Number Fifteen

38 Students Fail In Traffic Quiz

Thirty-eight students received below passing grades in the traffic quiz held recently as a conclusion to the safety campaign held at Humboldt State last month. Following are the detailed results: Question one—seven wrong; two—fourteen; three—fifty seven; four—eighteen; five—eighty seven; six—five; seven—ten; eight—one hundred thirty two; nine—six; ten—one.

Question eight was missed by such a large number that the answer is quoted from the Vehicle Code: Division XII, Chapter 3, Article 750: "Every member of the Calif. Highway patrol and every other peace officer while on duty for the exclusive or main purpose of enforcing the provisions of Division IX of this code shall wear a full distinctive uniform and if such officer while so on duty uses a motor vehicle such vehicle must be painted a distinctive color specified by the department."

Senator Quinn Will Be Work Day Guest

Senator Irwin T. Quinn is to be the guest of Humboldt State on Work Day, April 22, according to President Bob Madsen, who invited him, and who has also asked Assemblyman Michael J. Burns to be present on that day. As yet Mr. Burns has not replied, but Quinn stated that he would be very glad to come.

It is planned to make a tour of the campus and show these men the pride the students take in their surroundings and the hard work they are willing to do to make these surroundings more beautiful. At luncheon both men have been asked to make a short talk before the students.

S. J. To Sponsor Tennis Tourney

San Jose State College is going to sponsor a basketball tournament next December 27, 28 and 29. The seven state colleges will be invited.

Humboldt received its invitation last week. The sponsors of the tournament will stand the expenses to and from the tournament in addition to eating and hotel expenses while they stay in San Jose where the tournament is to be held. Each team will be allowed ten men plus coach.

HSC Dramatists Entertain At Club

The Humboldt College Players, under the direction of Garff Bell Wilson, presented a special dramatic performance at the Eureka Women's Club last Wednesday afternoon.

After the performance, the members of the cast and the stage crew were guests at a dinner at the home of Carol Hine.

Seniors To Give "Bunny Hop" Apr. 16

The night before Easter at the Firemen's Hall in Arcata, the Humboldt State Senior Class will present the "Bunny Hop". This dance is being put on with the cooperation of the Arcata Firemen, whose reputation for conducting dances is well known. The Firemen's dances are always characterized by lack of rowdiness, good music, and good, wholesome fun.

There will be a special attraction for high-school students at this dance, for a soloist is to be selected to represent each high-school at the dance. Each soloist will sing with Jim Fasullo's orchestra, during the dance the soloist receiving the most applause will be acclaimed the number one high school soloist.

As there are no other dances scheduled in this end of the county for this date, the Senior Class expects one of the largest crowds of the year, augmented by the Humboldt State students and students from all the high schools in the county, as well as the many friends of the Arcata Firemen.

Jim Fasullo's orchestra will play all the latest hits from 9 until 3. The admission is fifty cents plus tax.

Miss Ann V. Craig, of the physical education department has returned to her home after being confined for a few days in Trinity Hospital because of illness. She returned to school this week.

In her absence, her classes were in charge of Mrs. Amy Vance Ley former Humboldt State student, who majored in physical education.

Sherman Washburn has for some time been corresponding with a boy from China. The following excerpts from a recent letter Sherman received from him should prove especially interesting to students in the light of the present-day situation in the Orient:

February 20, 1938

Dear Sherman,

Your letter of December 28, 1937 came to me and gave me much sympathy and comfort. At this exceedingly extraordinary juncture, you living in the land of peace, still remember me, a friend of the country which is continually invaded by the foreign babarians, making me feel much happy, and yield enormous gratitude toward you.

In brief, I should tell you the awful atrocities that have been committed by Japan during the recent few months. Besides seizing 500,000 square miles of our territory, in Manchuria six years ago, the Japanese have now invaded nine provinces equivalent in size to the combined territory of Great Britain, France, Germany and Italy. Wherever the Japanese set their foot, Chinese men have been slaughtered, Chinese women have been outraged and then killed, and Chinese children have been murdered or orphaned. In areas still inaccessible to their infantry and artillery and beyond the range of their naval guns, the

It's here. Easter vacation. That period of rejoicing and relaxation before the final grind into summer. The week that seemed so distant, so vague, so hopelessly never-come-true is upon us. For one week thousands of grateful students will flood the countryside with the pent-up exuberances of the over-long winter.

Sunshine or rain, spring is in the air, and its effect on all young things is inevitable. So get your new clothes, eat between meals, sleep late, and Happy Easter Bunnies to you all!

And on your return do we predict for all of us—an acute attack of that fever known as spring.

Current Event Quiz

In this issue of the Lumberjack we are publishing a series of questions on current events, with various answers for the students to check to show their opinion on these various matters. We are doing this in an attempt to instill a little world consciousness into the small sphere that is Humboldt State. It will be enlightening to see the interest shown these tests. Results will be printed in the next Lumberjack.

New Rule

Regarding the Boil It In Oil column which has lately aroused so much controversy, the Lumberjack is making a new rule that nothing shall be printed in that column unless it is signed. The signature need not be printed, but the editor must know the author of the article.

This is an old rule which we never followed out because it seemed to be a choice of ruining unsigned articles or no articles at all. But lately there have been so many anonymous attacks flooding this column that we feel their authors would not feel so free were they to sign their names to them.

So the moral is—we don't print anything you wouldn't sign your name to, and don't sign your name to anything we wouldn't print.

During the next few weeks there will appear in the Lumberjack a series of questions designed to stimulate thought on problems in various fields, and to determine the general consensus of opinion at Humboldt. The results of each set will be published in the Lumberjack the following week. If more than 5 questions are desired each week, put a note to this effect at bottom of ballot.

Check the desired answer. More than 1 check may be employed. Example: a combination of A and B may be desired in number two. Put ballots in Lumberjack box in hall.

- What do you think of capital punishment?
 - A Should be abolished
 - B Should be used only in flagrant cases of crime
 - C Should be used even more than at present
- What of human sterilization?
 - A Should be compulsory in hospitals for the insane
 - B Should be compulsory in all Federal and state prisons, such as San Quentin and Alcatraz
 - C Should be employed on the basis of physical and mental health as determined by a special board of physicians
 - D Definitely should never be used
 - E
- What is Hitler?
 - A A definite enemy to world peace
 - B Best for Germany at the present time
 - C Leader of a coming world-wide movement for dictatorships, much as the U. S. led in the movement for democracy
 - D
- Would you support the U. S. in a war of aggression — example: if U. S. should attack Mexico over her stand on seizure of foreign-owned oil fields?
 - A Yes
 - B No
 - C
- In case the U. S. should be involved in a war, do you favor government conscription of capital to do away with the profits motive on the part of manufacturers of war supplies (assuming they may promote war)?
 - A Yes
 - B No
 - C

CAMPUS COMMENTATOR

Last week there for awhile, we thought that Spring had sprung, but alas and alack, we were all slightly fooled.

To begin last week with a bang, the debate between the teams of St. Mary's and HSC took place; at which our speech representatives were the victors. Mr. Jarboe quite stole the show with his "letter" from his sis in San Fran, which he refused to read. Following the labor discussion the visiting debaters were shown a royal time. Bettie McWhorter, Frannie Waters, Elizabeth Wendt, and Lorene Grove were the chosen few who went out with the Gael lads. Bettie, we understand, was with Larry Mana, the prexy of the student body down there in the Moraga Valley, and who, incidentally, is quite a Mana.—Grove definitely floored her friend when she was able to tell him all about himself, having read up beforehand about him in the exchange paper from St. Mary's.

Ah, the inevitable triangle!!!! What would life be without at least one to write about??? This week, it is the little combination of Oliver-Hine-Elmore. The two lads seem to be quite fascinated by the charms of the new-comer, especially Danny who seems to be quite a "tizzie" (to use a word from the "Spring Dance" script). And to top it all, Carol ups and goes to the dance Friday night with "Hugo." La-di-da!

Mystery of the week solved.... Lately we have noticed the little silver football that is bedecking the neck of one Edith Jennings. Upon close inspection the initials of F. C. '36 were noticed. All of which led to the solution that it belonged to Frank Crichton of EH S '36.

Basketball Team Sponsors dance at gym....for the purpose of raising funds to buy sweaters for the squad; and we understand that they have a purty good start. At the dance Thelma Baker was beau brummed by one Mel Robrts, that couple who seem to spend a good deal of their time chatting in the Social Unit. Also, we must make mention of the lovely entrance of Bettie McWhorter. During a girls' tag, she went breezing up to "Snooble" Faust and boom down she went, right at his feet. she blames it on the very slippery floor. The orchestra certainly made a very fine appearance with their white mess jackets, red buttoniers swlegant music, and such, in fact they sounded most professional and Benny Goodman-Ish.

Crack of the week....Last Friday, in English A, Miss Ballew asked Danny McClure to write a parenthetical expression on the board; whereupon Mr. McClure wrote: "Mary, my mother, is ill." "But that isn't a parenthetical phrase" exclaims Miss Ballew. And up pipes Dan "Sure it is: Mary is my mother;" (parent hetical)

C. E. S. Students Present Play At Assembly Thurs.

A play, "The Tongue-Cut Sparrow" was presented at the regular Collage Elementary school assembly last Thursday by the fourth grade pupils.

The third grade presented "A Study of Japan" under the direction of Mrs. Helen Selvege, Elementary school room teacher. Dances by Violet Susan, student teacher. "A study of the Zoo" was presented by the second grade under the direction of Carolyn Haley, student teacher. A group of songs were sung by first grade pupils under the direction of Miss Dorothy Williams, Elementary school room teacher. Marthabel Scott furnished music for the occasion.

Givin's Lovers And Villa's Playthings Still Undefeated

The noonday Volleyball Intra Mural League has been the scene of several upsets. In the first place Lozensky's Radicals, the favorites were toppled over by Seidell's Holsteins. So far Givin's Lovers and Villa's Playthings are the undefeated. Larsen's Lunkheads are in the cellar and by the looks of things it will take more than an elevator to get them out of it.

Earl "Doc" Meneweather is in charge of the league. The games are played everyday at 12:15, and "doc" calls the points and serves.

Here is the standing of the teams thus far:

	Won	Lost
Givin's Lovers	2	0
Villa's Playthings	2	0
Seidell's Holsteins	2	1
Lozensky's Radicals	1	1
Falk's Irrelevants	1	1
Larsen's Lunkheads	0	3

Tennis Tournament Now In Full Swing

With the beams of old man sol the asphalt courts have been arenas of action almost resembling the Colosseum of Rome in the time of the gladiators.

The men tennesters have been divided into two divisions. Division 1 includes Chetkovitch, Wilson, Woodcock, Bradley, Cady, Lozensky, Saunderson, and Elmore. Division 11 consist of Ferguson, Davis, A. McGrath, W. Smith, J. McGrath, Wylie, Parker and Walsh.

A few matches have been played in Division 1. Chetkovitch beat Wilson. The match wasn't very exciting because a strong wind was blowing. The upset of the entire playoff was when Cady defeated Elmore 14 to 12. Elmore was no. one man last year.

Woodcock beat Bradley to take his place near the top of the ladder.

Student's Folly Probably Result Of Spring Fever

Sunday, March 27 was a beautiful spring day—a day that brought out the "back-to-nature" instincts of Messrs. Leonard Benaski, Bill Nellist, and Frank Turner. In keeping with this spirit, they discarded the usual "jalopy" and decided to take a healthy, invigorating walk in McKay's woods, about six miles east of Eureka. Upon spying a certain vigorous looking, well-proportioned animal, however, Benaski who is well-known as a horseman of the cossack type, boasted of his equestrian ability and stated that he could ride and subdue the animal like a true buckaroo. Nellist and Turner, however, being good Missouri men, had to be shown and goaded Benaski into the act of mounting the impressive looking creature without the aid of stirrups or saddle. When Benaski picked himself up from the dust of the improvised rodeo grounds, his eye was rapidly acquiring a purplish-black pastel shade, for he had been kicked none-too-gently on the left optic after he had been catapulted from the animal during one of its wild gyrations. Surprisingly enough, Benaski did not bemoan his fate, rather he thanked the stars, that he had not been the victim of the other end of the vicious creature. The point is, the animal just wasn't that kind of a kitty; the animal was of the male bovine type, and obviously had been kept clear of the human touch. Benaski to this day says that walking is good exercise and that he will never attempt to throw the bull again (at least not literally.)

Wordsworth Lovers Saunter In Woods Reading His Works

In connection with their study of William Wordsworth, the great nature-loving poet, the class in English 56B took a walk through the woods behind the campus and read their favorite selection from his poetry.

Led by Mrs. Elma Folsom, the walking enthusiast of the faculty, the class set off promptly at 12:45 Friday afternoon. After the straggling members of the class caught up, they started up the trail until they found a moss-covered log which they sat on, while they read their poems. This left them time for an exhilarating jaunt to the summit with just time to make it back to the college for the next period's classes.

They came back rather weary, and panting a bit, but refreshed by their communion with nature.

Social Security Class Hears G. A. Burkhead Speak

George A. Burkhead, manager of the Social Security Board in Eureka, stated that more than 37,000,000 workers' records were kept both numerically and alphabetically by that board, when speaking before the Social Security class and visitors at Humboldt College recently.

Dr. Homer P. Balabanis introduced Mr. Burkhead who spoke on "Administration of Old Age Security" and answered questions asked on the subject.

Mr. Burkhead gave figures which illustrated that the benefits received at the age of sixty-five from insurance payments under the Social Security Act are based on earnings and payments made during the time before one is sixty-five and that if the person entitled to such insurance payments should die before reaching the age of sixty-five his estate would be reimbursed for the benefit for which he was entitled.

Mr. Burkhead stated that the Social Security Board in Eureka covers the counties: Humboldt, Del Norte, Trinity, and Tahama. He recommended that one read the book, "Social Security Act In Operation" to become well versed on the subject of Social Security.

Boil It In Oil

Dear Editor:

Whether this is printed or not, makes no difference to me.

In regards to your column, Boil It In Oil, which is written mostly by students, it seems to me that these articles should be signed. If a student who writes one of these articles doesn't have gumption enough to sign his or her name, then that article ought not to be printed.

The person who signs his or her name to an article is thought of a lot more than the one who beats around the bush trying to criticize different subjects.

Chinese Student

Japanese are sending bombing aeroplanes to pour death upon innocent people and to destroy their homes, their industrial plants, and their institutions of mercy and learning. The ruthless Japanese militarists especially devote themselves to the deliberate destruction of Chinese cultural enterprises. They not only have destroyed Chinese schools, but have revised Chinese textbooks and suppressed lawful Chinese publications as well. All these are done with one object, namely, the destruction of Chinese culture of 5000 years. Moreover, Japan has set at naught the rights and interests of all other Powers and defied the whole world which has by common agreement renounced war as an instrument of national policy. Facts prove that the Japanese militarists desire for conquest is insatiable.

Japan's aggressions in China have followed two tactics; one known as 'gulfing like a whale', the other as 'nibbling like a silk-worm.' The process of nibbling is slow and surreptitious, and so it cannot afford her with full of satisfaction. Then she is now gulping instead of nibbling Chinese territory. By force of violence, Japan has occupied many cities like Shanghai, Nanking, Hangchow, Tsingtao and Tsinan. Now she carries out her design of conquering the line of Tientsin and Pukow, and then she will push the southward invasion to Wuchang and Hankow, or to Canton until she has subdued the whole of China.

Our armed resistance against Japan has now entered the eighth month. We will resist the invader's attacks to the last of our ability and will continue to defend ourselves even to the last man to the last inch of our territory. Whatever may be our sacrifice, our determination will not be shaken. We are fighting not only for our own liberty and existence and for the preservation of our own sovereignty and national integrity, but also for the sanctity of international treaties as well as for the common security of all nations.

I firmly believe that we will win the final victory. Let me mention briefly some reasons:—First, our leader, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek teaches us that although our military preparedness is behind others, yet our revolutionary spirit could overcome this handicap. From historical lessons we know that the establishment of a new state cannot be achieved in a short time. The more numerous the obstacles, we encounter, the richer will be the harvest of victory. In the second place, we clearly realize the fact that the deeper the enemy penetrates into the interior, the more passive position he will find himself in, because all of our people have determined to pursue a tenacious resistance everywhere. Then, how could Japan occupy forty million square miles of Chinese territory and conquer four hundred million Chinese people? What an enormous army she would have to place in the field. Finally, our long armed resistance will cause the downfall of the Japanese militarism. We know that Japan depends on the foreign trade. Since the Sino-Japanese War was aroused, she has wasted much money and especially the Japanese capitalists suffer most. After a half year or one year of our resolute resistance, I believe that the time must come when Japan's finance and her military strength will be completely exhausted. In your letter which you

Dance To Climax Work Day Projects

As a part of the work day program a dance will be held Friday night April 22 to welcome the Alumni who are holding their spring banquet that evening, as well as to provide a grand finale to Work Day activities.

The student body and the Alumni are anticipating a successful evening as the project is being undertaken by the dormitory girls headed by Jayn Harville. With the aim of making this dance the best of the year, no admission is to be charged.
