One of the most puzzling and discussed plays of recent times, Samuel Beckett's tragic-comedy, "Waiting for Godot," will be the next production of the Humboldt Players. The scene is a simple one of two tramps who appear and wait impatiently for the appearance of a certain Godot. Dr. Jerry Turner will direct the all-male cast of four characters.

The play is unconventional in structure. Who is Godot is never explained and is one of the bases of much controversy. Some people contend that Godot is God. Others insist that Godot is a sense of certainty and purpose in life, and that Godot may symbolize beauty or death, or both. Critics and audiences have been fascinated by the strange and haunting effect which this play evokes. Last summer "Waiting for Godot" was one of the contributions to the World's Fair in Brussels.

Baldwin is a sophomore education major from Chatham, New Brunswick, Canada. She is a member of the Student Council and is on the Sempervirens Sweetheart Court.

Life's Like That

By Larry West

Well, well, well . . . end the long vacation. Ye Gods, my poor sick body needs a vacation from the vacation. Oh, things started well enough. Yes, sir, ole Lar was going to turn over a new leaf . . . only three term papers to turn out and more than two weeks to get the job done. Well, fine and dandy, I says, I'll just take three days and lay around on my big fat . . . duff, and then I'll really hit it . . . Oh, boy, how I'll hit it.

Well, for three days, I laid on my duff and then came Christmas, with lots of goodies from Claws, and Claude, and In-Laws, and Parents, and so forth.

And then . . . we decided! Decided what? To study? Of course not, we decided to go to the city . . . Ah, the city, the Mecca of the West Coast with its glittering lights and bawdy night spots. With its exclusive little shops nestled among the glittering towers of Powell and Post and O'Farrell. What a time. Up the hills, down to the wharf, out to San Rafael. Whirling into the Fairmont and out again, and finally five hours in Sausalito, wandering among the shops and down on the wharf while the sun drenched the little city by the bay.

And home . . . back to Humboldt and rain and worries and PAPERS. Only four days left. Oh, I'm dead, I can't possibly make it. . . . Claudine, you can't get sick now . . . wanna bet? Flat on her back breathing through her mouth, gazing at the bedroom with swollen eyeballs . . . while ole Lar, the same "Turn over the leaf" Lar of 10 days ago is washing dishes, ironing clothes, feeding the cat, starving off the bill collector, and acting as Doctor, Nurse, and Hot Water Bottle Orderly for four days.

And that's it . . . the saga of Lar and Claude and Vacation et al . . . The papers you ask . . . well, somehow they got done but next time it'll be different, ole Lar is going to turn over a new leaf and . . .

Guess that I should add that elections are coming up soon like and that I, i.e. LAWRENCE W. P. WEST JR. III, am definitely in the running . . . so if you are serious about having a conscientious representative at large you'd better corner me next week and I'll treat you to a free cup and expound in your ear my superior thoughts on Student Government. Cause if you can't say anything else about me I'm experienced (in student affairs), and it is said that I'm responsible (for what I don't know and I won't ask 'til I'm accused) . . . but give it some thought, won't you? Those of us who serve on the Council give it lots of thought and time and we would appreciate it if you would go likewise when elections come around.

San Jose State College, Spartan Daily, Departments Add Language 'Must'

A foreign language will be required by five more college departments beginning September 1959 as a result of a revision in the state education code.

The Academic Deans' Council, headed by Dean of the College Fred F. Harclerod, announced the new requirement at a meeting.

Departments which are requiring a language for the first time are: Chemistry, English, History, Mathematics, and Political Science.

Dr. Wesley Goddard, head of the Modern Language Department, said the requirement is a result of a summer revision of the education code on the state level. The revision will effect all state colleges. Previously it was "impossible" for a department to require a language, Dr. Goddard said. Now any department can require of its majors a language relevant to the department's subject matter, he added.

Dr. Goddard emphasized the fact that language will not be made a requirement for the general BA degree.

El Camino College, Warhoop, Cosmetologists vie in Hairstyling Contest

Miss Evelyn Hough and Mrs. Ann Sternad will take home trophies for their hair styling creativeness.

These El Camino coeds placed first in the 13th semi-annual cosmetology competition in December. Thirty-one junior and senior students competed.

Students create hair styles, which are judged on originality, keeping with the current popular fashion trend, suitability to model, smoothness and detail. Contestants also name their styles.

Miss Hough's creation was called "Platinum Parfait," while Mrs. Sternad's entry was named "Pouff".

Oregon State College, Oregon State Daily Barometer, European Jobs for Summer now Available.

Farm work in England, Norway and Holland, resort work in Denmark and Sweden, and electrical engineering in Germany and Switzerland are only a few of the job opportunities that are offered to students who wish to work in Europe this summer.

The above facilities are offered to students by the American Student Information Service, a non-profit organization serving students with the primary purpose of promoting better relations between students of Western Europe and the United States.

Student Activities Plans More Events

More events under the Student Activities Program are being planned for next semester according to chairman Art Dalianes. At the last meeting the committee decided to expand the program by adding to the present agenda activities in the areas of ping pong, billiards, bridge, and publicity.

This semester bowling, a rifle team, and a dance club have been active and successful on campus. These activities will also be continued next semester.

Appointed to head these various committees are Gary Timmons,

Milhaus Reports On Graduate Conference

Dr. Ivan C. Milhaus, dean of extended services at HSC, returned recently from Los Angeles where he attended a conference of Coordinators of Graduate Studies in the state colleges.

The educators met on the campus of Los Angeles State College to discuss means of implementing the master of arts degree program in liberal arts and to establish standards and procedures for preparing new curricula.

Dr. Milhaus reported a widespread interest in the liberal arts degree program especially as it increases occupational efficiency in business and scientific fields. He said that while this degree program in no way replaces the master of arts program in teacher education, it represents substantial progress toward a "full graduate level program" for the state colleges.

The conference appointed subcommittees for further study of the program for a report to be given at a spring meeting in April on the San Diego State College campus.

The Los Angeles conference was chairmanned by Dr. James T. Enochs, former consultant in higher education with the State Department of Education, now Dean of Graduate studies at L. A. State College. The State Dept. of Education was represented at the meeting by Dr. John Peters and Dr. Dorothy Knoell.

Graduate studies leading to the master of arts degree in liberal arts at Humboldt State College have been authorized in 13 fields and more may be added as the demand arises, Dr. Milhaus said.

bowling; Ken Ewing, rifle team; Art Dalianes and Glendyne Baldwin, dance club; Carol Molinder, ping pong; Tony Karachale, billiards; and Joe Romero, publicity committee. At the present time, no one has been named to head the bridge committee. Anyone who is interested in doing so is asked to contact Miss Kate Buchanan or any member of the activities committee.

The activities committee also discussed the idea of having a Student Union Week on campus sometime in the spring semester. No definite plans have yet been made.

Personally, about this time each semester I start appreciating the Sarah Lawrence college (a women's college in New York)—no system . . . no tests, no finals, no grades. The evaluating procedure at SL consists of "conferences" with the individual instructors. The report cards have no grades on them. They contain reports of the student's progress "personality wise." Thinking of the finals that lie ahead of HSC's students, SL's system sounds reasonable to me.

Found this bit of encouragement in the Saturday Evening Post: "Take time to work, it is the price of success. Take time to think, it is the source of power. Take time to play, it is the secret of youth. Take time to read, it is the foundation of knowledge. Take time to worship, it is the highway of reverence. Take time for friendship, it is source of happiness. Take time to love, it is the one sacrament of life. Anonymous" . . .

Don't forget: Bright and early Monday morning the "Hilltopper" goes on sale . . . pick up your copy. It promises to be an interesting edition . . . so, don't forget.

There is a special yellow cup! It is Lumberjack editor Diane Anderson's Christmas gift to business manager Bill Hayward. It stays in the Lumberjack office, to be used on the twice-weekly gettogethers of the Lumberjack. Since this is a community property state . . . they initiated the cup last Tuesday morning. No! No columnist's scoop . . . just good fun . . . and good coffee.

THE DATING SEASON

I have recently returned from a tour of 950,000 American colleges where I made a survey of undergraduate dating customs and sold Zorro whips. I have tabulated my findings and I am now prepared to tell you the simple secret of successful dating.

The simple secret is simply this: A date is successful when the man knows how to treat the girl.

And how does a girl like to be treated? If you want to know, read and remember these four cardinal rules of dating:

1. A girl likes to be treated with respect.

When you call for your girl, do not drive up in front of the sorority house and yell, "Hey, fat lady!" Get out of your car. Walk respectfully to the door. Knock respectfully. When your girl comes out, tug your forelock and say respectfully, "Good evening, Your Honor." Then offer her a Marlboro, for what greater respect can you show your girl than to offer Marlboro with its "better makin's," fine flavor and new improved filter? It will indicate immediately that you respect her taste, respect her discernment, respect her intelligence. So, good buddies, before going out on a date, always remember to buy some Marlboros, now available in soft pack or flip-top box at your friendly vending machine.

2. A girl likes a good listener.

Do not monopolize the conversation. Let her talk while you listen attentively. Make sure, however, that she herself is not a good listener. I recollect a date I had once with a coed named Greensleeves Sigafos, a lovely girl, but unfortunately a listener, not a talker. I too was a listener so we just sat all night long, each with his hand cupped over his ear, straining to catch a word, not talking hour after hour until finally a policeman came by and arrested us both for vagrancy. I did a year and a day. She got by with a suspended sentence because she was the sole support of her aged housemother.

3. A girl likes to be taken to nice places.

By "nice" places I do not mean expensive places. A girl does not demand luxury. All she asks is a place that is pleasant and gracious. The Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, for example. Or Mount Rushmore. Or the Taj Mahal. Or the Bureau of Weights and Measures. Find places like these to take your girl. In no circumstances must you take her to an oil-cracking plant.

4. A girl likes a man to be well-informed.

Come prepared with a few interesting facts that you can drop casually into the conversation. Like this: "Did you know, Snookiepuss, that when cattle, sheep, camels, goats, antelopes, and other members of the cud-chewing family, get up, they always get up hind legs first?" Or this: "Are you aware, Hotlips, that corn grows faster at night?" Or this: "By the way, Loverhead, Oslo did not become the capital of Norway till July 11, 1924."

If you can slip enough of these nuggets into the conversation before dinner, your date will grow too torpid to eat. Some men save up to a half-million dollars a year this way.

Four Compete In National Math Competition

Four HSC students participated recently in the 19th annual William Lowell Putnam Mathematical competition sponsored by the Mathematical Association of America.

The national competition, begun in 1938, is designed to stimulate a healthful rivalry in undergraduate departments of mathematics in colleges and universities of the United States and Canada.

Mona Armstrong, Jim Freiheit, Ralph Luick, and Bob Swede participated in the national competition, which consists of a competitive examination in college mathematics and for which medals, cash prizes and a $3,000 scholarship at Harvard University are offered. The four are students in Dr. Orval Klose's upper division mathematics classes.

Clowns Down Jacks In Cage Comedy

The travelling Harlem Clowns downed the Humboldt Lumberjack basketballers last Saturday night 64-49 in a contest played before some 1500 cage fans.

George Millionis led the Hill-topper cagers with 17 as the Jacks stayed within a ten point range throughout the first 35 minutes of the game. With a substantial lead the clown five moved into their famous playaround tactics.

The contest played before one of the largest crowds in the area in recent years saw five Harlem players score in the double column with Eddie Hurt topping the scoring with 17.

Names of the four colleges or universities whose contestants rank highest in the examination, and names of the five individual students throughout the U. S. whose positions in the examinations are highest will be published in the national magazine, American Mathematical Monthly.

Semester Break For Radio KHSC

Radio station KHSC will leave the air at the conclusion of today's regular broadcasting schedule, according to program director George Steele, to resume transmitting next semester. A new transmitter will be installed in the Administration Building bell tower, and full campus coverage is predicted by the operation of two transmitters. Improved sound is also predicted by the addition of a new Ampex tape machine.

Jacks Open Conference Play

Humboldt Five Plays Sac State Tonite in Opener

Hot or cold, Humboldt State's Lumberjack basketballers will open the 1959 Far Western Conference race tonight and tomorrow when they travel to Sacramento to meet the Hornets in a two-game stand.

The games will open a ten-game run by each of the conference teams. Last month during the annual Holiday tournament here, the six clubs all got a chance to see the other under fire.

Humboldt snowed Sacramento under with 53-36 score in the second round to install the Jacks a favorite in tonight's and tomorrow's clashes. However, Humboldt has found a tremendous inability to shoot at various times and should the Jacks be unable to get out of their icebox, the role of favorite would be quickly reversed.

Coach Franny Givins will put his cagers against a strong Hornet five, which has a 5-3 pre-conference record. The Jacks have a 5-4 won-loss record going into tonight's action.

Expected to open for the Hilltop five will be center, Grant Erhart with Joye Miller and big Joe Johnson at the forwards and Eddie Thomas and George Milonion out front in the guard spots.

Sacramento boasts guard Chuck Mobley amply described as a top floorman who can shoot and rebound well. Mobley entered the tournament with a 25-point average but was held down during the three games. Bill Fain is scheduled to open at the other guard with Terry Bennett at center, forwards will be Bob Syftestad and Gary Scott.

Games are scheduled to get underway at 9 p.m. at the Sacramento State gymnasium.

Junior Jacks Return To Play Two Games

The Humboldt Junior Jacks will return to action after a two week lay off for the Christmas holidays, playing Ned's Men's Wear and Nichol's Pontiac tonight and tomorrow night.

The Hilltoppers will be up against some tough competition as the teams are made up of ex-college players.

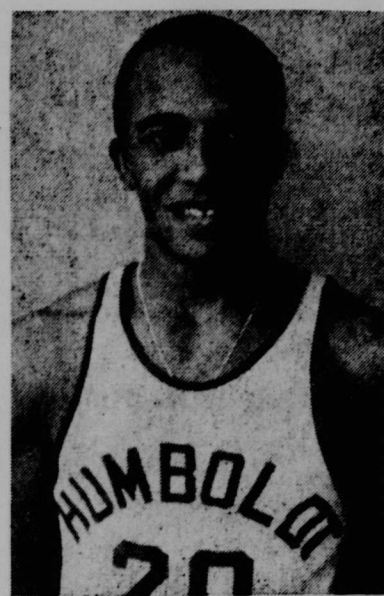

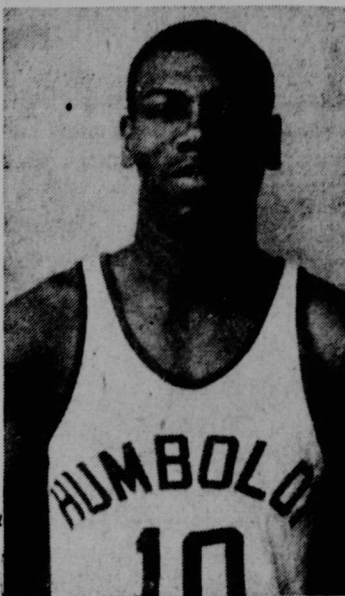

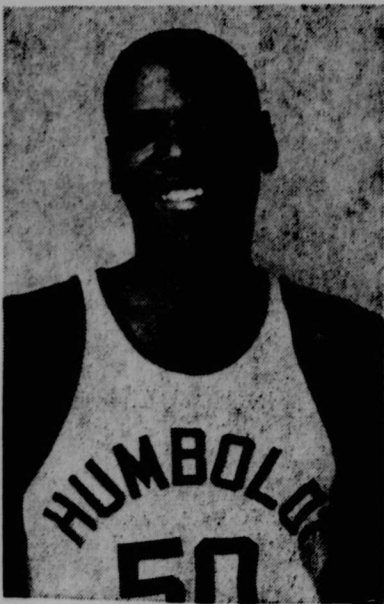

Probable starters for the Junior Jacks are Dennis Pontoni and Jack Atwood at the guard spots, Felix Rogers and Jim Barker at the forwards and Jim Christiansen at the post. With the exception of Rogers all of these men hail from Humboldt county. Pontoni and Barker played their high school basketball at Arcata while Atwood and Christiansen played at Fortuna High.

Other players slated for action are Bob Reeves, Tom Waters, Gary Powell, Marion Chandler, Charlie Jones, Clyde Klauman, Jim Westmorland, and Gorden Bolten.

Unlimited Six Leads Volleyball Play

Conservation Unlimited is dominating the volleyball play as it goes into its second week of action. They are at the top of the league with a 4-0 record. Pressing them hard is the Faculty team with a 3-1 record. Redwood Hall has lost only one contest also but has failed to show up two times. The Block "H" is finally taking the back seat as they have a 4-2 mark.

Next in line is the Gamma Delta team with 3 wins and 3 losses. The Caterpillars also have an even mark with 2-2. Teke and the Forestry Club are fighting it out with two wins and three losses each. Nelson Hall is having trouble getting started with a 1-2 mark. The fraternity has also been able to Grant Erhart, Joe Johnson, Billy Caver and Eddie Thomas, top to bottom, led Humboldt State to second place in the recent Far Western Conference Holiday Basketball Tournament. The foursome is expected to help the Hilltopper five in their conference openers this weekend at Sacramento. Tonight the entire six teams of the loop enter action for championship laurels with San Francisco taking the role of a heavy favorite.

Humboldt Kegglers Vie For Trip; A and F in Playoff for Title

The Humboldt State bowling league completed its fall semester series last night at the Redwood Lanes in Arcata. The featured match was a playoff between teams A and F for the league championship, with team A leading team F by one-half game. Ranking in order behind the leaders are teams E, G, B, D, and C.

The present leading kegglers in the league are: Jack Faulkner (178), Rocky Johnson (162), Phil Baker (159), and Mike Jobbett (156). These bowlers are vying for a trip to Corvallis, Oregon to represent Humboldt State in the regional finals for college bowlers.

Four HSC Players On Tourney Team

Humboldt State dominated the Far Western Conference All-Tournament selections placing four on the mythical team.

Earning berths on the team were guards Billy Caver and Eddie Thomas, center Grant Erhart and forward Joe Johnson. Johnson was a standout in conference tourney action and missed the most valuable player award, which went to guard Jim Cananica of San Francisco by a single vote.

Champion San Francisco put three on the team including frosh center Mahlon Harmon, guard Bill Aires and Cananica. Other teams and players receiving recognition were Dave d'Olivo of Southern Oregon, Harold Ellis of Chico, Chuck Mobley of Sacramento State and Ed Grossenbacher of Willamette.

Eleven players were selected because of a tie.

cop one victory against three defeats. The Circle "K" group hasn't won a contest while being defeated four times.

Each team plays about three games a week. Games are played in the men's gym at 4 and 5 p.m.

High games for the league to date are held by Les Schneider, who bowled a 243, and Larry Epperson, who bowled a 238.

The league is planning a luncheon for this month at which time the leading bowlers and teams will be presented trophies and other awards. The meeting will also feature the planning of festivities for the spring semester.

A call is being made by chairman Gary Timmons to any interested persons in competing in the league next semester. The "ability to bowl is not necessary and one need not feel he cannot compete by not knowing how to bowl," Timmons pointed out.

The league will compete on Mondays and Thursdays at 5 p.m. at the Redwood Lanes in Arcata, and it is hoped that anyone interested will not schedule classes or activities for this time. Anyone interested in the bowling league should contact Gary Timmons through box 1316.

SF STATE WINS TOURNEY; HSC IN RUNNERUP SPOT

Humboldt waltzed to two straight victories and then went back to their icebox and dropped the championship contest in the fifth annual Far Western Conference tournament held here last month. Thus, Coach Franny Givins' Lumberjack basketball five earned second place and received a runner-up trophy for their efforts.

The three day affair was the cage highlight of the year and Humboldt surprised the experts easily taking the first two games and went into the finals a slight underdog to the fast moving, sure shooting San Francisco Gator team which took the laurels.

In opening action Humboldt thumped Cal Aggies 69-42 after leading 28-13 at the halfway mark. Teammates Joe Johnson and Grant Erhart led the Lumberjack scoring parade with 13 each. Fourteen Hilltop players saw action in the game and all 14 scored. Other games during the day saw Nevada squeeze a 62-57 win from Southern Oregon, San Francisco edge Willamette 72-61 and Sacramento put Chico in the losers bracket by beating the Wildcats 58-49.

Second day play was the biggest surprise when Humboldt took the Sacramento State Hornets in bay 53-36 with comparative ease. Eddie Thomas led the attack with 14 while the Jacks built a 33-16 half-time advantage. Joe Johnson for the second straight night was a terror on the boards. Humboldt hit for a respectable 36 per-cent and with grace.

Meanwhile Willamette beat Southern Oregon 70-60, Cal Aggies pulled a minor upset knocking Chico State out by a 63-54 count and San Francisco slipped by Nevada by two points in the closest action in tournament play.

Johnson maintained his sharp edge but teammate Humboldt couldn't hit their hat. San Francisco led 20-13 at the halfway point. The first half was very slow and the Gators regained their form much faster than Humboldt. The Gators increased their lead and went away 43-31. Johnson took both rebound and high point honors. The 6 ft. 4 inch forward grabbed 15 of 27 rebounds for the Jacks and scored 16 points, over half of the total output. Jim Caranica and Bill Aires both scored 12 for the winners.

In the game for third place, Nevada's reserves won over Sacramento State's substitutes. The consolation winner Willamette dropped the spirited Cal Aggies 77-51 and Southern Oregon left Chico in last place as they clobbered the Wildcats 54-37.

Co-favorites Chico State and Sacramento State went by the wayside while co-favorite San Francisco won. Humboldt tabbed as underdogs and darkhorses played their dual role very well. Thus the 1958, fifth annual Far Western Conference Holiday tourney closed with the results of 30 conference games ahead to decide the final winner and entrant into the NAIA finals in March.
