Radio Program Shorter Tonight

Because of a temporary difficulty at station KIEM, the college radio program will be only 15 minutes long; from 7 to 7:15 p. m., for the next few weeks.

Features of tonight's program will be a saxophone solo by Alvin Biondini, piano selections, and a talk by Rod Belcher.

Keith Emenegger will be the master of ceremonies and is also in charge of the radio program. Keith welcomes any talent and would welcome any suggestions for the improvement of the program.

Gridiron Dance Saturday Night

The Eureka Chapter De Molay is sponsoring a football dance for the Humboldt State and Cal-Poly football teams next Saturday night at the Masonic Temple in Eureka.

Having had great success in last year's gridiron dance, the De Molay's are again planning to entertain players, students and their friends at this social event. Present plans include the Humboldt State College's own orchestra, "Pedro Elmore's Boys," complete football decorations, a nominal sum for admittance and a good time for all between nine and twelve Saturday night.

Dates for the Cal-Poly boys will be secured among the H.S.C. coeds.

Twenty-two Girls Rooming at Dorm

The dormitory girls have been attending many social affairs lately. Last week they visited at Miss Platt's cabin at Big Lagoon. They also went to the rally at the Vance Hotel and afterwards attended a picture show.

Girls staying at the dormitory are: Anne Biasca, Mary Biasca, Nathalie Brenner, Fortuna; Dorothy Della Valle, Waukegan; Doris Goff, Ferndale; Gladys Grove Scotia; Hazel Hagne, Covelo; Mary Handshy, Watsonville; Arline Harrington, Crescent City; Jayn Harville, Solano; Audrey Hayes, Hayward; Elaine Johnson, Weott; Marion Kemp, and Joy Stockton, Shively; June McGombs, Hoopa; Bettie McWhorter, Kneeland; Charlene Renfro, Crannell; Dolores Scholl and Mary Scholl, Ukiah; Marthabel Scott, San Francisco; Viola Stansberry, Hydesville; and Beryl Unsoeld, Coquille.

Humboldters Attend S. J. Game

Among those traveling to the San Jose-Humboldt football game were Dr. and Mrs. Vernon Puryear and Helen Hansen of Davis and Oden Hansen of Sacramento.

Dr. Puryear was a former faculty member of Humboldt while Miss Hansen attended here, later transferring to Cal Aggies. Oden Hansen, a former student body president and graduate of Humboldt, is now teaching in the Sacramento valley.

Mary Scholl was confined to her room at the dormitory for several days last week with a cold, but she is now able to attend classes.

H. S. C. Overpowered By Power House Spartan Team

Just too much and too good for Humboldt. That is the consensus of opinion about the San Jose-Humboldt State game. San Jose scored seven touchdowns, five of them through the air. If H. S. C. had been able to cope with the superb passing attack of the Spartans perhaps the score would have been 20-0 in favor of San Jose.

San Jose scored early in the first quarter and in the second quarter ran rough shod over Humboldt by ringing up four more touchdowns. They were held scoreless in the third quarter and then they added two more in the last quarter to bring the final count to 48 to 0.

Humboldt never was in a scoring position, and at no time did their ground or aerial attack show any of the vaunted strength. The team as a whole came through the game with surprisingly few injuries. Only Mose Musante was seriously hurt. He will probably see no more action for the rest of the year. He sustained a badly injured knee as a result of a block put on him by Leroy Zimmerman.

Fall Play to Have Experienced Cast

Several experienced actors will take part in the coming play "The Night of January 16" to be presented by the dramatics department under the direction of Theodore Little. The tentative date for the play is the latter part of November. Such familiar names as Sherman Washburn, Laverne Elmore, Bill Inskip, and Beryl Unsoeld will appear on the cast of characters. The complete final selections for the parts will be known next week.

A campaign is to be launched for the selling of season tickets to the fall plays. The cost of the tickets will be $1. Tickets can be obtained from Theodore Little or John Van Duzer.

GATE RECEIPTS ARE ANNOUNCED

According to Mrs. Brookins, of the financial department, the gate receipts for the S.O.N.S.-H.S.C. game amounted to $754.80. Amount paid out for guarantees, officials, rental, gate keepers, lights, and incidentals amounted to $370.00. Total net profit was $384.80. This was a slight increase over last year's game.

MAY TAKE TEST

About fifty commercial students took the state civil service examination at the Eureka Junior High school last Tuesday. The tests given to students of Humboldt, Del Norte, Trinity, and Siskiyou counties were for typist, accountant and junior clerks. Students with the highest scores have the best chances for jobs.

Rod Belcher Will Announce Games

Rod Belcher, sophomore student at H. S. C. will assist on the public address announcing system for all the rest of Humboldt's football games and on some of the local high school games. He will share the announcing with M. A. Parry, owner of the public address equipment.

Garff Bell Wilson, former professor at H. S. C. did the announcing last year. Students will act as spotters and statisticians for the games will be Frank Saunderson, Bill Inskip, and the injured Moe Musante.

Chico Expedition Will Be Planned

Students start saving your nickels and dimes. Humboldt State travels to Chico Oct. 29, and plays there Saturday afternoon. The last game played at Chico, a great number of students went to Chico in a chartered bus. Why not this year? Now is the time to think about it and save your money for the trip. It is not a long trip and would not be as expensive as the San Jose trip. So think it over and plan to spend Oct. 8 in Chico.

The last game in Chico was 14-7 in favor of Humboldt. The football team says it will end the same way, only by a larger score. Come down to Chico and watch them prove it. ON TO CHICO!

Program Planned By Honor Society

Chi Sigma Epsilon and the Rousers are planning a program to be given soon to raise funds for the Chi Sigma Epsilon scholarship.

This scholarship, which covers general student fees for the freshman year, is donated by Chi Sigma Epsilon. It is awarded to a high school graduate of either Humboldt County or Del Norte County, on the basis of scholarship, character and participation in student activities. Students wishing to be considered for this scholarship must make formal application for it.

Humboldt college needs more scholarships of this kind and the Chi Sigma Epsilon project is one which deserves the support which has been given to it in the past by the entire student body.

Watch for the date!

DEMOTTE IN CHARGE OF STATE PUBLICITY

Buster DeMotte, former Humboldt student, is in charge of football publicity at Humboldt College. DeMotte also edits and has complete charge of the "Humboldt Gridiron," the official Humboldt football program. He is under a contract with the Associated Students, drawn and approved by the Executive Committee.

Sherman Washburn was in charge of the College Co-op during the two day absence of Bill Farber Co-op manager. Assisting Washburn was Ray Pedrotti. Manager Farber journeyed to San Jose with the varsity football squad on which he plays end.

Thunderbolts Will Battle Cal-Poly Saturday Afternoon

The same story. Humboldt State will again be outweighed and out-manned when they meet Cal-Poly Saturday afternoon in Albee Stadium. Although beaten badly by San Jose, the Thunderbolts are not down in spirit and they know they will have to and can win the rest of their games.

With only one serious injury the Humboldt State gridders are preparing for Saturday's fray. Cal-Poly was defeated last year by a score of 14-0, but from current reports they have a better team and a bigger one. Their line averages 190 pounds to the man and the backfield will average 173. When you take into consideration that Humboldt's line is just a little heavier than the Cal-Poly backfield you can see what our gridders will have to overcome. A twenty-pound weight advantage in the line for Cal-Poly. However, our lines have always been outweighed and the boys are used to it. The Cal-Poly team is coached by Howie O'Daniels, former Santa Clara star griddier, and he coaches the Notre Dame system of football.

Coach Hart is offering no excuses about the San Jose game, but says that the team will be a better playing outfit this week-end against Cal-Poly. He gave the Thunderbolts several new plays and ran them through a light signal drill.

The starting line-up was not given as yet but the following are expected to start for Cal-Poly: Clark, Hargrove, ends; Lewis, Gaurnelli, tackles; Schwandler, Snow, guards; Wineroth, center; Saenz, Tognetti, Hess, Lumley, backfield. For Humboldt: Farber, Givins, ends; McGrath, Foster, tackles; Gomes, Goble, guards; Madsen, center; Meneweather, Henderson, Lee, Ellis, backfield.

INSTRUCTOR ABSENT; CLASS CARRIES ON

During the recent absence of Dr. Vernon Tolle, the Philosophy of Education class carried on their regular class discussions.

Various student committees in charge of the forums which dealt with philosophical problems of life.

Dr. Tolle was attending an educational conference in Los Angeles last week, as was President Arthur S. Gist, and Miss Ruth Bestor and Miss Belle Dickson of the college Elementary School Staff.

Miss Ruth Bestor, Ann Craig, Sarah Davies and Adella Johnson have each taken an apartment in Mrs. Stella Little's new apartment building near the college.

Advice to American college youth was given recently in the Michigan Daily by Philip La Follette, governor of Wisconsin.

"Students in our colleges and universities, look at the person standing beside you. You and he are in danger of becoming part of another 'lost generation' for you have come into the full inheritance of the present tense.

"I know your yearning for self-justification and the joy that comes from service to an ideal greater than the individual. But that self-justification and joy can be found not three thousand miles away from your schools, but in the towns, cities, and villages in which you live. That selffulfillment can be found—it must be found—in solving the problems that make for war."

5. If you don't agree with the referee's decision, boo, boo and hiss as loud as you can; maybe he'll give them 5 more yards.

TEACHING AT SAN MATEO

Miss Zorie Ivancich, graduate of Humboldt State College, has accepted a position in the San Mateo Grammar School. While attending Humboldt, Miss Ivancich, who formerly taught at Warren Creek, majored in physical education and played an active part in all W. A. A. activities and sports. She will teach the high sixth grade and physical education.

Campus Commentator

What's worse than being a columnist when your predictions go awry? But nevertheless there'll always be a welcome on Humboldt's doormat for the Thunderbolts even though some of our out-of-town hosts don't prove to be very hospitable.

San Jose's intention of severing football relations with Humboldt is a little galling to an oldtimer who remembers when. We wonder if that stand goes for basketball too.

O'Brien's in the Spartan City, was the scene of a reunion after the game. We understand there was quite a gathering of Monday morning quarterback's there to hash over Humboldt's demise; and 'tis also rumored that the Coca Cola wasn't the only thing that was charged. Here's my five!

Well, Cal Poly is the next item on the docket. Last years 14-0 looked awfully pretty in headlines. We're rooting for a repeat performance. This will really be a presidential clash with Big Bob Madson and Big Nick Barbieri pitted against Big Harry Wineroth. We should get two touchdowns to Cal-Poly's one—don't you think?

Our candidate for the most versatile man at Humboldt is crooning Walt Monroe. Last week-end he wrestled the pots and pans with all the finesse of a Moe Mussante, controlled the dish washer in the kitchen with all the mechanical precision of a Herb Gomes, found his way around No-Man's Land (girls' dormitory) with all the skill of a Snooky Edsall, and entertained the football widows in the social unit with the combined abilities of the McGrath boys.

Redheads is the most unpredictable peoples. Take that Janie Shanessy, for instance. All by her little self she haunted the Thunderbolts, keeping their spirits high on the football special. And then there's that titian-haired Valerie Vann who monopolized one Greg McDonald when little Ginnie was flat on her back. And last but not least, the delectable Marjorie Barnes whom we had all picked out for Hack Biondini keeps on being true to that wolf in down town Arcata.

The casual observer may not have noticed with what meticulous care Dr. Tolle's handkerchief is placed in his upper left hand pocket—Or that Valerie Barker's corkscrew curls have found their way up to the top of her head—or that Hack Biondini's latest push is the flaxen-haired Francis Nye—or that Art (I still have one good arm) Keithley is being true to that girl from Santa Barbara by dividing his time between Ticky Petersen and Renfro of the Mounted.

Moe Musante's injured patella gives leave to break all sorts of training rules. Paramount among his infractions was a moonlight stroll down to Karl's with Mary Scholl. We understand he walked home with her, too, in the same moonlight. Mary is going to publish a book called: "How to Win Friends, and not be a Wallflower."

Tea Is Given by Honor Groups As Recognition To Students

The members of the two college scholastic honor societies, Chi Sigma Epsilon and the Rousers, gave an "honor tea" Tuesday afternoon in the social unit.

The tea table was decorated in the Humboldt colors, green and gold. Mrs. Monica Hadley, dean of women, and Miss Sarah Davies, president of the Faculty Women's Club, poured.

The afternoon's program consisted of piano solos by Verne Cooperrider and a reading, "The Americanization of Andre Francois," by Mrs. Elma Folsom. A personnel quiz, made up of questions pertaining to the various idiocyncrasia.

Will wonders never cease? Frank Steele who used to sing merely for the joy of singing now croons into a microphone, for jitter-bugs, the Royal Commanders, and pecuniary remuneration.

BOIL IT IN OIL

Maybe you editors don't think that football players ever have any time for the finer things in life, but I assure you, I spend many of my leisure hours reading, appreciating, and writing one of the greatest things in life...poetry.

Here is a sample of my work:
 When e'er I gaze into the stars above,
 I think of man's futility in life;
 How foolish are his wars and strife,
 And minute emotions—hate and love,
 When he is an inconsequential link
 In God's great chain of Universe.

The vastness of the limitless void above,
 O'ershadows all for which men live.
 Pleasure, thrills, the aforementioned love,
 Are passed to man through a celestial sieve
 That separates chaff from the Universe.

Sports Commentator Speaks His Piece on San Jose Game

By Red Belcher

The disastrous trip to San Jose proved only one thing: that San Jose is far beyond Humboldt's class. Humboldt never has, and probably never will compete against a team as powerful as the Spartans were on Friday night. The Spartans combined a crushing ground attack with a sharp-shooting aerial game, and the Thunderbolts never stood a chance. Weak tackling on the part of Humboldt helped the San Jose cause.

"Big Moe" Musante, who played great ball for Humboldt in the first half, was injured on the third play in the second half. Mose was going down under a punt and Leroy Zimmerman blocked him. Mose was carried off the field with his knee ligaments torn loose. He will be out for the rest of the season. This is a real blow to Humboldt. Other than Mose, no one was seriously injured except for bruises and charley hoses.

San Jose used 55 players during the course of the game, while Humboldt used 22. Out of the 22, Humboldt used the finest eleven, consisting of Bill Farber, John McGrath, Mose Musante, Bob Madsen, Herb Gomes, Bus Foster, Franny Givins, Earl Menewether, Nick Barbieri, Keith Henderson, and Jack Ellis for the most of the game. San Jose substituted a team at a time and they had five teams!

Although the general play of the Thunderbolts was below their average, a few of the boys turned in good games. Bob Madsen, Captain, Herb Gomes, Bill Ferber, and Franny Givins turned in strong line games. Earl Menewether and Nick Barbieri stood out in the backfield. The general opinion of everybody concerned was that Humboldt played a better game than the 48-0 score indicated.

Our frosh aces, Bill Lee and Len Longholm made some nice plays while they were in the game. Also our two frosh guards, Glenn Goble and Marshall Rousseau showed up very well. All this shows that Humboldt should have a fine team next year and in the years to come.

The San Jose game will probably never be forgotten by the Humboldt gridders. Not only because they were beaten by the worst score in their history, but because of incidents and accidents in the game.

The conversation between Jack Ellis and the referee, John Bunn of Stanford during the game: Jack was telling Bunn what a fine evening it was for football and then adding that it was a mite too warm. Bunn agreed and countered by asking Jack what H.S.C. was going to do on the next play, to which Jack replied, "They think I'm going to kick, but I'll fool them and pass." Jack passed all right but San Jose intercepted and this caused Bunn to comment, "You Certainly fooled them all right."

Once when Humboldt lined up on the line of scrimmage, Bob Madsen noticed that Franny Givins looked "pooped" so he reprimanded him thusly - "You wouldn't be that way if you'd quit smoking!"

Not only was the third quarter unique in that San Jose didn't score, but also the lights went out in the stadium. The stadium was without lights for about three minutes during which time Humboldt had its only chance for a score, but John McGrath, with the ball, tripped and fell over a San Jose man to end the threat.

San Jose put on a half time show that would do credit to any university in the country. They had card stunts and a parade by a drum corps on the field during the half.

The Lumberjack sleuth has been at work for several weeks and finally, like the G-men, his efforts brought results.

The principal character in this mystery is a familiar figure in the social life of H.S.C.—a veritable bear with the ladies and a football star of great magnitude—one, Snooky Edsall, fondly known as Clarence. Elementary Staff Attend Conference

President Arthur S. Gist of Humboldt State College, Dr. Vernon O. Tolle, director of the College Elementary School, and Misses Ruth Bestor and Belle Dickson, supervisors, returned Thursday night from Los Angeles where they attended a conference on the direction and improvement of instruction and on child welfare. This is an annual meeting called by Dr. Dexter, state superintendent of public instruction.

One of the main points of interest to the Humboldt State members was the musical talent of the Los Angeles high and junior high school students, who furnished music for all of the meetings.

Stars Who Wear Glasses Have Troublesome Problems

HOLLYWOOD has long pondered over the case of Leslie Howard. The versatile Mr. Howard, much to the amazement of screen moguls and other prominent actors, has a remarkable reputation throughout the nation as a great lover.

Leslie Howard

In private life one wears glasses, one wears bedroom slippers.

In the October issue of Pictorial Review, Jimmie Fidler, Hollywood columnist and commentator, takes you behind the scenes in the Capital of Make-believe.

"No one admires Mr. Howard's acting ability more than I," Fidler says, "but he doesn't look like a great lover to me, especially when he wears his spectacles, and that brings us to his obstinacy."

"Leslie, being almost helpless without them, insists on wearing those glasses. Mrs. Howard, wise in the ways of Hollywood, is equally determined that he shall not be seen in them by his fans, and any husband can tell you who wins the little arguments which result."

But if the Howard case is amusing, Joan Bennett's came near being tragic, Fidler relates, since she has been so myopic since childhood that objects only a few feet distant are to her only a formless blur.

In an effort to discard her glasses, Miss Bennett embarked on an existence which must have cost her the keenest misery.

"Being unable to see her friends," Fidler writes, "she passed up acquaintances on the street, and they, of course, screamed that she was 'high-hat.' She refused invitations to parties and was considered snobbish. She used a lorgnette on occasion, and that put an exclamation point after the rumors. She felt the movie colony's growing dislike, heard its asides, and naturally developed an inferiority complex which made her seem even more aloof and haughty. It was a vicious circle."

"Suddenly Joan Bennett put her glasses on and walked down Hollywood Boulevard, and instantly became the charming girl she really is," the writer says.

Fidler takes his reader on the set where Loretta Young, Claudette Colbert, and Joan Crawford are playing parts which require evening gowns. Slowly and majestically they move through the camera range, languidly into the arms of their leading men—all in bedroom slippers.

Loretta Young

Miss Young has other problems, too. She considers a mere eight hours' sleep insomnia and since she rarely retires before midnight, she does not welcome being disturbed before the next noon. For months her problem was to avoid the unwanted telephone calls from important people which invariably started pouring in by ten o'clock.

She finally solved her problem by hiring a lady who is "more Swedish than smorgasbord," according to Fidler. "She answers the forenoon telephone calls and the party on the other end of the line, after spelling his name a dozen times and hearing it mutilated more cruelly with each repetition, eventually gives up in profane despair, damning all Swedish housemaids but completely exonerating Loretta. In the afternoon, an English maid answers the phone—and Loretta accepts calls."

College Maintains Its Record For Placement of Graduates

Sixteen out of the seventeen members of the class of June, 1938, who desired teaching positions have been successfully placed in the teaching field since June, according to information given out today by the Humboldt State College Placement Bureau. One graduate was a Eureka teacher, who remained in her position. Two members of the class were liberal arts graduates who did not receive teaching credentials and are now engaged in other work.

This report maintains the enviable record of the Placement Bureau established over a period of several years. Never since the Bureau was organized has the percentage fallen below 92 per cent of the total number of students seeking teaching positions, even during the depths of the depression.

The following members of the June 1938 class are at present teaching in these schools:

William Daly, Janes Creek School.

Carolyn Haley, Clark School near Table Bluff.

Thelma Pesola, Myers School.

Violet Susan, Mount Shasta School.

James Hemphill, Redwood City Grammar School.

Billie Feilding, Cuddeback School, Carlotta.

Lois Hedley, Ferndale Elementary School.

Hazel Nichols, Weott School.

Marjorie Hyner, Stone Lagoon School.

Hazel Smith, Bonita School, Mendocino County.

Ruby McAllister, Holmes School.

Mary McCutcheon, Canal School on Arcata Bottom.

Eleanor McKay, College Elementary School.

William Morehouse, Freshwater School.

Tosca Schulze, Eureka Kindergarten, where she was already teaching.

Richard Derby, Pleasant Grove, near Sacramento.

Francis Moore, Arcata High School.

Officers Elected By Senior Class

At a recent meeting of the Senior Class the following officers were elected: president, Blanche Lowry; vice-president, Roy Grand; and Helen Connick, secretary-treasurer, all of whom are student teachers.

The election caused considerable discussion since the senior class includes many so called "social seniors." "Social seniors" are those students who have attended college three years or more but do not have the required number of credits to graduate during the year '39. President Gist ruled that only seniors graduating in January, June or July were qualified for office.

According to the social members of the class, they are going to either challenge the new officers for greater class activities or attempt to form a social class of their own.

This year there are a greater number of "social seniors" because many of the class have worked during the past three years while attending college or have carried fewer hours of study because of other reasons.
