NEW GRID RULES WOULD OPEN GAME

CERTAIN PROPOSED CHANGES
WOULD ALSO FAVOR SMALL
SCHOOLS, ERB THINKS

The proposed new football rules if adopted, will open up the game and give the smaller team more offensive advantage than at present, where defense overbalances offense, believes Charlie Erb, the new Humboldt State football coach.

Erb is of the opinion that the proposed change in the forward pass rule which would allow the forward passer to pass from any point behind the line of scrimmage would cause the secondary defense to play deeper and allow the running game to open up.

Another proposed change that Erb would like to see made is that the defensive players be allowed to run with the ball when recovered from a fumbled punt. He believes that this would make the game far more spectacular.

One rule that Erb is not in sympathy with is the proposed change of having five downs instead of four in which to make the usual ten yards.

This rule was advanced to eliminate the wasting of a down by the offensive team, when it is deep in its own territory and usually has to kick on third down. Erb is an advocate of the kicking game, and believes the proposed rule would prove inadequate.

Jenkins Will Offer Course in Pottery

A course in pottery for regular students will be given next semester by H. R. Jenkins of the industrial arts department. The course given this fall was for townspeople not regularly enrolled but was not offered for college students.

Mr. Jenkins, who was for three years owner of a commercial pottery shop, will teach the work so that students may make articles for sale as well as for their own use.

TO VISIT YOSEMITE

Miss Florence Shearer of the physical education department, will go to San Francisco when the holidays begin. She will spend Christmas day in Stockton, and then go to Yosemite for a few days.

Late Registration To Bring Penalty

A fee of two dollars must be paid by all students of the Humboldt State College, who fail to pre-register before Saturday, of this week, December 22.

Students who have not made out their programs for the spring semester should see their advisor at once, according to Miss Imogene Platt, Humboldt State registrar.

PUPILS WILL SING CHRISTMAS CAROLS

A Christmas Carol Musicales will be given by the pupils of the College Elementary School at a special assembly Friday, at 11 a. m., December 21. Since every child in the school has a part in the program, several of the classes have written invitations to their parents and friends to attend.

The program, under the direction of Mrs. Marie Clark Ostrander, associate professor of music, will consist of Christmas carols. Some are sung by quartettes, some by one or several grades, and several by the entire school.

During the recessional, "Oh Come, All Ye Faithful," each child and teacher will deposit in a gift box a package containing something which can be used to help fill the welfare association Christmas baskets.

Hicklin Will Teach Course in Reporting

In addition to the regular course in news writing, a course in reporting will be given next semester by Maurice Hicklin of the English department, who is "Lumberjack" advisor.

The course, which will carry one unit of credit, will be an individual conference course in which students will write for the "Lumberjack" and also possibly gather news to be turned over to the regular correspondents of the Arcata Union and of the Eureka papers.

Any student who has passed the regular course in news writing will be eligible. Others who have not taken a course in news writing but who have had previous experience on papers are asked to confer with Mr. Hicklin about their preparation, if they wish to enroll.

GOING TO LOS ANGELES

GOING TO IDAHO

ERB IS LINING UP TENTATIVE GAMES

HUMBOLDT'S GRID SCHEDULE
TO INCLUDE FROSH TEAMS
FROM UNIVERSITIES

Coach Charles Erb is lining up a tentative schedule that includes the Freshman teams of the University of California, Stanford University, St. Mary's and Santa Clara, and also the Santa Rosa Junior College, San Francisco State Teachers College, and the colorful Cardinal Athletic Club.

The cardinal Athletic Club was organized by Sydney Snow, known as a big game hunter as well as an athletic coach. This club is made up of former high school stars who are in private schools.

The Cardinal Athletic Club defeated the Wrestlers' Football team last Sunday at Oakland 13 to 7. Although conceding the heavier wrestling team thirty pounds per man, the lighter Athletic Club team pushed around their bulky opponents that contained former college allmanaries.

Freshman Men Hear Address by Jenkins

Probably the greatest award that a doctor can get is the satisfaction of correcting human faults or deformities, Dr. H. L. Jenkins, college physician, told the freshman boys' orientation class recently.

Prospects for students in medicine are discouraging because of the high scholastic standards and service mental and physical tests they must be able to pass, Dr. Jenkins said.

In the United States today there are only 66 schools that are eligible to graduate competent students. This number is expected to be reduced greatly by the American Medical Schools because of the excess number of doctors that are being graduated.

Library Will Stay Open Part of Time

No regular schedule will be kept and students and faculty members should phone the office, if they wish to make sure that the library is open, according to C. E. Graves, librarian.

CAMP FIRE COURSE

A Camp Fire Leader's training course will be offered next semester by Miss Lynn Cowgill, County Camp Fire Executive. This course will be given at 10 o'clock on Wednesdays for a nine weeks period and will carry one-half unit of credit.

DAUGHTER TO VISIT

Leo Schussman of the college faculty, will motor to Miramar this week-end, and bring his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth McDonald, and her two children, Barbara and Ellen, back to spend their holidays here.

Science Club Plans To Visit Oil Fields

An opportunity to visit the fields where the Texaco Oil Company is drilling wells, will be afforded members of the Science Club soon. The students will be directed by Donald Hughes, Texaco geologist.

Arrangements for the trip were made by J. Wendell Howe of the faculty, club advisor.

PRO MUSICA WILL PUT ON ASSEMBLY

Members of the Pro Musica, college music society, will present a Christmas assembly at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning in the auditorium. Marie Nordquist is chairman of the program committee.

A presentation will be made to the college by Mrs. Vernon J. Puryear and a program of vocal and instrumental Christmas music will be given. The program is planned as follows:

Christmas Carols—A Cappella Choir women.
Vocal Solos—Elaine Haley.
Christmas Story—Margaret McCammon.
Solos—Training school pupils.
Instrumental Trio.
Vocal Solos—Mrs. Alson Brizard.
Community carol singing.

Students in Surveying To Map Playing Field

The three sections of the surveying class will each make a projection map of Humboldt's athletic field before this semester is finished. This project is the last of a series of ten field experiments which first-year surveying students must complete as class laboratory work.

The map of each group will include the exact position of the outside lines of the field, where the bleachers will be built on either side of the field, and where the gymnasium is situated in respect to the football field.

HOLIDAYS IN SOUTH

Miss Louise Struve, dean of women and associate professor of home economics at Humboldt, will spend the holidays at her home in Watsonville, California.

WILL GO NORTH

CHOIR WILL SING CAROLS TONIGHT

A CAPPELLA GROUP TO GIVE
CONCERT IN AUDITORIUM;
PUBLIC IS INVITED

A Christmas Carol Service by candlelight will be presented this Thursday evening by the A Cappella Choir of Humboldt State College. Traditional Carols from Bohemia, Germany, France, England and Haiti will be sung. These old carols are exceptionally beautiful according to the director, Edmund Jeffers, but most of them are rarely used.

A brass quartet composed of Ruth Carroll and Marseille Spetz, trumpets; Merle Morton, French horn, and Gerald Geiger, trombone, will open the program by playing several of the better known carols, which include the following:

"Break-Forth, Ye Beauteous, Heavenly Light," Bach; "The First Noel;" "Adeste Fideles."

The Rev. Charles T. Leachman of Eureka will read Sentences appropriate to the Christmas season.

The setting of the service is being planned, Mr. Jeffers says, in such a way as to enhance the beauty and the mysticism of the carols. It is planned to make the service very informal. The auditorium will be decorated with holly wreaths and green garland. Candles, only will be used for lighting in the auditorium and on the stage.

The service is not invitational although invitations are being mailed to people in the college mailing list. The public is invited to attend and no admission will be charged.

"Tenebrae Factae Sunt"—Palestrina.

"Sleep of the Child Jesus"—Gevaert.

"Noel Nouvelet"—Old French carol.

"This Endris Night"—Old English carol.

"Still Grows the Evening"—Traditional—Bohemian.

"Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming"—Praetorina.

The program will be held in the college auditorium and will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

Miss Ruth Bestor, associate professor of education, who will spend Christmas in Redlands, California, plans to attend the Rose Carnival in Pasadena during the holidays.

Tennis

There is an abundance of tennis championship material at Humboldt State, and the old adage, "Practice Makes perfect" should not be slighted.

The elimination process for the selection of the tennis team to represent Humboldt is under way, but there is not enough enthusiasm among the students.

The plan for this year is extensive. Games with Marin Junior College, Sacramento Junior College, San Mateo Junior College, Stanford Frosh, San Jose State, Santa Rosa Junior College, Chico State, San Francisco State and California Frosh are being negotiated.

Any person who is a fair player should go out for the team, and other students should back the team as well as they did the football team by attending the tournaments which will be held on the local courts.

On Vocations

For the past semester speakers have been presented to the freshman orientation class at various times to talk on "Vocation Guidance". The practice of doing this was started by the Arcata Kiwanis Club, and they hope to continue with their work in the coming semesters.

It is the general opinion that the college owes a great deal of thanks to the Kiwanis Club for giving up some of their time in order that college students should have a better look into the business field. Particularly to be thanked are Robert H. Poultny, of the Humboldt State faculty and who is also president of the local organization, and Allen Ham, chairman of the committee in charge of getting the speakers.

Times Were Not Always Thus For Commuters of College

The forty-five Humboldt students who have commuting tickets on the college bus which comes from Eureka, travel together a total of 720 miles each day. The seven who come on the Blue Lake-Korbel bus cover, taking all their mileage, 196 miles. The mileage covered by the twelve students who drive from Fortuna and Ferndale is equivalent to a daily round trip to San Francisco. There are an average of thirty cars parked in front of the college during school hours; these come from Crannell, Trinidad, Eureka and way-points.

Anyone who craves statistics could figure how many commuting-to-college miles are covered to enable Humboldt students to attend one day's classes.

Times were not always thus. The little shed at the foot of the hill marks the spot where, until 1928, "Old 119", the mixed train from Eureka, stopped each morning with the students who commuted from Eureka. Late in the afternoon it came to take them home. Since fewer people had cars, and the roads were far from perfect, a greater percent of the students stayed in Arcata. Sunset Hall and the Boys' Dormitory (where the Industrial Arts shops now are) were always filled.

But train service was a miracle compared with the long-ago method of coming to the college hill. An old pioneer who lives near the campus says that his father, who in 1852 drove a herd of horses from Kentucky to the Arcata bottoms, always declared that the journey from Eureka to the foot of the hill where Arcata was later built, was one of the most difficult stretches of the journey. For ten days after leaving Eureka his party fought their way through thimble-berry thickets, fern-brakes, and cut-grass swamps, and followed up muddy sloughs around Freshwater and Bayside before they arrived near the future site of H. S. T. C.

In Other Colleges

The "Penguin", humor magazine, of Sacramento J. C., will list the forty best dates in the school in their next issue. Humboldt's men wouldn't have to worry if such a list were compiled here. (All forty would have to be on it.)

Here's another opinion of the Honor System. The "Daily Californian" says that the professors have the honor and the students have the system.

St. Mary's and Santa Clara debate teams will meet to debate the proposition, "Resolved: That the constitution should be abolished." St. Mary's will uphold the affirmative and Santa Clara the negative.

A critic on the "Spartan Daily" of San Jose State says the recent production of "Death Takes a Holiday" which was given there was not a complete success because the actors "lacked imagination" in the interpretation of their parts.

In order to avoid riots by outsiders, the Saint Mary's and Santa Clara student officials have agreed not to hold serpentine after the games in front of the rival rooting sections.

A successful showing of "Grass", full length motion picture sponsored by the Geography class, was held on Monday, December 19, in the college auditorium. The picture is the first of a series to be sponsored by the class.

INSTRUCTOR IN PULPIT

Prof. Leo G. Schussman, of the psychology department of Humboldt State Teachers College, filled the pulpit at the Scandinavian Methodist Church in Eureka, last Sunday, taking the place of the Rev. Carl Elkas. Mr. Schussman spoke on "The Christmas spirit and Youth."

Girls of Dormitory Planning Trips Home

The Girls' Dormitory will be practically deserted by 8 o'clock Friday evening of this week, as nearly all of the girls plan to leave for their various destinations as soon as their classes will permit.

Miss Louise Struve, head resident, will spend her holidays in Watsonville, Margaret McCannon in Petaluma, Mary Shinn in Honeydew, Janet Robison in Bandon and Portland, Oregon; Annabelle Stockton in Shively.

Emy Lou Grove, Dorothy McGovern and Marjorie Brenner will be in Scotia, Gladys Marke in Carlotta, Evelynne Rhea in Cummings, Barbara Jane Gries and Evelyn Renner in Ferndale, Lydia Biasca in Metropolitan, Doris Clark in Potter Valley, and Eleanor Renfro in Kelseyville. Miss Renfro will also be in Berkeley after New Year's.

Kenneth Cooperrider Home from University

Kenneth Cooperrider of Arcata, now graduate student in English at the University of California, was a visitor at the college Tuesday. He took his first two years of work at Humboldt, then transferred to Stanford, where he obtained his A. B., majoring in English.

He then worked as a reporter on the Oakland Post-Enquirer and later entered the University of California where he is now working towards his master's degree in English. He plans to continue for the Ph. D.

While at Humboldt, Cooperrider was college correspondent for the Humboldt Times, played flute in the college orchestra, and was also a member of the former "Humboldt Collegians," the group of student entertainers that used to tour Redwood Empire towns.

He is a brother of Clare Cooperrider, now a freshman student at Humboldt State. Another brother, Karl, also attended Humboldt and is likewise now a student at the University of California.

Commons Is Planning For Christmas Party

A Christmas dinner party is being planned by Miss Louise Struve to be given this Thursday night at the College Commons. There will be a program and community singing, after which presents will be exchanged when Santa pays the party a visit.

Guests for the evening will include President and Mrs. Arthur S. Gist, Dr. and Mrs. Homer P. Balabanis, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wendell Howe, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Telonicher.

Astronomy Society Plans to Continue

The six months trial period of the Northwestern Astronomy Society came to an end recently when it was decided at a meeting of 40 members in the Eureka City Library that the society will continue indefinitely.

Prof. J. Wendell Howe of Humboldt State Teachers College, president of the society, and Miss Norma Maloy, secretary, were re-elected.

Howe spoke on the stars and showed a moving picture of the planets. John Gallop, Humboldt State student, explained the movements of the planets as the film was shown.

Miss Norma Thurston spoke on the work of the latitude observatory in Ukiah and a book report was given by Leslie Wattenburger, former student.

HOLIDAYS IN S. F.

Miss Belle Dickson, assistant professor of education, will spend the Christmas holidays in San Francisco and Oakland.

Metal Crafts Course For Next Semester

Metal Crafts will be offered next term by R. Jenkins, professor of industrial arts. The course will cover all phases of malleable metal hammering, stone grinding and polishing.

Students planning to take this course are asked to start collecting stones and getting new ideas for stone grinding.

INSTRUCTOR'S BOOK IS TO BE PUBLISHED

Publication of the book "Diplomacy and International Economics in the Near East," which was written by Dr. Vernon J. Puryear, professor of social science in Humboldt State College, seemed assured here today. In a recent communication with Dr. Puryear, Prof. E. P. Cheney, chairman of the publications committee of the American Historical Association, announced that the book will be appraised by the committee, and probably published as soon as funds are available by one of three different National Research organizations.

The book is based on a study of the British commercial policy in the Levant during the years 1800 to 1850, and represents four years work of research and writing.

Science Club Hears Talk About Oysters

The possibility of a twenty-million dollar industry in Humboldt Bay's 8,000 acres of mud flats was explained Tuesday evening by Harvey C. McMillan, biologist for Humboldt County, in a talk before the college Science Club.

He showed several species of oysters and explained the method by which they attach themselves to clam shells and other solid matter and grow until the reefs prove to be hindrances to navigation.

"Oysters on the half shell" were eaten by the more adventurous members of the club.

Preceding the meeting a dinner was served at tables decorated in red and green with "gumdrop daschunds" as favors. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan, J. Wendell Howe, club advisor, and Mrs. Howe were guests. Christmas gifts were exchanged after the meeting.

Civic Club Holding

Dance at Noon Today

The College Civic Club will hold a noon dance today in the "Big Gym." Various Christmas gifts will be given to some of the dancers and a door prize will be offered.

The purpose of the dance is to raise money to complete the gift the club is leaving to the school. The gift is several cement benches to be placed in the College Court.

The benches are being made by the club with the help of Gillis Courtwright, and Horace Jenkins of the faculty. Money for one bench has been raised and the bench started. The club hopes to make enough on their noon dance next week to defray expenses of the other two.

Members of W. A. A. Give Christmas Party

The W. A. A. Christmas party held Wednesday evening of this week in the College Commons and the small gymnasium. Each girl attending brought a gift, which Santa Claus distributed.

A program was presented and refreshments served. Social dancing was held in the gymnasium.

The committees in charge of the party, were general chairman, Frances Monahan; publicity chairman, Minnie Barlow; Gladys Marke, Bessie March; decoration chairman, Catherine Bull; June Baumgartner, Jean McLean, Jeanne Lawyer; entertainment chairman, Wilma Bishop; Eileen McNally, Margaret Hutcheson, Emy Lou Grove; refreshments chairman, Betty Fautz, Frances Paulsen, Eleanor Brown, Jane Brigden; Clean up chairman, Claire Cooperrider; Mary McCutcheon, Ethel Anderlini, Anna Armstrong.

Honor Society Will Sponsor Noon Dance

Chi Sigma Epsilon, senior honor fraternity, will sponsor a noon dance Friday, Dec. 21, at which a turkey and a duck will be awarded to the dancers.

Chi Sigma Epsilon will make visits to the various high schools in the county with news of Humboldt State College and her activities next semester, and the dance is to help finance the work. Alma Ruth Sweet is the general chairman in charge of the noon dance and is being assisted by the "Rousers", sophomore honor society.

A Cappella Choir to Sing at Brizard's

The A Cappella Choir of Humboldt State will receive twenty-five dollars from Brizard's of Arcata for their singing of Christmas carols in the store tomorrow afternoon.

INSTRUCTOR TELLS OF HAWAIIAN FETE

For their Christmas dinner, native Hawaiians serve the same delicacies which generations of Pacific island people have feasted upon, according to Miss Louise Struve, associate professor of home economics. Miss Struve, while teaching in the Kamehameha schools in Honolulu, had opportunity to observe several of the Hawaiian luau, or holiday feasts.

People who have gone to Hawaii from the states, Miss Struve says, feature the Old English menus in planning their Christmas dinners. Because of the tropical climate, people often take their Christmas trees and set them in the sand for a beach party; the guests usually go swimming or boat riding; but they have their plum-pudding and fruit cake the same as we do.

For Christmas feasts among the native Hawaiians, however, tropical foods are prepared the same today as they were when the mutineers from the "Bounty" lived on Pitcairn's Island. A typical dinner will include: pigs, roasted whole, cooked by being stuffed with hot rocks and buried in a roasting pit; baked sweet potatoes; fish wrapped in ti leaves and cooked underground; raw fish and raw liver; cocoanut pudding; lomi-lomi salmon cooked with tomatoes; bananas and pineapple; cocoanut milk and pineapple juice. "Ti" leaves are about three feet long and 19 inches wide; "lomi-lomi" salmon is similar to Pacific coast salmon.

The natives measure the success of the party by the size of the crowd and the length of time that the guests can continue to eat. About the third day after the feast starts the last guest is usually satisfied and the party is declared over.

College Dramatics Department Holds Midnight Treasure Hunt

"Rax! Rax! me hurt in feet," another clue, another password, another chase and the treasure at the end of the trail drew nearer and nearer.

"These were just a few of the magic words which surprised Humboldt County residents from Field's Landing to Trinidad last Saturday evening when the College Dramatics Department 'Treasure Hunt' led over 50 students and instructors on a cross-country chase.

After the 7 o'clock dinner at the Big Four Inn the first clue was given out. The clue was a rhyme given characteristics of the place where the next clue could be obtained. If it happened to be the right place and if the right password was given to the right person the second clue and second password was secured.

Nine clues and nine passwords led from the Big Four to Bella Vista to "Gus" to Mrs. Elma Folsom's to the Vance Hotel to the Sportsman's Club to the Police Station to Mitchell's Store to the "treasure", which was a box of chocolates.

The car piloted by "Bob" Caviness reached the treasure first but was closely followed by Wayne Simpson's party.

The consolation prize would go to Fred Moore's party which, after leading for the first three clues, was detained by circumstances beyond its control.

A midnight supper was served at Mrs. Stella Little's "Cottage by the Sea", at Moonstone Beach, after the experiences of the evening had been related. "Santa Claus" distributed presents to everyone.

The "Treasure hunt" was planned and arranged by Garff Wilson and the members of the Dramatics Workshop.

Those who attended the treasure hunt and midnight supper were:
