Surrender

Molly The Person

Here I thought
I could fear no foe,
and yet you lure me
out the window
on the harvest moon

I'm here to worship
at your feet
in your lap
through the ripples
washing
upon my shores

I wade
through stardust
and dive
into your song...

synesthesia

As skin to skin
evades distinctions
between yours
and mine

Your fingers
dig
grab
take fistfuls of peach
as though each
was the last
fruit of summer
bite
slurp
drink
each drop of my divinity

The thighs and sighs
of this juicy evening
belong to you

Breakfast

Molly The Person

One of these days
I will make you pancakes

behind blue eyes
surprise
behind the sky
darkness lifts
and you wake
to realize
I'm still next to you
my thigh
your pillow
redemption
for all those rushed afternoons

we lie
wearing
each other's salt
like bed clothes
you pinch me
to see if you're awake
you move
to arise
I move
to arouse you
swollen and saucy
we feast
before breakfast
and then I make you pancakes
