NUMBER 15

SERIES OF CONCERTS BEGINS SUN. MAY 6

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S GLEE CLUBS AIDED BY DOROTHY WILLIAMS, CELLOIST, FEATURED

Next Sunday afternoon will mark the opening of the Second annual series of Vesper Musicales sponsored by the Music Department of Humboldt State Teachers College for the music lovers of Northern California. Last year the auditorium proved too small for the large number of people of Humboldt and Del Norte counties who took advantage of the opportunity of hearing the best music. It is estimated that approximately 700 listened to every concert.

The first concert this year will be presented this Sunday afternoon beginning at 3 o'clock. Edmund Jeffers, director of musical organizations, has announced that he is planning concerts that will be of not more than three hours length. The Men's and Women's Glee Club will present the May 6 concert together, with Miss Dorothy Williams as Cello soloist.

Miss Williams, who is well-known for her musical work in county musical organizations, will play "Song Without Words," Mendelssohn-Bartholdy, Opus 19, No.

Two Motion Pictures To Be Shown Soon

In connection with the course in Appreciation of Nature, Edward C. Graves, librarian, has arranged to rent two motion picture films of wild flowers from the Extension Division of the University of California. In these films the flowers live out their life cycles on the screen, growing, blossoming, wilting. They will be shown at both the College Elementary School and the college auditorium on May 16, exact time to be announced later.

Chi Sigma Epsilon to Initiate Tomorrow Nite

Chi Sigma Epsilon will hold its semi-annual initiation this Friday evening. The time, place and events are completely unknown to everyone except those in charge. It is rumored that the pledges are to be given a thorough initiation.

Members of the organization who will administer the rites to the pledges—Maxine Belloni, Lester Larsen and Mary Neilson, are Elva Quarnheim, Elva Baumgartner, Ruth Carroll, Ugo Giuntini, Jessie Hinch, and Alma Ruth Sweet. A number of the alumni members of Chi Sigma Epsilon are expected to be present at the initiation.

A number of good candidates have been nominated for positions by the nominating committee. The race between Alma Ruth Sweet and Eleanor Renfro for president of the association should be close. Miss Sweet is a Junior from Arcata and has participated in many student activities in Humboldt College. She has been a member of the Board of Control of the Student Body, treasurer and point chairman for the W. A. A., assistant editor of the Lumberjack for one semester, and has taken several

MOTHERS WILL BE GUESTS OF HUMBOLDT

The Women's Hospitality Committee is sponsoring a Mothers' Luncheon on Sunday, May 13, at which all the students' mothers will be invited to attend. Mary Emily Speier, newly elected chairman of next year's committee, is general chairman of the Luncheon. Others who will help her include: Lucille Winter, programs; Frances Seidell, entertainment; Dorothy Williams, decorations; Anabelle Stockton, publicity; Miss Louise Struve, advisor.

All arrangements have not yet been made and further information will be given out to the students later by the general chairman. It is hoped that a large number of mothers will be present and attend the Vesper Musicales which follows later in the afternoon.

Y. M. C. A. Engaged in Attendance Contest

The college Y. M. C. A. is engaged in an attendance contest, with a swimming party and hot-dog feed at Mad River or the Big Lagoon the last week of school at the losing teams expense as an added incentive.

The five teams into which the membership of the local association is divided for this contest are captained by Herbert Moore, Virgil Hollis, Clark Gilman, Bill Slade and Bob Coons. Herb's team is in the lead at present, but the contest is scheduled to continue until the end of school.

Dr. Puryear Speaks To Y. M. C. A. Group

Dr. Vernon J. Puryear, professor of social science, was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the college "Y" last Tuesday noon. His topic was "Present day international problems." An informal discussion followed Dr. Puryear's address.

Schussman's Banquet Talk Over KIEM

Leo G. Schussman, professor of education, is to address the Dramatic Order of Phorassus at 6:30 p. m. Saturday, May 5, on "the value of education." The talk will be delivered at the Vance Hotel, and broadcast over station KIEM.

The material contained in this talk, prepared for the business men, is not, according to Mr. Schussman, a repetition of work offered at H. S. T. C. and it should be to the interest of college students to hear it.

MAKE RESERVATIONS FOR BANQUET NOW

Arrangements are progressing nicely for the Senior Banquet and Ball which will be held Friday night, May 11, at the Eureka Inn. All committees are working to make this affair surpass in excellence the last semi-formal dance also sponsored by the Seniors, the Kris Kringle Hop.

All reservations must be in to the publicity committee by Wednesday, May 9. This announcement is final since the affair is being held off campus last minute reservations cannot be made.

H. S. T. C. Boxers Fare Well in Tournament

Three Humboldt students entered the De Molay-C. C. C. amateur boxing tournament held in Eureka April 20 and 21 and all three reached the finals and won second-place trophy cups.

The H. S. T. C. entries were: Virgil Hollis, middle weight; Richard Brown, junior welter weight, and James Henderson, feather weight.

Practice Resumed on Return of Coach

Spring football practice was started again last Tuesday after a week's lay-off caused by Coach Fred Telonicher being kept off the field by a dislocated shoulder.

Thirteen men, six of whom are letter men, have signed up for regular practice, which is to continue until the week of final examinations.

The coach expressed enthusiasm over next year's prospects.

COLLEGE PLAYERS ARE ATTEMPTING POPULAR BROADWAY HIT NEXT WEEK

The Humboldt College players will present the smashing, riotous, newspaper vehicle: "The Front Page" next Thursday evening, May 10, 1934, according to an enthusiastic announcement made after last night's rehearsal by the youthful director, Garff B. Wilson. "The Front Page" had an extraordinary run in America, having run much longer than a year and a half on Broadway, and lesser time in some of the other large cities in America.

Giving encouragement to some patrons and friends of the college who have heard rumors of the professional production of "The Front Page," Mr. Wilson stated yesterday, "Mothers need not be afraid to bring their children to 'The Front Page' as produced by the Humboldt College Players. There will be absolutely nothing offensive in the performance; many doubtful lines have been cut."

Athletes of Humboldt have deserted their old lair and turned their efforts to the stage. Wilson speaks very optimistically concerning the first appearance of

James K. Fiske Gives "Education Week" Talk

"There are two forces at work in the civilized world today; the impetus within mankind to build, create and accomplish, and the constant impelling desire to tear down, destroy, annihilate," stated James K. Fiske, state district Adjutant of the American Legion, who delivered Education week message to the H. S. T. C. students Thursday, April 26. "To those who in trying to balance budgets destroy the great foundation stones patiently laid during generations, the American Legion and kindred organizations say 'thou shalt not pass,'" according to the state Adjutant.

"California is the white spot in the nation in Education. For 15 years the American Legion has brought the attention of parents and citizens to the schools. Through Education Week the schools have displayed their wares and kept alive the interest and spirit of education in California."

"Russia Today" by Sherwood Eddy is now in the library on the reserved shelf with the books on economics.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to both the Music department and the Dramatics department for their excellent organization which sponsored the Music Festival and the One-Act play Festival. Both of these projects are worthy ones and do much to place Humboldt in the place it deserves among the cultural influences of North-ern California.

Yet to have grown all projects must have received some suggestions. We are offering two suggestions—one to each group and hope that they will be accepted as constructive and helpful. The Music Festival was well conducted undoubtedly, but the problem created by the evening performance and private cars could be simplified considerably by holding the affair entirely during the day. This would mean that the schools could take their busses to Humboldt, and in addition it would help the various schools in their problems of individual discipline. Such a change in the program would aid materially in the arrangements for the festival itself. Our gymnasium is much too small for some of the bands which play in the festival. If the affair were held in the afternoon, the band concerts could easily be held outside on the athletic field. This procedure has been carried out in Chico for the Massed Band concert, and there is little reason except inclement weather which would prevent its being put into practice successfully here.

To the Dramatics department we ask if it would not be desirable to have the Play Festival of a much shorter length. We noticed that despite the excellence of the performances of both Chico and Humboldt, the audience grew quite tired last Friday night. Perhaps there should be but one play from each college, or perhaps the home performer could give but one play and let the visitor continue to produce two. This problem could be only worked out so that the program of one-act plays be made shorter by about one hour.

Again, congratulations to the Pro Musica and Alpha Psi Omega for the excellent festivals we had this year at Humboldt. Let's hope they will be even better next year.

Federal Student Employment

The federal government finally included college and university students in its relief program. This was done on the belief that worthy students should be assisted in their efforts to secure an education. Such assistance relieves the sacrifice which homes and families are making to assist their sons and daughters in college.

In February the President made application for student employment funds. This application was based upon the enrollment and amounts to $405 a month. The application was approved and the employment began in March. It is to continue until the close of the semester.

The College Administration is restricted to three regulations in administering this federal fund. First, the fund must be used with men and women students in proportion to the enrollments of each sex; second, students must be carrying at least three-fourths of a full load in a satisfactory manner; third, students must need help in the form of employment.

The applications for work have exceeded the available funds, especially with the men students. The Administration is thus confronted with the problem of assignments on the basis of most need.

Students employed have shown their appreciation of this federal aid by efficient work and good sportsmanship when the funds were inadequate for all applications.

There is a possibility of extending this student employment into the fall semester.

(Signed) ARTHUR S. GIST, President.

Waterman Gives Music Lesson to H. S. T. C.

How to write popular songs in one lesson was a feature of the Honor Program, April 20, in which Merle Waterman, Y. M. C. A. secretary of Southern California, entertained the students with bits of song.

"To begin with—it is well to have heard someone play the piano before attempting to write a song. You should know something about the scale—you might need it some time." Mr. Waterman then played a frivolous number, almost entirely scale, written by a man who heard a little girl next door practicing the piano scale every day. He had written just what he heard into a song and it became a popular number.

"You ought to know a little about time. That's sometime used, too." He explained how songs are stolen through merely changing the time. In many instances the theft is not discovered until years later. "Eskimo Shivers" a lively jazz song, was put on the market some years ago, according to Mr. Waterman. Just as it was beginning to be a hit, it was taken off the market. A minister with a very apt ear for music, had discovered that it was stolen from an old church hymn. Only the time of the piece had been changed.

"When you begin to write a song—choose a title. But be sure that the title has nothing to do with what you've written. Spring time is a good time to start writing songs—a profound love theme—spring. A young man's fancy turns to thoughts of love, that the girls have been thinking about all winter."

Mr. Waterman has been a Y. M. C. A. worker for eight years and has become acquainted with many of the song writers in Hol-

Chi Sigma Epsilon Sponsors Honor Day

Chi Sigma Epsilon honored students of the Senior and Junior class at the assembly held April 20. For fine scholarship, participation in school activities, and for personal character Maxine Belloni, Lester Larson, Mary Nielson, were pledged to Chi Sigma Epsilon, Humboldt's Scholarship Society for Upperclass students.

Members of the freshman class whom Chi Sigma Epsilon pledged to the Rouser fraternity were announced. Joe Walsh was presented with the honor medal for the Freshman class. Those pledged to the Rousers were: John Peterson, Evelyn Quarnheim, Joe Walsh, John Gallop, Myron Schussman, Irving Manson, Margaret Hessel, Bessie Marsh.

Itinerary of Choir Proves Interesting

The itinerary of the A Cappella Choir on the tour of the bay region was a very outstanding piece of work on the part of some unknown poets and composers. To prove this let us cite and quote from the itinerary of Monday:

"Up at 7:00 is a sin, Even though we sing at Marin (at tin). (o'clock.) We'll travel on till Santa Rosa we sight, And there we appease our appetite.

"We sing at two And then we're through. At Santa Rosa We reposit. Amen. Brother Pen."

The prologue and the finis of this masterpiece are both quite outstanding. Here is the prologue: "We are all set at last. The curtains are hung, And sooner or later our fate will be sung."

Here is the finis or epilogue: (Tune—you guess.) "High schools, colleges and studios, Wherever we may roam, Be it ever so humble— There's no place like home."

Good Acting Features One-Act Play Festival

With all due credit to the productions of Chico State College here last Friday night, the outstanding production of the group of one-act plays was the "Tumbler," a satire on education in general. The acting of John Van Duzer was excellent. Van Duzer climaxed a career of stage building and design with this clever portrayal of the character of the Abbot. All the men in the cast of the Humboldt production played well.

The acting of Louise Johnstone as the invalid lady in "Two Crooks and a Lady" was worthy of special mention. Others who were especially good in this play were Julius Hooven and Eva Matheson.

The Chico delegation presented "Under the Oak" a fantasy based on the "Pardoner's Tale," and "Smoke Screen" a melodrama. The acting of the first was very good, but the costumes were even more outstanding. The work of Ronald Notley as "Smoke" in the second of the Chico presentations was second only to the work of Van Duzer in the "Tumbler." Naidene Lybecker did a good piece of acting as Katie, in the same play.

The unusual number of men in the plays for the festival was noticed by many of the audience. Of the 20 students who acted in the plays, but four of them were women.

COACH ANGLING FOR BASEBALL SERIES

There is a possibility that Humboldt State may meet Marin Junior College in a baseball game at Kentfield Junior College within the next two weeks, according to Coach Fred Telonicher who is carrying on negotiations with that school. The tennis team brought back word that Marin would be willing to meet the Humboldters this Spring at Kentfield and that they would like to come to Arcata next year. Telonicher planned to telephone the coach of that school Wednesday evening regarding the baseball game.

Humboldt has defeated most of the high schools in this section and at present has a top notch aggregation. A lack of practice lywood from whom he has learned much about the art of song writing and interesting facts about the song market.

early in the year caused the collegians to look mediocre in practice tilts, however, after several weeks of hard work, the locals developed into a hard-hitting, fast-fielding crew.

Most of the players will be back next year and it is hoped that a regular college schedule can be lined up.

TRACK POSSIBILITIES PROMISING IN FUTURE

If indications of the present season mean anything, Humboldt State Teachers College should have a track team next year that would be a credit to any secondary college in the state. With a number of Freshman and Sophomore stars working out daily and turning in excellent time and distances, the situation is promising.

Although no intercollegiate schedule has been drawn up for this spring, it is hoped that 1935 will see Humboldt State matched with San Francisco State, Santa Rosa J. C., Marin J. C., and others.

To date the Humboldters have engaged in two meets, one two weeks ago with Eureka, Ferndale and Arcata high schools and the other one last evening which was run off at such a time as to preclude any possibility of getting the results in print in this edition. The meet two weeks ago was won by the collegians by a large score. The present season will close this Saturday when the locals go to Ferndale for a triangle meet with Ferndale and Arcata high schools.

George Inskip and Virgil Hollis have been handling the track team this year, under the leadership of Coach Fred Telonicher, who has been devoting most of his time and energy to spring football practice.

Collis Mahan bids fair to become one of the best track men ever turned out of this institution. He is only a Freshman, yet runs the 100 and 220 in 10.2 and 23 seconds respectively. He tops the 220 low hurdles in about 26 seconds and broad jumps over 22 feet. He should improve considerably in the next three years.

Earl Hemenway is possibly Mahan's equal on the cinder paths. His time for the century and 220 are as good as Mahan's and he broad jumps almost as far. He

Forson-Wilson Fight Looms as Possibility

Archie Forson, H. S. T. C. junior, is clambering for an opportunity to prove himself king of the "light heavies" of this section. He has been a consistent winner, and is confident that he can remove all doubt as to who is the better man if he can get Ival Wilson into the ring again.

Forson and Wilson have fought twice, and each has a decision to his credit. Wilson seems disposed to let the record stand that way.

Eureka Postman Talks To College "Y" Group

Don Lee Lambert was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the College Y. M. C. A. held in Marie Clark Ostrander's music class room at noon Tuesday, April 23.

Mr. Lambert gave a short history of the development of postal service in the world from the time of runners hired by kings to deliver their messages up to the present time, placing special stress upon the development within the United States, and concluded his talk with a short discussion of the varied functions of the postal service as it is conducted today.

According to Mr. Lambert, the United States postal service is the largest single business in the world, private or public, hiring three hundred thousand people in 50 thousand post offices.

high jumps around 5 feet 8 inches and can do considerably higher. He has two more years and can reasonably be expected to improve.

Two other fast men are found in Virgil Hollis and Lyle Thompson. Hollis runs the 220 in around 23 seconds and the 440 in 52 seconds. Thompson has run the 100 in 10.2, the 220 in 23.1, and the 440 in 53. Both are Freshmen.

George Inskip, stellar distance man, still has another year of competition and if he is in top condition should turn in some great times for the 880 and the mile.

Ernie Brownlow is a good high hurdler, broad jumps well, puts the shot and high jumps. He can win points in almost any of these events and has two more years.

Some good weight men can be found in Joe Paul, Harmon Minor, Bill Henders and Bob Cavinnes.

If some good material comes here next year, it may be that a sizeable track schedule may be drawn up and intercollegiate competition become a reality.

RAQUETEERS TRIM MARIN J. C. TEAM

With a record of nine wins out of ten matches, the Humboldt State Teachers College tennis team returned here yesterday morning from Kentfield, California, after soundly trouncing the racket wielders of Marin Junior College Tuesday afternoon. This is the first victory in intercollegiate tennis competition for the local college.

The tournament with Marin was originally scheduled for Monday afternoon, but was rained out. Rain fell intermittently Tuesday, but the single's matches were played outdoors while the doubles were all played inside.

San Mateo Junior College, with one of the best college tennis teams in the state, will come here this month for a tournament with the locals. Last year the San Mateo netsters defeated the Humboldters in every match and lost but one set. However, it is hoped that the outcome of the match this Spring will be different.

The results of the matches Tuesday, follow:

Brogan and Moore defeated Gunning and Mori, 6-1, 6-1.

Nelson and Zook defeated Beckett and Hickson, 6-1, 6-1.

Pierson and Atkinson defeated Yore and Heller, 6-2, 6-1.

Nelson defeated Beckett, 6-4, 6-4.

Brogan defeated Mori, 6-2, 6-0. Zook defeated Tapp, 6-1, 6-1.

Moore defeated Gunning, 6-0, 6-0.

Atkinson lost to Hickson, 3-6, 4-6.

Pierson defeated Yore, 6-0, 7-5. Giuntini defeated Dinolo, 6-1, 6-0.

UNOFFICIAL CENSORS?

Nature was kind as well as wise in not providing a sense by which inquisitive and prying individuals could read their neighbor's innermost thoughts and feelings. These inquisitive ones still persist, however, in intercepting what they can. For them, flaps on envelopes were invented. But envelopes are inconvenient, so in many cases the pressure of public opinion is the only barrier. The mere fact that it is unethical to read other peoples' mail does not discourage the more courageous of this inquisitive class (of which a few are harbored at Humboldt) from keeping faithful vigil over our mail boxes. Their ability to mis snatching that passes through these boxes is uncanny, to say the least!

The energy which a number of these snoopers consume might well be used in the more useful pursuit of public information printed in books, more especially those used in classes in this institution. May we be bold enough to suggest that they spend any extra time they have in the post Victorian occupation of studying in the library.

FORSON ADDS TO STRING OF VICTORYS

Archie Forson, Humboldt State Teachers College student, added another to his long string of victories last Saturday night when he pounded out a decision over Eddie Fox, former national amateur light heavyweight champion, in the semi-windup of the Eureka boxing show. Ival Wilson de-cisioned Pietro Giorgi in the main event.

PRESIDENT & MRS. GIST SPONSOR SENIOR TEA

President and Mrs. Gist were host and hostess to a large number of students last Wednesday at a variety of occasions. These included a luncheon, a tea, and a supper.

President Gist honored all men men who had held office or otherwise made himself outstanding at an Honor Luncheon in the South End of the college Commons, Wednesday noon. Practically 50 men students and seven faculty men were present and congratulated by President Gist. The feature of the program was a duet sung by the "youngsters" of the faculty, Garff Wilson and Delbert Jeffers.

Mrs. Gist was hostess to 60 women officers of campus organizations and members of honor fraternities at tea at the President's home on Wednesday afternoon from 3 till 6. The program consisted of Soprano solos by Ethel Carroll, violin solos by Myron Schussman, piano solos by Miss Marie Todd, and humorous readings by Miss Winkler. Mrs. Gist was assisted by women faculty advisors to campus organizations.

That same evening President Gist was host to the seniors and student teachers following their meeting at which the president,

State boxer, is slated for a spot on the next Eureka card, a week from Saturday. Roe has won a large majority of his fistie engagements, despite the fact that he is naturally handicapped by being a southpaw.

some of the men in the cast. George Inskip, Ugo Guintini, Wayne Simpson, Herb Moore, Gene Thompson and Richard Brown, all athletes, are expected to turn in stellar performances. Henry Bender, Harry Goble, Al Chase, Cedric Jasper, and Jack Lennox also show exceptional promise. Julius Hoooven, David Bean and Jimmy Henderson are veterans and bid fair to repeat previous good records.

There are but five women in the cast, most of whom have appeared on the College stage. Janet Stewart, Helen Mitchell, Jessie Hinch and Katherine Forsythe have all taken important roles in Humboldt College performances. Mary Mangum has the woman's lead in "The Front Page." She should be good in the role since she has had a wealth of high school experience.

The Humboldt Players will continue their plan of serving coffee between acts, since the public appears to enjoy the sociability of the short recess during a long play. Norma Thurston will again be in charge of the serving.

No one can afford to miss this excellent political satire, so students are urged to watch the bulletin boards closely for announcements regarding the securing of tickets to "The Front Page."

BRUTAL ASSYRIANS MAKE POOR COMPANIONS FOR WINGED VICTORY

By MARK ROE

Just suppose that far, far in the future, after our civilization has been replaced and again replaced by succeeding ones an archaeologist unearths the crumpled remains of the front hall of the main building of Humboldt State Teachers College. Suppose that by some means that this future civilization has a complete history (or as complete as we now have) of the ancient Greeks and Assyrians, but only the front hall of H. S. T. C. has been found to tell of the strange race that inhabited the North American continent in the 20th century, B. C. And again suppose that they could tell that this edifice had been an institution of higher learning. Just what light would it throw upon our so-called civilization? What deductions could be made concerning the characteristics of the race?

Excavations will show in the center and most conspicuous place a statue of the Winged Victory, a symbol of courage, progress, beauty, the victory of the civilized world over the Oriental barbarians. These archaeologists with their knowledge of the ancient Greeks might commend us on the selection of this as an inspiration to first impress the student upon his entrance. "Here was," they might say, "a people who sought not only to educate its people, but to harmonize them with the ideals symbolized by the Victory of Samothrace."

But these men of the future will make another observation. Something incongruous with the fore mentioned ideals arise. To the side and a little behind the rare gem of classical statuary is upon the walls carvings of two Assyrian guards. If these "futurists" believe that we are the emotional type and are effected by our environment, they can see us passing under the outspread wings of the first statue and being fired with the high ideals that it symbolizes and then a few steps later almost rubbing against this frieze of long-gowned Assyrian warriors typifying the opposite, cruelty, ignorance and barbarism so characteristic of the Assyrian soldiers. This would seem to leave the impression that in theory our ideals were high, but nearer practice they are of the baser type. Closer study reveal later and cruder additions to these works of art. The people were ambitious and creative it can be said. The fossilized cigarette butts which are sometimes left in the folds of the drapery of the statue will tell of our taste for luxuries and of our inventive abilities and also of our carelessness and slovenliness.

Not a very good impression they will get of us is it? Yet, what could be more nearly true? The Americans have been characterized in just this manner. However, what will be the difference a thousand years from now? It is at the present time that we do not want to leave that impression to any one who happens to know the symbolisms of the statuary. But after all we are not to blame. In the first place we are not emotional and effected in one way or another by the symbolism. I wonder how many Humboldt students of the past or present could tell whether or not the Victory of Somothrace has a crown or a helmet on its head or whether or not the Asyrian soldiers have on armors or grass skirts?

Dr. Puryear Observes European Scholarship

"Observations on European Scholarship" was the address Dr. Vernon J. Puryear delivered to the students at the Honor assembly held Friday, April 20. Dr. Puryear has studied extensively in Europe and talked with many professors and leading men in the countries.

"The European University presents a contrast with that of the United States. They eliminate semester examinations in Germany. Class attendance is dispensed with. At the end of three years comes the only examination given in the universities. Originally only a degree of Philosophy was given, but now they are beginning to introduce the Bachelor's Degree."

"Education in Europe is less democratic than in the United States," Dr. Puryear stated. "There are 7000 students from a population of 60,000,000 people in Germany. The scholars are a very select group," Puryear continued. "But ideas recognize no international boundary line. A true scholar is an international figure. There is a difference between the scholar and the student. There is but routine class-work for the student. Scholars put forth a persistent effort to understand the world they live in." Puryear concluded his address with encouragement to American students. He said:

"The European student is a foremost student in languages. American students need more training in foreign languages and a need to eliminate the inferiority complex that limit their opportunities. Scholarship is a service to self and a means of larger capacity to further service to mankind."

A Bit of a Story With A Big Moral

It has been said that in the Spring young men's fancies lightly turn to thoughts of other than hard work. It is also conceded that in the ultimate end a man generally gets what is coming to him. In those two statements lies the moral of our story. Now here is our story: A young man often in evidence around here has poison oak in his whiskers. The reason is because he ventured into the woods to gather flowers to satisfy the whims of a woman. Young men, let that be an example for you. In the Spring let not thy fancies turn to frivolous things.
