FOUNDERS DAY WILL BE HELD APRIL 6

GOVERNOR ROLPH HAS BEEN ASKED TO ATTEND THE 20th ANNIVERSARY

Plans are under way for the Founders' Day program, to be held at Humboldt the evening of Friday, April 6, commemorating the 20th anniversary of the opening of Humboldt State Teachers College.

There is a possibility that Governor James Rolph, Jr., may attend. A letter of invitation was sent him last week and a reply came from his secretary that he would let the committee know as soon as possible whether he could attend. The letter said that the governor was leaving on February 9 for his tour of the county seats; that the weather and road conditions would affect his trip and that at the date of writing it was not possible to say just when this trip would be completed.

Maurice Hicklin of the English department has been named general chairman of the committee making arrangements for Founders' Day, with Delbert Jeffers of the same department as assistant chairman. Mrs. Jessie T. Woodcock, college financial secretary, and James Hemphill, student body president are other members of the committee named so far from the college.

Henry Brizard of Arcata, member of the College Improvement Association, and Miss Alta McElwain, president of the Alumni Association are the other members of the committee.

Model Rural School Features Club Meet

A model rural school with Harlan Still as the teacher, community singing and refreshments featured the "school daze" party of the recently organized Student Teacher Club in the Kindergarten Room of the College Elementary School last Thursday evening. Forty student members of the club together with the elementary school faculty were present.

Alice Porter was general chairman of the party.

Federal Control Will Be Debated at Meet

The question of Federal control of education will be debated at the regular meeting of Pi Alpha Pi in the social unit next Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. The affirmative will be upheld by Maxine Belloni and Louise Johnstone, the negative by James Hemphill and Oliver Viale.

New pledges will be welcomed and initiated at this meeting.

Industrial Education Has Exhibit in Hall

Hand-woven woolen scarfs made by Dorothy Yackley, Harriet Finne and Ada Sears, a scrap book by Dorothy Dexter, lamp shades by Elna Gries and a group of paper mache picture frames have been added to the exhibit of the Industrial Arts Department in the exhibit case in the hall south of the library door.

LARGE INCREASE IN HONORED GROUP

Twenty-five students received semester honors for work done during the fall semester, and were presented with the school colors at a general assembly held in the College auditorium last Friday morning.

Semester honors are awarded only to those who complete the semester with grades of B or better in all the courses which they take. A grade of "C" in any subject excludes any student from this group no matter what grades he may have obtained in the rest of his subjects.

The Seniors head the list by having seven members of their class in this honor group. Those Seniors who were honored, are: Elva Baumgartner, Ruth Carroll, Charles (Jack) Frost, Ugo Giuntini, Elna Gries, Elva Quarn-

A Cappella Choir Will Sing at Next Assembly

The A Cappella Choir will sing at the assembly on February 23 when Dr. Hulme of Stanford University presents his lecture to the student body.

The choir will sing the following numbers:

Gloria Patri—Palestrina.

O Cast Me Not Away From Thy Countenance—Brahms.

A June Moonrise—Delameter.

The Gloria Patri is written for double chorus. The second chorus part will be sung by a quartet composed of Dorothy Jones, soprano; Emy Lou Grove, alto; James Hemphill, tenor, and William Morehouse, bass.

The second number of the series is the most difficult one that the choir will sing this year, according to Edmund V. Jeffers, director of the organization. It is Contrapuntal in construction. The main theme which is introduced by the tenors appears many times and each time with a more interesting harmonization.

"A June Moonrise" was composed by the assistant conductor of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. It is written for eight parts and is modern in harmony.

This appearance of the Choir will be the first public presentation since the combined concert in December.

TO SPEAK AT CHURCH

"Why I am a Christian" will be the subject of an address by Leo G. Schussman, professor of education, at the Eureka Methodist Church Sunday, February 25, at 7:30 p. m.

VARSITY FIVE MEETS SAN FRANCISCO STATE

COLLEGE SQUAD WILL LEAVE EARLY TOMORROW FOR BAY REGION

Second inter-collegiate competition for the Humboldt State cagers is slated for San Francisco this week end with the locals meeting the Teachers College there in the annual two-game series. Last year the S. F. quintet won both games with Humboldt and with the same players back again this spring should prove formidable opposition for the Humboldters.

Coach Fred Telonicher will leave early Friday morning with about 12 players. A number of students here will also accompany the team on the trip and together with alumni and former students should make a fair rooting section for the Arcata squad.

The usual starting line-up of

STUDENT BODY TO BE ADMITTED FREE

All students will be admitted to the production of the dramatics department to be given this semester free of charge. However, those wishing to attend the plays will have to present their student body cards and obtain tickets in advance of the date on which the play is to be given so the dramatics department will be able to ascertain just how many tickets may be offered for sale outside of the school.

There will be three programs offered by the dramatics department during the semester, the first of which is a three-act play entitled "Death Takes a Holiday" upon which the work of production is well under way, according to Garf B. Wilson, assistant professor of speech arts at H. S. T. C.

Mr. Wilson states that he has inaugurated a new method of production with this play—all the characters learned their parts before any action on the stage was attempted, and in the instructor's opinion the plan is very successful.

The stage settings for "Death Takes a Holiday" are being designed and made under the direction of John Van Duzer who is being assisted by Harmon Minor, Raymond Hudson, Bruce Compton and Jack Lennox, who are all members of the dramatic workshop.

Sophomores Will Give St. Patrick's Assembly

Saint Patrick's Day will furnish the theme for the assembly to be given on March 16 under the direction of the Sophomore class, it was decided in a class meeting held in the college auditorium last Monday noon.

Dorothy Yackley and Louise Parker were appointed co-chairmen of the affair, and state that they are going to put on an assembly that no one can afford to miss.

Senior Student Must Fill Out Questionnaire

Because many superintendents request information about activities of teachers while in college, the graduates of Humboldt in the future will be required to fill out a detailed account of all student activities engaged in by semester while attending college.

Students fill out this questionnaire just before graduation.

STUDENT BODY MEETS IN ASSEMBLY TODAY

Classes will be excused from 10 a. m. to 11 a. m. today to attend the regular monthly Student Body meeting which was to be held tomorrow. The change has been made in order that the meeting may be combined with a rally for the college basketball team, which is leaving for San Francisco Friday morning, where they will play two games with San Francisco State.

Everybody should attend this meeting, according to James Hemphill, student body president, because the revised constitution is to come before the meeting for approval, and because we ought to show the boys on the team that we are behind them.

Committee Appointed To Y. M. C. A. Work

A committee consisting of Mr. Delbert Jeffers, Mr. Bert Wilson and Mr. Henry T. Cluxton will be the advisory group for this year's Y. M. C. A. work. This committee will have two definite advising responsibilities; one, the College Y organization, the other Friendly Indians. The Friendly Indian groups are composed of Elementary School boys, with College Y boys as leaders and sponsors.

As yet no program has been adopted for the coming year. It is probable that there will be no definite work other than athletics, social work and the discussion of international problems.

Debate Presented for Social Science Group

Pi Alpha Pi's regular meeting February 6 was devoted to a formal debate upon the question "Resolved: that the State of California Should Adopt Compulsory Employment Insurance" between an affirmative team consisting of Ruth Carroll and Louis Tallman and a negative team consisting of Ugo Giuntini and Wayne Keltner. The membership of the fraternity acting as judges awarded the decision to the affirmative.

Several New Books Feature Rental Shelf

"First to Go Back, an Aristocrat in Soviet Russia" by Irina Skariatina, author of "A World Can End;" "Rabble in Arms" by Kenneth Roberts, author of "Arundel;" "Testament of Youth" by Vera Brittain, and "The Thin Man," a detective story, by Dashiell Hammett, are the new books on the rental shelf in the library this week.

W. A. A. TO GIVE WOMEN'S PLAY DAY

ELEANOR RENFRO WILL BE CHAIRMAN OF SPORTS DAY ON MARCH 22

An all-college woman play-day will be held March 22 from 4 till 9 under the auspices of the Women's Athletic Association. Eleanor Renfro has been named general chairman of the project which will be a lower classmen's affair in the main. All the women at Humboldt, students and faculty alike, will be invited to participate in the individual "sports-fest" from 4 till 6, the banquet and program from 6 till 7:30, and social games and dancing during the remainder of the evening.

The theme of the afternoon will be "March Winds" into which a four squad and subdivision system fit nicely. Leaders of the North, South, East and West Winds (squads) will be Dorothy Williams, Elva Quarnheim, Janet Stewart and Alice Porter. Squads will be chosen several days before the play day and squad leaders will work hard to get their entire group to attend.

A feature of the day will be an exhibition 30-minute basketball game between two honor teams chosen by a committee including Miss Craig and Miss Wright and the W. A. A. basketball manager, Zorie Ivanchich. This game will correspond to the one played before the Student Body last year, which was won decisively by the Green team.

Committee chairmen announced by Eleanor Renfro, general chairman, and Ruth Carroll, president of W. A. A., are as follows: Sports, Mary Shinn; waitresses, Edith Reback; decoration, Katherine Crivelli; program, Alice Barter; publicity, Elva Baumgartner; Posters, Eleanor Ritola; mimeographing, Lucille Winter; songs and music, Janet Woodcock; clean-up, Margery Brenner. Complete committees will be posted on the bulletin board soon.

Class Surveys Line; Doubts Construction

The profile level for a street car line from the end of the sidewalk south of the dormitory, around the base of the hill north of the campus, and thence along the east side of the building to the gymnasium has been laid out. Homer L. Arnold, professor of mathematics, under whose direction the project was carried out by the surveying class stated that he could not hold out hopes of the actual construction of the proposed street car line being started in the immediate future, and that it has not yet been decided whether electric street cars or horse cars will be adopted as standard should construction of the line be authorized.

SPEAKS TO KIWANIS

Herbert Moore, H. S. T. C. Sophomore, gave a short talk before the Arcata Kiwanis Club last Friday noon relating his experiences at the Y. M. C. A. convention held at Asilomar in the early part of January.

You's and Me's

You play football, I sing in the choir; you're in the all-college play, I'm on the swimming team; you study French, I speak Spanish; you write poetry, and I edit the sport page. In other words, what makes our college if it isn't just "you and me?"

It takes all sorts of personalities, interests and purposes to make a real school. Here we are—all different, yet all perfectly human collegians. How trite—impossible for all of us to believe and do exactly the same things! No, you do this and I do that—just to balance things a bit. Only preserve the beauty of what you ARE.

Let's "you and me" be mutually sympathetic—good sports in appreciating each other's interests.

College Success and Health

In case of war, how many of us would be fit physically? In the World War, 30 per cent. of the drafted men were unfit for service. While 90 per cent. of the rejected men were able to perform their civilian duties, it shows that 30 per cent. of the flower of American manhood, ages 21 to 31, are not able to function in activities of great physical stress. We do not know how many college men were unfit, though we do know that some brilliant college men and women, graduating with high scholastic honors are physical wrecks unable to carry on the duties they trained to perform.

How many of us have definite health programs which include regular physical exercises and everyday health habits? By proper scheduling our daily routine, it is possible to carry heavy college programs and yet build up strong physiques. Success and happiness in college and in life are largely dependent upon good health.

What can Humboldt do for our health's sake?

ARTHUR S. GIST,
President.

Shall We

According to an announcement made by the Physical Education Department last week, the courses in Free Play Tennis, Golf and Archery may be dropped from the list next fall if those who are now taking the courses do not fulfill the requirements more satisfactorily than they are doing at present.

It seems very inconsiderate of these few seniors to abuse the privileges of Free Play in such a way that the convenience of such a course will not be available for those who need it in the future.

Come on, seniors, let's get those slips in every week and keep the course in Free Play on the schedule of classes for next fall.

Wilson Tells Students
Of Debate Experiences

"Love and Anglo-American relations are two of the most important things in the world," quoted Garf Wilson, dramatic instructor, during a travelogue on his debating experiences in England which he told before the student body Friday morning at 10 a. m.

With a series of humorous incidents, Mr. Wilson pictured the man who began in protoplasm and ended up as the Englishman. The speaker learned a good deal about English etiquette and customs in the first week. He learned that being late to dinner or tea, in England, was an unpardonable act and to avoid dining with "Great Stone Faces" they found it necessary to walk around the block and back and forth before the house 15 minutes to the hour, ring the door bell on the second to enjoy very limber and enjoyable social affairs.

During their stay in England, the members of the international debating team competed at the Universities of Liverpool, Sheffield, Nottingham, Redding, Kings, and the London School of Economics, besides Oxford and Cambridge universities.

The debating halls in the English universities are architecturally patterned after the House of Commons. And their method of debating is in vivid contrast to that of the Americans. Every member of the audience enjoys a vital part in the debate through his privilege of speaking for five minutes previous to the main debate. This same audience decides upon the winners.

"That the American Doctrine of Prosperity is Secure" was the debate of the American team in one instance. (But that took place in 1930.) One English debator declared that he wished to God the pilgrims had never landed on Plymouth Rock, but he did wish that the Plymouth Rock had landed on the pilgrims. He said that there was no room in America and so she pushed her statue of liberty into the ocean. After the first debate, one of the newspapers referred to the American Debating team with the "talking picture accents."

"The famous English hospitality taught us to eat seven meals a day. We saw a lot, we did a lot, we learned a lot, and left England expanded in both mind and body."

C. C. C. Will Elect
Officers for Semester

Election of officers, discussion of projects to be undertaken during the present semester, and refreshments will feature a meeting of the College Civic Club in the Social Unit tonight at 7:30.

The College Civic Club, one of the oldest organizations on the campus, consisted originally of students enrolled in the current class in "Education for Citizenship" taught by Leo G. Schussman, professor of education, but this year has been enlarged to include all the former members of the club numbered among both present student body and alumni.

The constitution of the Civic Club adopted during the fall semester provides for the election of the vice-president by members of the current class in "Principles of Education" ("Education for Citizenship" having been dropped from the curriculum) and the election of the president and other officers by the membership of the club at large. Bertil Munther, senior class president, is vice president of the Civic Club.

During the nine years of its existence the C. C. C. has carried through unaided many projects for the betterment of the college, and has inaugurated others in the completion of which the administration and other student organizations have co-operated. Building a fireplace on Council Crest was the project undertaken during the fall.

SACRAMENTO, Cal. (UP)—Improved economic conditions are making the work of traffic officers more difficult every day.

"Improved conditions bringing a return of normal traffic volume, the advent of new model automobiles with more powerful motors, and the insistent demand for the privilege of speeding on the part of the public, do not favor enforcement agencies with much prospect for immediate improvement in respect to traffic deaths" the California highway patrol recently reported to Governor Rolph.

SAMOA EKES OUT LEAGUE VICTORY

The Samoa Blue Devils turned the tables on the Humboldt Staters Tuesday night and eked out a 23-22 victory after a thrilling contest which saw the Collegians in the lead throughout most of the game. A free throw in the final seconds of the game gave Samoa the win.

Previously the locals had won handily from the last place Blue Devils and figured to repeat in the recent battle. However, their opponents were clicking for the first time this year and were not to be denied.

June Fleishman, former college player, led the Samoa aggregation to victory with 10 points. Wayne Simpson, college guard and captain, accounted for 7 points besides playing a good floor game.

In the preliminary contest, the College Junior Varsity looked like a bunch of grammar school kids and dropped 17-27 game to the Samoa Factory Team. The J. V. cagers previously had swamped the Factory outfit but Tuesday night they couldn't shoot, pass, dribble, or even catch the ball.

This all goes to show that even the best of teams and players occasionally have off-nights—and what a night off they had.

Sunnari Team Takes First Game, 15-9

In the first game of the noon series for women, Martha Sunnari's aggregation won a victory over Marie Nordquist's team to the tune of 15-9, on Tuesday noon. Despite the slickness of the floor, the game was fairly fast and exciting. With but two minutes to go the score was 19-8 in favor of Sunnari, and it looked like anybody's game. But the winners scored five points in rapid succession to take the tilt.

The winners were led in scoring by their forward, Ruth Carroll, who scored eleven points, to take high scoring honors. The battle of centers was interesting, with Eleanor Renfro of the winners having but a slight edge on Emy Lou Grove of the losers.

The center throw was used in this first game and the results were so favorable that its use will be continued throughout the series. Margery Brenner's team will meet Muriel Thorn's group in another game today noon.

The following will give the line-ups of Tuesday's game:

Nordquist		Sunnari
Tamburovich, 6	R. Carroll, f, 11
Nordquist, g, 1	Neilson, f, 11

"Y" to Sponsor Next Student Dance

"The Farmers Ball" will be given as the student body dance for the month of March under the direction of the College "Y" on Feb. 23d in the college gymnasium from 9 p. m. until 12 p. m.

The gym will be decorated as a barn and those attending are expected to wear gingham and overalls. As there will be no admission charge, other than the presentation of student body cards and bids, the committee for the affair anticipates a large crowd.

The committees for this affair were appointed at the regular weekly meeting to the College Y. M. C. A. which was held in the form of a potluck dinner in the social unit on last Monday evening.

The chairman for the dance committees are as follows: Myron Schussman, music; Herbert Moore, decorations; Lester Linser, advertising; William Slade, refreshments, and Donald Parker, clean up.

Chico state team are members of the Far Western Conference. They are coached by Arthur L. Aker, now in his eleventh year as coach at Chico. During this time Aker's Chico basketball teams have won 129 games and lost 53.

The "Wildcats" have no regular captain, an appointed man leading them in each game. Last year, Chico State won eleven games and lost eleven. Some of their last year's victories were over the Olympic Club of San Francisco and over the University of Oregon.

Coach Aker believes the present squad of Chico State to be a better team than that which represented the school last season, but two regulars having been lost to the squad.

The present first string consists of Red Roberts, forward; Ernie Lambrecht, forward; "Red" Irwin, all-conference choice for center in the 1932 season, center; Bob Frost, guard; Eugene Maxey, guard.

"Red" Roberts is a sensation on the court, this being his first year of college basketball. He is a former Red Bluff high school player, and has been the most consistent scorer of the Wildcats this season.

Aker will bring ten men with him.

COLLEGE TROUNCES FERNDALDE FIVE

Paced by Earl Hemenway who dropped in 16 points the Humboldt State Teachers College varsity cagers took a 36-28 victory from the Ferndale Independents last Thursday evening. This was the first defeat this year for the Ferndale team on its own court.

The collegians ran up a good lead early in the game only to falter and let the Ferndalers even the fray in the middle of the second half. With five minutes left to play the Independents were ahead by one point, 27-26, but a determined rally by the Humboldters put the game on ice.

Bill Henders, college guard, broke in for four pretty field goals and aided greatly in the victory. All the other players went well.

At half-time the college was ahead, 21-16.

The line-ups and scores:

College (36)	Ferndale (28)
Hemenway, f, 16	Horr, f, 3

The symposium started with a dinner at the Fairmont Hotel on Monday night and continued throughout the next two days with sessions concerning economics, crime and education. Afternoon sessions were held on the S. F. S. T. C. campus, while the evening sessions took place at the War Memorial opera house.

Miller, San Francisco probation officer, Earl Warren, district attorney of Alameda County, Vierling Kersey and Dr. Percy Davidson of Stanford.

Among those who spoke of general economic conditions were: Dean Grady, Dr. Ewald Grether, Dr. Paul Cadman, Dr. Ira Cross and Dr. R. D. Calkins, all of the Economics Department of the University of California; F. L. Lippman of the Wells-Fargo Bank and Trust Company, Wesley Ash, assistant of George Creel, John Van Becker, Financial Editor of the Call-Bulletin, and John Barry of the San Francisco News.

The symposium was a difficult undertaking, but worthwhile, according to comments. Mary Margaret Davis was general chairman of the three-day session.

The discovery of the Standard Oil wells in Egypt resulted from a tip given in Exodus 11:3. "And daubed it with slime and with pitch." One of the directors who read this passage figured that where there is pitch there must be oil. A number of oil wells are now on the ground near where Moses was born.

Plans for a dance to be given in the College gymnasium on March 16 by the Rousers were completed at a meeting of the organization held recently, and the committees for the affair were selected.

Those in charge of the dance are: Herbert Moore, entertainment; Laurella Frakes, decorations; Terrence Atkinson, advertising; Jean Baldwin, refreshments, and Alice Barter, patrons and patronesses.

This dance is not a regular StudentBody dance; so there will be a charge of 25 cents a person made with the expectation of clearing a little money with which to buy the pins for the Rousers of next year.

Herbert Inskip and his orchestra will furnish the music.

Membership in the Student Teachers Club is limited to those who have done practice teaching. Miss Myrtle Sholty, director of teacher training, is faculty advisor.

Patch Quilt Won By Cal Kincaid

With "Bev's Girl Friends," five piece girl's orchestra, providing the music, the Patch Quilt Hop given last Friday night at the college gymnasium was pronounced a big success. The dance was given by the Senior class to raise money for the gift to be left to the school.

The Patch Quilt Hop was the second successful dance given by the Seniors this school year the first being the novel Kris Kringle Hop.
