Work Day Climaxed With Alumni Dance; Large Crowd Attends

"Welcome Alumni," "Well Done Lads and Lassies," and "May your Blisters Heal Quickly" these were the appropriate signs which welcomed the laborers to the Work Day-Alumni Dance, which was one of the best attended dances given this season.

The gym was decorated with greens and spring flowers under a committee headed by Jayn Harville. The orchestra was furnished by Dan Oliver with Carl Owen as master of ceremonies. Entertainment consisted of songs by Warren and LaVerne Elmore, Vernon Thornton, the men's trio and a girl's quartette, a hula dance by Freddy Jackson, and the Humboldt State Big Applers, performed once again.

Alumni, Faculty And Students Cooperate To Make Second Annual Work Day Success

In spite of the adverse weather, Humboldt State faculty, alumni and students joined in making the second annual Work Day held last Friday a much bigger and better affair than the first, and successfully established it as a definite tradition.

The faculty program given in the Humboldt State College auditorium to open the annual college work day, received enthusiastic applause from the students.

Miss Faye Jackson and Dr. Harry McGinitie played a duet on two pianos entitled "Peer Gynt" by Greig.

A skit was presented in which the dean interviewed several students about their grades and conduct. The cast was as follows:

The Dean, B. F. Wilson; Norene Brown, Mrs. Graves; Myron Schussman, Mr. Jenkins; Valerie Barker, Miss Johnson; Mrs. McMadsen, Mrs. Folsom; Francis Givens, Mr. Graves; Esther Ritola, Miss Craig.

Ten members of the faculty imitated "The Big Apple" as done by the college students. They were Miss Zula Ballew, Mrs. Monica Hadley, Mrs. Stella Little, Dr. Gillespie Niles, President Arthur S. Gist, Fred Telonicher, G. B. Wilson, Dr. Homer Balabanis, and Dr. Raymond Fisher. The "Dipsy Doo"

Wet Ground Causes Postponement Of H S C-Scotia Game

Humboldt State College's scheduled baseball game with the Scotia Lumberjacks of the Redwood League was called off Sunday because of wet grounds at Scotia where the game was to have been played. Efforts are being made to play the game next Sunday.

The Humboldters showed up full strength at Scotia. It seems that no one thought of calling up the lumber town and inquiring as to weather conditions.

Weather permitting, the Thunderbolts will meet the Eureka High School Loggers Wednesday or Thursday of this week.

Telonicher Shows Skill As Archer

Jack Walsh spied "Robin Hood" Telonicher sporting a bow and arrow around the campus and double-dared him to hit a willow wand about eighty yards away. He shot an arrow into the air; he missed; he wasted another; just as he shot the third shaft, he turned to look at Jimmy Hall. This technique was evidently what he needed for the wand was sliced down the middle.

THANKS

From start to finish, from the hilarious hi-jinx put on by the faculty, to the light fantastic tripping at the Alumni Dance, Humboldt State's Second Annual Work Day was a complete success. We are proud of our president for instigating, sponsoring and carrying out this successful tradition. We admire our faculty and the joyous way in which they let down their hair for our benefit, thus revealing the fact that college professors have a really human side. We are glad that the alumni united with us in making this day and even greater occasion and we thank the legislators and members of the press for the interest shown in our Campus Work Day.

The worth-while thing about this day is not primarily the work achieved, nor the fun had from the achieving, but the spirit of co-operation which joins faculty, students and alumni into a single body, with a single motive—the beautifying of our campus. Nor is it half-hearted co-operation with only the most active students interested.

It's the real thing, one hundred percent participation, which has never yet failed to accomplish wonders!

Fellow Students and Faculty:—

Thanks a lot for the wonderful cooperation and making Campus Work Day a great success. You showed the community your pride in your Alma Mater and that true college spirit exists. Co-recreational day and Work Day festivities layed the foundation of a homecoming which I believe will go on forever.

The swellest students and the best of faculty are at Humboldt State.

Again thank you,

Bob Madsen

Pres. Associated Students

The Associated Students thank the following outside bodies for their support during Campus Work Day.

Cities of Eureka, Arcata, Fortuna, Arcata WPA, California Highway Department.

Materials: Standard Oil Company, Johnson's Gravel Yards. Thanks also to the newspapers of Humboldt County for publicity given Work Day.

CAMPUS COMMENTATOR

Listen my children, and you shall hear
Of the work day project of just this year,
It took place in April of '38
When working held sway, both early and late.

Pres. Madsen the boss who led the crew
With one Jim Cady as right hand man
Each student toiled hard—as all students do
To prove to all that Humboldt's no sham.

Beginning at eight, the faculty brave
Presented a program that's tops for the year,
For Wilson, Johnson, Ballew, and Grave'
As well as the rest, roused many a cheer.
With the end of that program, came the beginning of work,
And soon the campus was converted to beauty
For everyone worked—and nobody shirked
And consequently all completed their duty.

At 12 o'clock noon came the pause that refreshes
When the Commons supplied a feast for the hoard
And, believe me, each of those 300 strong, answered the call
The call to the board.

When the time of the day hit late afternoon
The feet of the weary towards home all did tread
With the hope of prize cakes—All a definite boon.

But sharply at nine, by the stroke of the clock
With melodies lilting, gay and first rate
Those workers, sans blisters were all on the dot—

And thus ended Work Day of 1938.

Please forgive our poetical tangent above, but we thought that it would be timely at the present time—provided it worked out. After all, we really do need some kind of poetical bit of verse to amply describe our unique W. D. P. (work day project)—and this is only an attempt. Maybe some other prospective poets will follow with a genuine poem.

Now, the campus of our dear Alma Mater is really ready for another year of rain, storms, and what not. The three winning crews of Givins, Barbieri and Gomes really deserved the cakes that they won. At lunch Friday, Bob Madsen announced that the six most beautiful gals on the campus would have the privilege of having their pictures taken, with Pres. Gist, Senator Quinn, and Assemblyman Burns. Although Bob did not mention names, the picture appeared in the Sunday morning paper with Sophie Macpherson, Bess Ritola, Edith Jennings, Verna Shocker, Meredythe Young, and Gin Torp.

The climax of the work day was the alumni dance in the gym at nine o'clock, which drew just about the biggest crowd that any dance has this semester. It could not have been just because it was a free gratis dance, could it? Maybe the alumni brought the crowd. At any rate, it was a first rate dance. At it, were some various new couples that haven't appeared in public to any great extent so far. Jayn Harville, the chairman of the dance, was there with her able assistant, the master of ceremonies, one Carl Owen, who is really quite an emcee. The president of this dear student body was with one of the dorm girls—Grove by name; and "Mike" Cherkovich had none other than our lil' Thespian in tow—namely "Butten" Unsöld. Then of course there were the "old faithful" couples which we won't mention.

When the faculty presents a program, it succeeds in out doing anything that us 'umble students ever attempt. The annual workday program which the faculty gave us was tops for the year—in fact it deserves the academy award for the best performance, best directing, best acting, etc. Sometimes we think of teachers as being aloof, fragile, not-to-be-tampered-with individuals, but when they put on a program like that, we think that that old adage should rightfully be thrown in the proverbial trash can. An orchid to you of the faculty.

Hip! Hip! Hooray! and Three Cheers!! The much-talked about H2O heater for the Sunset Hallers has been installed, and is working marvels according to the inhabitants of that institution. Just think, now no more getting up early in the morning to make a fire, having it go out, having to make it over again, running about to look for paper, kindling, matches, and so forth. Now all they have to do is turn the knob three times, insert a lighted match in the proper place—and pop, hot water with the snap of the little finger. Oh the marvels of a water heater!!

Thursday's play day, must receive mention of some kind. The feed in the commons was quite hilarious with Dr. Balabanis' little remark, and the subsequent followings-up. Ritchie Jarboe as the master of scare-a-monies with the portable mike, was sort of at a loss for words there for a while, but when he recovered the "ball," so to speak, everything was resumed, including food, conversation, and so forth. The energetic relays, dances and games aroused a few sore mus-kels in various persons who were moaning—However we should have play days more often—they're fun.

Miss Ann V. Craig Attends Conference Over Easter Week

Miss Ann Craig of the physical education department recently attended two conferences the State Department Annual Conference on Problems of Professional Education in Health, Physical Education, and Recreation and The California Association of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, both held in Pasadena.

The high spot of the California Association of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation Convention according to Miss Craig was a speech by Edward Lindemus, Director of Division of Recreation, Works Progress Administration. Mr. Lindemus spoke on the Development of a Philosophy for a Recreation Program. He brought out the fact that national recreation programs in America must create the opposite type of personality from those that Mussolini is trying to create. In closing, Mr. Lindemus stated that "if we are to have an orderly adaptation of human organisms to mechanize society, we must have orderly planning for a cultural leisure." Mr. Lindemus pointed out that the possibilities of physical education in this field were unlimited. The convention also brought out that there were thirty bureaus of the Federal government concerned with some phase of recreation.

The proposals of the State Department at the convention included suggestions that small schools drop regular football and try the six man game and that no games be played during the first three weeks of football season.

Miss Craig noted four distinct trends brought out for the physical education program of women. The program should be for the good of those who play, it should be based on the individual and his environment, it should stress leadership, and the participant should resume responsibility for consequences of wrong behavior.

One of the chief speakers was Harry Moore, past president of the California Interscholastic Federation, who pointed out that sports writers think they have to settle arguments between schools, while when the C. I. F. was organized in 1914 it was intended to develop friendly relationships between the schools.

Miss Craig also viewed two interesting demonstrations, one on tennis and the other on table tennis. Eliazbeth Ryan, international tennis champion and winner of nineteen Wimbledon championships, demonstrated tennis emphasizing throwing the ball high enough in the serve and placement rather than force in the smash.

F. Ensign Hostess At Easter Luncheon

Miss Frances Ensign entertained at an Easter luncheon at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ensign last Wednesday afternoon.

The table was decorated with a large white bunny dressed in boys clothes with yellow chickens around it.

After the luncheon cards were played.

The invited guests were: Dona Anderson, Annette Parton, Eleanor Hill, Irma Hugnin, Verda German, Alberta Starkey, Alta Sequest, Jane Brigden, Ruth Sequest, Helen Arnold, Leora Johnson, and the hostess Frances Ensign.

The charter of Purdue University provides that one farmer, one woman, and one person of good moral character should be on the board of regents.

Humboldt State Scene Of Banquet Held By Alumni

In hearty support of the Campus Work Day, the Alumni gathered last Friday night for a banquet held in the College Commons under the directions of Mrs. Horace Walter with Miss Lucille Winter as general chairman of the affair.

After Beril Munther, toastmaster called upon Robert Madsen, student body president, and President Arthur S. Gist to welcome the guests, three speakers chosen to represent the three regimes at Humboldt State spoke on the various phases of the college's growth.

Mrs. Eugene Fountain, first graduate of Humboldt State, spoke on "Humboldt's Infancy" recalling the early days when there were only six teachers and forty-five students at Humboldt. At that time there were only twelve pupils in the training school.

Next Mrs. Vinal Hunt, student of the days of President Ralph Swetman spoke on "Humboldt's First Steps." She described the first home coming which was held in 1924 at the Fireman's hall and compared the bare grounds of 1920 with the attractive campus of today.

George Monroe representing present day administration spoke on "Growing Pains" paying tribute to President Gist under whose guidance Humboldt has continued to grow.

After dinner college students presented a program in the auditorium which included vocal solos by Warren Elmore, tap dance by Natalie Brenner, with the men's trio as a chorus, and a skit under the direction of Garff Bell Wilson with Marthabel Scott, Richard Jarboe, Laverne Elmore, Claire Speir, and Beryl Unsoeld in the cast. A dance in the large gymnasium concluded the evening.

GARFF BELL WILSON

Garff Bell Wilson Given Absent Leave To Attend Cornell

Garff Bell Wilson, head of Humboldt State's dramatic department for the past five years, has been granted a leave of absence in order to obtain his PH.D degree at Cornell University, New York.

He will be replaced by Theodore Little, of Eureka, who received his master's degree at Northwestern University where he is now an instructor. Mr. Little has also had experience in the "Little Theater" in Chicago, New York, and Hutchinson, Kansas.

Under the directorship of Mr. Wilson, the college's department of drama has achieved a fine reputation for the representation of outstanding dramatic hits. He also acted as Men's Advisor for the past two years, and has created a firm foundation of friendship and understanding between the administration and the students. He will finish out the semester and also remain at the college for the summer session classes.

Howe Attends Science Meet

J. Wendell Howe of the Humboldt State science department returned to Arcata on Sunday after attending a meeting of the editorial board of the Science Guide for Elementary Schools held last Friday and Saturday in the board room of the State Department of Education in Sacramento.

The group made plans for the Science Guide for the next five years having completed their first five year plan. Helen Heffernan, chief, Division of Elementary Education and Rural Schools, presided at the meeting.

Howe gave a resume of the paper he is preparing for the Science Guide on domestic animals.

Of the twenty three members in attendance representing Humboldt, San Jose, Fresno, Chico, and San Francisco State, Howe was the only person attending from Humboldt.

Aluminum Casting To Be New Course Offered Next Year

Pattern making for aluminum casting will be offered as a new course for next year at Humboldt State by Horace Jenkins of the department of industrial education.

Because several students have taken a keen interest in the experimental work of casting with aluminum, the regular course in pattern making is planned for next year.

Some of the interesting work that has been accomplished with aluminum casting this year has been the making of aluminum dishes and a combination griddle and broiler.

All work completed in this department will be placed on display at the college in the near future.

To prove the efficiency of the course in pattern making for aluminum casting Mr. Jenkins has given approval for a pan cake "feed" this week. A combination griddle and broiler made in the industrial education department will be used.

Softball Teams Organize Games

The Coaching B. Class has organized the boys into four softball teams: Givins, Farber, Lozensky and Barbieri were appointed as captains.

Games will be played at 12:15 four days of the week at the south end of the football field. The games are to be four innings long or 45 minutes playing time. If four innings aren't played before the 45 minutes are up, the team that's ahead will win.

Each team is composed of 12 men. As only ten men are able to play at one time, two men have to be substituted sometime during the game.

Badminton Teams Play Noon Games

Miss Ann V. Craig, of the physical education department, and Irene Paddock have organized a Badminton Tournament. Games will be played every day at 12:10. Each game is to be eleven points and the winners must win two out of three games.

The players were divided into Novice, Fair and Excellent groups. Two games have already been played. Pedrotti-Paddock won from Ferguson-Dolson, and Barbieri-M. Peugh won from Sandretto-Cropley. Other teams follow in the order in which they are to play:

E. Flocchini—F. Perterson; Durdan—Silva; Woodcock—M. Boehne; Villa—Hartsook; Lozensky—Belloni; D. Falk—V. Torp; Blackburn—Sandlin; Hollis—B. Boehne; R. Ivancich—J. Walsh; P. Connick—V. Marke; B. wagons, saddles, and pigs, chickens a horse and maybe that bovine source of lacteal nourishment—a cow! Also, non-dust-bearing hay football tickets sales as Erb did.

Selection of Hart came after several weeks of consideration. More than 25 candidates sought the position. Hart's recommendation by Stanford was among the highest given to any of the candidates.

He is expected to arrive at Arcata in August.

While at Purdue, Hart starred in football and basketball. He played guard, fullback, center and halfback during his three years on the varsity. He was awarded the Big Ten conference medal for his scholarship and football.

He played two years of basketball. In his junior year he was captain.

Under Hart's leadership the Monmouth college athletic department made many advances. A thorough intramural and physical education plan was developed. The freshman rule instituted when he went there was a definite advantage and varsity athletics were more successful than ever before, it was said.

Hart is married and has two children, a girl and a boy. His daughter is ready for high school and the son is eight years old.

Hart visited Arcata 12 days ago at which time he conferred with President Gist and visited with Fred Telonicher. He was high in his praise of the Arcata high school.

He is past president of the Monmouth Rotary club.

Assemblyman M. J. Burns and Senator Irwin T. Quinn were the guests at the lunch served in the Humboldt State College Commons at twelve o'clock.

Assemblyman Burns and Senator Quinn spoke to the students expressing their admiration of the fine school spirit shown on work day and asking everyone to remember to always support the college.

Community singing was led by Edmund V. Jeffers, associate professor of music at the college.
