'Jury' Will Decide Outcome of Play Given at College

"The Night of January 16th" under the direction of Theodore Little, head of the dramatics department to be presented tonight in the college auditorium at 8:15, is the first play to be presented this year at Humboldt college.

The play is a murder mystery, and the jury will be selected from the audience. The play is based on the still unsolved death of Ivar Kreuger, the Swedish contractor who rose to international prominence in the match industry, and became the king of finance.

Ivar Kreuger's life was one in which all of the world was involved, and his sudden, unexplained death was front page news for over a year. Up to the time of his death, he was acclaimed on all sides as the greatest constructive genius of his generation, praised by statesmen and bankers as the apostle of enlightened capitalism, the man who for once seemed about to combine with profits of private enterprise a real contribution to the welfare of nations.

Then a fortnight after his murder or suicide, the secret Kreuger was revealed in the newspapers and magazines throughout the world as a super-crook who had

Honor Societies Are Entertained

Members of the college honor societies, Chi Sigma Epsilon and the Rousers, were entertained at dessert last Tuesday noon at the apartment of the advisor, Miss Adella Johnson of the faculty.

At this meeting, the green and gold Rouser pins were received by the following students, who were elected to the lower division honor society last spring: Charles Arnold, Catherine Caltoft, Fritz Fleischer, Dorothy Fountain, Doris Gunderson, Helen Woodcock, and Ellen Young.

Others present were the active members of Chi Sigma Epsilon, Beryl Unsoeld, Ray Pedrotti, and Myron Schussman; two alumni members, John Van Duzer and Eleanor McKay; and two students elected to the Rousers in 1937, Valerie Barker and Charles Glenn.

HOSTESSES AT SUPPER

Frances Poulson and Edith Jennings were hostesses at a waffle supper Sunday evening held at their apartment. Those present were Lois Hedley and Howard Barnes, former Humboldt State students and Harry Bishop, Ben Boreham, Jack Cook, and Lee Flink.

PRE-VET STUDENT LOSES PRIZE CALF

Glenn Goble, freshman Humboldt student, who is taking a pre-veterinarian course, had one of his prize calves die this week, at his uncle's ranch near Fortuna. The calf, which he recently bought, was a purebred jersey and had won first prizes in the 4H division and the open class at the Humboldt County Fair, first prize in the 4H class and the open class at the Del Norte Fair, and first prize in the 4H class at the California State Fair.

Operetta Theme Is German Fairy Tale

The operetta, "Hansel and Gretel," to be given on the evening of Thursday, December 15, in the Humboldt College auditorium by the Children of the College Elementary school and the college orchestra, is an adaptation from the original opera by Humperdinck.

"Hansel and Gretel," it is said, is one opera which is enjoyed equally by children and by adults. The music is the adapted form of the same as in the original except that the story is carried on by speaking the parts instead of singing in recitatives and arias as in the original.

Humperdinck wrote the music for a Christmas event during the eighteenth century. His sister who wrote the libretto, based it on an old German fairy tale; however she changes the wicked stepmother of the original into a normal but distressed mother who sends her children into the woods to gather strawberries for supper. They wander too far and are lost. A witch lures them into her cookie house. The end of the story is the same as in the original: the witch is burned in her own oven.

Miss Helen Garvin is directing the production. G. Dana Kinsman has charge of the college orchestra.

COMMERCE STUDENT HAS 'CHIPS' PLANT

Dan Grace, freshman commercial student from Samoa, is the manufacturer and distributor of "Humboldt's Own" potato chips. Grace, who has been in business for one and a half months, has his plant in Eureka and operates under the name of "Tip Top Company." According to those who have eaten the potato chips they are superior in flavor because they are butterized and are always fresh.

Butterizing is a special process in which butter is used to seal in the minerals of the potatoes.

PLAY FOR A PARTY

Competition between the freshmen, sophomores, and the upper-classmen promises to be keen in the hockey games which are scheduled, because a party is at stake. The two losing teams are to give a party in honor of the winning team when all the games have been played.

MATTHAMS WITHDRAWS

Jerry Matthams, freshman student, has withdrawn from college and has returned to Santa Barbara. He plans to re-enter Humboldt College next semester.

State To Schedule Games For 1939

Now that football season is over the students and fans are fully aware of the competence of both the coach and the returning team for next year. They know that the Lumberjacks with the present coaching staff of Coach Herb L. Hart and assistant coach, Walf Oglesby, will win more games next season than they did this year, if they have more games to play, and if we play teams in our class. It is no secret that Coach Hart doesn't wish to play San Jose or any other school as big as the Spartans. He feels that we should win the majority of our games with schools somewhere near our own size.

Next year's schedule may look like this: Chico State, S. F. State, Cal Aggies, Cal-Poly, Southern Oregon Normal, Oregon Normal, and State would like to schedule games with University of Nevada, College of Pacific, and Willamette University in Salem, Oregon.

HUMBOLDT RECORDER SEES OREGON GAMES

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McKittrick and son Jimmie spent the Armistice holiday in Oregon. They attended the football game Friday night between Willamette and Pacific University in Salem and the Stanford-Oregon State game. Mrs. McKittrick, is a recorder at Humboldt, conferred with the registrars at Willamette and at Oregon State.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McKittrick are graduates of Willamette University.

RUSH HOUR AT CO-OP LATE IN AFTERNOON

From 3 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon comes the biggest rush at the College Co-op, according to the management. During this period extra help is on duty.

Each day regular customers come for refreshment but their purchases vary according to the weather conditions. During the cold weather hot chocolate is the favorite noon-time drink while between classes carbonated beverages are in demand.

The business hours at the Co-op are 8 to 9 a. m. and from 11 a. m. to 4:30 p. m.

VISITS STATE

Kenneth Samuelson of Loleta, June graduate from Humboldt State College, was a visitor at the college last Friday. Samuelson plans to enter San Jose State December 27 to study music. While at Humboldt he was an employee of the book store, later becoming a member of the Co-op staff.

Basketball Practice To Get Under Way On Wednesday

Basketball practice will be under way at Humboldt State on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. With a veteran team returning, and reinforced by an addition of several new men, Coach Hart will have plenty of material to work with.

Humboldt will have a good schedule this year, the main addition to this schedule being the State College tournament at San Jose on December 28, 29, and 30, in which the seven State Colleges will compete. Humboldt's first games will be with Southern Oregon Normal here sometime in mid-December.

Among the men who have signified their intention of turning out for the team are Francis Givins, Al Biondini, Verne Thornton, Frank Sanderson, Lee Seidell, Curt Wilson, John McGrath, Earl Meneweather, Art McGrath, Don Falk, Amedeo Sandretto, Keith Henderson, Snooky Edsall, Mitch Chetkovich, Wally Lozensky, Don Mahan, Preston Connick, Rod Belcher, Moe Musante, Bill Lee, Len Longholm, Art Keithley, Vic Lorenz, Lee Flink, Greg McDonald, Jack Cook, Jim Stone, Haven Howatt, and Bill Inskip. Anyone else who is interested should also come out for the team.

Education Class Visits at Orick

A rural district school, a community co-operative butchershop, and a cheese factory were visited last Thursday morning at Orick by the class in Rural Education under the direction of Professor Leo G. Schussman.

Those making the trip were William Ziegler, Charles Glenn, Wallace Lozensky, Fred Jackson, Don Pozzo, Martin Cabalar, Edith Nellis, Vesta Marke, Nick Barbieri, Bob Madsen, and Mr. Schussman.

The class studied the educational facilities at the Orick District School which includes a modern three-room school building having the elementary grades and two years of high school. There are 67 pupils and three teachers, the principal being Arthur Kincaid a Humboldt graduate.

Following the visit at the school some visited the Orick cheese factory. All inspected the co-operative butcher shop which is a community project. The class felt that as prospective teachers they would benefit if they were more familiar with such rural enterprises.

ONE PAPER TO EACH

Students are requested to take only one "Lumberjack" apiece. Enough are printed for each student to have one copy; but if some take more than the one to which they are entitled, others naturally will have to go without papers.

Putting the papers on the table in the hall has its drawbacks, but it certainly results in quick "distribution." The staff of the paper tried putting a paper into each student's mail box in former years, but this practice did not insure each student getting a paper—unless he were there when the paper was put in.

It has been suggested that the papers be placed in the student Co-op and that they be given out only to those with cards; but this would entail an extra amount of work on the Co-op staff, work that might prevent them from waiting on their regular customers. Suppose we try this: just take one paper for yourself.

THE COLUMN

The "Boil-It-In-Oil" communication last week regretted the fact that the column, "The Campus Commentator," did not appear and stated that the column has been "banned" from "The Lumberjack."

The column was not "banned;" neither the editor nor any member of the college administration forbade further publication. The writer of the column decided to discontinue it.

Column conductors have a difficult task. If they deal in personalities, they sooner or later receive some harsh criticism. If they do not deal in personalities, many of their readers—at least that seems to be the case with college papers—lose interest in the column.

NO PAPER

The Lumberjack will be discontinued for the next two weeks as there will be a vacation on Thanksgiving.

THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY

There will be no school over the Thanksgiving holidays. School will continue up to Thursday, November 24. All students are required to attend classes on Wednesday. School will take up on the following Monday, November 28.

Leslie Fearrien, sophomore student, spent the week-end at his home in Brice land.

Some writers claim that Kreuger was murdered by an associate who had found him out. Others have proclaimed that he saw the inevitable disaster of discovery of his thefts and evaded it by suicide. A legend still persists that Ivar Kreuger is alive today and is enjoying of his huge stolen fortune. There is no proof for any of these theories. It was later discovered by the French police, but the reason for their action has never been discerned.

College Paper Unwanted Orphan

Pity the college press, step-child of journalism, brunt of disparagement from the commercial field butt of academic paternalism and mongrel of the Fourth Estate.

A stepchild because it is postulated between the sharp elbows of veteran newspaper men and disapproving English professors; brunt of disagreement because it is an illegitimate child of an educational and commercial mating; butt of paternalism because it is easier to ignore than to reform.

Newsman of the "outside world" are generally impatient with the college press because it is disrespectful of the elements which limit the idealism of the commercial journalist, and because your college newspaper man is so prone to ignore his own limitations.

English instructors disapprove because collegiate scribes treat language, not as a worshipful jewel, but as a concrete medium of expression which has its primary purpose the dissemination of information.

Paternalism is the inevitable defense of the academic against youthful independence. Irksome as paternalism become, the typical barrier erected by the journalistic collegian is one of contempt and resentfulness. The result is frustration for both.

The wise men who excrete knowledge in American universities, together with pseudo-academic students who are the closest followers, would have the college press ignore the tricialties of student life and dedicate itself to spreading "the light," or, if you wish, propaganda.

Students who are active in student affairs contend that the college newspaper is a servant of the students, and as such must confine its activities to a reflection of those affairs. Too, there

Course On 'Family' Is Offered

Los Angeles—"Preparation for modern marriage should be as comprehensive and sincere as the preparation to follow a modern profession," believes Dr. Una B. Stait, professor of philosophy, who is conducting a unique new University of California Extension Division course here on The Family.

"In spite of the obsolescence of the patriarchal family pattern, its customs still meet with widespread approval and are deeply imbedded in public opinion," says Dr. Stait. "Frustration and maladjustment are inevitable results. There is only one way of forestalling them and that is through education. Every man and woman needs education in preparation to become more intelligent and responsible husbands and fathers or wives and mothers.

"Education for family life is indispensable if a democratic and cooperative family is to emerge from the present day confusion and complications. In the cooperative family the pattern of relationships is designed to secure the fullest and best development possible of each member of the family. Families in which relationships between parents and between them and their children are so are the preoccupied administrators who would have the paper assume the role of a university bulletin board, but who hesitate to express their preference.

Thus, the college paper, hounded by everyone, pleases no one. No, not even the college journalist for in striving to please he finds defeat, and so fails to please himself.

Miss Craig Named On Athletic Group

Miss Ann Craig of the physical education department of Humboldt State College has been appointed a member of the Northern California Committee of the Women's Division of the National Amateur Athletic Federation.

This organization is composed of 670 organizations, institutions and individuals. Of this number 273 are individuals, the other 400 are national organizations, colleges, universities, teachers colleges, public schools, private schools, Y. W. C. A. organizations, and athletic associations.

The Women's Division of the N. A. A. F. was founded in 1923 to establish basic principles for sports throughout the country. It exerts its influence to raise health standards for women's sports; to check commercialism and exploitation; such as using amateur sports for financial gain or publicity; to eliminate highly competitive state, national, and international tournaments in order to prevent over-training and under emotional and physical strain.

The platform of the Women's Division of the N. A. A. F. is based according to Miss Craig, on the concepts that there is a sport or game for every girl; that every girl should be given an opportunity to participate in sports according

Teachers' Club Holds Meeting

The student teachers club held a meeting at the College Elementary School last Thursday. The meeting was presided over by the president, Myron Schussman. Discussion was held concerning affiliation of the group with either or both the National Education Ass'n and the California Teachers Ass'n.

Those who attended were Dr. Vernon Tolle, Miss Ruth Bestor, Miss Belle Dickson, Miss Eleanor McKay, and Miss Dorothy Williams, faculty members; and Myron Schussman, Lanette Gregory, Helen Connick, Blanche Lowry, Vesta Moxon, Jack Bartlett, Alex Smith, Gellia Pozzi, Viola Stansberry, Gladys Hinman, Esther Ritola, and Francis Poulson, students.

The next meeting will be held December 1st.

CHARACTER OF THE WEEK

Last Wednesday evening, the choir was singing away full blast in rehearsal, when the door opened and in walked a student with a determined look on his face. Heads were turned to look at this gentleman who had interrupted the sanctity of a choir rehearsal. Surely it must be important—but what was that he was saying to the tenor section? No, it couldn't be, but there he repeated it again—"Have you got a match?"

After rehearsal, when confronted by Mr. Kinsman about the unprecedented interruption, Tom Amen gave as a reason simply that "I wanted a match, that's all."

EMPLOYED IN S. F.

Miss Elva Baumgartner, former Humboldt State commercial student, is now employed in the Union Lumber company office in San Francisco. Miss Baumgartner is a sister of June Baumgartner, now attending Humboldt.

BREAKFAST HOSTESSES

Hockey Teams In Tournament Play

The selection of the Humboldt State women's hockey teams for inter-class play has been made by the respective hockey managers and by Miss Ann Craig and Mrs. Monica Hadley of the physical education department. Play in the tournament has already begun.

There will be three teams: freshman, "sophomore mixed," and upper-classmen. The "sophomore mixed" is so called because there are several freshman women on the team, there not being enough sophomore women reporting. The personnel of the teams follows:

Frosh Return In Funny Paper Fling

The funnypaper fling. Comic coeds, and mirthful males will match antics and costumes at the Frosh Return Dance, on December 2nd at the Big Gym at Humboldt State College.

The theme of the dance will be the comic strips of today. All who come are asked to imitate by clothes and action some character in the funny papers. The gym will be decorated with old funny papers.

Pedro Elmore's boys will furnish the music.

The Sadie Hawkins dance was the original dance to be put on by the Frosh, but they have substituted the funnypaper fling instead.

Bring your gals, and come as Barney Google or Flash Gordon, but come on December 2nd at the Big Gym.
