Council Cancels Its Retreat To Benbow Inn

The Executive Student Council was forced to cancel its scheduled retreat to Benbow Inn last week-end due to the lack of participation on the part of its members caused by conflicting activities.

Council tentatively rescheduled the retreat for May 10 at its weekly meeting in Council Chambers last Tuesday.

ASB president Jack Turner stated that he regretted the cancellation of the Benbow Retreat because he thought it would benefit student government to hold such an event.

However he did say that he feels that the newly scheduled retreat, which is scheduled to be held locally, will benefit student government if council members support it.

He also stated that the business on the agenda for the Benbow retreat will be aired at the May 10 retreat.

In addition to this business, President Siemens, Dr. Karshner, Dr. Morrison, and Jim Cunningham are expected to attend the retreat and are expected to speak to council about administration and student problems.

When asked the question about whether the ASB lost the $100.00 it had deposited at Benbow Inn, Turner replied by saying that "as far as I know, we will get our money back."

The money for the rescheduled retreat will come from ASB funds if the retreat is held.

As for the schedule of business at the May 10 retreat, it will consist of lunch, business, refreshments, and dinner.

Those eligible to attend the retreat are the newly elected student representatives and current council members.

Possible sites for the retreat include Bella Vista Inn, Eureka Inn or on campus.

5th Annual Festival of Arts Schedules Many Programs

The Fifth Annual Festival of the Arts will start today, May 1, and run through May 17, according to Fine and Applied Arts Chairman, Leland Barlow.

"The purpose of the annual Festival of the Arts," remarked Mr. Barlow, "is to foster on the campus and in the community an appreciation and understanding of the Arts."

Except for the Brown-Schlichter Dancers, which will cost ASB card holders 50c, all events during the Festival will be free to card holders.

The program of events will include:

May 1, 2 — The Festival will feature the play "Pirates of Penzance," a melodramatic opera by Gilbert and Sullivan in the Sequoia Theater at 8:30 p.m. The play is under the co-direction of Mr. Barlow and Dr. John Pauley. Admission is $1.50 for adults and 50c for children.

May 4 — Mrs. Joan Mills, music teacher, will hold a piano recital at 8:15 p.m. in the Sequoia Theater. Mrs. Mills was featured soloist in the Feb. 13 performance of the HSC Symphony Concert.

May 9 — The Brown Schlichter Dancers of Oakland will perform at 8:15 p.m. in the Sequoia Theater. "This Modern Dance Group features the fine dancing of eight females and one male," remarked Mr. Barlow. "This group is highly recommended and is getting an excellent reputation."

"The leaders of the group Mr. Schlichter and Trisha Brown are both excellent dancers," said Mr. Barlow. "Trisha Brown teaches at Mills College and danced in New York before coming west. Mr. Schlichter danced with Jose Limon's Dancers for three years." Admission is $1 for adults and 50c for ASB card holders and children.

May 10 — A combined Madrigal Singers and Band Concert will be featured in the Sequoia Theater at 8:15 p.m. The Madrigal Singers will be directed by Mr. Dale Warland. Dr. David Smith will direct the Green and Gold Concert Band in the combined concert. Admission is free.

May 11 — "Art-in-Action," a series of exhibits by students and faculty, will be featured both in the Art Building and Jenkins Hall Room 102 from 7 to 9 p.m. The exhibit will feature painting, drawing, sculpture, pottery, photography, and crafts.

May 12 — Mr. Frank V. de Bellis will speak in the Sequoia Theater at 8:15 p.m. Mr. Bellis has chosen as his topic "The Early Book". In this lecture, Mr. Bellis will trace some history of printing, especially as that regards books. Mr. Bellis will also have part of the collection he donated to the California State College System exhibited on various parts of the campus.

May 13 — The second part of "Art-in-Action" will be featured from 1 to 4 p.m. in the Art Building and Pottery Studio.

May 11-13 — In the College Commons from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. will be an exhibit of Industrial Arts Projects under the coordination of Mr. Ernest Bednar. Admission to the three day exhibit is free to all.

May 14 — The Dorothy Kerr Poetry Award Luncheon will be featured in the College Commons at noon. This program will include both lunch and presentation of cash awards to winners of the annual Kerr Poetry competition.

Also there will be an Oral Interpretation Program at 8:15 p.m. in the Sequoia Theater. This program, under the direction of Mr. Ron Young, will feature student readings. The topics chosen for

Forestry Students Attend Western Conclave in Arizona

Thirteen Humboldt State College forestry students are attending the Association of Western Forestry Clubs Annual Conclave this week in Flagstaff, Arizona.

The week long event is being held this year on the campus of Arizona State College and features as its theme "Recreation Today".

Part of the activities at this year's event includes tours of the Grand Canyon and other recreation spots in Northern Arizona.

At the conclave itself, seminars will be given on such topics as Fire Control, Curriculum, and related subjects pertaining to club

Two-Year Limit On Song Queens Upheld Tuesday

Student Executive Council upheld a motion passed in May 1962 placing a two-year limit on holders of yell leaders and song queen positions.

The two-year limit was brought before council after Miss Andy Roccaforte was selected last week in cheer and yell leader tryouts as head song queen. Miss Roccaforte had previously served as song queen the past two years.

ASB president Jack Turner said, "It is a just rule. She may be the most capable and wonderful song queen but it should remain an honor."

One member said "Andy should be the most capable, she has had two years experience. Some one else should have the chance."

Miss Sherryl Waits moved to rescind the 1962 decision but failed to receive the required two-thirds majority vote.

Miss Waits then moved to allow Miss Roccaforte to stay as song queen since she was not aware of the ruling when she tried out for the position. However presiding officer Bill Robinson refused to allow the motion since the question had just been voted on.

Miss Waits then called for a vote to override Robinson's decision. The chair's decision stayed when Miss Waits' proposal failed to pull a clear majority.

Chuck Freitas resigned as editor of the Lumberjack to spend more time preparing himself for his new office as student body president. Dale Potts was appointed on Freitas's and journalism advisor Harold Knox's approval. Potts officially moves into the editorship on May 4.

Turner explained that he had canceled last week's retreat at Benbow Inn because he didn't feel the expense was justified for the small number of people who indicated they would attend. Council set up May 10 as a possible alternative date.

Lumberjack Enterprises asked council to formulate a policy forbidding an off-campus organization to do any selling on campus, particularly in the CAC. The legislative body tabled the discussion until the retreat.

Forestry Club's Yearbook Sale

"The Annual Ring," the official Forestry Club yearbook, went on sale last week according to Carl Yee, staff photographer for the yearbook.

This year's edition is dedicated to Mrs. Ruth Elliot, Natural Resources Division secretary, for the example she has set with her pleasant personality and inspiration that she has given to many forestry students.

Editor of the publication this year is Ron Gillespie. His Business staff includes Ned Simmons, Charles Shay, Ed Walker, Jim Winfrey, Ben Beale, Brooks Sibley, and Bob Bellmer.

Others on the staff include Glenn Zane, John Abbott, Jerry Jensen, Carl Yee, and Bob Zamboni.

Advisors for the publication are Henry Froehlich and Dr. Harry V. Wiant Jr.

"The Annual Ring" feature articles by faculty members from the Natural Resources Division, students currently enrolled in school, here, and former HSC forestry graduates.

Funds for this year's edition came from the Forestry Club treasury and from private donations from the various Forest Industries of this area.

New Scholarships to Aid Students

"A scholarship for every tenth student" is the stated desire of Dr. Cornelius Siemens as well as the Faculty Scholarship Committee under the leadership of Miss Kate Buchanan, scholarship chairman.

In an interview centered around scholarships, Dr. Siemens commented that for the past five to eight years no special effort has been made to increase the number of scholarships available to HSC students.

However, since Dr. Siemens feels that the availability of scholarships attracts the better and often the best students, Humboldt's 50th Anniversary year was chosen as a time to stress the importance of new scholarships.

In view of the above, a slogan, "50 for 50" was selected to honor Humboldt's Golden Jubilee year—meaning "50 scholarships in recognition of the school's 50 year lifetime."

A two man committee, Dr. Siemens and Miss Buchanan, decided to campaign for new scholarships, but found that they merely had to "mention and explain the need and process of selecting scholarship recipients, and the responses began coming in."

Two records in community response were set during Jubilee year —range of donors and frequency.

As Dr. Siemens said, "We are proud, in fact, to point out two records in community response—the wide range of donors and the frequency—an average of one new scholarship per week was established during the entire Anniversary year, with our own Alumni Association the first to respond."

As a result, HSC now has approximately 200 scholarships with 59 new ones added—nine over the "50 for 50" goal.

Dr. Siemens explained that in order for ten per cent of the student body to have a scholarship, 250 scholarships should be had. He attributed the lag in scholarships to the rapid increase in enrollment and pointed out that when 1,000 students were enrolled there were 100 scholarships — one for every tenth student.

Dr. Siemens admitted that one scholarship for every tenth student is a "high ratio," but a "worthy goal"—one that would benefit any college—public or private.

Much can be said about the requirements, selections, benefits, and variety of scholarships.

Generally speaking about requirements, any student with the specified grade point can apply for one of Humboldt's many scholarships.

The variety extends from special interests and pursuits, such as music or science, but specifically the applicants' need and scholarship are taken into consideration above all else, as the majority of scholarships are a combination of both.

One HSC scholarship's only requirement is that the applicant be of German descent.

Benefits extend to both the donor and recipient. As Dr. Siemens stated, the donor feels "genuine pleasure" and receives a "reward of life" when donating a scholarship, witnessing and often personally meeting the recipient.

Selection of scholarship recipients is decided upon by a faculty committee under Dean Buchanan. The evaluation is both objective and subjective with deserving students taken into consideration as well as those who best fit the scholarships available.

Names of the 59 donors and the number of scholarships given if more than one are: Allstate Foundation; American Association of University Women, Eureka Branch, 2; Don and Hazel Anderson; Music; Arcata Council PTA Units, Arcata Woman's Club, Beta Sigma Phi.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

Dear Editor,

I feel it's about time someone commented on the so-called journalism that is being produced by the Lumberjack. In the past weeks I have seen what could be termed "yellow journalism" or what is worse, "personal journalism."

May I be more specific. Two weeks ago you came out with a special edition which should have been titled "Turner's Quotations." This special edition presented only one side of the picture for student representation. No where in this four-page special edition did I see views of the opposition to student representation on committees of the college.

Secondly, April 10, you ran a story that told of Lumberjack's winning seventh place in the state at an annual Press Conference. You hardly mentioned the fact that the Sempervirens, our yearbook, won first place in the conference for best yearbook in the state.

Both these examples, are instances of unethical journalism. Apparently your policy is to feature material that is best beneficial to the Lumberjack and members of the Lumberjack staff.

Now if I remember correctly journalists are supposedly trained to be objective, at least as objective, as humanly possible. These two instances, are not in my humble opinion examples of objective reporting.

Maybe the ignorance of journalism ethics on the part of the staff could be an explanation here, but what of the advisor, does he not know a bias story when he reads one?

I fully realize that the above opinions may be viewed by some to be my personal attack on the journalism department. But what I desire to accomplish by this letter is to promote, the objective reporting of all news items whether the subject be friend or foe.

The pen, is of course, mightier than the sword and apparently many members of the Lumberjack have just become aware of this and are attempting to benefit as much as possible before the pen runs out of ink!

Editor's Note: We are amazed at how much you have learned since semester break.

PIN CAMP

The purpose of Frosh Camp is to orientate at least 200 incoming freshmen on social life, study habits and adjustment to college life here at Humboldt. For the group of counselors in 1964 that is going to be a real tough job, because next year's counselors are inadequate on all three grounds.

The three people who selected this year's counselors consist of one DZ, two DSP's, with the advice of another DSP and the advisor to the TKE's. The result is that the counselors are not representative of our college. Nine of the fourteen girls are affiliated with DZ, while six and three of the boys are affiliated with DSP and TKE respectively. This means that they will have such a limited knowledge of our campus as a whole, that they will not be able to effectively represent and inform freshmen of HSC life.

New light is shed on the selection of the counselors when one considers the following facts about the lopsided group. One girl was excluded from the group simply because of personal prejudice, which the selection committee expressed openly, even though she was one of the most active freshman and has a great deal of enthusiasm. On the other hand, one DZ was chosen as a counselor even though she didn't even bother to apply. In addition to this prejudice and bias, two DSP's and one DZ don't have the traditionally qualifications chosen even though they fying two point g.p.a.

These are the counselors who are going to influence those 200 freshmen during their first week of college. They are the ones who are going to tell the freshmen of social life, of study habits, and adjusting to HSC college life. Well, good luck to the counselors on their job. But moreover, good luck to the poor freshmen who think this is what college is going to be like! Because, if they listen to their counselors they are going to miss a lot at HSC. That is, if they manage to stay in college.

In conclusion, I would like to quote one of next year's counselor's after she attended the first counselor meeting. "I was shocked by all the bright frat pins around me! Almost everyone had one! After attending Frosh Camp I wonder how many freshmen will feel they will be in the "in-group" if they pledge to pledge. I feel a lot will be misled next year, many due to Frosh Camp, the institution which is supposed to set you on the right track.

Editor:

There is underground activity going on at Humboldt State. The following statistics prove that partiality is being shown and may prove destructive to the very foundation of this college.

There are 10 Presbyterians, 8 Catholics, 5 Methodists, 3 Mormons and 1 Buddhist, all in Frosh Camp. What makes this so significant? Well students one of the directors of Frosh Camp is a Presbyterian! This is definitely outrageous but there is much more. 16 members of Frosh Camp actually sit in the cafeteria together and attend the same parties.

8 of the counselors have worn bermudas to class. Would they, could they, force this type of dress on everyone?

Many members of the Student Council are Roman Catholic as is the new Student Body President. Could this be subversion in its true form?

Students, Faculty, rise up and stop this drive to take over the campus. Keep your freedom of speech and right to vote and remember, only you can prevent forest fires! !

(s) Name Withheld

Dear Sir,

We the steering committee of Frosh Camp, 1964, feel that the talk presently circulating on campus concerning the selection of Frosh Camp Counselors is entirely unfounded.

The selection committee was composed of Martha Roberts, Director; Rodger Schmitt and Dale Potts, Co-Directors; Mr. Jim Cunningham of the Counseling Department, Faculty Advisor; and Chuck Freitas, Last year's Frosh Camp Director.

Our opinion was based upon the fact that selections were made not in regard to what group one belonged to, but rather upon the individual's capabilities and how we felt these individuals could represent the college student body as a whole.

When has it become a practice to penalize an individual purely because he or she happens to belong to an organization that you yourself are not a member of or affiliated with?

There are many organizations whose members participate in student activities and, heretofore, not one word has been said in a way of complaint to these organizations. Why should it start now?

We did not in any way lower the Frosh Camp ideal by our selec-

"In This Corner"

By STEVE PEITHMAN

THE BOARD ARE ALL PHINQUES!

Hey, gang, here we are again with this week's diatribe (from the Latin diatriba, a learned discussion) on some selected aspect of college life. It seems that our latest crisis arises out of a highly praiseworthy attitude of saving money. However, like turning off the lights at the White House, or removing a certain air control tower, this matter proves to be rather false economy.

What we are speaking about now is the "remoting" of the campus prose and poetry magazine, the TOYON, which means bluntly, that the student Board of Finance had denied funds for next year's magazine, thus neatly pulling the rug out from under the many student writers on campus who contribute material for the magazine.

The denial of funds came during that annual orgy of economization known as "Preparing the Budget." The Board of Finance, bless their honest, efficient hearts, admitted that none had ever seen or read the magazine—but that didn't stop them from labeling it "not valuable" and pulling out ASB funds which have supported the magazine for years.

Come now, fellows... not valuable to whom? Since you've never read it, it certainly hasn't been too valuable to you—of course we doubt you ever read anything outside of what's assigned in your classes. But didn't it ever occur to you that there are SOME people on this campus to whom that magazine is very important? It is worthwhile because it not only stimulates writers to produce, but it helps those who get material published by placing their work before a critical audience.

You say we don't have enough money? Yes, it must be hard to scrape up money with the ASB sending student council members off to Benbow for a weekend, and financing junkets around the state for various people, and then of course the nasty fact that the TOYON loses money. Tsk, tsk, tsk. That IS really terrible — of course so does nearly everything else the ASB sponsors, with the notable exception of football. Isn't there any kind of profit in the Board of Finance's mind beside MONEY? Actually the TOYON profits all those connected with it.

Of course we realize it would be insane to try to create a hothouse of culture here, but we do think that a little less thought to penny-pinching and a little more thought to the students the Board is supposed to be serving would be in order. It seems highly probable that if we could scrape away the Board's Silas Marner exterior, we would find that underneath beat hearts of solid granite.

By the way, dear Board, if you think someone is mad at you, you're darn right!

C.U. Activities Reaps Letters Of Appreciation

The conservation unlimited club continues to instigate projects and activities; building the moral of all wildlife students, as well as that of the whole campus in general.

Recently, in an attempt to widen the wildlife interests of youngsters, the club took it upon itself to conduct a tour for the upcoming generation and show them around the fish and game section of campus.

Numerous groups of cub scouts, campfire girls, and other elementary school children have recently been invited and shown the facilities and wildlife that we have at HSC.

Letters of appreciation were received by the club from a number of their second and third-grade guests and on the average they read as such:

"Dear mister C. U.,

Thank you for showing us the animals. I am glad I met Mr. and Mrs. Peacock and all of their children. I think Charlie the Fox is the funniest of all."

Yell Leader Competition Nets Ten Positions

The 1964-65 Songqueens and Cheerleaders were recently selected at a tryout session, according to Richard Hale, director of this year's competition. The students chosen as cheerleaders were Dave Plessas, Ron Sakamoto, Doug Brown, Don Ruben, and Bernice Thraillkale. The new Songqueens are Linda Edwards, Shirley Nicholson, Jan Isackson, Andy Roccaforte, and Pat Graves. Various routines used for tryouts by the songqueens, were "Walk Don't Run," "Sweet Georgia Brown," "Little Brown Jug," and "Hot Pastrami." The two yells used for cheerleader tryouts were HUMBOLDT and Jacks, according to Linda Edwards. "The only requirements for tryouts were a 2.0 grade point, and a lot of pep," said Linda. The judges of the cheerleaders included Larry Henderson, Pat Plessas, and Rick Stromberg.

Those for songqueens were Dr. David Smith, band-director, Shirley Hall, and Julie Fulkerson. According to Hale, the turn out for cheerleaders and songqueens was very good.

The Association of Western Forestry Clubs is composed of all Forestry schools west of the hundredth meridian.

The members are Arizona State College, Colorado State University, Montana State University, Oregon State, University of British Columbia, University of California and the University of Idaho.

Other members are Utah State University, Washington State University, Bakersfield College and Humboldt State.

The purpose of the conclave is to bring together the membership schools for an exchange of ideas, fellowship and Inter Collegiate competition in such events as bucking, chopping and other field events according to delegate Carl Yee.

In previous years, Humboldt State has taken several honors in the conclave. Last year the 'Jacks' placed fourth in the competition events at the conclave which was held here.

The previous year the conclave was held at Utah State University and Humboldt State came home with first place in the competition events.

The delegates to the conclave are scheduled to return to the Hill-top Campus Sunday.

"Pirates" A Delightful Experience

The Pirates of Penzance, Gilbert and Sullivan's melo-dramatic opera, continues its full-throated romp through the frivolities of Victorian dedication to Duty tonight and tomorrow.

The almost plotless Sequoia Masque presentation boasts the largest cast and most enthusiastic audience of the year.

Twenty-one, or almost twenty-one years before, a dull-witted nurse named Rues experienced semantic difficulties and apprenticed young hero Fredrick to atterder-hearted band of pirates (instead of pilots).

Released from apprenticeship on his twenty-first birthday, the youth is ready to serve his Queen (destroy the pirates) and seek his love. Being the only woman Fredrick has seen, Rues almost has him convinced that she is the fairest when the matron's plans are shattered by the arrival of some twenty bouncing maidens.

Thenceforth the plot peaks in occasionally to interrupt the flow of lilting voices volleyed back and forth under the capable direction of Prof. Leland Barlow. The artful solos are interspersed with bursts from the entire cast, almost fifty strong, joyously rounding off some refreshing tidbits of nonsense.

The melodious spoof of Victorian adherence to duty above all, or at least above reason, carries its laughing theme to the last detail. From the cupidons and flowers decorating the program to the frivolous, complicated vocal passages, the lively musi-farce is Victorian all the way.

Some of the principal parts are double-cast. Opening night's Fredrick (Donald Jacobson) was suitably bright-eyed and delivered some of his vocal passages with a singular brilliance.

Steve Peithman was "the very model of a modern Major-General," and delivered the tongue-twisting verbosity of his opening solo with ease.

The vibrant voices of sopranos Marianne Haynes (Edith) and Gale Wilcox (opening night's heroine, Mabel) offered striking contrast to the harmonies of the chorus. Miss Wilcox's smile, ease and gracious, capped the infectious gaiety of the entire cast.

The light satire was interspersed with the sheer funniness of seven cops, dressed old-style and highlighted by one misfit, a bungling serious-faced short fellow whose slapstick raised delighted laughter.

Costumes, by Mrs. Ethelyn Pauley, were bright and extravagant. The flouncing, highwaisted dresses of the chorus of young girls were eye-catching in a rainbow of colors.

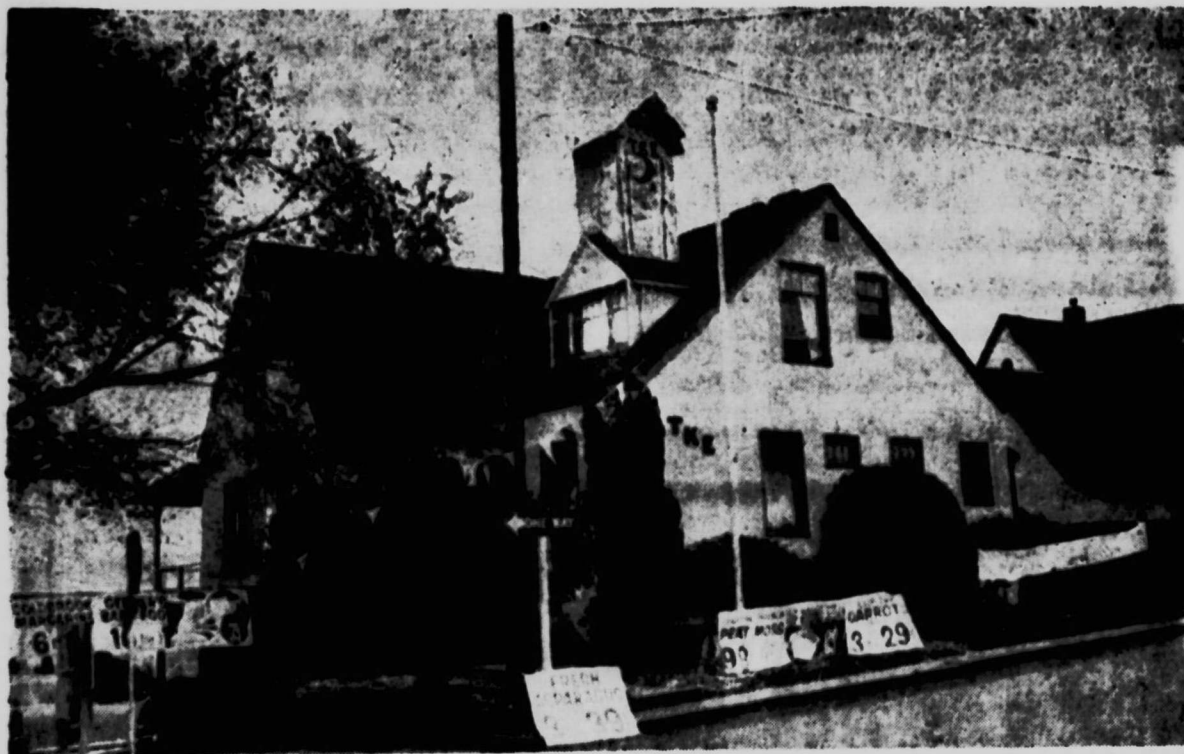

Settings by Richard Rothrock were equally impressive. The first act's irregular stair-step rocks rendered the color and spectacle for multi-level view.

Steve Peithman illustrates the model Major-General

Has a supermarket subsidy made its appearance on campus? Has an Outhouse salesman left one of his demonstrator models for all to see? Or could it be that Tau Kappa Epsilon's spring pledge class has performed another of its midnight raids?

The Greek Way

By BILL HUFFMAN

News is light this week from the various Greek organizations.

The salesman from the Burr Patterson and Auld Company visited the Delta Sigma Phi fraternity early last week.

His company is the official jeweler for the fraternity. He was here to take orders from Delta Sig members for pins, rings and sweat-shirts.

The only activity around the Delta Sig house this week is that it is participating actively in Intramural Athletics. It currently is leading the Intramural team standings.

The Delta Zeta's had lots of activity last week as they had two social functions.

The first was Sunday as the DZ's had breakfast in the College Commons. The breakfast was for Delta Zeta's, their mothers and sorority alumni.

Last Tuesday the DZ's had a

"Wig Party" as part of its standards program according to Susan Leavitt, publicity.

Tau Kappa Epsilon pledges went through their Health & Happiness weekend last week with a numerous amount of activities.

The pledges spent most of their time working around the Teke house and cleaning up the Little League Ball Parks in the community.

Last Thursday the pledges spent the wee hours of the morning decorating the Teke house with signs and an outhouse which was placed on top of the chapter house.

Net Men Wind Up Dual Competition With Nevada

Coach Larry Kerker's Lumberjack tennis team will be out for a share of first place in the Far Western Conference in the 'Jack's final dual meet of the season tomorrow.

The Humboldt netmen host the University of Nevada at 10 a.m. on the Arcata High School courts.

The Lumberjack squad owns a 4-2 mark in league play and trail first place Chico State by one full game. Chico lost their first FWC meet of the season last weekend when they were defeated 4-3 by Cal State of Hayward.

The FWC team championships will be determined next weekend at Davis.

If Humboldt is to win a share of the dual meet top spot they must defeat Nevada; and Chico, who faces rugged Sacramento State, must lose. Coach Kerker feels that Sacramento has a good chance of upsetting Chico.

Kerker rates tomorrow's match with Nevada as a toss-up.

The players competing for the Lumberjacks against Nevada will be Abbott Squire, Steve Clapp, Dennis Oakes, Bill Davis, and either Craig Thurston, Lee Turner, or Mick Miller.

The Lumberjacks suffered their second defeat of the season last Saturday when they were defeated by San Francisco State 4-3. Humboldt had run up a four-match win streak before meeting the Gators.

Squire took the first match for the 'Jacks as he defeated Fred White 6-4, 6-0.

Roger Kim evened the match at 1-1 as he defeated Oakes 6-1, 0-6, 6-2, but Humboldt quickly regained the lead again as Clapp defeated Jim Gordon 6-3, 5-3, 6-4.

The Gators tied it up again as Mike Schneider defeated Humboldt's Thurston 6-0, 6-0, but the 'Jacks pulled ahead 3-2 when Miller upset the Gator's Marty Kupps 6-3, 7-9, 6-1.

All Humboldt needed was a split in the doubles to win the meet and a tie for first in the dual meet competition, but the Gators swept the doubles play and won the meet.

White and Gordon nudged Squire and Clapp, 3-6, 7-5, 10-8 and Kim and Schneider defeated Oakes and Miller, 6-4, 4-6, 6-2.

From The President's Desk

A home to home football contract has been signed with the University of British Columbia.

The Lumberjacks will travel to Vancouver, B.C. for the first game on Oct. 9, 1965, and the U.B.C. will come to our campus on Sept. 24, 1966, said President Cornelius H. Siemens.

This will be our first international game. The contract is for two years and if everything works satisfactorily, the contract will probably be renewed, the president said.

As the week of final examinations approaches, many students are wondering how "Dead Week" will function this semester. The purpose of "Dead Week", the president said, is to curtail as many campus activities as possible so students and faculty may concentrate on preparations for final examinations.

Quizzes and homework are part of the concentrated effort put forth in order to prepare for the "Moment of Truth", he said.

In summarizing the 50th year, the president had this to say. "Over all it has been an excellent year. We have added over 50 new scholarships to our college.

The student body made a great step forward in revising and passing the new constitution. The government of the students living in the dormitories is as good as can be found anywhere.

The two new off campus housing projects have presented no problems to the college. Student productions of all types have been of the highest quality. They have been better in many respects than have been seen in the past years.

All in all we could class the 50th Anniversary year as one of the best enjoyed on our campus, "the president said.

Making sure you can "Fill it up"...year after year

Our country's demand for petroleum energy will be up 55% in the next 15 years.

Many people think that petroleum is brought out of the ground simply by drilling wells and letting the oil flow out of its own accord.

The fact is, only about 20% of the petroleum in an average field will flow "of its own accord" before the gas pressures give out, and the oil flow stops. If we gave up then, gasoline would not be as plentiful, and the price would be higher.

But, Standard's petroleum engineers don't give up. By supplementing oil field gas pressures with floods of water, gases, detergents, or even controlled fire, they often more than double normal recovery.

These "assisted recovery" methods, developed through years of research, are making new oil fields more productive, and bringing new life to old oil fields. Besides being good business, they lengthen our country's petroleum supply.

This is one of many ways in which Standard, with its large oil reserves in the ground, discharges its responsibility to conserve a vital resource...to keep pace with our country's needs for industry, defense, agriculture...and to make sure you can "Fill it up," year after year.

Planning ahead to serve you better

Varsity Nine Face Gators In Crucial Doubleheader

The Humboldt State baseball squad leaves today for a noon doubleheader with the San Francisco State Gators. The 'Jacks will go into tomorrow's game with the knowledge of the outcome of today's doubleheader between league leading Sacramento State and the University of Nevada.

Sacramento has only dropped one game while Humboldt has been on the lean end of three FWC games.

Dennis Filkins and Bill Wilkinson will handle the mound chores for Humboldt with Jay Dickinson slated for relief duty.

Filkins has run up a 7-2 season mark, collecting three wins and a loss in FWC play and lefty Wilkinson has a 6-2 season record, with a 2-1 FWC mark.

Scott Clow and Frank West will alternate at the catcher position.

Coach Ced Kinzer's infield will be filled with Joe Taylor (.279), Jim Bonomini (.297), Gary Owens (.379), and Joe Sarboe (.297) with Ted Snapp (.307) on hand for utility use.

Kinzer has lined up a slugging outfield with Tom DiMercurio, the team leader with 21 rbi's and a .364 season average, Dave Minor (.323) and Jon Burgess with a .467 conference and .327 season batting average.

Defensive specialist Don Lampe (.263) is available for help in the outfield.

Humboldt swept a pair of games from the Cal Aggies of Davis last

JV Nine Hit By 3 Losses After Winning Twelve

The Junior Jack baseball squad, after going undefeated in its first 12 games this season, has lost their last three games.

The 'Jacks dropped a double header to the Chico State Junior Varsity last Saturday at Chico and lost their first game to a high school team in nearly two years on April 22 when they were defeated by Arcata High.

The Junior Jacks have their next game this Sunday when they host the Blue Lake Chicks on the College Baseball Field at 1 p.m. On Tuesday the 'Jacks play Eureka High in a 4 p.m. game at Albee Stadium.

The Chico State Wildkittens handed the Jacks a double whipping when they beat them 9-8 and 16-8 in the Junior Jacks first intercollegiate games in at least five years.

The Junior Jacks jumped to a quick 6-0 lead in the first game, but couldn't hold it as Chico scored twice in the bottom of the second, once in the third, added another in the sixth, and finished off with five in the last of the seventh.

Shortstop Dennis Alfaro had three hits in four trips to lead a 12 hit Junior Jack attack, but six errors proved to be Humboldt's downfall.

In the nightcap, Chico scored six times in the sixth and eight times in the eighth to notch their second win.

Fencers Foiled By Cal, Place 2nd in Tourney

Humboldt State's Fencing team took a down-to-the-wire second place finish in the Northern California Intercollegiate Fencing Association Championships at San Francisco State last weekend.

The 'Jacks kept the eventual winners, the University of California at Berkeley Bears, busy throughout the Saturday afternoon finals as they defeated San Francisco City College 5-4, Stanford University 6-3, Napa Junior College 9-0 and San Francisco State 7-2.

'Jack Louis Williamson posted 12 victories in 15 bouts to share the limelight for individual honors and teammates Dave Littleton and Neil Gilchrist won 11 and 7 bouts respectively.

'Jacks In Final Dual Meet Against Powerful Wolfpack

Humboldt's track and field team hosts the late blooming University of Nevada Wolfpack squad tomorrow on the Redwood Bowl oval with the field events slated to begin at 11 a.m.

The Wolfpack has gained considerable prestige in the FWC track circles as the Nevada squad has developed slowly, losing to several traditional weak schools as the season started.

However the Renoans have put men in the top ranks of every event since then as they now dominate the top times in the FWC track statistics. Nevada has taken the FWC championship two years in a row.

Humboldt dropped an 89½-55½ decision to the San Francisco State Gators last weekend as Bill Ferlatte broke a school record in the 880 yard run with a 1:56.9 clocking, placing second behind SFCer Bob Dalton timed in 1:56.6. His previous lifetime best was 2:01.

Ferlatte came back with a 9:37.8 victory in the two mile.

Tom Farmer took a double victory for Humboldt with a new stadium and meet record of 45'3½" in the triple jump and a 22'10½" leap in the broad jump.

Humboldt took both hurdle events as L. B. Boydston won the 120-yard highs in :15.4 and Fred Cross eased to a :40.0 clocking in the intermediates.

Nevada is favored in the sprints in tomorrow's meet as they boast a trio of sub ten seconds century men and another trio under :22 in the 220.

Joe Winchel leads the Wolfpack with a :09.8 time in the 100 and Dick McCoy has recorded a :21.4 220 time.

Bill Hook lines up as Humboldt's only possible winner of the season's top performances. The weightman leads the FWC in the discus with a 159'10½" toss and rates third in the shot with a 51'5½" put.

Top Nevada performers include Bud Forman with a 1:54.0 clocking in the 880; Jim Humphrey, :15.0 120 high hurdle timing; Phil Hendrickson, a :39.3 clocking in the intermediate hurdles and 6'4" high jumper Larry Moore.

Seven Mermen Enter Swim Championship

Seven members of the Humboldt swimming team left Wednesday for Sacramento State College for the Far Western Conference Championships which began yesterday and continues through tomorrow.

Coach Phil Sarboe picked Kent Johnson, Steve Moore, Joe Gibson, Larry Coe, Mike Stevens, Dick Early, and Jerry White to compete in the meet which will feature the top swimmers from the five FWC swimming teams.

Johnson, team captain and leading point scorer for the 'Jacks, will compete in the individual medley, the 100 and 200 yard breast-stroke, and the medley relay.

Moore is entered in the 100 and 200 yard backstroke and also the medley relay. Gibson enters the 100 and 200 yard butterfly and the medley relay.

Coe and Stevens each swim in the 50 and 100 yard freestyle and one of them will also anchor the four man medley relay team.

Divers Dick Early and Jerry White are both entered in the one-meter and the three-meter diving competition.

Coach Sarboe rates Early in the diving. Johnson in the individual medley, Moore in the backstroke, and Gibson in the butterfly as his best hopes for a first place.

Sarboe sees a red hot battle for the championship between Chico State and San Francisco State. He also sees a close race for third place between his own Lumberjacks, Sacramento State, and the Cal Aggies.

The Lumberjack squad lost its fourth league meet last Saturday when they were downed by Chico State 65-30. The Lumberjacks ended their season with only one win in FWC action.

In the Chico meet, Early and Moore captured the only first places for the 'Jacks. Early won the diving competition with 181.95 points and Moore swam to a 2:23.6 victory in the 200 yard backstroke.

The outcome of the meet was never in doubt as Chico ran up a 31-3 lead after four events.
