TEACHER DEMAND HEAVY THIS YEAR

According to President Arthur S. Gist, who has received more unsolicited letters from other parts of the state asking for recommendations for teachers this year than ever before, it looks like the demand for teachers will be greater than the supply.

Most of these requests mentioned music as one of the necessary qualifications.

A report from placement bureaus of all teacher training institutions in California revealed the following facts: In January 1935 there were 3,095 teachers unplaced; in January, 1936, 2,044; in January 1937, 1,590; and in January 1938, 942.

The chief causes of non-placement of these 942 were: limited certifications, no A. B. degree, marriage, and inability to go anywhere to teach.

Not one student from last year's class remained on the placement bureau at Humboldt State and in the last five years, even during the depression, teacher placement from this college never fell below ninety percent of the graduating class.

Last year H. S. C. had only three names unplaced from a few years back. Of these three, one was married and unwilling to go anywhere to teach, and the other two did not have A. B. degrees.

A few seniors have already been tentatively offered positions, and as the various school boards are meeting at this time, the offers will increase.

Fortuna Hi School Featured On KIEM

This week's radio program will feature Fortuna High school. It will include the following numbers from Fortuna: Cow Boy orchestra, girls' trio, boys' quartette, and a speech by the student body president.

Humboldt State students who will participate include Esther Ritola, and Frank Steele.

Tennis Matches Postponed Until Sunday, May 8

The tennis matches with Eureka was postponed from last Sunday to May 8 because of the weather. W. Lozensky plays number one man, P. Elmore 2nd, J. Cady 3rd, C. Wilson 4th, M. Chetkovich 5th, and W. Woodcock 6th.

Prize Winners Are Revealed In State Poetry Contest

Prize winners in the California student poetry contest sponsored by the Intercollegiate Fellowship of Creative Art were announced today in the publication of "First the Blade" by the English club of Mills College.

Joyce Lois Hoeft of the University of California won the Anne Bremer prize of $25, donated by Albert M. Bender of San Francisco, for the outstanding poem, "New Frontier." Second prize of $15 went to Evelyn Boltuch of the University of California at Los Angeles for her poem, "Step Upon Stones," which also took the prize for the best lyric submitted. John Edgar Berry, also of the University of California at Los Angeles, won third prize for his "Later Prometheus."

Other awards were given as follows: best sonnet—"Historian's Wife," blank verse—"Cassandra," and French verse form—"The Primrose Path," all to Miss Hoeft; free verse, "Vincent Van Gogh," to Miss Boltuch; whimsy, "Junk Shop" and "Today" by Mary Phillips of Mount Saint Mary's College, L. A.

Judges, who passed on the merits of the poems without knowing the authors, included E. O. James of Mills College, William Rose Benet of New York, and Edmund J. Robins of San Bernardino Junior College, Robin Lampson of Berkeley, and Joseph Henry Jackson of San Francisco.

In all, fifty-three California students are represented in the volume, which was edited by the English Club of Mills College and printed by the Eucalyptus Press. There are some 90 poems in the 72 page book, which may be purchased from "First the Blade," Box 426, Mills College Oakland, for $1.50.

Among the contributors to the book is Violet Susan of Humboldt State College whose poem "Not Disrespect" is in the anthology.

J. W. Howe Gives Talk On Cribbing At Sunday Meeting

J. Wendell Howe professor of biological science at Humboldt college, led a discussion on "Cribbing," or cheating at the Westminster group meeting at the First Presbyterian church in Eureka last Sunday.

Mr. Howe said that cheating does not pay. He gave examples where cheating in college examinations caused the student to be expelled from the institution. He also gave illustrations to show that cheating in college examinations results sometimes in the student having to make up extra units in his course. When students cheat they are taking an unfair advantage of their fellow members and are subject to severe penalties if they are reported to instructors.

HSC Students Cop Blue Ribbons At Hobby Exhibit

Humboldt students won eight blue ribbons at the Hobby Show sponsored by the 20-30 club and the YMCA of Eureka last Friday and Saturday. They also won three seconds and a third prize.

Bill Inskip won a first in aluminum work in the metal department. An exhibit of copper work done by Phil Browne, Myrtle Boehne and Gladys Marke won second place.

The pottery display by Gladys Marke and Doris Martin won first. The exhibit in basketry also won first place. The leather work done by Gladys Marke and Gellia Pozzi won third prize.

Doris Martin took three firsts, one in charcoal drawing and in rough technique pastel, and one for original advertisement. Gladys Marke's soft technique pastels won first and second prizes. June Baumgartner won first place with a mechanical design with Clifford Hutchins winning second in the same class.

When the exhibits were sent over the students were not aware that they would be judged. Only class work was sent, no special work. Gladys Marke arranged the exhibit. The work is now on exhibition in the show cases at the south end of the hall.

President Gist Sponsors Essay Contest Again

President Arthur S. Gist is offering a ten-dollar prize for his annual personal essay contest which will close May 21. Any student of Humboldt State College may enter this contest by presenting a personal essay.

What is a personal essay? Almost anything that represents your own reaction to living.

Among those that have been awarded prizes are the following: "Over the Bar and Back" by Martha Sunnari; "The Boxing Show" by Myron Schussman; "O Jesu" by Wesley Wooden; "Remember—?" by Hope Dondero.

Judging from these titles it may seem that some of them are dominantly narrative and others chiefly personal.

The only fixed requirement is that they be not more than 2500 words in length.

Manuscripts should be handed in to Mrs. Elma Folsom unsigned along with the titles and signature in a separate envelope. The deadline is Monday morning, May 21.

NOTICE

There will be no Lumberjack published next week. The next issue will come out Wednesday, May 18.

Humboldt State Music Students Present Program

The combined musical organizations of Humboldt State College presented a musical program in the College Auditorium, May 3, at 8 o'clock. One of the outstanding features of the program was musical selections by the little symphony orchestra. The orchestra has only played once for the public this year, that being the Messiah. The orchestra is under the direction of Edmund V. Jeffers, musical instructor at Humboldt State. The orchestra is composed of a limited number of musicians from various parts of Humboldt county besides students of the college.

The orchestra is composed of the following members: first violins, Blair, Mrs. J. Birghita Leskinen, Don Malone, Sam Pond, Myron Schussman; second violins, Ida

Music Festival Set For Friday At College Gym

The annual music festival will be held in the Humboldt State College Gym this Friday for Eureka, Fortuna, Ferndale, South Fork, Hoopa, and Arcata schools when their will be approximately 900 students.

On Friday morning the smaller groups and instrumental soloists will participate in the college gym. Friday afternoon the larger glee clubs, bands, and orchestras will perform.

Miss Helen Garwin of the music department at Humboldt State will act as critic for the day.

Lozensky Winner In Tennis Play

With the use of a soft drive and accurate drive, with a lot of stamina and will power to win Wally "Wind of the Valley" Lozensky beat James "fire engine" Cady 9 to 7 and 9 to 6 and Pedro "used to be No. 1" Elmore 6 to 3 and 6 to 3 to become No. 1 man of the men tennis.

Lozensky had Cady and Elmore running around the asphalt oblong like children on a merry go round. Some show or other "Wind of the Valley" kept his mouth shut and saved a lot of energy therefore subduing his opponents.

Sigma Epsilon Rho Plans Chico Trip

To make last minute plans for the Chico trip and their flower show to be held next week, Sigma Epsilon Rho members met last night for a six o'clock dinner in the social unit. The dinner was served under the direction of Virginia Frederiksen.

Those who attended were Roberta and Jean Hood, Martha and True Dolson, Jean Hess, Ardys Goff, Rose Marianne Flowers, Jayn Harville, Mary Hanshy, Virginia Frederiksen, Harold Jenkins, Phil Peacock, Harley Bradley, Fred Jackson, and J. Wendell Howe.

MANY NEW COURSES OFFERED AT H. S. COLLEGE

The department of Home Economics will offer new courses beginning with the fall semester. Mrs. Ellen Johnson Walter will teach the courses offered. It is the purpose of the department to offer a number of elective courses of general interest to students enrolled in any department; (2) to offer a Home Economics minor in Elementary Education or other departments; (3) to offer not less than two years work toward a major in Home Economics with the opportunity to transfer to another College for completion of the course. Mrs. Walter states that the opportunities for women trained in Home Economics is developing so rapidly that there is a definite shortage of teachers for Home Economics positions. The business world is calling for college trained Home Economics women to fill positions as Demonstrators, and Home Service specialists, Dietitians, Clothing specialists, Costume designers, Stylists, etc.

The Courses offered in the Fall schedule will be Clothing Construction, a laboratory course in construction of suitable garments, emphasizing use of commercial

Humboldt State College Needs

As you know, the college is supported by state appropriations and by student fees, the fees representing a small fraction of the total cost. You doubtless also realize that the State of California as a governmental unit levies no taxes upon common property, the entire state's income coming from other sources.

The State has always been generous with our college, at least as generous as California's economic status would permit.

A ten-year building program would have provided our college with permanent, modern buildings and equipment by this time, had not the depression hit us. With this delay we find ourselves with many temporary buildings in a sad state of repair. In fact, it is doubtful as to the wisdom of large expenditures for their up-keep. One of these buildings is our college dormitory which is clearly beyond repair.

What can be done to provide Humboldt with a modern, sanitary dormitory? There is a possibility that some money for college buildings at Humboldt will be available in July when the Governor finds that the state's finances will warrant allotting some funds to us. Should we receive funds for building purposes it is doubtful as to the wisdom of using such funds for a dormitory when so many other building needs are pressing. If state appropriations are not available or are used for other building purposes, then how may we finance a new dormitory at once? At the present time, plans are being drawn and steps are being taken to secure a government loan. But this would provide more than 80 per cent of the total costs. If such a building would cost us $100,000 with $75,000 loaned to us, where could we secure the other $25,000? Surely the dormitory loan would be self-liquidating proposition.

It is most unusual for me as head of our local college to make a direct appeal to the citizens of Humboldt for funds, but the dormitory needs are so acute that unusual procedures are very likely justifiable.

President Arthur S. Gist

Scoutmastership Course Completed Here Last Week

While most Humboldt students attend classes, complain about the weather, and lead a miserable life, five Humboldt students are just beginning to enjoy life for they have finished one of their classes. Last Tuesday David Watkins, conducting the class in the principles of Scoutmastership announced that Thursday April 21 would be the last meeting of the class. On Thursday Harold Langdon, Martin Cabalzor, Myles Watkins, James Rasella, and Bob Talmage received from David Watkins certificate showing that they had completed the scoutmaster's training course here at Humboldt. Rumors are also afloat that this course will be offered again next year the National scout office is inaugurating a plan to give this course with a different manner of presentation.

CAMPUS COMMENTATOR

Unfortunately for someone, possibly you readers or yers trooly, the poem that headed this column last week was not received with the enthusiasm that was anticipated; so the plans we had for writing another on the Barn Dance sort of blew up in smoke and we will just have to jump right into the business of the week, without a bit of poetic expression. Is everybody happy?

The main item of last week that deserves the most comment is one other than the unique, only, individual, original Men's Association Barn Dance, the annual affair sponsored each year with a most worthy motive in mind. The decorations for this year's affair were under the direction of that master of interior (what interiors) decorator, namely Mr. John William (better known as Jackie like Coogan) Walsh, of the Eureka Walshes. Mr. Walsh completely outdid himself (and all the neighboring farmers) in order to make this affair the biggest and best of its kind. With various small items such as horses, lambs, sheep, dogs and so forth the lovely Humboldt College Gym was literally converted into a barn of the most prosperous type. The farmers sons, daughters and relatives were all there in their "best Sunday go meetin'" clothes, all entering into the spirit of the affair. The awards for the best dressed farmer's boys divided between young Willie Farber and Harold Langdon, who had to flip a coin while the best dressed farmer's daughter was Ida of Ivancich clan and True Dolson of 4H fame, who also had to flip for the award of one dollar, but Ida won. The high light of the evening for Charlie Fulkerson and gang not to mention Bob Madson and his contingent of followers, was the arrival at the gym in the latest model of what the well dressed (or sumpin) college student will drive to dances in this summer and spring. Each of the lads had rigged out the snappiest little Model T's for the dance. Charlie had lined the back compartment of his limousine with straw because of the fact that it was back-seatless.

The other evening when the Seniors of our noble institution had their progressive dinner that ended up in Fortuna, a group of those high and mighties had quite a time. It seems that quite a number of them were returning to points north in the automobile of one Le Dungan, the friend of Lois Hedley. While passing through the town of Fields Landing, Mr. Dungan met a friend of his, whom he proceeded to race. However they weren't the only ones who were havin' a fastish ride, 'cause they were bein' followed by a representative of the people, better known as a traffic cop, who promptly gave each of the two "Barney Oldfields" tickets, that didn't admit them to any show, circus, firemen's ball, neither. It was just a little ticket for speedin' (quite a violation around these parts).

The secret of how Mr. G. B. Wilson succeeds in securing the wavy hair that is the envy of every gal on this here campus has finally been revealed. And it is with the greatest that we give to you at this time the heretofore unpublished item that has been a mystery for so long. The other evening in play practice for that gala "Spring Dance" that is to take place on May 18 and 19 (we might as well advertise the subject as not), the matter of coiffures was brought for the various girls in the cast. While Mr. Wilson was contemplating "Wiggs" Elmore's locks, he wondered if any of the girls could experiment and discover a way for Miss Elmore to wear her hair the night of the play. Whereupon "Bess" Ritola pipes up that she could. One remarked to another, and Bessie sez to Mr. Wilson, "You do an aw-fully good job on your own." And Mr. Wilson smiling and appearing very pleased about the complement rendered replied "Yes my metal wave cast pillow does wonders (or something to that effect). So there it is girls, all you have to do is to get for yourself a metal wave pillow, sleep on it every night, and low and behold in no time you will be the proud possessors of curls just like those of our drama prof.

English Students To Plant Flowers On Local Campus

Humboldt State's campus will be the wild flower mecca of Humboldt County, claim members of Mrs. E. M. Folsom's English 1A class as they work on their plans for beautifying the campus through transplanting to it local wild flowers and shrubs.

The interest which this English 1A class has in transplanting wild flowers to the campus was started by writing a theme on the needs of the campus. The next step in the development of interest was a theme on work day—the best of which was published in the Lumberjack. Don Falk's theme was published. The last completed step was a talk given by Dr. Gillespie on the habitat and requirements of wild flowers which could be planted on the campus. The last step is a theme due Friday, May 6, on the types of flowers to be planted.

PLAN GRADUATION

The Commercial graduating class met last Thursday noon to make plans for the graduation exercises. Fred Hibler presided at the meeting.

Telonicher's Car Damaged By Blaze

Fire broke out in Coach Fred Telonicher's car last Thursday as he and six Humboldt students were returning to Arcata from the County hospital. The fire was noticed about a half mile north of Brainard cut when Harold Langdon, Bruce Wylie, and Jack Walsh in the back seat smelled smoke which was coming from the upholstery backing to the rear of the back window. Two attempts to put out the fire failed as the boy's supply of pyrene failed. It was finally extinguished in Arcata after everyone had decided that it would be best to run to Arcata instead of fighting it on the highway.

It was not determined how the fire started.

Wet Field Causes Postponement Of Baseball Contest

For the second successive Sunday, the scheduled baseball game between Humboldt State College and the Scotia Lumberjacks of the Redwood League was called off because of wet grounds. Scotia Manager Casey said over the telephone that the rain had prevented him from getting the diamond in shape.

Jack Ellis, college infielder and former Redwood League player was signed by Casey Sunday to play for Scotia this season.

The following students will make the trip: Dorothy Barnes, Bill Beer, Marjorie Bull, Ethel Carroll, Jean Cooper, Carolyn Crane, Frank Deering, Elise Duffield, La Vern Elmore, Charles Glenn, Doris Gundersen, Roy Grand, Helen Hartsook, Bill Inskip, Ida May Inskip, Edith Jennings, Karen Loft, Don Malone, Bettie McWorter, Helen Paine, Don Parker, Mary Eleanor Parks, Alfred Pollard Eleanor Robinson, Kenneth Samuelson, Rita Sandlin, Amedeo Sandretto, Jack Schmidt, Doloros Scholl, Myron Schussman, Marthabel Scott, Edwin Speier, Helen Taylor, Willard Woodcock.

The group will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Jeffers and George Lowry, music manager.

One for Ripley

In praising the honesty and integrity of a student at the University of Nebraska, one of the professors of that institution was heard to say, "I was walking across our campus last Wednesday and I saw a five dollar bill lying in front of the administration building. An hour later I passed again and someone had put a pebble on top of it to keep it from blowing away."

Former Students Give Bridal Shower

Mrs. La Verne Starkey Edson and Miss Claire Speier were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower given at the home of Mrs. Edson, Thursday evening, in the home of Miss Beryl Fleckenstein who will be married in June to Louis Canepa.

The flower centerpiece on the table was of yellow roses. A buffet luncheon was served. Court Whist was played with prizes being awarded to Mrs. Beverly Sacchi Dickenson, Miss Ruby Johnson and Miss Elsie Caprille.

Those attending were: Mesdames Mary E. Speier Dick, Beverly Bryan Kristensen, Marie Nielson Capps, Barbara Cabral Waters, Beverly Sacchi Dickenson, Miss Ruby Johnson, Miss Elsie Caprille, Miss Carol Webster, Miss Emmalene Winkler, Miss Marie Nordquist, Miss Ethel Carroll, Lillian Pifferini, Miss Claire Speier, LaVerne Edson, and the guest of honor Miss Beryl Fleckenstein. The hostesses, the guest of honor, and all the invited guests except two or three are former Humboldt students.

Do you remember way back when only one man in Europe thought he was Napoleon.

To Boycott or not to Boycott

There seems to be many opinions as to the advisability of boycotting Japanese goods. The pro faction claim that a world-wide boycott is the only means of forcing Japan to quit fighting and the only way we can bring home to her our concentrated disapproval of her actions. They say that we could easily manufacture substitutes for silk which would thus employ the thousands who would lose work at the stoppage of our raw silk imports. Those against boycotting say that by striking at Japan's silk industry we strike only the small Japanese farmer. A boycott would not deter the generals and war lords from their purpose and would only cripple innocent, already overburdened Japanese citizens. They claim that Japan has enough war supplies to continue fighting for at least six months and probably a year. In this case a boycott would be ineffectual. Is this a question which can be answered both ways?

Mad Hatter

And now to sum up some of the year's fashions: The late lamented season went berserk on the matter of headgear — huge halo hats, top-heavy turbans, illogical crowns, and insane brims; and to climax their true femininity — over all, a veil. But with all its caprices, the season gave us three little numbers which brought joy to us all. We refer to the calot (pronounced so as to rhyme with Jack Benny's program) dear to the hearts of college girls; the pixie cap, exciting to wear and good in the rain; and the babushka, fun for winter sports and glamorous for night life. Fashions come and fashions go, but these three, we predict, are here to stay.

Ole Mathisen has a brand new hobby.....that of doing the family washing on Saturdays, even though it is a few days, or late, as the case may be. However last Saturday when our little miss was toiling away over the hot machine, she apparently figured that her hands were dirty, washing them and then, all things proceeded to run her right one right smack through the wringer. She was alone in the house and her frantic calls for help brought no one, not even Emily, her dachshund (the weiner dog) answered her frenzied bellerin'. So poor Ole is without a right hand temporarily. Our deepest sympathies.

Each year a Campfire scholarship is awarded for one year at Mills College. After the first year a second scholarship may be obtained if the students grades are good enough to merit it. Lois Henderson of Eureka won the scholarship this year.

College Baseball Team Defeats Red And Green Squad

Jimmy Hemphill's ivory hunters at last have gotten underway. Last Saturday the horse hide swatters from the College Hill trounced the Eureka Hi Loggers 10 to 7.

For the first six innings it looked as if the Thunderbolts were off towards a shut out but at the beginning of the seventh and on through the ninth inning the Loggers scored seven runs on three hits and errors.

Meneweather, Moore, Ellis, Spies, and Wylie did all of the hard hitting for Humboldt Meneweather brought "the hole in the fence crowd" on its feet with some real swatting power, base running and the ease with which he cornered fly balls. Moore, Ellis, and Spies seemed to be the work horses and kept the team together when hope seemed to wane.

Barbieri and Farber pitched for the Thunderbolts and by the looks of the sum total 5 in the loggers hit column they did a fair job Barbieri allowed 2 hits in the six inning and Farber allowed 3 hits in four innings. Its odd but 10 innings were played in a nine inning game. The score must have been played tit, tat, toe in the error column and skipped an inning.

Flash! !!! Jack Ellis the slugging, fast fielding baseball demon of the Humboldt nine has been signed to play third base for "Becket Nose" Caseys team the Scotia, Lumberjacks. Jack (better known as Curly) will take over, the third base duties for "Becket Nose" next Sunday when the Scotia nine plays the Eureka Merchants in an exhibition tilt.

"Curly will be missed from the Thunderbolts line up next Sunday when they tangle with the Somoa Arcata Blues.

STUDENTS ENJOY PANCAKE SUPPER

The industrial education department held its pancake "feed" last Thursday at 4 p. m. in the college workshop. Horace Jenkins of the department of industrial education again proved his ability as a cook. Of the eight students attending all agreed that the cakes were appetizing. The cast aluminum griddle used in cooking worked in first class order. One of the main features of this type of griddle is that no grease need be used while cooking.

SOFTBALL

This is getting to be an old story but no so old it may be nevertheless it is true. "On account of wet grounds all of the games of the Monday Softball league were postponed last week."

The boys have been practicing during gym classes and just as soon as old sole starts to shine the league will start with a bang.

Eureka Man Speaks On Life Insurance

Claud Morrow spoke before the commercial students Friday morning on the topic of Life Insurance; he stated that a person should begin a program of life insurance at an early age increasing his insurance as his income grows, and plan to invest at least ten percent of his earnings in life insurance.

The three primary needs of the human race are food, shelter and clothes, and life insurance, properly arranged, will provide for these in your old age as well as guarantee an income for the wife or a fund for education for the children in case the husband should die.

Life insurance also teaches thrift a habit of saving because you have an obligation to meet at regular periods and when these payments have been made you have created an estate which will pay you back when you most need it, giving you a feeling of security which can come from no other source.

There are so many different forms of life insurance policies written to-day that it is almost impossible to name them all, but perhaps the better form for a young person is the endowment of limited income plan which would provide and income of $73.80 per month for life after you are sixty years old.

Progressive Dinner Held By Seniors

Saturday night about sixteen of the seniors held a progressive dinner. They started at six o'clock at the home of Frances Poulson with soup. They drove to Hazel Nichols' home in Fields Landing for salad. They went on to Fortuna to the home of Lois Hedley for the main course, and returned to Eureka to Billie Fielding's apartment for dessert.

They adjourned to the Auto Park where they held a short business meeting followed by dancing.
