Lumberjacks End Games; Basketball Men To Report

Although Coach Hart has contacted San Francisco about a game to be played this week, little hope is held for another football game this year. The Lumberjacks will turn in their suits and rest until the 1939 season comes around.

Everything considered, the Lumberjacks have turned in a very good season. Starting from scratch Coach Hart, with the able assistance of Walf Oglesby, has put a fighting Humboldt team on the field for every game. This year's team is the only team ever to come from behind to win in the last four years of Humboldt's gridiron history. In both the Chico and Oregon Normal games the Lumberjacks came from behind to win, something that an Erb coached team never accomplished.

Many students and fans of Humboldt are asking why the short schedule this year? The schedule was no shorter this year than last year and the prospects for next year are much brighter. Perhaps the schedule next year will be a nine game schedule. Coach Hart is working on it now.

With football through, basketball will start next week. Material this year is abundant and experienced. Last year's varsity and many able reserves are back, plus several newcomers who are widely heralded.

Pep Assembly Held Before Chico Game

The lively tune of "On, Humboldt!" played under the direction of G. Kinsman, of the faculty, opened the "pep" assembly November 4 in preparation for the Humboldt-Oregon Normal football game on Saturday, November 5 at Redwood Acres.

Four members of the varsity who were to play their last game for Humboldt on Saturday gave short talks: Nick Barbieri, Bill Farber, Earl Meneweather, and Bob Madsen.

Sherman Washburn, vice-president of the Associated Students, gave a short pep talk.

Yells were led by Ray Pedrotti, and songs were directed by Nathalie Brenner.

Announcement of the "Jitter-Bug Jamboree" to be given on Sunday, November 6, by the Men's Association was made by Francis Givins. The students were urged to attend the football dance at the Inn.

VISITS DORM

Helen Hartsook, former Humboldt student, was a surprise visitor at the Dormitory Sunday evening about 10:00.

POP JENKINS GIVES FEED TO GRIDDERS

Members of the football squad, Coach and Mrs. Hart and family, and Assistant Coach Oglesby were guests of Professor and Mrs. Horace Jenkins for breakfast Sunday at their home. The breakfast which was served between 9 and 11:30 consisted of meat cakes, hot cakes, syrup, jelly and coffee. Conversation was held concerning the results of various football games and the successful season which Humboldt State College had.

Caltoft, Kirby In Ticket Sale Lead

Competing for first place in the membership campaign being put on by the Dramatics Department by Director Theodore Little for season tickets to the college dramatic productions, are C. Barrett Kirby and Catherine Caltoft, both of whom have sold approximately 20 tickets up to date. A close third is Lillian Nicholson. The winner will receive a prize, and will also be voted the star ticket seller in college.

In preparation for the coming play, "The Night of January 16th," to be given November 16th and 17th, new lighting is being installed and new rigging is being put up under the direction of technical director John Van Duzer. Those on the production staff are: Tom Amen, Dorothy Della Valle, Betty Jane Fay, Hazel Hagne, Jean Hood, Channing Jenkins, Eva Mathisen, Viola Stansberry, Valerie Vann, Helen Woodcock, Robert Madsen, and Kate Caltoft.

In charge of costumes is Valerie Barker; those in the makeup department are Eleanor Buck, Jean Hood, Lillian Nicholson, and Wilma Peugh.

John Thornton, Humboldt Student, is in charge of publicity.

SOCIAL UNIT POPULAR AT SCHOOL DORMITORY

The dormitory social unit is becoming a popular gathering place this year, largely due to enthusiasm over the game of Chinese checkers. In the evenings there is usually a fire in the fireplace, and the room is filled with "Dormites" concentrating over a game of checkers or some card game.

Any student in school is privileged to use the games and the dormitory social unit at any reasonable hour of the day.

CLASS IS STUDYING VARIOUS DANCE TYPES

Members of the "Theory of Rhythms" class taught by Miss Ann Craig are preparing reports on the dances of various countries, to be given in two weeks.

Topics which the various members have selected to report on are: Scandinavian dances, Frances Peterson; Mexican dances, June Muir; Indian dances, June McCombs; Balkan dances, Jane Hawley, and Oriental dances, Rosie Ivancich.

The Daily Nebraskan, newspaper of the University of Nebraska, runs a column called "Little Gods Valley." It contains daily accounts on the "Life and loves" of the campus prominent personalities.

Humboldt Defeats Powerful O. N. Team 20-12 In Hard Game

Scoring three times on two quick, long thrusts and a break, the Humboldt State Lumberjacks defeated a powerful Oregon Normal team, 20-12 Saturday at Redwood Acres.

Humboldt scored in the first and fourth quarters, while Oregon scored in the second and third periods. Oregon Normal was, in the opinion of everybody concerned, the most powerful team that Humboldt has met all year, not excluding San Jose. They had a 200 pound team and used it to good advantage, running most of their plays between the tackles for good gains usually. However, their passing attack was easily bottled up by the Lumberjacks, as they completed only one pass during the entire game. Humboldt could not gain consistently through the Oregon line, but a good mixture of passes and running plays helped to win the game for the Lumberjacks.

Girls' Drill Team Performs At Game

Members of the girls team under the direction of G. Dana Kinsman of the faculty marched between halves of the Humboldt-Oregon Normal football game held at Redwood Acres on November 5.

The girls formed an "H" and did counter marching under the leadership of William Madsen, drum major.

Girls who comprise the marching unit are Barbara Crnich, Evelyn Lehrman, Valerie Barker, Ida Ivancich, Mary Borneman, Susan Wilson, Irene Jepsen, Rosie Ivancich, Frances Larsen, Betty Fay, Marianne Lambert, Rose Foster, Frances Petty, June Muir, Jeanette Christiansen, Virginia Frederiksen, Beverly Bullock, Eleanor Nelson, Charlene Renfro, Joy Stockton, Audrey Hayes, Dorothy Hunt, Jane Abrahamson, Elaine McLaughlin, Frances Etter, Mary Mangum, Jennie Hart, Carol Hixon, Faye McCord, Elie Anderson, Dorothy Peterson, and Leora Johnson.

According to word received by college friends of George Inskip, former Humboldt State student who is now employed at Hilo, Hawaii. George likes the country although numerous rains somewhat annoy him. Inskip is with his brother Philip who owns the Inskip Electrical Appliance Company which specializes in refrigeration.

Glenn Waldner, Humboldt student, and Mrs. Waldner are the parents of a son born last Friday. Mrs. Waldner is the former Helen Marks, who was a commercial student at Humboldt in 1932-1933.

DATES OF PLAY ARE CHANGED

The dates for the play, "The Night of January the Sixteenth," have been moved up one day. The play, originally scheduled for November 16, and 17 has been changed to November 15, and 16.

Student night will be on November 15 and the public night will be on November 16. The play has several unique features and as this is Mr Little's first production of the year a large turn-out is expected.

After Game Dance At Inn Is Success

The social climax of the successful 1933 football season came to an end Saturday night at the Eureka Inn in the form of a student body dance.

A great number of students attended plus the special guests, the Oregon Normal football team. The Inn was decorated in a gridiron theme and all of the members of the orchestra wore block H sweaters.

Pedro Elmore's boys supplied the music which was the best ever to be heard at a college dance.

Mrs. Monica Hadley and Coach Herb Hart were the faculty sponsors.

FOOTBALL TEAM IS INVITED TO DINNER

President Arthur S. Gist has invited the Humboldt State football team, the coaching staff and the managers to attend the annual football dinner.

The dinner will be held on Wednesday evening at 6:30 p. m. in the college commons.

'SCAVENGER HUNT' IS GIVEN BY STUDENTS

A group of girls entertained at the home of Betty Cairns in Eureka Friday night, November 4. The hostesses were Betty Cairns, Jane Abrahamson, Eleanor Nelson, Elaine McLaughlin, Frances Petty, and Betty Baldwin. Their guests were Ernest Reed, Walter Carr, James Moore, Charles Davis, Roger Battie, Robert Bryan, and Duane Godden. The group went on a "scavenger hunt," and then danced until a late hour.

TAP DANCERS MEET TUESDAYS, THURSDAYS

The elementary tap dancing class taught by Mrs. Monica Hadley meets on Tuesday and Thursday at 11:00 a. m.

Those who are enrolled in this class are: Betty Baldwin, Beverly Bullock, Barbara Heasman, Helen Gruhn, Rosie Ivancich, Edith Jennings, Ella Morris, Lillian Nicholson, Frances Nye, Leslie Fearrien, Martin Cabalzar, Bill Lee, and Willard Woodcock.

The accompanist is Ida May Inskip.

UTKE IN CHICO

Woodrow Utke, former Humboldt State College student and member of the 1936 football squad, is now residing in Chico where he operates two service stations. Utke attended the Chico-Humboldt game and following it met his former team mates in the Humboldt dressing rooms.

Jam Session Is Huge Success As Club Boys "Give"

Last Sunday the Men's Association of H. S. C. presented to the people of Humboldt County a real solid Jam session, the first of its kind in the Redwood region.

Beginning at one o'clock and breaking up at 4:30 it was the finest in-the-groove music ever heard in these parts.

A clam-bake outfit with Charley Fulkerson at the helm opened the jiving at 1 o'clock. They gave out until 2:15. The Varsity Boys, featuring Charley Crider and Harlow Burgess, then took over.

At 3:30 the cats and jitterbugs recessed long enough to enjoy a nifty fine buffet lunch served in the school social unit.

The only tune to get a second going over was a Dixieland ditty called "Cotton Town", head skin-beater Crider really sent this one. It was a solid with all the trimmings. A down south camp meeting.

Superlatives could not describe the performances of Humboldts best musicians. Paul Whiteman's recent statement summarizes it all—"Music is the finest thing in the world—And Swing Is Music!"

Much credit is to be given the committees as they functioned perfectly to help run off one of the best afternoons of entertainment ever held in Humboldt.

Tournament Held For Deck Tennis

A deck-tennis tournament for the members of the individual sports class has been arranged by Miss Ann Craig of the physical education department.

This game, which is popular aboard ship, is played with a rubber quoit which is thrown with either hand to the opponent who has to return the quoit, over the net without holding it. Another name for this particular sport is "quoit tennis."

Play in the tournament was begun on October 31 and some of the results of the games are as follows:

Vesta Marke defeated Ardys Goff, 6-1, 6-2.

Barbara Crnich defeated Gwyneth Lee, 6-3, 6-3.

Rosie Ivancich defeated Louise Sanders, 6-0, 7-5.

While the matches are being played, other members of the class play ping-pong.

There will be no school on Armistice Day. Regular classes will take up on Monday morning, November 14.

HONESTY AND H. S. C.

Humboldt State College has always had a reputation for being a college very high in the integrity of its students. Many people have commented on the apparent honesty of H. S. C. Students have come to the point where they leave valuable belongings in easily accessible places without fear of it being stolen.

However, this year already there have been two if not more departures from the general rule of honesty that prevails. A man has had ten dollars stolen from his trousers in the gym, and another has had his overcoat stolen from his hall locker. In this the start of a new era in Humboldt State? Will there from now on be a fear among the students of having their belongings stolen? We hope not, but we want to be sure, so we ask every student to be on the lookout for anything that resembles stealing. Every student should appoint himself a committee of one to preserve the standing of H. S. C. in regards to honesty.

The librarian would like to call to the attention of students the fact that clipping articles from newspapers and magazines belonging to the library is considered a misdemeanor. The Student Board of Control has several times in the past endorsed this stand. The library keeps copies of all newspaper clippings pertaining to college activities to make a permanent historical record, and in the case of magazines a clipped copy means an incomplete file for reference purposes.

The immediate cause for this notice is the fact that the entire sporting page of the Humboldt Times for Oct. 22, containing the account of the St. Mary's game, is missing. The library would very much like to have an historical record of this outstanding game and would appreciate it if any student has a copy that he is willing to donate to the library.

STUDENTS HAVE "FEED"

A group of students held an ice-cream "feed" in the Industrial Education shop of Horace Jenkins on Wednesday, October 31 at 4:00 p. m. The students who had ice-cream were Louise Sanders, Barbara Crnich, Virginia Frederickson, Gerald Geiger, Eugene Flocchini, Harold Jenkins, Channing Jenkins, and Mr. Jenkins.

FIRST GRADE PUPILS VISIT LOCAL CREAMERY

The first grade of the College Elementary School under the direction of Miss Ruth Bestor, supervisor of the lower grades, and of Viola Stansberry visited the Arcata Creamery, Friday morning. The children saw the milk pasteurized and the milk cans washed and filled. Each member of the class was treated to a glass of milk.

The trip to the creamery was part of the unit of work being studied by the first grade, namely, farming.

BOIL IT IN OILOBITUARY

The "Campus Commentator" no longer exists! Nevermore can we look forward to reading the low-down of college life, presented with its tints of humor, as this column has been banned from the Lumberjack.

Needless to say, keen disappointment over the elimination of this feature will be felt by many of the students. In the past it has always been an evident source of enjoyment to its readers. Many of the students have said that it is the most interesting article in our paper.

Perhaps a small number of students are prejudiced against the "Campus Commentator" because they believe that it has appeared to mention them in an unpleasant or unfavorable manner. But more than likely there has been a misunderstanding as to the intentions of the "Commentator," if this is so. It was not created with intentions to humiliate or ridicule anyone but, more than anything, to bring about a closer association of the students.

Shall we let the misunderstandings of a few cause the finish of a column in which pleasure from its reading is derived by many? Let us all strive to influence its return.

Signed,

Don Mahan.

BRIZARDSScribes Pick All-Time Team

Now that the shouting and the tumult dies, the fans settle back to think about next season and rehash old games. They naturally pick out the star performers of the past season and since every paper picks an all-star team the editors of this paper have an all-time Humboldt State College team. The players were picked for all-around play over the course of our entire season.

Here they are:

Bill Farber and Leo Sullivan, ends; Frank Simas and Butch Caviness, tackles; Futz Littlejohn and Frank Saunderson, guards; Wineroth, center; Franny Moore, Earl Meneweather, halfbacks, Toy Ferin, quarter-back and Windy Moore, fullback.

Honorable mention included Andy Nielsen, Howard Hubner, Bill Hutt, Art Hammett, Herb Gomes, Frank Sievert and Jim Harris, linemen; Jack Smith, Bill Peterson and Al Gomez, backfield.

The scribes also picked an all-opponent team for this year. They are as follows: Ends, Berry, San Jose, Pentico Chico; tackles, Sullens, Oregon Normal, Carpenter, San Jose; guards, Schwander, Calpoly, Robinson, Chico; center, Wineroth, Cal Poly; backfield, Solway, Cal Poly; Jesse, Oregon Normal; McPartland, St. Mary's; and Perego, San Jose.

Oregon Normal

Early in the first quarter, Humboldt set the pace for what was to be an exciting game when Earl Meneweather caught a flat pass from the arm of Nick Barbieri and rambled about 25 yards across the goal line. Barbieri again passed to Meneweather for the extra point.

Oregon came back strong in the second period and scored on a delayed spinner with Meeker running 51 yards for the score. The Humboldt secondary defense was completely fooled by the play. The place kick for the extra point went wide. Humboldt made a scoring threat late in the same quarter but Barbieri's long passes fell incomplete.

The third quarter was all Oregon Normal with their power plays going full blast. Midway in this quarter, Oregon opened a determined drive that was to put them in the lead for a short while—with Jesse and McGlinn carrying the ball chiefly through the middle, and aided by a penalty for a substitute talking too soon, the Wolves drove 60 yards to a touchdown. The scoring play was a three yard drive by McGlinn in which the whole Oregon team seemed to be a steamroller that just pushed back the Humboldt team by sheer power. Again the place kick for the extra point failed.

Humboldt got a real break early in the fourth quarter when the Oregon center made a bad pass, the ball rolling back into the end zone where big Harold Langdon, Humboldt tackle, fell on the ball after a wild scramble, for the score. Thornton dropped Barbieri's pass on the conversion attempt, making the score at this point 13-12 in favor of Humboldt. A few minutes later, Oregon Normal's hopes took a big drop when Jesse, as fine a back as Humboldt has faced this year, was carried from the field with a broken vertebrae in the small of his back.

Humboldt put the game on ice late in the fourth period when Meneweather, putting on a brilliant finishing touch to an illustrious four year football career at Humboldt, ran 35 yards through a broken field on an oftackle play to score. This might be called Earl's best run of the season. Bill Lee place-kicked the extra point from Jack Ellis' hands.

Humboldt's four seniors—Madsen, Barbieri, Meneweather, and Farber, all played fine games as did Harold Langdon and Glenn Goble in the line and Jack Ellis and Len Longholm in the backfield. For the Wolves, Meyer, Mason, and Jaross turned in strong line games, while Jesse, McGlinn, and Meeker were outstanding in the backfield.

STUDENTS IN S. F.

In San Francisco several weeks ago a group of students and former students of Humboldt State met for lunch. Those in the group were: Verna Schocker, Meredyth Young, and Jean Cooper, all former Humboldt students, and Marion Goss, Beverly Bullock, and Doris Gunderson, students who attended the San Jose game.

"One of Humboldt's Best Teams," Says the Sports Commentator

By Red Belcher

Well, the 1938 football season is now a thing of the past for Humboldt State College, and this season can be chalked up as a very successful season from more than one standpoint. Taking a few veterans and a great many players of little experience, Coach Herb Hart molded a team that would compare very favorably with any Humboldt has ever had. Who ever thought at the start of the season that John "Skinny" McGrath would develop into as tough as linemen as the team had?—that Jack Ellis would become a good punter, passer, and blocker?—that Cap Torp would develop into first string material?—that Glenn Goble would become a star guard?—that Marshall Rousseau could overcome his handicap and be a fine player?—that little Bill Lee would turn out to be one of the hardest tacklers and blockers on the squad?—that Len Longholm would come through so that he would be mentioned in the same class with Meneweather?—that Nick Barbieri would become a good all-around fullback?—that Keith Henderson would turn out to be an ace defensive man and fine blocker?—and most of all, that Humboldt would have a good team from this material? Coach Hart and the team themselves deserve a great deal of credit for this Humboldt team, which was one of the cleanest and most conscientious teams in the history of the college.

REAL ALL AMERICANS

In the game Saturday with Oregon Normal, Bill Farber again turned in as fine a game as you could expect from any end. I don't know how the little All-American team is chosen, but if I had anything to do with picking the team, I would surely boost Bill for this mythical team. Earl Meneweather is another one who probably won't get recognition on this team but who probably deserves it. These boys were the class of the team this year as they have been during their entire careers at Humboldt. They both are as fine players as you could find on any small college team, if not on the major college teams as well.

TRIBUTE TO MADSEN

At this point, I want to give another boost to Bob Madsen, who also played his last game Saturday. His loss is a real loss to Humboldt because of his spirit. I think it is safe to say that Humboldt will never have another player with the spirit of do-or-die for the college that Bob had. If every football player tried as hard as Bob did, they would all be whirlwinds. Nick Barbieri deserves some praise, too—Nick took a lot of pre-season criticism, but I don't think anybody had any kicks coming about his playing as the season progressed. It will probably be a long time before Humboldt has another passer of his caliber—and Nick was no slouch at plunging and backing up the line either.

PROMISING FUTURE

Humboldt can look forward to another good year next year because of the impressive array of talent that will return to the gridiron next fall. In the line, such men as Franny Givins, Verne Thornton, Art McGrath, Jack Cook, Bus Foster, Harold Langdon, John McGrath, Herb Gomes, Glenn Goble, Marshall Rousseau, Moe Musante, Cap Torp, will be back, while in the backfield, Len Longholm, Keith Henderson, Bill Lee, Jack Ellis, Snooky Edsall, and Henry Trione should form a very strong nucleus for the attack to be built around. Of course the most important man of all will be back next year—Coach Herb Hart.

ALL SET FOR BASKETBALL

And now that the grid wars are over, the next sport on the menu is, of course, basketball. At this stage of the game, before practice has started, it looks like this year should be Humboldt's most successful year in basketball. It remains to be seen what Hart can do with a basketball team, but we'll bet that he is a top-notch. He certainly has a wealth of material to work with at least. The men returning from last year's varsity are the whole first string—Franny Givins, Al Biondini, Verne

MANY ATTEND DORM BREAKFAST

Girls of Sunset hall were hostesses to the Santa Barbara boys at breakfast Sunday morning at 10:00. An abundant supply of waffles was served. The breakfast was served in the Dormitory Social Unit. Those invited were Jerry Mathams, Lee Flink, Art Keithley, Vic Lorenz, Gregg McDonald, Ben Boreham, Walter Monroe, Roderick Belcher, Bill McMurdo, and Harry Garland.

Thornton, Lee Seidell, and Frank Saunderson, with such men from the varsity reserves as Curt Wilson, Earl Meneweather, and John McGrath. Then too, coming up from last year's strong Jayvee team are Don Falk, Snooky Edsall, Wally Lozensky, Mitch Chetkovich, Keith Henderson, Amedeo Sandretto, Don Mahan, and Preston Connick—all good ball players. The Freshman class should offer some strong talent for the team too—the Santa Barbara boys, Moe Musante, Jim Stone, Len Longholm, Bill Lee, and Ted Speier. In short, there should be a lot of competition on the team, and competition makes for better practices. Of course, better practices mean a better team. Practice probably will get under way about the middle of next week.

Present Teams Travel Extensively

The 300 odd miles that the Oregon Normal team traveled to meet Humboldt State in the recent game was probably considered all in a days work by them. This distance, moreover, is just a drop in the bucket compared to the trips taken by the "big college" teams, who think nothing of crossing the continent to play off a game. This, however, was not always the case; for instance, President White of Cornell had other opinions, as the following article from the November "Readers Digest" proves. We quote: "I will not permit 30 new to travel 400 miles merely to agitate a bag of wind," said President White of Cornell University of Michigan and challenged Cornell to a football game to be played at Cleveland, with 30 men on a side."

Six Humboldt State College students and a part-time instructor are residing at the "House of Elmore" on the college hill, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Elmore. They are: Jim Hall from Willits; Glen Goble, Martinez; Dor Pozzo, Los Angeles; Sherma Washburn, Carlotta; Henry Trion and Amedeo Sandretto, Fortuna Lambert Parrish, Chico; and John Van Duzer of Loleta who is a part-time instructor at H.S.C.

For years the Elmore home has been a place where college men have roomed and has many modern dormitory conveniences.

Last year the Elmores closed their home to college students, but this year finds all of their former roomers who are still attending Humboldt returning to their home, in addition to several others.

Elementary Pupils See Trained Dogs

R. S. Courtright with his two Belgian sheep dogs, "Lobo" and "Junior," was the surprise feature of a special assembly held recently at the College Elementary School. Both dogs have appeared in the movies at Hollywood, and Lobo was featured in Robert Ripley's "Believe It Or Not."

The performance of the dogs was directed without words by Mr. Courtright. The dogs responded to signs given by their trainer.

The tricks performed by the dogs consisted of one of the dogs limping across the stage, representing what might happen to a dog running into the street after a ball. Lobo showed much ability in untying difficult knots in a tethering rope. Both dogs also "faked" a dog fight on the stage.

After the performance, the second grade under the direction of Mary Scholl, student teacher, wrote Mr. Courtright a joint letter of thanks. This was done in connection with their unit of work on postal service.

The fourth grade pupils also wrote a letter to Dr. Vernon O. Tolle, director of the College Elementary School, in appreciation of his arranging the program.

The seventh grade also gave a skit of "Sleepy Hollow."

Community singing led by Dorothy Williams of the College Elementary School staff, was held.
