THE SENIOR CLASS

Congratulations to you, the Senior Class for sticking to the business at hand and completing the work for your degree. Many are the more profitable fields which you could have entered during this war period, but it requires courage and forethought to go on and so build for the better world of the future and formation of a just and durable peace.

DRAMA

Tommy and Rosalind console Anna in "Heart of a City"

The fall play, presented in November, was "Heart of a City." It was a stirring drama of the present war with the setting in London, and written by Lesley Storm.

In February the One Act plays were given. They were "Problem Child," by Pauline Best; "Wyoming," by John Wintermute; and "Little Prison," by Geo. M. Savage.

On the nights of April 13, 14, and 15, the student show, called "Hilarities of '43," was presented in the auditorium. Due to an earlier dead-line this year pictures of said show could not be included in this edition of the SEMPER-VIRENS.

P. S.—We made it!

H. S. C. MIXED QUARTET

There's not one of us who hasn't listened enthralled to the beautiful voices of the quartet—Nancy, Jo, Bob and Merrit. They've sung at assemblies, programs and over the radio, and everywhere they go they leave you spell-bound.

MERRIT NEALLE, tenor, JOYCE BRUNER, soprano, NANCY CRANE, alto, ROBERT OLIVEIRA, bass.

MADRIGAL GROUP

C. BOSCH, M. NEALLE, R. OLIVEIRA, MR. FULKERSON, DR. JEFFERS.

Yes, they're good these Humboldt Musicians, riding into the spotlight on waves of sound. The A Capella Choir, Chorus, and Madrigal group entertained a large group with their excellent Christmas concert. Not only can Humboldt boast of a band and an orchestra, but a new group has come into being during the year—that group of solid senders, known as the H. S. C. Swing Band.

Keep it up, all you Maestros!

SPRING CONCERT

At the close of the spring semester last year the combined Music Department presented the Spring Concert. The main part of the program was when the entire group united in the "Rio Grande."

This year it went to the women, and Pat Bartlett took the honors for having the highest individual index. How about it, fellows?

CAMPUS QUEEN

Amid bunnies and Easter eggs and yellow and lavender flowers, vivacious Gilly Negro was crowned Campus Queen of '43, at the Favonians annual Queen's Ball. Pretty Nell Dickson was Maid of Honor, while three other charming Humboldters—Margaret Ackerman, Mary Papini, and Lorraine Hathaway, were attendants. To Queen Gilly and her court of beauties, we say: "Long may they reign!"

Personality and charm—that's Queen Gilly! What other co-ed displays the sunny disposition, charming personality, and enthusiasm that Gilly does?

HILARITIES

The work, and talent, and planning of 145 students went into this show, and it will not be forgotten soon.

The Finale—this superb show was closed with Don Wilson's dramatic "The Yanks Are Coming" and "The Star Spangled Banner" sung by the entire cast and audience.
